

WILSON ALARMED AT NEW YORK OUTLOOK

Fears That Events in This State May Jeopardize Control of Next House.

HE TALKS WITH MITCHELL

Franklin D. Roosevelt Urged as Independent Democratic Candidate for Governor.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—President Wilson within the last day or two has received much information in regard to the New York State political situation, and what he has heard is far from encouraging to the Democratic standpoint.

The Administration is thoroughly alarmed over conditions in New York State, especially because of their effect on the Democratic representation in Congress.

The fear is expressed by some of the President's advisers that the political complexion of the next House of Representatives is likely to be determined by events in New York State, and the outlook now is most doleful.

The President had a half hour talk today with Major Mitchell of New York. Yesterday he saw Dudley Field Malone, Collector of the Port, and Frank L. Polk, National Chairman of the Democratic Party.

While Major Mitchell described his visit at the White House as merely for the purpose of paying his respects, there is no doubt that he gave the President his views on the political situation from the rusion angle.

Room for F. D. Roosevelt.

Mr. Malone, Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Polk were hobnobbing together most of the day, and as a consequence the talk of a movement to push Franklin D. Roosevelt, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, for nomination for Governor as the candidate of the so-called independent Democrats gained new impetus.

The understanding in Washington to-night was that the independents who have been calling at the White House for the last day or two, besides talking Franklin D. Roosevelt for Governor, were suggesting Secretary of the Treasury William G. McAdoo for United States Senator and John A. Hennessy for State Comptroller.

Mr. Mitchell disclaimed any intention to boost or boom anybody, but the language of Mr. Malone and others who have been trooping to the White House within the last day or two clearly indicate an effort on the part of the so-called independents to get a helping hand from the Administration.

If any of these visitors were seeking definite assurances from President Wilson they were disappointed. The President is going to play a watchful and waiting game as regards New York State politics.

Mr. Wilson's friends have told him that he is averse to making an active fight until after the candidate for Governor has been selected.

Some of his advisers have been frank enough to tell him that the situation seems almost hopeless and that the burden on his shoulders will only be the heavier if he attempts to make an active fight until after the candidate for Governor has been selected.

Reports About Sulzer.

The rumors between the so-called independent Democrats and the organization men is only one feature of a situation that is alarming the Administration. Reports reach Washington to the effect that William Sulzer will draw many Democratic votes in the State, and in addition to that there is wide discontent among Democrats in the New York State Congress delegation.

The New York State Representatives are cut clear to the bone over patronage matters of the Democratic State committee, voted in the New York State today, in regard to re-nominating the Washington delegation. Almost to a man they give a fervent amen.

Chairman O'Brien complained that there are between seventy-five and a hundred good offices now being held by Republicans whose terms have expired. The Administration denies that any blame is to be attached to it.

There are now thirty-one Democratic Representatives in Congress from New York State, and the Administration realizes that a big turnover in this delegation in the coming election may coat the Administration control of the House of Representatives.

After his interview at the White House Major Mitchell declined to discuss politics. He acknowledged that his conversation with the President had included some political matters and added:

"About ten days ago, as a reason of numerous misstatements and exaggerations appearing in the newspapers, I found it necessary to make a public statement as to my attitude on all questions of a political character now interesting New York. I think that at that time I made myself very clear on all the points I mentioned. My position has not changed."

"What can you say about the suggested candidacy of Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt for the Democratic nomination for Governor in New York?" was asked.

"That sort of question is covered in my statement" was the laughing reply. "Everything goes right around in a circle and comes right back to the statement."

Major Mitchell with Collector Malone left for New York on the midnight train.

"ADMINISTRATION DISLOYAL"

In-State Postmaster Quits When "Regular Democrats" Are Rejected.

CANANDAIGUA, N. Y., July 21.—Edward E. Bixey, Democratic State committee man for the counties of Yates, Wayne and Ontario, caused a stir in party circles today when he confirmed a rumor that he had resigned as postmaster at East Bloomfield and made public a letter to Postmaster General Hurlock, in which he says that he cannot serve longer under an Administration that is disloyal to the Democratic organization.

Mr. Bixey resigned because the Administration turned down candidates endorsed by the organization for post office positions at Clifton Springs, Florida and Greece, and in their place named men who were supported by anti-organization Democrats, including Thomas M. O'Connor of Auburn. Mr. Bixey was appointed postmaster last Spring.

HIM WANT TO RUN; HIS ANTY-BARNES

Continued from First Page

DECISIONS of the Interstate Commerce Commission

do not affect our GUARANTEED MORTGAGES Netting 4 1/2% per annum LAWYERS MORTGAGE CO RICHARD M. HURD, President Capital & Surplus, $8,750,000 59 Liberty St., N.Y. 184 Mortgage St., Bklyn.

face. This committee may make recommendations to the county committee, but can't decide anything by itself.

QUIT WHITMAN FOR HINMAN. Forty Members of Progressive County Committee Flop.

The forty members of the Progressive county committee who live in the Fifth Assembly District fopped from Charles S. Whitman to Harvey D. Hinman for Governor on Monday night.

When Col. Roosevelt feels that the New York situation is cleared up he will go out to the State to see the expressed purpose of overhauling the like Roosevelt, Pennsylvania, Crane in Massachusetts, Gallinger in New Hampshire and the so-called machine dictators in other States.

When Col. Roosevelt feels that the New York situation is cleared up he will go out to the State to see the expressed purpose of overhauling the like Roosevelt, Pennsylvania, Crane in Massachusetts, Gallinger in New Hampshire and the so-called machine dictators in other States.

Signs of a Revolt.

"A Riot" Over Hinman. One District Leader Predicts.

Revolt against Col. Roosevelt's prospective attempt to line up his party behind Harvey D. Hinman for Governor blazed with sudden fire in a meeting of the Progressive county committee at Terrace garden last night.

If the others of the band in this State feel as these committee men do, and if the Colonel persists in supporting Mr. Hinman, a real rebellion seems inevitable.

When County Chairman Francis W. Bird, giving, he said, his personal opinion, talked from the platform that he was for a "straight Progressive ticket from top to bottom," for the nomination of men who stand squarely on the Progressive platform, there were 150 men in the room. They clapped their hands, then cheered, and as the cheers died they stopped and began to emphasize their delight in Mr. Bird's avowal.

The explosion was quietly introduced by Harry M. Jones, a member of the State Democratic committee from Suffolk and Nassau counties and bitter foe of Tammany Hall, as Collector of Internal Revenue for the First District of New York.

Mr. Jones then points out that up to the time he accepted the directorship and during the six years or more that the Harvester Company has been in operation, he has taken no action against the company.

McDERMOTT RESIGNS HIS SEAT. Involved in Mulhall Charges, He Seeks Vindication.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—James F. McDermott of Illinois, a Democratic member of the House, whose name was mentioned in the Mulhall lobby charges, today resigned as a member of Congress.

Friends of Mr. McDermott say that he preferred to retire from the House rather than be accused for his conduct in transactions which are set forth in the report of the Judiciary Committee, which is scheduled to come up on Thursday.

Science Comes to the Aid of Beauty. Physicians discover that by applying nature's forces used in the processes of nutrition rejuvenation of the wasted tissues of the face can be accomplished and old age defied.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

WARBURG TO APPEAR BEFORE COMMITTEE

Change of Attitude Follows Conference With Senator O'Gorman.

CONFIRMATION IS LIKELY

T. D. Jones, in Letter, Upholds Business Methods of Harvester Company.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—Senators read with interest to-day the news of the conference at White Sulphur Springs, between Senator O'Gorman and Paul M. Warburg. They learned that Mr. Warburg, as the result of that conference, will meet the Senate committee on banking and currency.

There is every evidence that members of the Senate will be glad to have the misunderstanding over the Warburg nomination cleared up, but Senator Weeks and other Republican members of the committee will continue to insist that the committee get information from Mr. Warburg in regard to his qualifications for membership on the Federal Reserve Board.

Other developments in the Federal Reserve situation were the receipt from Thomas D. Jones of Chicago of his reply to the communication addressed to him by the minority members of the Senate Banking and Currency Committee and its subcommittee.

Senator Vandeman made public a long statement giving reasons why he will not vote for the nomination of Mr. Jones.

Administration leaders announced late today that Mr. Jones's case is growing in favor in the Senate and they believe now that he can be confirmed.

Mr. Jones, who is in Wisconsin, wired to Senator Smoot that he never had been in favor of the confirmation of Jones, as he had been reported from time to time.

Non-Partisans Fight Keith, Murphy's FOE. Nassau Association Opposes Man Picked for Revenue Collector.

The Nassau County Association, a non-political good government organization, whose membership includes the wealthiest and most influential citizens of the county, will send to President Wilson to-day a protest against the appointment of Harry P. Keith, a member of the State Democratic committee from Suffolk and Nassau counties and bitter foe of Tammany Hall, as Collector of Internal Revenue for the First District of New York.

Mr. Keith says that the opposition to his nomination is based on the fact that he is a lawyer with an office at 2 Nassau street, Manhattan, and that he is a candidate for the Progressive nomination, nor, I believe, for the Republican nomination.

Mr. Keith says that the opposition to his nomination is based on the fact that he is a lawyer with an office at 2 Nassau street, Manhattan, and that he is a candidate for the Progressive nomination, nor, I believe, for the Republican nomination.

Mr. Keith says that the opposition to his nomination is based on the fact that he is a lawyer with an office at 2 Nassau street, Manhattan, and that he is a candidate for the Progressive nomination, nor, I believe, for the Republican nomination.

Mr. Keith says that the opposition to his nomination is based on the fact that he is a lawyer with an office at 2 Nassau street, Manhattan, and that he is a candidate for the Progressive nomination, nor, I believe, for the Republican nomination.

Mr. Keith says that the opposition to his nomination is based on the fact that he is a lawyer with an office at 2 Nassau street, Manhattan, and that he is a candidate for the Progressive nomination, nor, I believe, for the Republican nomination.

Mr. Keith says that the opposition to his nomination is based on the fact that he is a lawyer with an office at 2 Nassau street, Manhattan, and that he is a candidate for the Progressive nomination, nor, I believe, for the Republican nomination.

Mr. Keith says that the opposition to his nomination is based on the fact that he is a lawyer with an office at 2 Nassau street, Manhattan, and that he is a candidate for the Progressive nomination, nor, I believe, for the Republican nomination.

Mr. Keith says that the opposition to his nomination is based on the fact that he is a lawyer with an office at 2 Nassau street, Manhattan, and that he is a candidate for the Progressive nomination, nor, I believe, for the Republican nomination.

Mr. Keith says that the opposition to his nomination is based on the fact that he is a lawyer with an office at 2 Nassau street, Manhattan, and that he is a candidate for the Progressive nomination, nor, I believe, for the Republican nomination.

Mr. Keith says that the opposition to his nomination is based on the fact that he is a lawyer with an office at 2 Nassau street, Manhattan, and that he is a candidate for the Progressive nomination, nor, I believe, for the Republican nomination.

Mr. Keith says that the opposition to his nomination is based on the fact that he is a lawyer with an office at 2 Nassau street, Manhattan, and that he is a candidate for the Progressive nomination, nor, I believe, for the Republican nomination.

Mr. Keith says that the opposition to his nomination is based on the fact that he is a lawyer with an office at 2 Nassau street, Manhattan, and that he is a candidate for the Progressive nomination, nor, I believe, for the Republican nomination.

Mr. Keith says that the opposition to his nomination is based on the fact that he is a lawyer with an office at 2 Nassau street, Manhattan, and that he is a candidate for the Progressive nomination, nor, I believe, for the Republican nomination.

Mr. Keith says that the opposition to his nomination is based on the fact that he is a lawyer with an office at 2 Nassau street, Manhattan, and that he is a candidate for the Progressive nomination, nor, I believe, for the Republican nomination.

Mr. Keith says that the opposition to his nomination is based on the fact that he is a lawyer with an office at 2 Nassau street, Manhattan, and that he is a candidate for the Progressive nomination, nor, I believe, for the Republican nomination.

Mr. Keith says that the opposition to his nomination is based on the fact that he is a lawyer with an office at 2 Nassau street, Manhattan, and that he is a candidate for the Progressive nomination, nor, I believe, for the Republican nomination.

Mr. Keith says that the opposition to his nomination is based on the fact that he is a lawyer with an office at 2 Nassau street, Manhattan, and that he is a candidate for the Progressive nomination, nor, I believe, for the Republican nomination.

WAS GIBBONS PLUCKED FOR ENGLISH ACCENT?

House Committee Wants to Know, as It Finds His Naval Record Clear.

CONFIRMATION IS LIKELY

T. D. Jones, in Letter, Upholds Business Methods of Harvester Company.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—Just why Capt. John Henry Gibbons of the navy was plucked for the "plucking board" when the Department records show that he has a practically unimpeachable record, is a question that soon will be put in concrete form by the House Committee on Naval Affairs.

An examination of Capt. Gibbons's record shows not a mark in derogation of his service since he entered the Naval Academy under the present day. In fact, Capt. Gibbons has won a number of service trophies and has letters of commendation, among them one from the Secretary of the Navy.

Was Gibbons plucked because of his activity in society? Was he plucked because he returned from a tour of duty in London with an English accent, some English clothes and a retinue of English servants? These are questions that members of the House Naval Committee want answered.

The only thing in Capt. Gibbons's record that in the opinion of the committee could justifiably have been considered against him was his lack of sea duty. So far as this count goes friends of Capt. Gibbons declare that he is in a position to show that he applied for sea duty in 1907, but that the Department is ready to submit his applications for sea duty.

Four Captains besides Gibbons were plucked on July 1. Of the five it is contended that Gibbons was the most efficient, were more efficient than a number of officers still in active service. Three of the five are in possession of special letters of commendation from the head of the Department.

It is declared by the House committee that at least two of the five Captains who were plucked are far more efficient than Gibbons. In addition to Capt. Gibbons the following Captains were retired on July 1: E. W. Kellogg, Frank K. Hill, George I. Evans and John C. Leonard.

The record of the twenty-three Captains against whom charges of various kinds have been made from time to time are in possession of the House committee. The names have been examined by officials of the committee, and an abstract of the salient points will be ready for examination on Friday.

Secretary Daniels to-day appointed a committee, headed by Assistant Secretary Daniels, to investigate and recommend a new plan to Congress as a substitute for the "plucking board."

Serving with Mr. Roosevelt on the committee is Assistant Secretary Daniels, chief of the bureau of navigation; Naval Constructor D. W. Taylor and Lieut. Charles M. Austin.

Fornes Indorsed for Congress by Hungarian-Americans.

At a meeting of the Hungarian-American Democratic Club last night, at 428 Sixth street, a resolution was passed endorsing the nomination of Charles V. Fornes, ex-President of the Board of Aldermen in Congress in the Fourteenth Congress district. Mr. Fornes was a representative in Congress from the old Eleventh district.

Baby Disfigured with Rash on Head. Itched So Could Not Sleep. Hair Fell Out. Very Cross and Fretful. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Eczema Entirely Healed.

644 Hamburg Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.—"My baby was born out with 'very bad' red rash and itched him so that he could not sleep. It disfigured him so that I was ashamed to take him on the street and he scratched until it bled. The hair fell out on several parts of the head and he lost so much sleep that he was very cross and fretful."

"I got several prescriptions but none of them helped him so I sent for samples of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and in two weeks my baby was entirely healed of his eczema." (Signed) Mrs. Edw. Shafer, July 25, 1914.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

BURTON TALKS SENATE TO SLEEP FOR 11 DAYS

His Speech Against River and Harbor Bill Has Only Just Begun.

CONFIRMATION IS LIKELY

T. D. Jones, in Letter, Upholds Business Methods of Harvester Company.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—Practically a one man filibuster in the Senate conducted by Senator Burton of Ohio has kept the river and harbor bill for eleven days.

The Senator has had the assistance of three or four other Senators simply to call for quorums or to move to adjourn or demand roll call, but Senator Burton has held the floor practically alone for eleven legislative days.

He has shown no signs of exhaustion, and he said to-day that his speech was only fairly begun. He intimated that up to this time he had been dealing with the preliminary part of the real speech was to come later.

Mr. Burton's successful filibuster has emphasized to the Democrats the necessity of some form of cloture rule in the Senate. Senator Burton will not concede for a moment that he is filibustering. He insists that the bill carries appropriations and continuing contracts that entail an expenditure of $100,000,000, and that many questions are involved in the scheme.

He talks leisurely for thirty minutes or so, and by that time the Senators who are not asleep in the cloak room or dozing at their desks have fled to committee rooms. Thereupon one of the Senators' able lieutenants calls for a quorum, and the Senate is usually kept up for from fifteen to thirty minutes trying to get a quorum of the Senators back into the chamber in order that business may be resumed. These calls for quorums afford opportunity for rest for the Senator from Ohio, and he always resumes his leisurely speech in good condition.

Senator Burton declares that the bill shall not pass in its present form, and he has denounced it as a "pork barrel" measure, full of bad legislation for local interests.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

WAS GIBBONS PLUCKED FOR ENGLISH ACCENT?

House Committee Wants to Know, as It Finds His Naval Record Clear.

CONFIRMATION IS LIKELY

T. D. Jones, in Letter, Upholds Business Methods of Harvester Company.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—Just why Capt. John Henry Gibbons of the navy was plucked for the "plucking board" when the Department records show that he has a practically unimpeachable record, is a question that soon will be put in concrete form by the House Committee on Naval Affairs.

An examination of Capt. Gibbons's record shows not a mark in derogation of his service since he entered the Naval Academy under the present day. In fact, Capt. Gibbons has won a number of service trophies and has letters of commendation, among them one from the Secretary of the Navy.

Was Gibbons plucked because of his activity in society? Was he plucked because he returned from a tour of duty in London with an English accent, some English clothes and a retinue of English servants? These are questions that members of the House Naval Committee want answered.

The only thing in Capt. Gibbons's record that in the opinion of the committee could justifiably have been considered against him was his lack of sea duty. So far as this count goes friends of Capt. Gibbons declare that he is in a position to show that he applied for sea duty in 1907, but that the Department is ready to submit his applications for sea duty.

Four Captains besides Gibbons were plucked on July 1. Of the five it is contended that Gibbons was the most efficient, were more efficient than a number of officers still in active service. Three of the five are in possession of special letters of commendation from the head of the Department.

It is declared by the House committee that at least two of the five Captains who were plucked are far more efficient than Gibbons. In addition to Capt. Gibbons the following Captains were retired on July 1: E. W. Kellogg, Frank K. Hill, George I. Evans and John C. Leonard.

The record of the twenty-three Captains against whom charges of various kinds have been made from time to time are in possession of the House committee. The names have been examined by officials of the committee, and an abstract of the salient points will be ready for examination on Friday.

Secretary Daniels to-day appointed a committee, headed by Assistant Secretary Daniels, to investigate and recommend a new plan to Congress as a substitute for the "plucking board."

Serving with Mr. Roosevelt on the committee is Assistant Secretary Daniels, chief of the bureau of navigation; Naval Constructor D. W. Taylor and Lieut. Charles M. Austin.

Fornes Indorsed for Congress by Hungarian-Americans.

At a meeting of the Hungarian-American Democratic Club last night, at 428 Sixth street, a resolution was passed endorsing the nomination of Charles V. Fornes, ex-President of the Board of Aldermen in Congress in the Fourteenth Congress district. Mr. Fornes was a representative in Congress from the old Eleventh district.

Baby Disfigured with Rash on Head. Itched So Could Not Sleep. Hair Fell Out. Very Cross and Fretful. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Eczema Entirely Healed.

644 Hamburg Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.—"My baby was born out with 'very bad' red rash and itched him so that he could not sleep. It disfigured him so that I was ashamed to take him on the street and he scratched until it bled. The hair fell out on several parts of the head and he lost so much sleep that he was very cross and fretful."

"I got several prescriptions but none of them helped him so I sent for samples of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and in two weeks my baby was entirely healed of his eczema." (Signed) Mrs. Edw. Shafer, July 25, 1914.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Private Schools. THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

Open Air in Eaters'.

A Suggestion TONIGHT—a walk in the Park or along the Drive will make you really sleep— Take a 'bus to get there.

CONFIRMATION IS LIKELY

T. D. Jones, in Letter, Upholds Business Methods of Harvester Company.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—Just why Capt. John Henry Gibbons of the navy was plucked for the "plucking board" when the Department records show that he has a practically unimpeachable record, is a question that soon will be put in concrete form by the House Committee on Naval Affairs.

An examination of Capt. Gibbons's record shows not a mark in derogation of his service since he entered the Naval Academy under the present day. In fact, Capt. Gibbons has won a number of service trophies and has letters of commendation, among them one from the Secretary of the Navy.

Was Gibbons plucked because of his activity in society? Was he plucked because he returned from a tour of duty in London with an English accent, some English clothes and a retinue of English servants? These are questions that members of the House Naval Committee want answered.

The only thing in Capt. Gibbons's record that in the opinion of the committee could justifiably have been considered against him was his lack of sea duty. So far as this count goes friends of Capt. Gibbons declare that he is in a position to show that he applied for sea duty in 1907, but that the Department is ready to submit his applications for sea duty.

Four Captains besides Gibbons were plucked on July 1. Of the five it is contended that Gibbons was the most efficient, were more efficient than a number of officers still in active service. Three of the five are in possession of special letters of commendation from the head of the Department.

It is declared by the House committee that at least two of the five Captains who were plucked are far more efficient than Gibbons. In addition to Capt. Gibbons the following Captains were retired on July 1: E. W. Kellogg, Frank K. Hill, George I. Evans and John C. Leonard.

The record of the twenty-three Captains against whom charges of various kinds have been made from time to time are in possession of the House committee. The names have been examined by officials of the