800 EXILES QUIT BERLIN

Fifteen Ships Booked to Sail in Three Days Crowded With Refugees.

Special Cable Dispatch to The Sun. LONDON, August 27. The American committee of relief, through its chairman, Herbert C. Hoover, issued a statement to-day advising Americans to return home at their earliest opportunity.

It is bad economics, Mr. Hoover said, "to consider that an American traveller by spending money here is doing any good. He is consuming foodstuffs and increasing the difficulties in financial exchange. All Americans not able to justify their presence in this country by some productive effort, or who have not brought actual gold with them, should reconsider their decision to linger in these islands."

15 SHIPS BOOKED TO SAIL

The tourists are complaining regarding their treatment by some of the steamship companies. In one instance it is said that one of the largest companies demanded that a premium be paid on a reservation bought months ago, on the ground that all contracts had been annulled by the state of war.

DIED.

BROWNE—Thomas Quincy, Jr., beloved husband of Isabel Gibson Browne, at Morristown, N. J., Thursday, August 27, 1914, in his forty-eighth year. Funeral private. Boston papers please copy. DODD—Suddenly, on August 26, following an operation for appendicitis, Charles G. Dodd, husband of Emma Lucetta Dodd and son of the late John Minus Dodd, Jr., in his forty-fourth year. Funeral services at his late residence, 27 West Seventy-third street, New York City, on Friday, August 28, 1914, at 1:30 o'clock P. M. Interment at the convenience of the family. HARRIS—At his residence, 325 West Seventy-sixth street, Tuesday, August 25, 1914, Mrs. Albert W. Harris. Funeral private. RAWLINS—On Thursday, August 27, at Emily Isale and Henry Rawlins, in his forty-fourth year. PERSONALS. MINNOLA, L. I., Aug. 27.—John Armstrong, who died in the Nassau Hospital here at a stroke this afternoon from injuries received in a polo match on the Meadow Brook grounds last Saturday. Mr. Rawlins was one of the strongest players on the Meadow Brook team. In attempting a long drive at top speed his mallet tripped his pony and he was hurled to the ground, his mount rolling over him. He was unconscious when taken to the hospital. For the past fifteen years Mr. Rawlins had been an ardent enthusiast in the game which caused his death. If he had been able to devote more time to the sport, experts say, he would have had few equals in this country. Next to Harry Payne Whitney he was, perhaps, the chief promoter of the international matches. He was a close friend of Mr. Whitney. Mr. Rawlins was born in 1871 in London, England, where his parents, Major and Mrs. Henry Rawlins, still live. He has two brothers, in line with his favorite sport, he was a member of Naylor & Co., iron and steel manufacturers of 45 Wall street and vice-president of the American Glass Company, an engineering concern of 50 Church street.
