Society Enjoying Autumn Days in Country Places

Weddings In and Out of Town—Horses Attract Many to Piping Rock—Engagements Announced—Still the List of Debutantes Grows

These brisk autumn days it is quite to be expected that full advantage is taken of all opportunities for country outings, and save for people on trip to town for theatres New York is practically deserted by those who figure conspicuously in the doings of society during the summer at the fashionable resorts or at the opera during the winter season.

The popularity of Miss Laura Suffern Livingston and Howland Shippen Davis was attested a week ago yesterday when their wedding was celebrated in Tivoli on Hudson, more than 200 of their friends leaving New York by special train early in the morning to witness the ceremony. The bride's mother, considerable of the comfort of her friends, all of whom had to make an unusually early start, had provided light refreshments to be served on the train. At Tivoli sight-seeing cars and smaller automobiles were waiting to convey those on the special train to St. Paul's church for the marriage ceremony. There were in front of the church scores of automobiles that had brought Mrs. Livingston's country neighbors from a radius of twenty-five miles, and after the bride and bridegroom had left the church for Northwood, the Livingston country place, there was an imposing procession of automobiles to follow them. So great was the number that it took nearly half an hour to discharge their occupants even so small that not more than a hundred relatives and most intimate friends have been asked to witness the marriage ceremony. The breakfast guests will number several hundred.

After all there will be a horse show, but not as a preface to the fashionable season as for more than a quarter of a century. It is proposed to hold one on as big a scale as possible in the Madison Square Garden during the second week in December as a means of increasing the Red Cross fund. G. Jason Waters is the leader in the movement and he will have the cooperation of all the lovers of horses. The idea is to have cups only in the children's and amateur classes and this move will be sure to interest society.

The President of the United States, the heads of the army and navy, the Governor of the State and the Mayor of New York will be invited to act as patrons and the women interested in the Red Cross work will be the patronesses. At that time New York society will be in full swing and there should be brilliant gatherings throughout the show. The opera then will be well under way and will not in any sense act as a rival to the show.

Society here and in Boston is interested in the wedding in Ipswich, Mass., to-ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Charles L. Slattery, rector of the church, and immediately afterward there will be a reception at the home of the bride's father, 160 East Seventy-first street.

Miss Coline Ingersoll will be her sister's maid of honor and the bridesmaids will be the Misses Alice Haven, a cousin; Beulah Hepburn and Edith Leslie Emmet.

John Phillips of Boston will act as best man. The ushers will include Ralph Ingersoll, George Phillips, Raymond Boiling and Dr. Dudley Squires.

The wedding of Miss Beulah Eaton Hepburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Barton Hepburn, to Lieut. Robert R. M. Emmet, U. S. N., son of Col. and Mrs. Robert Temple Emmet, will be celebrated at the summer home of her parents in Ridgefield, Conn., on Saturday, October 17.

Miss Frances Burr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop Burr, will be married to Alfred H. Ely of this city at the country home of her parents in Lawrence, L. I., on October 17. Owing to the recent death of Mr. Ely's father the ceremony will be celebrated quietly.

Invitations have been sent out for the wedding of Miss Martha Wheaton Bowers, daughter of the late Solicitor General, Lloyd W. Bowers, to Robert A. Taft, a son arriving at the house, which is several miles from the church. The Livingston place is of historic interest, having been in the possession of the family long before Revolutionary days.

Mrs. Benjamin Guinness and daughter.

It was a bright and gay wedding party, and while the air was more suggestive of late October than September the day was so bright and sunny that the majority of the guests sat at small tables placed on the lawn and verandas, where Berger served the breakfast. A large floor for dancing had been built on the lawn and there was dancing indoors as well. The grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Edward N. Taiter, who are octogenarians, were able to be present for the wedding and the festivities to follow, but Mrs. William W. Shippen, the bridegroom's grandmother, did not feel herself quite equal to the journey with her eighty-six years. It was a matter of more than 200 miles up and back for most of those who did take the trip, and all were well repaid.

The bride's lace was greatly admired. It had been worn in turn at their bridals by her maternal grandmother, her own mother and her aunts, Mrs. Henry L. Burnett and Mrs. F. Taiter Smith. Many of the guests remained over Sunday at neighboring country houses and some of them went to the dance given by Mrs. Frederick W. Vanderbilt on Saturday night at her country place in Hyde Park for her great-niece, Miss Elizabeth Howard, daughter of Mrs. Thomas H. Howard.

Piping Rock was the centre of attraction on Long Island after Thursday on account of the annual horse show and the numerous country house parties. It was decidedly gay at the clubhouse during the luncheon and dinner hours and for the dance last night. The wedding of Miss Mai Duncan Watson and Frederick T. Frelinghuysen, celebrated yesterday in Islip, brought extra guests from Piping Rock and it was an event to be remembered. Piping Rock will again attract many this week as there will be a two days race meeting on Wednesday and Saturday.

There are to be no important weddings on Long Island this week, and the next of social note will take place on October 21, when Miss Greta Hostetter and Glenn Stewart will be married in the Latting Chapel, Locust Valley. The chapel is tomorrow of Miss Ruth Appleton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis R. Appleton of New York, to William G. Wendell of Boston. It will be celebrated in the Ascension Memorial Church, where the wedding of Miss Appleton's sister, Miss Alice Appleton, to Clarence L. Hay of Washington, D. C., took place on August 5 last. Immediately after the ceremony there will be a reception at the country home of the bride's parents.

In Trinity Church, Ossining, N. Y., on Wednesday will be celebrated the wedding of Miss Yvette Borup, daughter of Major Henry Borup, U. S. A., retired, to Roy Chapman Andrews of this city. Only relatives and a few intimate friends will witness the ceremony, which will be performed by the Rev. Dr. Gibson W. Harris. Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Slocum will be the only bridal attendants.

Mr. Andrews and his bride will live in Lawrence Park, Bronxville, for the winter. Afterward Mr. Andrews expects to make an exploring expedition for the Museum of Natural History, on which his bride will accompany him.

Miss Julia Christina Whitehouse, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Meredith Whitehouse, will be married to Kenneth Boardman, a son of Mrs. Lansdale Boardman of this city, in Grace Church, Brooklyn Heights, on Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. Charles F. J. Wrigley, rector of the church. Afterward there will be a reception at the home of the bride's aunt, Miss Julia Whitehouse at 72 Remson street.

Miss Clarinda S. Boardman, sister of the bridegroom, will be the maid of honor. The other attendants will be the Misses Caroline S. Rogers and Alice Peters of this city.

E. Throp Geer will act as best man. The ushers will be Stanton Whitney, King-timer C. Addoms, Lee J. Perrin, F. Kingsford Bull, Bradford Boardman of this city and Herman L. Schwartz of Wynceswood, Pa.

The wedding of Miss Theresa Van den H. Ingersoll, daughter of Colin McTear Ingersoll, to Dr. John H. Cunningham of Boston, will be celebrated in Grace Church on Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The of ex-President William H. Taft. It will be celebrated in St. John's Church, Washington, at noon on October 17 and will be followed by a small reception and wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Lloyd W. Bowers, on Rhode Island avenue.

The bride will have Miss Helen Taft, sister of the bridegroom, as her maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be the Misses Louise Hellen and Frances Noyes of Washington; Marjory Edgar of Minneapolis, and Julia Thompson of Chicago.

George Harrison of Washington will act as best man. The ushers will be Charles Taft, brother of the bridegroom; Stephen Philbin of Houston, Tex.; Stanhope Bayne Jones of Baltimore; John Heron of Pittsburgh; Carl Lohman of Akron, Ohio; Walton Logan, Adrian Van Sinderen and Harry Bingham of New York, all of whom were classmates of Mr. Taft at Yale.

Plans have been completed for the wedding of Miss Marjorie Wiggins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Wiggins, to Sherburne Prescott, a son of the Rev. Philip Maxwell Prescott of Washington, D. C., in the Church of the Messiah on Monday afternoon, October 19, at 4 o'clock. Immediately after the ceremony there will be a reception at the home of the bride's parents, 521 Park avenue.

Miss Muriel Wiggins will be her sister's maid of honor. The bridesmaids will be the Misses Marguerite C. Prescott, sister of the bridegroom; Louise P. Flanke of Brooklyn; Lois D. Sheerer of Orange, N. J.; Doris T. Mangam, Elizabeth D. Cox and Barbara Brewster of this city.

Gardner W. Millett, who will marry Miss Harriet Coleman Glover on October 31, will be the best man. The ushers chosen are Philip M. Prescott, Jr. of Norfolk, brother of the bridegroom; William C. Marrow of Washington, Walter M. Boyden of Plymouth, Mass.; Allen S. Hulbert of Boston, Warren Kenney, Alfred B. Meacham, Robert R. Reid and Cornelius Smith, Jr., of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Anson Wood Burchard have sent out invitations for the wedding of their daughter, Miss Greta Hostetter, to Glenn Stewart of Pittsburgh on Wednesday.
