

BRYAN WILL SPEAK FOUR NIGHTS TO-NIGHT

Expected to Deliver Message From President at Brooklyn Democratic Rally.

FITZGERALD IN THE CHAIR

Further endorsement of Gov. Glynn by the national Administration will be made to-night at the big Democratic rally in the Academy of Music, Brooklyn.

It is expected that Mr. Bryan will bring a greeting to the Democrats of this State from President Wilson and that part of the message will be an appeal in behalf of the Governor.

Representative John J. Fitzgerald of Brooklyn will preside. Senator Ollie James of Kentucky and Representative Swager Sherry, also of Kentucky, will discuss the national situation and will have something to say in regard to the record which Gov. Glynn has made in his short tenure of office.

William Church Osborn, chairman of the State Democratic Committee, announced yesterday that the meeting to-night will be a rousing one.

The fight made in the primaries by John A. Hennessy had been helpful to the Governor, Mr. Osborn asserted, inasmuch as the Governor had been able to repulse the attacks and there could be no doubt about the outcome on election day.

It developed, too, in the course of the day that Mr. Hennessy probably will not take an active part in the campaign. It was intimated before primary day that in the event of defeat he either would support William Sulzer or else he would come out in an independent fight for Governor.

Gov. Glynn will have a busy time, beginning Thursday, and will leave New York on a special train at 6 o'clock Thursday morning and will make stops for speeches at Tarrytown, Ossining, Harmon, Peekskill, Cold Spring, Fishkill, Landing, Poughkeepsie, Hudson, Chatham, Roseton, Troy and Albany.

OSBORN GETS TANNER APOLOGY.

Republican Chairman Admits Error in Quoting. The debate between William Church Osborn, State Democratic Chairman, and Frederick C. Tanner, Republican State Chairman, over a quotation attributed to Mr. Osborn at the Saratoga conference came to a peaceful end yesterday.

Osborn produced the record of the convention to show that the quotation was a "palpable misquotation." The stenographic report of the conference showed that Osborn said:

"I am surprised that as Governor of the State and as the candidate for election to that office, you should claim to have vetoed bills amounting to $7,272,000 when you have not even had them approved that amount."

HENNESSY MAY AID GLYNN.

Expectation of Call for Peace in Party in Campaign. The voters who cast their ballots for John A. Hennessy and Franklin D. Roosevelt in the Democratic primary will probably be asked by the Hennessy-Roosevelt leaders to vote for Gov. Glynn on election day.

It was learned yesterday that Gustavus A. Rogers has sent out invitations to the Hennessy-Roosevelt leaders to attend a dinner in honor of Stuart G. Gibboney at the National Democratic Club on Thursday evening.

After the meeting a statement will be issued. The expectation is that in it voters will be asked to support Glynn and to back the present campaign on all factional differences.

Among the men who have been invited to the conference are John A. Hennessy, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Maurice Peterson, Frank J. Polk, Robert Adairson, Fire Commissioner; Dudley Field Malone, Collector of the Post, who already has pledged himself to Glynn; John K. Sague, Appraiser; Bert Haysen, Maurice Peterson, Cyrus L. Sulzberger, and others who were zealous workers in the up-State counties.

MCDONOUGH TO AID GERARD.

Defeated Candidate for Senate Will Work for Rival. James S. McDonough, who was a candidate at the primary for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator, pledged his support yesterday for James W. Gerard, his successful rival.

He promised to do everything in his power to get the Democratic nomination voted for him to work for Judge Gerard's election. He will make speeches up State. United States Senator William Hughes of New Jersey sent a letter yesterday to John M. Howers, chairman of the Gerard campaign committee, wishing success to Mr. Gerard.

"Judge Gerard's standing as a private citizen, lawyer and judge alone, he wrote, would entitle him to the respectful consideration of the electorate of your great State, and when we add to this the wonderful international reputation he has won in the event of the Democrat proud of his party and its candidate."

Hedges Lines Up for Ticket. Job E. Hedges, who was a candidate in the Republican primaries for the nomination for Governor, will support the Republican ticket. That was the assurance, and yesterday by Frederick C. Tanner, chairman of the Republican State committee.

GLYNN ACHIEVEMENT DENIED BY WHITMAN

Republican Candidate Refuses Rival Credit for State Reform.

MAKES CHARGE OF WASTE

Charles S. Whitman, Republican candidate for Governor, in a letter to Gov. Glynn, his Democratic rival, laid down yesterday what he believed to be the issues of the campaign. He attacked the Governor's record in office, basing his argument chiefly on a pamphlet recently issued by the Democratic leaders.

"Carefully analyzed and summarized, the attempt to demonstrate personal achievement on your part merely emphasizes your effort to escape the public condemnation which your party merits by its unparalled record of misgovernment. Of that record, in this Empire State, misnamed the Democratic party, controlled as it is, root and branch, by Tammany Hall and all that Tammany Hall implies and stands for, you are the advocate and representative, with the full knowledge on your part of its century long chapter of systematic subversion of the public welfare to personal political ends."

In beginning his letter Mr. Whitman referred to the fact that Mr. Glynn became Governor through the impeachment of William Sulzer, which, he said, "was a condemnation not only of the wisdom and morality of your own party in nominating him but a condemnation of your party, represented by him, by the people of the entire State."

Mr. Whitman next took up the call for an extraordinary session of the State Legislature by Gov. Glynn after the fall election and charged that the Governor sought to "secure the cooperation of an Assembly which had been rejected by the people as wholly unrepresentative of existing public sentiment."

As to the Governor's contention that the general appropriation bill called for the expenditure of $10,000,000 less than the bill of the year before Mr. Whitman said: "In that year your party was dominant in the Executive Chamber and majority of the Legislature and the appropriations were marked by the most glibly wastefulness."

"The claim that the revision of the banking law is one of your achievements, and that you have not been able to effect it in the limitations of the capacity of man to claim the earth. This entire work was the result of years of discussion."

Mr. Whitman charged that in the last few years of Tammany administration over four thousand names have been added to the State payroll at an annual expense of $1,000,000 that the policy of your office has been to create new offices. You have not been able to do this without the District Attorney refused to give the Governor credit for the direct primary law.

"As for your alleged achievements in respect to highways," said Mr. Whitman, "there is no evidence that you in any way sought to rectify the indescribably bad record of Tammany administration in that department. You did, however, deliberately refuse to support the investigation which would have laid all the facts clearly before the public; and that to end caused an investigation to be made by your own appointees, whose report you subsequently refused to accept upon which report most emphatically condemned the conduct of the department and imposed upon you a grave duty which you have failed to perform."

"I am surprised that as Governor of the State and as the candidate for election to that office, you should claim to have vetoed bills amounting to $7,272,000 when you have not even had them approved that amount."

WHITMAN MAPS PROGRAMME.

Will Be Chief Speaker at Union League Club To-night. District Attorney Whitman, the Republican candidate for Governor, will begin his active campaign for election to-night. He will be the chief speaker at the Union League Club, which will be held in connection to the Republican candidates for office.

The other speakers will be William D. Guthrie, James W. Wadsworth, Jr., nominee for United States Senator, and Senator Elisha H. Bond. Mr. Whitman will address the Columbia University students in Earle Hall to-morrow afternoon and in the evening will speak at the Union League Club and at the Young Republican Club, Brooklyn, and at Colonial Hall, Richmond Hill. On Thursday he will speak at the noonday meeting under the auspices of the Young Republican Club at Broadway and Sixteenth street, and in the evening at district clubs on the West Side of Manhattan.

On Friday he will hold three meetings in Wayne county in the afternoon and speak at Medina at night. He will rest in New York on Sunday and be in Rochester on Monday. On Tuesday he will speak in Syracuse. On the following Friday he will be in Jamestown and the next day in Buffalo. He will be the chief speaker at a big meeting under the auspices of the Union League Club at the Union League Academy one week from next Friday night.

WHITMAN OPENS VOTE BUREAU.

Policemen Sent Out to Investigate Challenge List Names. District Attorney Whitman has organized an election bureau in his office and has charged the assistant District Attorney Weller, with several assistants. The office was kept open yesterday and policemen were sent out to verify about 1,000 names on challenge lists in the Borough of Manhattan up to last night. Reports had been received in a dozen cases.

Mr. Weller will go into every suspicious case, and will, if necessary, keep his office open at night, pending the checking up of these registrations. In a number of cases the men challenged had a legal right to register and by getting at work on the lists early it is the opinion of District Attorney Whitman that many illegal voters will be cleared away from registering on Friday and Saturday.

HANGAR HIT IN MIMIC AIR WAR.

Luncheon Party Scattered at Hempstead Field by Bomb. MINDOLA, L. I., Oct. 12.—A game of warfare in the air played by aviators on the Hempstead Plains Aviation Field this afternoon almost turned out to be serious when one of the bombs dropped by Sidney P. Beckwith in a contest with Alfred Heinrich and others struck the top of a hangar close at hand, sending the structure crashing down and scattering the picnic party on the field. The exploding missile instead of landing on a miniature fort raged up in the center of the field through the hangar roof, scattering the picnic party in all directions. None was injured, but all were badly frightened.

Beckwith in a military monoplane had noticeable difficulty in firing the range, especially in the stiff breeze and dust from automobiles on the road. The bomb dropped weighed about two pounds, with enough powder to cause an explosion by contact with an object.

Another rather dangerous sport of the aviators was shooting with rifles at toy balloons while flying over the field. It was announced that Col. Roosevelt will be a guest on the grounds on October 31.

THE REV. LUKE J. EVERS GETS TITLE OF MONSIGNOR

Friend of Night Workers One of Three Priests Honored by the Cardinal.

His Eminence Cardinal Farley conferred the title of monsignor on three priests yesterday, one of whom was the Rev. Luke J. Evers, pastor of the Church of St. Andrew, in Duane street, and known to nearly all newspaper men in the city.

The other two priests to receive the honor were the Rev. Gallus Brader of St. Joseph's Church, at Eighty-seventh street, and the Rev. William Guinon of the Church of the Holy Rosary, East 190th street. The notification was made at the Cardinal's residence at 11 o'clock.

The elevation of Father Evers is particularly gratifying to his friends and parishioners among the night workers of the city, for whose benefit he established the evening Sunday morning mass at 3.30. He was the founder of that service and it was largely due to his work in that direction that the late Pope Pius XI. bestowed the title of monsignor on the Cardinal, before he died. Father Evers had also been commended by Pope Leo XIII.

The newly designated Mr. Evers was born in Ossining in 1860 and was graduated from the College of Notre Dame in 1877, one of the youngest graduates. He could not be admitted to the seminary because of his father and returned to college as an instructor of music, studying theology and philosophy at the same time. He then entered the Catholic seminary at Troy and was ordained in 1890. He has been in many parishes in this part of the country, but is known chiefly through his pastorate at St. Andrew's.

TRUTH NOT IN WHITMAN, SULZER DARES T. R. TO MEET HIM IN DEBATE

Brings Up Duell Affair in Speeches at Gloversville and Fort Plain.

GLOVERSVILLE, N. Y., Oct. 12.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt in his whirl through the State stopped here long enough to help Frederick M. Davenport, Progressive candidate for Governor, delight himself by attacking the Republican and Democratic nominees. Big crowds turned out at the railroad station and there was a brass band and red fire.

Col. Roosevelt made speeches at Johnson and Fort Plain, and in each talk attacked the record of Mr. Whitman, and "utterly unfit to serve in any respect save as a tool" and declared that Mr. Whitman might be as willing to serve Mr. Murphy as Mr. Barnes, and perhaps both.

"There are other things that the people want to know. To that end I hereby challenge you to meet me before the people of the State to discuss these matters of which I have personal knowledge concerning you and the men you and Tammany are trying to put in office to the taxpayers by continuing the iniquitous system of bipartisan graft, called 'graft' if you will agree to a series of debates for the rest of the campaign. I shall be glad to meet you at times and places to be agreed upon."

"If 'The Bosses' Graft, Fifty-Fifty' should not be interesting we can vary the subject of our talks. You may bring up your alliance with Tammany, about the Panama scandal, about the canal frauds when you were Governor, and a few other things of record that will make it possible for you longer to deceive the people, or put me in the 'Ananias Club.'"

"Now, Colonel, be a man or a mouse. Come to the front if you have the courage and let the people hear what you and I have to say. If you will agree to it I can guarantee that neither your stinking money-Davenport nor Murphy's Little Boy Blue will get many votes. Very truly, WILLIAM SULZER."

MR. HOYT TELLS OF WAR PERIL.

Attacked by Mob in Russia Because He Didn't See Ikon. Colgate Hoyt told members of the Ohio Society at a meeting at the Waldorf last night of his trying experiences in returning to his country from Petrograd after the war broke out. He and Mrs. Hoyt were mobbed by a crowd of infuriated Russians when they ventured into the street one day and Mr. Hoyt unwittingly failed to take off his hat as they passed an ikon.

There was no United States Ambassador in Petrograd to help Americans there, said Mr. Hoyt, and the Charge d'Affaires had advised that they stay in their hotel. One day they wearied of this confinement and went for a carriage ride. They passed a shrine and Mr. Hoyt didn't lift his hat. A crowd surrounded their carriage and threw stones at them. Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt were separated. After that experience, Mr. Hoyt said, he always walked with his hat in his hand when he went out.

Because Americans couldn't get money, many men of wealth in the party with which the Hoyts went across the Baltic Sea were penniless. E. J. Barnes of Dayton, Ohio, was one of them. Fifty-two refugees crossed with Mr. Hoyt in a small boat from Russia to Sweden. Mr. Hoyt had to sleep in the hold with rats scampering all around him. From Sweden he made his way to Norway and Scotland and returned to New York on the Cedric of the White Star Line.

STRYKER QUILTS DISTRICT LEADERSHIP.

Lloyd P. Stryker, who has been nominated on the Republican ticket for the City Court bench, has resigned as leader of the Fifteenth Assembly district. He does not think it proper that a candidate for a Judiciary should continue as a political leader.

TWO WOMEN AND TWO MEN ARRESTED IN UPPER WEST SIDE.

After searching four days for illicit dealers in drugs in the Upper West Side, detectives arrested last night two men and two women, charging them with having narcotics in their possession. One of the women wore diamonds, which Detectives Sutter and Bailey said were worth $5,000. With the prisoners the detectives took to the West Forty-seventh street station the largest amount of drugs in bottles, boxes and envelopes that has ever been taken there at one time.

Harry Fuller, 23, was arrested at 161 West Forty-ninth street. The police say they found a quantity of opium and cocaine in his apartment. Two women were arrested at 208 West Fifty-third street. They were Mrs. Sophie Price, 26, who had the diamonds, and Rose Williams, 24, of 317 West Fifty-fifth street.

The police say they found in Mrs. Price's room a suitcase containing 104 bottles of morphine, a druggist's mortar and pestle, 16 bottles of morphine and 44 envelopes containing cocaine and morphine. John J. Price, 31, Mrs. Price's husband, a diamond speculator, was arrested when he appeared just as the detectives were leading the women to the police station.

AUTO UPSETS ON CROSSING.

MIDDLETOWN, Oct. 12.—As Miss Anna Bush was driving an automobile over Ontario and Western roads crossing just north of this city to-night the machine upset and Richard Loder, the seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Loder, was probably fatally hurt, while five others were injured, but not seriously.

BRYAN AND STRAUS SEE HOPE FOR PEACE

Encouraged by Fact That Warring Nations Disclaim Cause of Conflict.

ADDRESS 20,000 PERSONS

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 12.—Pleas for universal peace and early cessation of hostilities in Europe were made to-night at a monster peace mass meeting in Convention Hall. Secretary Bryan and Oscar S. Straus of New York, member of the Hague Peace Tribunal, were the principal speakers. Twenty thousand persons attended the meeting.

Both speakers dwelt upon the fact that each nation involved in the war refused to acknowledge it was the cause of the conflict and declared this was an argument for universal peace.

Secretary Bryan upheld the twenty-five peace treaties which the United States has already negotiated with foreign nations. Mr. Straus extracts from Secretary Bryan's speech were:

"Most of the errors which man commits in international affairs rise from a failure to understand the fundamental proof that moral principles are as binding upon nations as upon individuals."

"Man does not need to stain his hands with his brother's blood to qualify himself for better deeds."

"One of the most encouraging features of the European war is to be found in the fact that Governments involved vie with each other in refusing to admit they began it."

"It is not for us to apportion the blame for the most colossal and sanguinary war in all history. As a nation we must seek how we may bring this war to a close and a peace that will assure righteous and lasting peace."

"It is too soon to draw lessons from the conflict. But one thing is clear—that the policy of dual and triple alliances and ententes which has been in use since the treaty of Berlin in 1878 has broken down and instead of keeping up the balance of power, has unbalanced it and plunged in deadly combat not one nation but a group of the greatest nations of Europe."

"It has been emphasized that the policy of separate alliances is a failure and that the theory of the war lords that preparedness for war constitutes a security for peace is a false motto. The only guarantee for peace is permanent preparedness for peace under the united power of all nations for the separate right of each—just as the American Union is the guarantor for the peace of all the States that compose it."

"It is remarkable that each Power disclaims the responsibility and blames others. It is a fact that the war spirit which has put the nation under such a tremendous economic burden since 1870 has made Europe into a colossal tinder box which flashed into conflagration in the arms of Henry IV. Kitchener."

"Fifteen years ago the Hague Tribunal transformed the act of offering good offices from an act of diplomatic impertinence into a recognized international service for war constitutes a security for peace is a false motto. The only guarantee for peace is permanent preparedness for peace under the united power of all nations for the separate right of each—just as the American Union is the guarantor for the peace of all the States that compose it."

STRAUS CALLS ON WILSON.

President Denies Making New Move for Peace in Europe. WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Reports that efforts are still being made by persons in the United States to bring about peace in Europe were revived in Washington today. They became current after a call on President Wilson by Oscar S. Straus of New York, ex-Ambassador to Turkey.

It is understood that the subject of peace was under consideration. Soon after his call at the White House Mr. Straus met with Secretary Bryan to Philadelphia, where the two were to attend a peace meeting to-night.

DEAD MAN FOUND IN WOODS.

Wound in Temple and Revolver Point to Suicide. HASTINGS, N. Y., Oct. 12.—The body of a man who had been dead about ten days was found in the woods on the estate of W. W. Fowler this afternoon. A revolver was lying at his side and there was a bullet wound in his right temple. The police believe he committed suicide.

In a pocket of his coat, which was new, there was a copy of a New York newspaper of June 24. A glance through the paper showed that an article had been marked. The headline was "Drag Pond for Clue in Sack Case." The case was that of a young girl who had been found floating in a sack in the Mohawk River.

ITALIAN SKIES SMILE ON COLUMBUS DAY

Perfect Weather Fills Ranks of All Societies in Colorful Parade.

LIKE SUMMER AT CONEY

Columbus Day was celebrated generally in the city and outlying districts yesterday with parades, receptions and orations. Exceptionally fine weather was a guarantee for generous responses to the calls of Italian societies and the parades of brilliantly uniformed organizations passed through streets bedecked with American and Italian flags.

The chief event in Manhattan was the parade of the United Italian Societies from Washington Square up Fifth avenue and over to Columbus Circle. There were numerous bands and here and there the divisions were dotted with particular displays calculated to arouse the spirits of the patriotic. Many floral wreaths carried by the paraders were placed on the statue of Columbus by Rivelli Raffaele and Usinani, two of Garibaldi's veterans.

Ten thousand persons attended the celebration of the United Italian Societies at Sulzer's Harlem River Casino yesterday afternoon and last night. The chief speakers were City Magistrate Charles Freschi and Prof. Francesco Sforzani. Among the guests were G. Fara Formi, the Italian Consul-General; Borough President Marks; City Chamberlain Bruere, President McAneny of the Board of Aldermen, Police Commissioner Woods and District Attorney Whitman.

At Coney Island 75,000 persons made the resort as lively as in midsummer. Many went in bathing. The Queen Helena Society and the Italian Progressive Association of Rockaway Beach had 2,500 men in line, exclusive of a division of automobiles containing leading residents. A feature of the parade was a float depicting the arrival of Columbus. Many boys and girls in native Italian costume marched along the float. The Italians of Avenue A celebrated with a banquet and dance.

MINTING AT ELECTRICAL SHOW.

Visitors Interested in Exhibition at Coin Making. Much attention is being attracted at the Electrical Exposition in the Grand Central Palace by way of the Government exhibit. At a little United States mint visitors are shown how the gold, silver and copper coins are made.

Nineteen machines, operated by electricity, are seen in action. These machines are used for melting, pouring, cleaning, sheering, rolling, punching, milling, annealing, washing, drying, coining, testing and weighing. Instead of making real gold and silver coins, the machines turn out electrical school tokens of the thousands of visitors. More than $50,000 worth of gold and silver bullion is also on view.
