

KING ALBERT OF BELGIUM AT THE FRONT

The King of the Belgians has won universal admiration by his conduct in encouraging his troops at the front and sharing their dangers. On his name day, Sunday, Nov. 12, 15,000 telegrams of congratulation were received by him. The drawing shows the King at the front, standing close to a spot where a German shell fell a short time before.
Drawn by J. Simont. Copyrighted, 1914, by the Sun Printing and Publishing Association by special arrangement with the Illustrated London News.