American Autos Seized for War Purposes Abroad

Experiences of Many Prominent Persons Whose Expensive Machines Were Requisitioned by Nations Before the Opening of Hostilities.

COMPENSATION AFTER CONFLICT CLOSES

WHEN the war broke out suddenly last August thousands of American tourists and health seekers fled from the belligerent countries, leaving behind their trunks and other property worth several millions of dollars.

The dignified Philadelphia lady protested. I will not tell you the reply that she received, but it was not in words alone.

Another typical case is that of the Misses Lowry of San Francisco, touring out from Marienbad in their own Packard car in company with the De la Balze family of New York, a name well known formerly in the American wholesale drug trade.

In a different category are the automobiles owned by Americans which were requisitioned or held at the disposal of the European armies.

Numbers of Americans—more than ever before—had brought their home built cars to Europe for touring, and hundreds, starting on pleasure tours, were stopped short by the war.

In Switzerland, for a moment, the army direction lost its head. The Government requisitioned the German dirigibles and aeroplanes at the Bern aerodrome.

The experience of members of the Dreer family of Philadelphia was typical. Mrs. Dreer with a party of women guests, in two automobiles, was stopped somewhere before the Swiss frontier near Lake Constance.

New Estey Pianos At Savings of $75 to $125 On Your Own Terms—In Reason NEVER HAS any offering in Pianos better illustrated the exceptional character of the Loeser Musical Service.

These Estey Pianos are to be had at the present great savings because they were made for the now closed European branches of the Estey Company.

This Is a Real Opportunity

Every one of these under price Estey Pianos is doubly guaranteed—by Loeser's and by the Estey Company—just as if it were sold here at the full price.

The styles are the newest and best. They show every recent improvement. They are without a blemish and brand new.

Included are several different Upright Pianos, three styles of Players and an equal number of models in Grand Pianos.

The saving is clear and provable. It is a straight reduction from the prices which these same Estey Pianos brought everywhere in the United States except at Loeser's.

These Pianos Must Be Sold

There were 200 of them when the sale started. There are many less now. But we have undertaken to dispose of just as many as possible, and in order to effect sales quickly we add to the large saving the privilege of making your own terms within reason.

Simply tell us the amount you wish to spend for a Piano, how much you wish to pay down and the sums to be paid monthly. Unless your plan is beyond the bounds of what we consider good business we will accept it.

Estey Upright Pianos, $275 to $375 Saving $75 to $125 Estey Player-pianos, $525 to $575 Estey Grand Pianos, $550 to $650

Five Other Famous Makes From Which to Choose

Loeser's is the only Piano Store in Brooklyn where you will find six famous makes ready to be compared, side by side, embodying the ideas of six different makers, rich with the inventions of six organizations.

We do not call any one "best." We know that all are good. Even more—that every one of these makes represents the best value obtainable at the price.

In addition we guarantee every one of these SIX Pianos to give absolute satisfaction or we court an adjustment of the complaint under as fair conditions as attend the return of other merchandise.

Such is the service Loeser's gives. You will find it thorough, dependable, pleasing, and not equaled elsewhere, we believe.

"The Victrola Store of Brooklyn"

Because here you will find every Victrola in every usual finish; every Victor Record the factory can supply; an adequate salon of demonstration rooms; and a force of courteous, quick, musician-salesmen to attend you and help in selecting wisely.

Victrolas from $15 to $250 on your own terms—within reason.

Numbers of Americans are in the same case," she says. "The Postels' nine trunks and two automobiles in Berlin. Another American on the train with us had just bought a new 75 horse-power Packard and hated to lose it. He said he was going to Frankfurt to see the American Consul, but I do not believe he got there."

NEW AIRSHIP ORDNANCE

THE recent Zeppelin raid on England served to introduce several weapons never before used in warfare. The equipment for dropping bombs from these aircraft is much more complicated than might be imagined.

The bombs are not dropped over the side, but are discharged from the bottom of the car or cabin with scientific accuracy. The device employed consists of a plate with three apertures through which the bombs are dropped in an exactly perpendicular direction.

The mechanism for releasing the bombs is controlled by three pedals, thus leaving the operator's hands free. The man controlling the apparatus sights the object of attack beneath him and starts the bomb on its downward flight with a touch of the foot.

Several special guns have been invented for repelling the attacks of aircraft. One of the most efficient is a shell which explodes, emitting a shell which in turn explodes, and this continues until five different shells have scattered their contents.

At each explosion a quantity of shrapnel is scattered in every direction over a wide area. The successive explosions suggest the action of a Roman candle which scatters sparks by a series of explosions. If any one of these explosions is near the airship it is pretty certain to be struck.
