stood on the tracks. We opened the gate and got out just as flames swept over the car.

It was a most conspicuous when chopped out of the wreckage. He said:

"The brakes were working well, but I did not see the express until I was right on top of it."

Doran is also said to have told Police Captain Ormsby of the West Forty-seventh street station that he was not told at Fifty-third street of the express ahead, as was reported to the interborough.

Full Report in an Hour. In an hour from the time of the accident, which occurred at 8:22 A. M., an interborough superintendent had made a full report to Police Commissioner McCall.

Mr. Healey was among the first to reach the scene of the smashup. He was looking for the cause of the accident.
