

part of German press and German officials many here cling to the hope that Germany will give in at the last moment. It is again being suggested that Germany will accept the Lusitania case on the claim that since the United States is certain that the liner was not armed Germany is willing to admit she was mistaken.

SILENT ON NEBRASKAN. German Admiralty Has Made No Report on Attack.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The German Admiralty has as yet made no report on the torpedoing of the American steamer Nebraskan, according to a message today from American Ambassador Gerard at Berlin. An investigation is being conducted.

TO PAY GREEK OWNERS. Germany Admits Responsibility for the Ellipsos's Loss.

LONDON, June 7.—An Athens dispatch says Germany has admitted the responsibility of the commander of the German submarine which torpedoed and sunk the Greek steamer Ellipsos in the North Sea on April 19. The owners are to be compensated.

WON'T ARREST STAHL. Authorities Only Want to Talk to Him About Lusitania Charges.

Failure to find Gustav Stahl has not disappointed the investigators of the Department of Justice who are sifting the German's charge that the Lusitania carried guns. Capt. William Coffey's men said they have found out that one of the other affidavit makers used a fictitious name—that of Anton Grieve. It was stated positively yesterday that thus far there is no evidence of any crime having been committed in the making of the affidavits, and Capt. Coffey declared that he would guarantee that he would not arrest Stahl if the latter should walk into his office any time. No action will be taken as a result of the reported denial by Leach, the Lusitania steward mentioned in the case, that there were no guns aboard unless orders to that effect are received from Washington.

MAY AVOID PRIZE COURT. U. S. Packers Likely to Settle With Britain.

LONDON, June 7.—There is a possibility of a settlement out of court of the cases of the American packers against the British Government. Counsel for the packers asked the Prize Court today for a postponement of three weeks in the case of the meat ships Freidland, Bjornstjerne Bjornsen, Kim and Alfred Nobel. The postponements were granted.

BERLIN, via wireless to London, June 7.—Despatches received from the Dual Alliance headquarters in Galicia say that the Russian army was captured in the fall of Przemysl and thirty-one cannon and thirty machine guns were taken. The Austro-German prospects in Galicia are considered most promising. The Russians have lost their line on the San GERARD TO CHECK CRITICS OF WILSON. Holders of U. S. Passports to Lose Them if Guilty of Anti-Americanism.

BERLIN, via Amsterdam, June 7.—Ambassador James W. Gerard has sent messages to all United States consular officers in Germany asking that he be informed of any attacks on President Wilson by persons holding American passports. The message follows the Ambassador's action in the cases of Maurice Somborn, Leon R. Raines and Karl I. Recknagel, whose passports were being confiscated.

ASKS CONSULS TO REPORT. No Parental Aid for Man Who Attacked Wilson in Dresden.

It is understood that all naturalized Americans or native born Americans holding passports will lose the protection of the United States if they are found to be engaged in fomenting any sentiment against their country. Somborn was ejected from the embassy and afterward made anti-American speeches. Raines and Recknagel, at Dresden, wrote an open letter to President Wilson, which was published in a Berlin paper.

RECKNAGEL DENOUNCED. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Recknagel of 233 East Nineteenth Street, Flatbush, said yesterday that they had no sympathy for the latter should walk into his office any time.

SCOTS NET FOUR SUBMARINES. Four Sighted in One Place. Says Letter to Steamship Office.

An officer of the Anchor liner Cameronia, in yesterday from Glasgow and Liverpool, received a letter from another Scottish vessel, the Dromed, which reported an attempted raid up the Firth of Tay by four German submarines. The letter said that the submarines had come into the Scottish estuary from the North Sea and that it was their design to destroy shipping in the port of Dundee and further up the Firth of Tay.

FOUR BRITISH SHIPS SUNK. Submarines Destroy Steamer, Bark and Two Trawlers.

LONDON, June 7.—The British steamer Star of the West has been sunk by a German submarine. The crew was rescued by a trawler and landed at Aberdeen. Another British ship sunk by a German submarine is the bark Sunlight, 1,228 tons. The crew was picked up and landed at Queenstown. The captured bark is being towed to the coast by a tug after he and his crew had been ordered to take to the boats. The Sunlight left Macao, Santo Domingo, May 1.

WIDOW CASTS THEM INTO SEA. Roses for Lusitania Victim.

Map Showing How Lemberg Is Threatened

The accompanying map shows the direction of the Austro-German advance on Lemberg. At the juncture of the San and the Vistula the Russians are making some progress and at the other end of the line, along the Pruth, the Austrians have been badly beaten by the Russians. Elsewhere the Austro-Germans seem to be making slow progress.

TEUTONS CONTINUE GAINS IN DIRECTION OF LEMBERG. Gen. von Linsingen's Army Crosses the Dniester, Forty-five Miles From Goal—Russians Charge Germans With Using Poisonous Gases.

Special Cable Despatch to The Sun. LONDON, June 7.—Despatches from Berlin and Vienna indicate that the Austro-German drive toward Lemberg is progressing successfully. The most important word is that Gen. von Linsingen's forces, which have gone north from Stry, have succeeded in crossing the Dniester at Zarnovo, which is only forty-five miles from Lemberg. There are intimations in some German newspapers that the Teutons are closer than at other points, and as it has been reported that the Russians are removing supplies from Lemberg it would not be surprising if they were to learn that it had been evacuated.

RUSSIA MOBILIZES INDUSTRIES. All Factories to Be Used in Preparing Munitions.

Special Cable Despatch to The Sun. LONDON, June 7.—Russia is to go about supplying its lack of munitions of war scientifically and with a compact organization, according to despatches from the Times from its correspondent at Petrograd. According to the present plans and as the outcome of several meetings held at the War Ministry, the factories which are absolutely necessary for the production of foodstuffs will be adapted to the manufacture of war supplies. All German-owned factories are to be approached.

FOUR VESSELS SUNK NEAR GULF OF RIGA. Mines or Submarines Destroy Three German Transports and One Russian.

LONDON, June 7.—Preliminary action in the Baltic at the entrance of the Gulf of Riga indicates that the Germans are preparing to launch a drive into Russian ports—some believe toward Petrograd. Although the battle squadrons of the two fleets have not yet been engaged, there have been clashes between submarines and destroyers, torpedo boats and air craft. It is reported that three German transports and the Russian transport Yenezel have been sunk. How many lives were lost aboard the German vessels is not known.
