VOL. LXXXIII.—NO. 6.

NEW YORK, MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 1915 .- Copyright, 1915, by the Sun Printing and Publishing Association

PRICE TWO CENTS.

Kipling Calls Firing Line "Frontier of Civilization"

"It's Not Local Victories We're After," Frenchman Tells Author While Belial Scatters Destruction All About; "It's the Barbarians Yonder."

OFFICERS AS MOTHERS; MEN AS BROTHERS chairman of the London City and Midland Bank: Sir Henry Babington Smith.

ix articles from the famous pen of Rudyard Kipling, under the general title of "France at War on the Frontier of Civilization," describing the walk from here to the sea or to Switz-impressions of a visit to the fighting erland in that ditch and you'll find

By RUDYARD KIPLING.

Kipling, 1915.] Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. N, Sept. 5.—"It's a pretty park," said the French artillery officer. We've done a lot for it since the

The car traversed a winding drive through woods between banks emwith little chalets of a rustic full height above ground, suggesting tea gardens in England. Further on top of the ascent only their solid drooping across the driveway, with here glories of forest and park sat boldly on a terrace. There was nothing wrong with it except, if one looked other point miles away. closely, a few scratches or dints on its white stone walls or a neatly drilled here occasionally."

direction of the guns. ing officer on observation post.

worthy of such a park, the sort of man is gloriously an artist. A ladder ran up it to a plat-What little wind there was wayed the tall top and the ladder creaked like a ship's gangway. A elephone bell tinkled fifty feet over-

Grass Yellow From Gas.

of the devil and all his works.

The guns in the woods began again. as the lights pierced the gloom, they the regularly spaced bursts of smoke breakwater. Thus it went—a pause, a gathering of sound like the race of busy with some footgear. They an incoming wave, then the high overtopping all the others. you call trench sweepers," said the

Among the whispering leaves some one crossed the platform to consult the map with its ranges. A blistering outbreak of white smoke rose a little a yonder. Then a new voice of tremen-Evidently the voice was known. "That is not for us," a gunner said, and the boches' shells." "They are being waked up from -

Again a big plume rose and again that way.

usual work, only the usual all through that cheery brotherhood the officer explained. "Some- in the woods and in the fields. times it is here, sometimes above or us. I have been here since

"Always the Same Work."

A little sunshine flooded the stricken us with that concentration of pur- of Belial's work, when he bellows so pose and bearing shown in both armies when dinner is at hand. They digging hard. work," the officer said, "and you could walk from here to the sea or to Switzthe same work going on everywhere. "It isn't war, it's better than that," said another. "It's the eating up of a people. They come and they fill the [Copyright in U. S. A. by Rudyard trenches, and they die and they die, and they send more and these die. We do the same, of course, but look!"

He pointed to the large, deliberate smoke heads renewing themselves long the yellowed beach. "That is the frontier of civilization.

They have all civilization against them those brutes yonder. It's not the local victories of the old wars that we're after; it's the barbarians, all the barbarians. Now you've seen the whole thing in little; come and look at our children."

We left that tall tree whose fruits the tinkle of small bells. The observer the earth till at the returned to his maps and calculations, the telephone boy stiffened up beside brown roofs showed. Torn branches, his exchange. As the amateurs went out of his life some one called down through the branches to ask who was growth, explained the reason of their could not catch the gun's name. It seemed to belong to that terrific new voice which had lifted itself for the second or third time. It appeared from the reply that if Belial talked too ong he would be dealt with from an-

The troops we came down to se were at rest in a chain of caves which hole under a flight of steps. One such had begun life as quarries and had hole ended in an unexploded shell. been fitted up by the army for its "Yes," said the officer, "they arrive own uses. There were underground corridors, antechambers, rotundas and Something bellowed across the folds ventilating shafts, with a bewildering of the wooded hills. Something grunted play of cross lights, so that wherever in reply. Something passed overhead, you looked you saw Goya's pictures querulously, but not without dignity, of men at arms. Every soldier has Two clear, fresh barks joined the some of the old maid in him and rechorus and a man moved lazily in the joices in all the little gadgets and devices of his own invention. Death and wounding come by nature, but to at things a little," said the command- lie dry, sleep soft and keep yoursel clean by forethought and contrivance is art, and in all things the French

All Welded in One Furnace.

Moreover, the French officers seem as mothers, keen on their men, as their men are brothers, fond of them had. Two invisible guns spoke fer-yently for half a minute and broke off "Mon general, mon capitaine," helps terriers choked on a leash. We the idea which our men cloak in other climbed till the topmost platform and curter phrases, and those soldiers, swayed dizzily beneath us. Here one like ours, had been welded for months nd a rustic shelter, always of the in one furance. As an officer said, tea garden pattern, a table, a map and "Half our orders now need not be little window wreathed with living given. Experience makes us think was a stretch of open country ficer quicker than it does with us. petition and circulated it among her strapped on immediately and the work a few sticks, like old tooth- The sentinel hounds. The overbrushes, which had once been trees whelming impression was the brilliant round a farm. The rest was yellow health and vitality of these men and grass, barren to all appearances as the quality of their breeding. They here themselves with swing and ram-The grass is yellow because they pant delight in life, while their volces, have used gas here," said an officer, as they talked in the side caverns "Their trenches are-you can see for among the stands of arms, were the controlled voices of civilization. Yet.

They seemed to have no relation to looked like bandits dividing the spoil. One picture, though far from war, along a little smear in the desert stays with me. A perfectly built, earth 2,000 yards away, no connection dark skinned young giant had peeled at all with the strong voices overhead, himself out of his blue coat and had coming and going. It was as imper- brought it down with a swish upon sonal as the drive of the sea along a the shoulder of a half stripped comflung heads of breakers spouting luminous blue haze, through which white up the face of a groyne. Sud-glimmered a pile of coppery straw. denly a seventh wave broke and half covered by a red blanket. By a spread the shape of its foam like a divine accident of light and pose it was St. Martin giving his cloak to the "That's one of our torpilleurs, what beggar. There were scores of plctures in these galleries, notably a rock hewn chapel where the red of the cross on the rough canvas altar cloth glowed like ruby. Further inside the caves we found row of little rock cut kennels, each beyond the large plume. It was as inhabited by one wise, silent dog. though the tide had struck a reef out Their duties begin at night with the sentinels and listening posts. "And fous volume lifted itself. Out of a believe me," said a proud instructor, that followed somebody laughed. "my fellew here knows the difference between the noise of our shells

When we came out into the open med a distant French position, again there were good opportunities pilleur is attending to for this study. Voices and wings met them there. We go on with our usual and passed in the air and perhaps one strong young tree had not been bend-"Look another torpilleur. The bar- ing quite so far across the picturesque park drive when we first went

"Oh, yes," said an officer, "shells ed distance beyond it. The smoke lave to fall somewhere, and," he added died away on that stretch of trench as with fine toleration. "it is, after all, foam of a swell dies in the angle against us that the boche directs them. arbor wall and broke out afresh But come, you, and look at my dughalf a mile lower down. In its ap- out. It's the most superior of all pos sible dugouts. No. come and look at tion and its quick spasms of wrath our mess; it's the Ritz of these parts, was more like the work of waves and they joyously told how they had than of men, and our high platform's got or procured the various fittings fentle sway and glide was exactly the and the elegances, while hands ship drifting with us stretched out of the gloom to shake, and men nodded welcome and greeting

The voices and the wings were still ousy after lunch when the car slipped came into a country where women and andscape and made its chemical yel-children worked among the crops. low look more foul. A detachment of There were large raw shell holes by moved cut on a road which ran the wayside or in the midst of fields toward the French trenches and then and often a cottage or a villa had been anished at the foot of a little rise. smashed as a bonnet box is smashed Other men appeared moving toward by an umbrella. That must be part

Continued on Second Page.

FINANCE DELEGATES ON WAY. Departure From England Is Offcially Announced.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.
LONDON, Sept. 5.—The Official Press Bureau to-night announced that the Anglo-French mission of financiers to the United States for the improvement of the foreign exchange situation has left England.

The British representatives on the commission are Lord Chief Justice Sir John Simon, Sir Edward Hopkinson Holden, member of Parliament and president of the National Bank of Turkey, and B. P. Blackett.

The French delegates are Octave Homber and Ernest Mallet, both well 2 AMERICANS ABOARD: known Paris bankers.

$4,000 ROBBERY AT NEWPORT

Haggin Villas.

NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 5 .- Two of New port's summer residences were entered by thieves yesterday, and from one, Bushy Park, the residence of Dr. R. V. Mattison of Ambler, Pa., jewelry valued at $4,000 was taken. The other house was Villa Rosa, the home of Mrs. J. B. Haggin, on Bellevue avenue, where nothing was found to have been taken, although there was a thorough ransack.

ing by the intruders. A sneak thief did his work in the home of Dr. Mattison while the family are death, ripened and distributed at were at dinner in the evening. The robber, according to the police, entered He worked with ease in the upper floor and his garnerings included rings val-ued at $700, $500 and $400, stickpins, and there a scorched patch of underin the upstairs rooms. The larger part of the jewelry belonged to Mrs.

> was making his escape, cause of the arrival upstair one, the thief was forced to take to way from Liverpool to Montreal. Acthe back stairs, and the maid, who was cording to the most accurate informathe kitchen, saw him. He drew revolver from his pocket, warned her tion so far obtainable there we not to scream, and then escaped through American citizens among the bushes which surround the ho The police have a good description of Villa Rosa, which was also entered, is unoccupied this season and is in the care of a gardener, Dennis Foley. Saturday morning when he made his rounds he discovered a French window open on the north side of the house, where the intruders entered.

CHILDREN BEG WILSON

500 San Bernardino Youngsters Don't Want Daddies to Be Soldiers.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 5.-Strict have saved her. States is requested by 500 school chil-I believe, too, that if a French pri- forwarded to President Wilson through vate has an idea--and they are full of Ambassador von Bernstorff by twelve. curred that either a torpedo or a mine ideas-it reaches his commanding of | year-old Mattle Beeby. She wrote the had struck the vessel. Lifebelts were schoolmates.

> The petition reads as follows: President Woodrow Wilson: We are 500 little school children and we beg you please to save the United States from war. We, 500 little school

> If it should happen that the United States goes to war with Germany we have to expect Mexico and Japan to jump on us. We could get no help in this world. Ex-President

Ex-President Roosevelt passed through San Bernardino July 4. I begged him not to talk about the war Roosevelt and he promised me he would not President Wilson, we believe you are a good Christian church member. The Holy Bible does not teach us to let the people suffer. You are the only man who can sav the children's only man who can say the children's fathers. I guess all the children in the United States are thinking just the same as us 500 little children in San Bernardino. With kind re-MATTIE BEERY, and her 500 little

NO FOREIGNERS IN ARMY. New British War Office Rule Makes Them Ineligible.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.

LOODON. Sept. 5.—A ruling has been made by the War Office that only Britinish: ish subjects are eligible for the British army and that all enlistments of foreign nationals must be reported immediately. It is understood that some exception will be made to the order, which will nevertheless be the general rule.

In this connection will be recalled the had had so many requests from parents of American boys under age who had run away and joined the British army to secure their release that the Ambassador had had blanks printed for the purpose. It was stated on September 1 that the Embassy already had secured some sixty such releases.

AMBASSADOR NOT FOUND.

ount von Bernstorff Fails to Ap

Count von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador, could not be found yesterday either in New York or at the German summer embassy in Cedarhurst, L. I. at one of which places he usually passes

His secretary arrived at the Ritz Carlton Hotel late last night and entered the Ambassador's apartment. He as-

LINER TORPEDOED; 8 LIVES LOST; NO WARNING GIVEN, SAY SURVIVORS; WASHINGTON DISMAYED BY ACT

Allan Steamship Hesperian Attacked Off Fastnet but Is Not Sunk.

BOTH OF THEM SAVED

Passengers Get Away in Life Boats—Wireless Brings Assistance.

U. S. TO ACT AT ONCE. SEEKING EXPLANATION

Situation Reverts to Where It Stood Following Sinking of Arabic.

The intruder was seen by a maid as at 8:30 o'clock last night while seventy less seriously injured. Three of the life boats capsized as they were being launched and their occupants were dumped into the water.

TO KEEP U. S. NEUTRAL though there were many on deck and strict lookout was being kept, saw anything that resembled a beriscope the ship was hit. The explosion tore a large hole in the steamship's hull forward, but the wound was not fatal. She was travelling with her compart-

There was no panic and very little of lowering the boats began a few in Washington to-night that the torminutes later. Long before the ship pedoing of the Allan liner Hesperian had taken a serious list all of the pas-at one blow the beautiful structure of sengers were off the vessel, and only peace and amity built up in Washingthe captain, W. S. Main, and his chief ton during the last two weeks through pedo, but collided with a floating three weeks.

The fact that the ship was apmine. The fact that the ship was apparently hit forward and that the wound a brief despatch on the incident to-

Consul Frost cabled this report to :he State Department at Washington to-

The Allan liner Hesperian tor-pedoed by German submarine seventy miles southeast of Fastnet at 8:30 o'clock Saturday evening. One or two Americans on board. None lost, Loss of lift about eight. Vessel has not sunk. Admiralty boats landed pas-sengers and troops at 8:30 this morning. Have returned to bring Hes-perian in here. Due about 9 o'clock to-morrow morning. There wereforty-five Canadian troops on board, unorganized and mainly invalided. Also one 4.7 inch gun, mounted and for Montreal.

The wireless call for assistance was sent out almost simultaneously with the explosion and a Government steamer and waters immediately put out to the rescue. Until they reached the spot the lifeboats, filled with the Hesperian's passengers, stood by the disabled steamship, while Capt. Main and most of his crew remained on board.

States Government in this war neither firming and supplementing this fragment can the fact that she had a four inch griming and supplementing this fragment griming and supplementing this fragment as evidence that she was properly to be regarded as garding submarines.

That the Hesperian incident is likely fall decided to permit the carriage of the capture of the capture serted that he did not know when Count to no Bernstorff would come to New York

INVERS HELD BY CANAL SLIDE.

Kroonland and Finland Blocked in Calebra Cut.

Kroonland and Finland Blocked in Fig. Panama. Canal to-day at the Culebra cut and as a result the literation of the Way home was one with the Capaized and three was nown to the water. This man was helped was one of the three with Capaized and three was nown to the water. This man was helped by the Continued on Second Page.

In one that he did not know when Count to not be the case if the number and post-itions of such guns on a vessel indicated the was coming around to tow in the vessel and shortly after these rules one four inches gun mounted on the stern would have been passed without question as for defence that fleril was coming around to the stern would have been passed without question as for defence that fleril was coming around to the stern would have been passed without question as for the controversy and the estimability of satisfying the position of the Hesperian will undoubtedly have the first of the Hesperian will undoubtedly have the first of the Hesperian will undoubtedly have the three which capaized and three was one of the three were invalided, unorganized chandles of the Hesperian will undoubtedly have the three which capaized and three was not which have as proved that the vessel was a transport, according to the policy of the three which capaized and three was nown to the water. This man was passed without subjecting the trules of the Hesperian will undoubtedly have the feel to treatment in Child States, The topreloning of the Hesperian will undoubtedly have the three working-man and the matter disposed of long ago of given undoubted that was coming around to two wints down country which had been devasticated the Hesperian probably could be a time and policy to the three were lived wints and the matter disposed of long ago of given ample authority by his Governing was fell over whita was centing and the matter disposed of long ago of whi

M AP of the zone of submarine activity around the British Isles, where approximately 150 large ships and perhaps as many more trawlers have been sunk. The position of the Hesperian when she was torpedoed is indicated by the numeral 1, that of the Arabic by 2 and that of the Lusitania by 3. The solid black circles indicate where 111 ships were sunk by submarines between February 18, the date of the beginning of the German undersea blockade of the British coasts, and June 1.

DISMAY IN WASHINGTON NO WARNING GIVEN, OVER ATTACK ON LINER

Gravity of German Situation, Supposedly Ended by Canadian Officer and Other enuments, and full copies of everything Von Bernstorff's Pledge for His Government, Re- Passengers Say Attack Came garded as Renewed-Explanation Awaited.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5 .- It is the belief by a German submarine has destroyed officers, with a few of the crew, re- the efforts of the German Ambassador.

Officials were dismayed at the firs In the waters where the Hesperian reports of the torpedoing of the Hes-was struck it is still twilight at 8:30 perian, and permitted themselves the hope that these were not true until an There was a slight haze over the ocean, official report was received from Conalthough the sky was clear. Under such conditions it probably would have been It is now regarded that matters star onditions it probably would have been mpossible for any one on the steamer's exactly where they did after the Arabic deck to detect the trail of a torpedo as it approached and proposity it would Government will look to Berlin to exhave been out of the question to see a plain how it was that, while the Ger-periscope at anything more than 100 man Ambassador here has represented urds' distance.

With such allowances made, it has tack liners without warning and with been suggested by some of the passen-regard to those on board, liners have gers that the ship was not struck by been so attacked twice within less than was not fatal seems in a sense to sub-port this theory, though the officers of the Hesperian lean to the belief that a from it that the Hesperian was attacked without warning. It is assumed here that, if warning had been given, no one would have been killed, and also that, and have been killed, and also that, would have been killed, and also that, and also that, and would have been killed, and also that would have been killed, and also that would have been killed, and also that would have been killed h would have been kind, and also that sail from the States ports under having warned all on board to take to boats, the submarine would have fired other wars. enough torpedoes to insure sinking the ous cases, where warning was given.

least one, and possibly two, Americans were on board, although no Americans westbound, and therefore it cannot be charged in defence of the attack on her that she was carrying munitions of war to the British forces.

Secretary Lansing, while pronouncing this a recognition of the principles for which the United States has been to the British forces.

According to the American citizens aboard.

States Government in this war neither can the fact that she had a four inch sengers and most of the crew arrived here early this morning. Already additions a partial part

ON MERCHANT SHIPS According to the report of he Hesperian carried a 4 inch gun o

THE STATUS OF GUNS

olded last fall in the case of foreign vessels leaving American ports that the carrying of guns of not more than inch calibre, if the number and pos tions of such guns indicated that they were purely for defensive purposes not cause a vessel to lose its status as a merchant ship and become a war vessel. President Wilson, in his second note to Germany regarding the sinking of the Lusitania, referred to this distinct the Lusitania, referred to this distinc-tion in the purpose for which guns are carried, when replying to the German assertion that the Lusitania was "undoubtedly equipped with masked guns." In performing its duty as a neutral Power, the Presi-dent said it was the duty of the United States "to see that the Lusi-tania was not armed for offensive ac-othe British forces.

According to the positio nof the United Ambassador topresent some formal communication from his Government con-guns of not more than six inch calibre on board merchantmen using United States ports without regarding them as vessels of war. This was particularly bassador, it is well known, would have States ports without regarding them as vessels of war. This was particularly to be the case if the number and positions of such guns on a vessel indicated than were nurely for defensive purposes.

bassador, it is well known, would have had the matter disposed of long ago if given ample authority by his Government, and last week much gratification ment, and last week much gratification ment gratific

SURVIVORS ASSERT

Suddenly. Special Cable Desputch to Tan Sen. LONDON, Sept. 5 .- Major Barroe of Fourteenth Canadians, who was accomvessel had no warning. He was cor-roborated by his wife and by the in-Dr. Dumba said frankly that the provalided soldiers he was in charge of. tonation. The ship trembled and an enormous column of water shot fifty feet into the air and dropped with a perial Government was necessary terrific thud on the deck, drenching Dr. Dumba denied that there was any them first. Distress rockets were fired ernment.

Consul Frost's report shows that at storff, and not upon anything formal was carried on as rapidly as possible or official directly from his Government. were on board, although no Americans were killed, so far as is known, in view of all the circumstances, it is regarded as the duty of the United States Government to demand an explanation of the act of the German submarine in this jeopardizing the lives of the Americans on board.

Particular notice was taken of the fact that the Hesperian like the Arabic was on German Frontier.

Schultze, principal of the Morton street public school, who spent his first Sunday at home to-day after a town of Sunday at home to-day after a town of Sunday at home to-day after a town of the great steel place. day at home to-day after a tour of Ger- Pennsylvania these uneducated men of

DUMBA ADMITS PLAN TO TIE UP ARMS PLANTS

Austrian Envoy Says He Sent Despatch to Burian by Archibald.

"ENTIRELY PROPER." AMBASSADOR INSISTS

Goes to Washington To-day to Explain Situation to Lansing.

STATE DEPARTMENT CONSIDERS ACTION

Evidence of Activity of Teuton Agents Now Believed Sufficient.

LENOX, Mass., Sept. 5 .- Dr. Constanin T. Dumba, the Austro-Hungarian Ambassador, will leave Lenox to-morrow morning for New York en route for Washington, where he expects to have an interview with Secretary of State Lansing, when he will explain how James E. J. Archibald, the American correspondent, happened to be the bearer of secret despatches to the Imperial Austrian Government, and also to explain what was meant by the letter written by Dr. Dumba in New York on August 20 to Foreign Minister Burian in Vienna, suggesting that embarrassment could be caused the munition plants through the calling out of men of Aus-iro-Hungarian citizenship.

Dr. Dumba was not at all perturbed by the messages from London giving the of documents taken from Archibald. To newspaper correspond-ents he admitted writing the letter and stand how Archibald could have been so stupid.

Dr. Dumba attaches very little retary of State Lansing for the pur-pose of preventing any garbled copy pose of preventing any garbled copy of his letter which Archibald carried being cabled to the State Department. The despatches Archibald carried were delivered to him in New York a Dumba and Archibald were pres

Dumba Says He Will Explain.

Field Hill. He said he would give a complete statement of the position Austria-Hungary in connection with panying twelve officers and thirty-eight own citizens employed in Bethlehem and in other steel producing centres after he had called upon Secretary of State Lansing and the Secretary of Labor

He said he was sitting on the deck plants the citizens of Austria-Hungary when there was suddenly a loud de- and, by establishing a labor employment bureau, finding other work for them. This would be a costly undertaking and one for which the sanction of the Im-everybody around. Several fragments of iron also fell on the deck.

It was a calm night, he said. The stars were just beginning to become visible and it was already too dark to see the approach of a submarine's torpedo. Capt. Main, who was on the bridge, immediately ordered theb oats out. Women and children were put in them first. Distress rockets were fired to first personal to the proper to communicate to his Government. There was a memorandum of the number of Hungarians and others of Austrian citizenship employed at various steel works, and some other information which was perfectly proper for the Ambarsador to communicate to his Government.

"There was nothing in the despatches the submarine would have fired other wars.

It was recalled to-night that all the This has been the case in previouses, where warning was given.

It was recalled to-night that all the rejoicing of last week at the settlement of the submarine controversy has been founded on communications with the German Ambassador Count you Bernston to Be Demanded.

Storff, and not upon anything formal story of the submarine controversy has been founded on communications with the German Ambassador Count you Bernston to Be Demanded.

Storff, and not upon anything formal story of the submarine controversy has been founded on communications with the Story of the submarine controversy has been founded on communications with the submarine controversy has been founded on communications with the submarine controversy has been founded on communications with the submarine controversy has been founded on communications with the submarine controversy has been founded on communications with the submarine controversy has been founded on communications with the submarine controversy has been founded on communications with the submarine controversy has been founded on communications with the submarine controversy has been founded on communications with the submarine controversy has been founded on communications with the submarine controversy has been founded on communications with the submarine controversy has been founded on communications with the submarine controversy has been founded on communications with the submarine controversy has been founded in the blocks at one end and all of the occupants were shot into the water. The rescue works the fact that they were employed in the blocks at one end and all of the occupants were shot into the water. The rescue work was carried on as rapidly as submarine controversy has been founded. was carried on as rapidly as possible under the circumstances. One man said filled for the Allies with being guilty of The nearest approach to anything of that he was in the water for an hour a serious crime against their country, this sort came last Wednesday, when and fifteen minutes before he was res> in a war against their own country. In order to bring this before them have subsidized many newspapers pub lished in the languages and dialects of the divisions mentioned, attempting in many, relates an unusual incident which befell him on the frontier.

In the casterly section of the war them twelve hours a day and herding them twelve hours a day and herding them twelve hours a day and herding them.

from these steel and munition work