best man, and the usher will be Arthur B. Benton, another brother; Lowell L. Decker, Edmund S. Aymer and Lee H. Bristol.

Details have been completed for the marriage of Miss Hazel M. Austin and Frederick Godfrey Heller, which will take place on September 27 in the Church of the Epiphany, Miss Hazel Austin will be the maid of honor and Miss Gwendolyn E. Austin, sister of the bride, whose engagement to Roland Hogoe of Sydney, Australia, has just been announced, will be the bridesmaid. Phillip Carey of Chicago will be the best man, and the ushers will be Lieut. Wallace McNabb of Woolwich, England; Arthur E. Hall and Roland Hogoe.

In the Church of the Holy Communion, South Orange, on Saturday, Miss Nan Rodman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Rodman of South Orange, will become the bride of Linden Stuart, a number of guests from New York will attend the wedding.

St. James's Episcopal Church, Montclair, will be the scene of the marriage on Wednesday of Miss Esther Maria Peterson, daughter of Mrs. Gustave Peterson of Montclair, and Harry Thomas Topping.

One of the interesting engagements of the late summer is that of Miss Dorothy Frothingham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Frothingham of 203 Riverside Drive, and Lieut. Arthur N. Cohen of the British army, who is now at the front in France. Miss Frothingham and Lieut. Cohen met about two years ago when she and her father were on a trip around the world, and Lieut. Cohen, who had then just graduated from Oxford, was also on a world tour. The wedding will probably take place in England as soon as Lieut. Cohen obtains a leave of absence. Miss Frothingham and her parents spent the summer at their country home near White Plains.

Williams College, class '10. No date has been mentioned for the wedding.

Another recent engagement is that of Miss Margaret McCoy, daughter of Joseph H. McCoy of East Orange, to Brock Penney of this city. Miss McCoy spent the summer with her brother, Milton McCoy, on his ranch near Big Horn, Wyoming. Mr. Penney is a graduate of Kansas University, class '08, and is a cousin of former Congressman Victor Murdock. No date has been set for the wedding.

No date has been set for the marriage of Miss Ina Leland and Schuyler Adams Orvis, whose engagement was recently announced. Miss Leland is a grand daughter of the late Gen. W. W. Leland, who was on the staff of Gen. Grant during the civil war. She is a niece of Miss Hattie Leland of 51 East Fifty-eighth street, with whom she makes her home. Miss Leland is a graduate of the Finch School. Mr. Orvis, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Orvis, is a graduate of Williams College.

Mrs. George Schreiner of 304 West Ninety-second street has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Helen Marie Schreiner, to Edmund Wiley Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Taylor of 115 West 111th street. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Marie F. Rising

Mrs. Willett taking three first awards in the single driving class and then declined reelection. The other officers of the club are: Allen T. Broadway, vice-president; Walter P. Eaton, secretary; Brown Caldwell, treasurer, and Carl A. de Gersdorff, J. Woodward Haven, Edwin T. Rice, Norman H. Davis Butler, who has a productive farm at Lynwood, won the second prize, and Bernhard Hoffman and J. Woodward Haven were awarded third and fourth prizes. In the class for the best collection of vegetables Miss Ellen King won the first award, and Miss Emily Southmayde and the Misses Hague, who had been awarded several prizes for their fancy work.

A surprise to many in the Stockbridge colony was the revival of the Ice Glen party after seven years' postponement. The party was organized in 1859 by David Dudley Field, and celebrates an Indian custom and rites of the harvest. The promoters of the party were Miss Margaret French and Arthur M. Walker, who were assisted by a committee consisting of Walter Nettleton, Heaton Treadway, Herman Kohbe, Walter P. Eaton and Dr. Thomas Southworth.

Two other fancy dress dances, one Saturday night at Chesterwood, the country place of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Chester French, which was given by them for their daughter, the other last night at Wheatleigh, the estate of Mr. and Mrs. Carlos M. Heredia, were annual events. There were seven important dinners preceding the last dance, and Mr. and Mrs. French began to receive their guests about 10 o'clock. Mr. French represented Marquis de Lafayette, Mrs. French was in the dress of a Turkish woman of high rank, Miss Southmayde, their guest, Mrs. Howard Reshaw, was a gypsy; Miss Dorothy Schoonmaker a nun, and Miss Rosalie Miller made a pretty Carmen.

At the De Heredia dance there were many colors in the electric lighting and about the grounds, which are filled with gardens, the lights looked like an Italian fête on a copy of one in Italy, and had many porches, which were enclosed for the dance and upon which the supper was served. Miss Alexandrie is chairman of the charity ball which will be given Saturday, September 25, at 10 o'clock, at the Lenox Country Club, for the benefit of Miss Folsom's convalescent home. This will also be a fancy dress dance. It will be given under notable auspices, the patronesses being Mrs.

FALL DAYS AT THE RESORTS

LENOX, Sept. 18.—Although the days have been warm and humid on the Berkshire hillsides, a return to August weather, the nights have generally been cool this week, a rare north wind from the canadas touching the mountain tops on its way toward the sea. Two horse shows this week were well attended. In Pittsfield, at the grangers' fair, Wednesday was given over to exhibiting horses and a work horse parade. Lenox contributed its thoroughbred driving and riding horses to the exhibits, and many prominent women took part in the exhibition of their mounts. One division of the horse show had entries of Belgian horses from Frederick G. Crane and Chidesales from John Allen Spoor. Mr. and Mrs. J. Macy Willett and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schuber of New Marlboro and New York exhibited the horses of Hilditch B. Bloodgood in Norfolk, Conn. Mrs. Scraper winning the first award in the saddle class, and
