

CITY SALARY SLICERS TO HAVE BUSY WEEK

Must Work Day and Night as Public Hearings Begin October 25.

KENLON'S CASE PENDING

The members of the Board of Estimate budget committee and sub-committee will work night and day this week over the estimates of the various city departments.

Beginning to-morrow, the sub-committee, which deals directly with the department estimates and recommendations of the bureau of standards, will be divided into three groups.

The schedules of Fire Commissioner Adamson were further scrutinized by the sub-committee at the Municipal Building yesterday.

No action has been taken as to the recommendation of the bureau of standards for a $3,000 cut in the salary of Chief Kenlon.

The Board of Child Welfare, which will begin paying widows' pensions on January 1, asked the sub-committee yesterday for an allowance of $412,250 for next year.

The request will be considered by the main budget committee this week.

LIFE SAVING SUIT TESTED.

Inventor Jumps into Sea Hauled Out Dry and Warm.

A garment which its inventor, O. A. Younkers, a local engineer, claims to save life at sea from exposure and drowning, was tested yesterday off Sandy Hook before a committee of the United States steamboat inspection service.

The garment is made of rubber cloth lined from the waist up with kapok, a fibrous substance, for buoyancy, and weighted in the soles to keep the passenger upright, head and feet above water.

Food and fresh water are contained within the suit. With its use, Younkers says, hundreds of lives might have been saved from the Lusitania and Titanic.

22 LITTLE CRIPPLES HEALED.

Hartford Home Makes a Record in Bone Operations.

HARTFORD, Conn., Oct. 16.—Twenty-two spinal bone graft operations on children committed from improper homes to the Newington Home for Crippled Children, without the loss of a single patient, is the record of three Hartford physicians during the year.

The operations were performed by Dr. J. C. Wilson, assisted by Drs. R. M. Tension and Edward A. Deming.

NEW HUNTING RESTRICTIONS.

Attorney-General Rules Against Use of Highways.

ALBANY, Oct. 16.—Hunting along the highways of private parks and preserves in the Adirondacks, the Catskills, on Long Island and in Westchester and Putnam counties, was taboed to-day by Attorney-General Woodbury in an opinion given the State Conservation Commission.

"Scent protection would be afforded if, for example, the public were permitted to hunt along a highway which crosses a private preserve of small dimensions," says the Attorney-General. "A case can be easily imagined where every part of a private preserve could be reached from the highway, and an animal or bird taking refuge within its limits would be safe."

"The public, of course, including hunters, may pass back and forth upon such highways in the same manner and to the same extent that they may use other highways of the State, but hunting is not a part of the legitimate use of ordinary highways."

In the same opinion the Attorney-General holds that game may be lawfully taken during the open season on public highways within the forest preserve.

ELEVEN KILLED IN UNION PACIFIC WRECK

Motor Train Plunges Through Bridge Into Creek—Several Injured May Die.

RANDOLPH, Kan., Oct. 16.—Union Pacific motor train No. 479, consisting of one passenger coach and a baggage and mail combination car, crashed through an undermined abutment into Fancy Creek and buried about fifteen feet of the forward end of the passenger car in flood waters and mud, one mile south of here, to-day.

Eleven bodies have been recovered from the wreck and several others are being sought. The list of injured totals thirty-seven, some of whom may die.

Fancy Creek was swollen into a torrent by rains which fell yesterday and last night. The bridge proper withstood the ravages of the flood waters, but the south abutment was so weakened that the motor train carried it down.

A majority of the passengers were young women teachers from Riley county, Kansas, en route to a teachers meeting here. Several of the young women are unaccounted for.

Four persons in the wrecked car escaped without injuries and several may be fatally hurt. The homes of Randolph were thrown open to the sufferers.

Warren Knittle, conductor of the wrecked train, said that thirteen passengers either lost their lives or could not be found after the wreck.

OPIUM RING'S NEW TRICK IS REVEALED

Tibetan Gypsies Arrested as Smugglers on Tip Given by Chinese Rival.

CUSTOMS AGENTS FOOLED

The men who control the illicit drug traffic in this city have met with keen competition from an unexpected source. This became known yesterday when Assistant United States Attorney Content arraigned three Tibetan gypsies before United States Commissioner Houghton on a charge of having $1,000 worth of smuggled opium in their possession.

The Tibetans, styled "Hock-a-Doys" as they are derisively styled in Chinatown, were arrested with a Chinese accomplice in an apartment at 69 Forsyth street by Customs Inspectors Lewis, Collins and Kye. Under the floor the inspectors found the opium in cans. Unable to furnish bonds of $3,000 each, they were sent to the Tombs.

The entrance of the Tibetans into the drug traffic furnishes an explanation for the recent wooding of Chinatown with more opium than has been on the market at any one time since the Harrison law went into effect. Three months ago the customs men thought that they had stopped the smuggling of opium through rigorous supervision over all Chinese manned ships arriving at this port from Liverpool. The Chinese smugglers had reached the United States and a number of dealers here were offering unheard of prices for small quantities of the drug.

The Liverpool ring had sent over the "Opium Queen," Koko Chee, and a number of Japanese and Chinese agents, all of whom had been arrested. Then they decided to try the Tibetans.

Two months ago the "Hock-a-Doys" arrived at New Orleans from Singapore. Soon after their appearance in this city the opium dens began to run full time during the next six weeks. Mr. Content says the defendants smuggled about $9,000 worth of opium from Liverpool on the very ships that were being carefully searched for narcotics.

The success of the "Hock-a-Doys" aroused the jealousy of the Chinese traffickers and a tip from a Chinaman led to the arrests.

DRUG USER'S WIDOW SUES.

Asks $15,000 From Druggist Who Sold Husband Opium.

ORCHARD, S. D., Oct. 16.—Mrs. Nellie Moberg, widow of August Moberg, a contractor and builder, has brought suit for $15,000 against H. E. Scott, a druggist, who, she alleges, made a drug addict of her husband.

Mrs. Moberg sets forth that the defendant furnished to her husband opium and preparations of which opium is a part, from about January, 1912, until the death of Moberg, March 17, 1914. Mrs. Moberg avers she warned the defendant against such sale.

The success of the "Hock-a-Doys" aroused the jealousy of the Chinese traffickers and a tip from a Chinaman led to the arrests.

INCUBATOR SAVES TINY BABY.

Survivor of Chicago Triplets Weighs 3 Pounds 4 Ounces.

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—Master "Peanut" Hirsch, said to be the smallest baby in existence, astounded physicians and nurses to-night when he kicked his little pink feet and gurgled as he was taken from an incubator which has been his home since his birth, three months ago.

The infant was the only one of triplets who survived. His mother, a young woman, died six weeks after his birth. Physicians told his mother that so small a baby could not live.

To-night when a physician lifted him from the incubator he weighed three pounds and four ounces.

"He'll live," said the physician.

CASE AGAINST RYAN DROPPED.

Hat Check Boy in Cafe Withdraws Assault Charge.

The charge of assault against (Clement) J. Ryan, son of Thomas F. Ryan, was withdrawn yesterday by Steven Anton, the hat check boy at the Cafe des Beaux Arts in the West Farms court. Anton appeared before Magistrate Levy and his head banded.

The Magistrate was willing to permit Anton to drop the charge if he would sign an affidavit to that effect. This was done and the Magistrate dismissed the complaint against young Ryan.

Anton caused Ryan's arrest following a dispute in the hat room of the cafe over the ownership of a hat.
