

CARDINAL UNVEILS HIS GIFT TO SCHOOL

Cardinal Farley so admired a statue of Christ executed by Samuel J. Kitson, the noted sculptor, who died in 1906, that he bought it and presented it to St. Joseph's Seminary in Dunwoodie, N. Y., the training school for Catholic young men aspiring to the priesthood. The Cardinal personally assisted at the unveiling, which was held with elaborate ceremony on September 29.

KITSON'S STATUE OF CHRIST.

AT THE LEFT—
THE CARDINAL
UNVEILING THE STATUE.

Copyright by American Press
Association