

FRENCH WOUNDED MAKING CHRISTMAS TOYS

Germany, before the war, held a practical monopoly of the business of toy making. This move by the French Government is directed both toward supplying the world deprived of the German output and furnishing permanent employment to the wounded.

Photos, Medem Photo Service.

CRIPPLED SOLDIERS AT WORK IN THE NEW SCHOOL FOR TOY MAKING ESTABLISHED BY THE GOVERNMENT AT LYON.

SOME OF THE FINISHED PRODUCTS OF THE SCHOOL.