STANDING OF THE PLAYERS. Hoppe 400 to 375, Cochran 300 to 275, etc.

William F. Hoppe, the billiard champion, had his first real test last night in the handicap 18.2 billiard tournament at the New York Theatre Concert Hall...

The contest was the most thrilling that the young champion has played during the tourney. Also it was the longest and brought out Hoppe's lowest average to date.

By the early morning Hoppe could not get his stroke working and Sutton was little better. Neither one of them averaged over 100 for the first ten minutes and the score kept close.

Undergraduate Paper Asks for a Man Who Can Build Up a Football System Like That of Harvard's Great Coach.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 22.—Yale graduates who have contended for some time that Yale must make a decided change in the management of her athletics, especially her football, are discussing the stand taken today by the undergraduates through their official organ, the Yale News.

The attitude assumed by the undergraduates is flattering in the extreme to Harvard's best coach and places the credit of the victory of the Cambridge college on Saturday at Houghton's door.

The comment of the Yale News on Houghton and the call to Yale graduates to follow the example of Harvard and elect Houghton as coach for Yale is in part as follows: "One of the beauties of a post-mortem review of a football game is the opportunity that it affords the calm and dispassionate reflection on every minute, quick to take advantage of every mistake that their opponents make, hence on the defensive.

But reflection has also led us to attempt to answer that question which all losers invariably ask themselves, 'How did it happen?' Our answer is the au-

Columbia Goal Post Taken as Souvenir

NO football player ever will send another 47 yard drop kick over the east cross bar of the South Field gridiron like the one which Howard Miller, the Columbia quarterback, made against New York University Saturday.

THE upright and its cross bar are gone. Some time between Saturday night and yesterday morning some one sawed down the goal post and carried it off as a souvenir of a wonderful play.

ALL CORNELL CHEERS WHEN TEAM DEPARTS

Capt. Barrett, Off for His Last Game, Says That His Men Are Not Overconfident.

Ithaca, N. Y., Nov. 22.—Overconfidence. There is absolutely nothing of this in this squad," said Capt. Charles Barrett of the Cornell football team in building farewell to the cheering Cornell supporters as tonight for Atlantic City, where they will put in their final practice for the Penn game on Thursday.

The captain's sentiments were echoed by the other varsity players, but Coach Williams said that Cornell was fit for a hard game and ought to play up to form against the Quakers.

The special game made at the station and were the climax of a thundering send-off for the eleven, the most pretentious and enthusiastic of its kind in the history of Cornell sports. The cheering graduates, about 1,000 in number, gathered up town about 9 o'clock and marched down to the depot.

The Cornell team had an easy day. There was a short ritual of good-bies and the players, Dr. Sharp dismissed the players. He plans to hold two long drills at Atlantic City and may have a light scrimmage.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 22.—The entire Pennsylvania varsity squad left Philadelphia at noon today for the Cornell game at the Country Club. All the members of the squad who can afford the cuts will stay at the clubhouse on Thursday morning, but a few of the men will have to sleep in the hotel at Whittensburgh on the night of the game.

This afternoon Dr. Williams lined up the varsity as if it were against Cornell. He is undecided whether to start Ross or Williams and will decide that tonight. The other fellows were at the halva and Bell was in the pilot position. Dr. Williams stated, however, that Lanck probably will attend to the game.

President's Help Asked by Golfers

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Knowing him to be a golfer of unquestioned enthusiasm, the United States Golf Association is going to ask President Wilson to help determine what kind of grasses make the best golf course.

A committee from the organization called at the White House today seeking an appointment and the President will see them later. The committee, including President Frank L. Woodward of Denver, Col.; Secretary Edward F. Whitney of New York and Dr. Walter S. Harban of Washington, wish the President to enlist the aid of the Department of Agriculture in the study of grasses for both fair and putting greens.

GILMAN OR HARTE LIKELY TO BE CHOSEN

Tackle and End Are Chief Rivals for Captaincy of Next Harvard Team.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 22.—Although the election of a captain for Harvard's 1916 football team will not take place for several weeks, the players already are discussing the candidates and it really is a matter of time before Dick Harter and Joe Gilman.

Gilman played in 1913 as well as this fall, and while rated in the players list as a member of the class of 1916 he really is a junior and will be eligible for the team another season. He has been a remarkably fine player for Harvard and is the only man left who has been a regular player on two of Harvard's teams. Gilman did not play in 1914 at all, but came back splendidly this year and was the main strength of Harvard's line against Yale last year.

Dick Harter, the other candidate, is well known as an intercollegiate lawn tennis player and last spring caught for the Harvard varsity nine. This was his first year on the team, although he showed up well as a freshman after entering college from Pomfret School.
