

Federal League President and Owners to Confer on Purchase of Cleveland Club—Carter Golf Winner

WINNER PLANNING TO BUY THE INDIANS

Hurries to New York to Meet Gilmore and His Partner Comstock.

FINANCIER TO BE HEAD

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Jan. 6.—Edward W. Gwinner, president of the local Federal League team, in answer to a hurry call from James M. Gilmore took a train for New York at 1 o'clock this afternoon. From one of the backers of the Rebels it was learned to-day that Gwinner is to meet his partner, C. M. Comstock, and Harry Sinclair in New York and with President Gilmore on the purchase of the Cleveland Indians who attended the meeting of the baseball magnates in Cincinnati, is due in New York to-night or to-morrow. After the conference with Gilmore, Comstock and Comstock he will accompany Gwinner and Comstock to Cleveland to-morrow evening, where negotiations for securing control of the Cleveland team will be taken up with the bankers' committee which now controls the club because of a $150,000 mortgage. Comstock, who was in Pittsburgh Monday, left for Cleveland Tuesday morning and was in that city until Wednesday afternoon. Representing the Ward business, Comstock is well known to Cleveland financiers to accept the presidency of the Indians in the event of Gwinner and Comstock's purchase of the club. Before leaving this city Gwinner admitted that he will hold his club roster of last year intact for eventualities. Rebel Club members in this city since Monday "awaiting developments."

SUIT TO BE WITHDRAWN.

From WIN Meet Here Next Week and Sign Letter Agreeing to It. CHICAGO, Jan. 6.—Federal League baseball men have not dropped into oblivion entirely, now that Charles Weighman has acquired the Chicago Cubs and the Federal League has been organized by a well known Cleveland financier to accept the presidency of the Indians in the event of Gwinner and Comstock's purchase of the club. Before leaving this city Gwinner admitted that he will hold his club roster of last year intact for eventualities. Rebel Club members in this city since Monday "awaiting developments."

ARMY NINE NOT TO BE IDLE.

Harvard, Syracuse, Fordham and Navy on Baseball Schedule. WEST POINT, Jan. 6.—One of the strongest schedules ever arranged for an Army baseball nine has just been announced by Lieut. J. L. Devers, representative for baseball at the military academy. The schedule includes games with the Army's programme of spring games for this year, all of which will be played at home except the one with Annapolis, and Saturday, May 27, has been selected as the date. Although all the games are only preliminary to the big contest with the Navy, the cadets have Harvard, Tufts, Syracuse, Georgetown and Fordham as head line attractions. The Army has seven new teams to West Pointers, the University of Buffalo and the University of Pittsburgh nines, also are on the schedule. Sam Strang, who has coached Army nines for seven years with almost uniform success, has been engaged again as coach for this year. The Army has straight Navy wins to its credit. Bob Neyland, the cadets' star twirler of the last two seasons, is captain of the college nine. Cadet W. H. H. Washington is team manager. Though the Army lost Merrill, Pritchard, Hobbs and Bradley of last year's nine by graduation, the new team is expected to give good material. Indoor work will begin next month. The schedule:

MAHAN NOT WITH RED SOX.

Boys Professional Ball Won't Be Considered Until College Closes. BROOKLYN, Jan. 6.—President Lammie of the Red Sox and his chief scout, Tommy McCarthy, denied emphatically today that they had made any overtures to Edward W. Mahan, captain of last year's football team at Harvard. Mahan was one of the pitchers of the varsity nine in 1914 and 1915 and will be the first string man this year. Mahan says he never has considered playing professional baseball and surely will not do so until after the college season closes.

McGRATH GETS OWN MEDICINE.

Allowed to Keep After Masked Marvel, Who Finally Wins. A twenty minute draw with the Masked Marvel did not satisfy Jack McGrath in the wrestling tournament at the Manhattan Club last night and he decided to be allowed to continue to a finish. The management was disinclined to accede to his demand, but when the crowd became unruly the management backed down and the struggle began again. After 42 minutes and 27 seconds of wrestling McGrath probably wished that he had been permitted to go on, for just at that moment the Marvel deftly rolled him over and pinned his weary shoulders to the mat.

Wladek Zlosko and Strangler Lewis

then went at each other and rolled around for about 13 minutes, when the closing time put an end to the struggle. In the other bouts Johnson and Dr. Koller wrestled a draw, Zelenow defeated Patterson and Abigan and Ira also drew.

Phillies Puffed Up, Says Connie Mack

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Jan. 6.—"The Phillies are poor sports. We are absolutely through with them, and there will be no more interleague games with them so long as I am connected with the Athletics." This statement was made to-day by the usually quiet and taciturn Connie Mack, leader of the former world's champion Athletics, Mack declared that Pat Moran's National League champions were puffed up over winning the pennant and do not want a spring series with the White Elephants, as a defeat might interfere with opening their season in a blaze of glory. "When the Athletics were winning championships the Phillies were anxious for the city series," Mack said, "as then they had all to gain and nothing to lose by winning from the champions."

CRESCENTS BEATEN BY HARVARD CLUB

Heffernan Fails to Play Up to Expectation and His Seven Loses, 6 to 2.

CONWAY TALLIES TWICE

BOSTON, Jan. 6.—The Harvard Club hockey team of Boston treated its friends to an agreeable surprise to-night by defeating the strong Crescent A. C. seven of New York, 6 to 2, in a lively contest at the Arena. In the first game of the Amateur Hockey League series and all the forecasts were favorable to the visitors. Frank Heffernan, who is playing under protest, was touted as almost the equal of Hobey Baker, but he did not impress the local fans that way when seen in action. The Harvard Club representatives played much better hockey than their opponents and proved once more that a strong offensive is a good defense. Brown jumped into the lead in the first period, Hicks scoring after sixteen minutes of play, and just before the half ended Phillips made the score 2 to 0. Conway tallied twice in the second period, and after Sallottail had cared another for Boston Conway repeated his performance. The lineup:

WELD MEETS DISASTER TWICE.

Servatius Beats Him in Afternoon and Levine at Night.

Assigned Passes 100 Twice.

In his exhibitions of 18-2 ballkine at Daly's yesterday, Fernin Cassinold made two runs of over 100 points. He was victor in the afternoon over Hal Coleman, 250 to 21, with a high run of 110 and average of 27.75, as against Coleman's high run of 28 and only 17.8 average. In the evening he defeated E. S. Appleby, 250 to 149, with a run of 161 and average of 29.10-12. Appleby made a run of 19 and 12.41. Two games in all—high grade work for an amateur.

Nicklas Resigns Captaincy.

Felix Nicklas resigned yesterday as the captaincy of the St. John's College basketball team because of his faculty work, only recently ordered in force, bidding a member of any St. John's team from playing with an outside opponent. Nicklas has been second in his bid at two possibilities of future developments. Either Nicklas may quit the team entirely and stick to the Crescent Club, or he may resign as captain and direct solely against Nicklas.

KING COLE, PITCHER OF CUBS AND YANKS, DEAD

World has been received here that Leonard J. Cole, pitcher of the New York American League Club, died yesterday at his home in Bay City, Mich., of cancer of the groin. Cole had been ill since late last September, when he left the Yankees and returned home. The pitcher, known to baseball fans better as King Cole first became prominent as a major league twirler in 1910, under the tutelage of Frank Chance, he was the winning pitcher of the Chicago Cubs and the leading hurler of the National League.

DECISIONS WILL BE ALLOWED IN STATE

Boxing Commission to Meet To-day and Adopt Rule, Says Story From Albany.

OTHER CHANGES ARE DUE

ALBANY, Jan. 6.—Decisions can be made legally in boxing bouts very soon the result of a ruling which it is declared here today will be made to-morrow at a meeting of the State Athletic Commission in New York. The ruling will permit decisions in important bouts by five specially designated referees to be named by the commission. The boxing commission will meet at 4 Park Row for a four day session. According to the ruling it is declared will be made, the five referees will be named to represent as many different divisions of the State. The referees for any of these sections will be designated to officials in order to give a decision at any important bout upon application of the referee. This will be the first time since the passage of the Horton law, more than fifteen years ago, that decisions will be legalized in New York State.

WENCK TELLS WHY HE IS IN FAVOR OF ARMY BOUTS

Tells Governor Boxing Is Healthful Sport and National Guard Buildings Are Ideal Places for Contests—Moran vs. Coffey To-night.

Whether or not boxing bouts shall be held in New York State armories is still an open question. Chairman Frederick A. Wenck of the State Athletic Commission said last night that no word had been received from Gov. Whitman directing that the leasing of licenses for bouts in State armories be stopped. The protest entered by clergymen against the scheduling of bouts in the Twenty-second Regiment Armory has led the members of the State commission to give their reasons for sanctioning such contests.

Chairman Wenck and Frank Dwyer of the commission spent yesterday afternoon in company of Deputy Attorney-General Lewis J. Ormsby, speaking a brief which explained the reasons for granting licenses to the regiments. This was despatched to Gov. Whitman last night. The stance taken by the commission is that boxing is a healthful sport and that the armories are places in which bouts can be staged on a high plane and under proper supervision.

Though the Seventy-first Regiment is scheduled to open with a bout between Freddie Welsh and Johnny Durney, the boxing commission is not making public to-night. During the fight, the fighting of the ministers has been waged against the holding of boxing matches in the Twenty-second Regiment Armory. The same manner as that against the holding of this Major-General O'Hanlon said: "Gov. Whitman instructed me to make inquiries about the matter and I am glad to report that the State Athletic Commission is in favor of boxing. It is a healthful sport and the armories are places in which bouts can be staged on a high plane and under proper supervision. The bout to-night seems to resolve into a question of who is the better fighter. Both are hard hitters, and it is considered better than an even money bet that either one or the other will be the victor. There are few heavyweights who fight so earnestly and conscientiously as Coffey. He is willing to take a punch in order to get the better of his opponent. He has been beaten again to-night but it will be because of the superior generalship of Moran, who has been schooled for many years in the art of boxing. A bumper fight is expected to-night and, while the bout is the main bout, the spectators will be entertained by a semi-final between Young Joe Thomas of California and Paul Freda, and also a bout between Percy Aubrey and Young Allen which will close the evening.

FUNDS OF $25,000 VOTED FOR RACING

Two $5,000 Steeplechases to Be Held Under Auspices of Hunt Association.

LIMIT ON 3-YEAR-OLDS

A $25,000 subscription fund and two $5,000 steeplechase stakes were projected yesterday at the annual meeting of the United Hunts Racing Association. The National Hunt and Hunt Association held its meeting at the same time and at the same place, 18 East Forty-first street. Among other things it approved the resolution of Joseph L. Davis to prohibit the racing of three-year-olds through the field before August.

The interest over the proposed new steeplechase stakes was so keen that a large part of the $25,000 fund was subscribed by members that attended the meeting and the racing secretary, said that the balance would be subscribed long before the next meeting. One of the new stakes will be run at the spring, and another at the fall meeting of the United Hunts at Belmont Park Terminal. What they will be named and their conditions will be taken up at a meeting in the near future.

Another stake at one mile for two-year-olds to be run at the fall meetings, tentatively arranged, and Frank Bryan, the racing secretary, said that it would be a rich one, worth something in the neighborhood of $10,000. The Terminal track was selected for the grand stand, came up for its share of attention. It is proposed to build several tiers of boxes sloping down to the lawn from the stand to take the place of the old look-out on the end beyond the winning post.

The association will have two two day meetings at the Terminal, as last year. All the old officers were re-elected for the coming season, and the only change in the board of directors was that J. Temple Gwynne took the place of Edward A. Cochran as racing secretary. The association named for the coming year were H. L. Bell, C. L. Appleton, James Park, A. J. Devereux, Frank Bryan and C. K. Morrison.

The amendment to the rule governing the early racing of three-year-old jumpers, approved at the meeting of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association, now reads: "No horse shall run in a steeplechase until August 1 of the year in which he is 3 years old, and no entry of a horse that has started in a steeplechase in this or any country previous to August 1 of the year in which he is 3 years old can be received for any steeplechase held under the rules of the association during his three-year-old year."

The stewards named to serve at the various meetings under the association's jurisdiction until 1919 were Henry W. Bull, Henry J. Morris and Joseph L. Widdener.

CARTER WINS AGAIN ON PINEHURST LINKS

Makes 74 in the Rain and Beats Washington Golfer by 5 and 4 Margin.

FOUR LEFT IN RUNNING

PINEHURST, N. C., Jan. 6.—The golfers left in the Pinehurst midwinter tournament played in the rain to-day. Defeat, however, were few and most of the contestants stuck it out until the match was decided. They finished in as soon as that happened, so there were but few cards or full length holes. The fairways were in good condition in spite of the wet, but wet sand on the greens made putting more difficult.

Lullin Carter made a 74, excellent under the conditions. His opponent, H. Clapp, had won 2 down at the first hole, then Carter began to win and kept it up. The score:
