

COLUMBIA AROUSED BY A NEW JOURNAL

Professors and Students Expected to Oppose Course of "Challenge."

DR. BUTLER IS NEUTRAL

Columbia University aroused itself yesterday to the impending publication of "Challenge," a periodical whose cry is freedom and whose first appearance on the campus will be on Washington's Birthday. Tales of official action in the way of suppressing the new magazine...

IF GERALDINE FERRAR FELL IT IS ALL NEWS TO CARUSO

But Even So, "She Fall Like She Want," the Tenor Asserts—Trouble Off Stage? How Could There Be in a Happy Family.

DR. BUTLER IS NEUTRAL

Whatever happened behind the curtain of the Metropolitan Opera House on Thursday night between Enrico Caruso and Geraldine Ferrar, it was all in the family—and why any public excitement? Besides, nothing happened, positively nothing. There were otherwise is to stuff oneself with noise. A few words, Yes, but only such as "Geraldine and Don Jose—always exchange an act—unrumored comment on the way the act went, a laughing reply—that was all. Did Caruso slap the cheek of Don Jose? He forgot it. Did Ferrar slap Caruso? He forgot it. Did Ferrar slap Caruso? He forgot it.
