

MISS BARBARA THAW PHOTO BY CAMPBELL STUDIO

Continued from First Page. America by Mrs. S. Barton French of "Carillon," Emil Cammaert's famous poem, with music by Sir Edward Elgar, will take place at the Century Theatre on the evening of March 12. There will be music by the orchestra of the New York Symphony Society under the direction of Walter Damrosch. The proceeds of this entertainment will be turned over to four war relief organizations, the Belgian Relief, the Lafayette Fund, the Serbian Relief and St. Dunstan's Hospital, Park, London, for blinded soldiers. A limited number of boxes will be on sale at $15. Tickets will be from 50 cents to $2.50 and they may be obtained by application to the Lafayette Fund headquarters, Room 122, at the Vanderbilt.

In order to allow more time for the making of costumes and the working out of other details of the Venetian Masque Ball to be given at the Century Theatre in aid of the Italian War Relief Committee it has been postponed until March 24. There will be a pageant with features characteristic of Venice in the matter of costumes, scenery and other details. It will be given on the stage of the Century Theatre and following it there will be dancing.

For the benefit of the members of the Paris Conservatoire made destitute by the war there will be an entertainment in Carnegie Hall on March 15. The members of the committee arranging the benefit are with one exception all men who at the time or other have been Ambassadors to France; they are Myron T. Herrick, Robert Bacon, Gen. Horace Porter, Henry White and Joseph H. Choate. Many women prominent socially are interested in the enterprise, among them Mrs. Pierpont Morgan, Mrs. Moses Taylor Paine, Mrs. Philip M. Lydig, Mrs. George J. Gould and Mrs. George S. Brewster. This is the first organized benefit for the Conservatoire started by sympathetic friends to help the soldier-musicians. The programme has not yet been definitely arranged, but the artists will include Paderewski, Ernest Schelling, Eugene Grandos, Lucien Muratore, Georges Barrere and the Pionizky Quartet. Among the patronesses are Mrs. Francis McNeil Brown, George Crawford Clark, Whitney Warren, A. Murray Young, Henry Clay, Robert W. Bliss, Willard Straight, Cornelius Vanderbilt, Charles Steele, John Jacob Astor and Robert Abbe.

According to their annual custom, the members of the Symphony Club of New York are about to give a concert in aid of charity. It will take place on the afternoon of March 14 in Aeolian Hall and will be for the benefit of the Brearley League Cripple School. The Symphony Club is composed of amateur musicians and for the past five years it has given concerts annually in aid of local charitable organizations, raising in all the sum of $16,000. The Bentley League has supported trade classes for crippled children and it is maintained solely by voluntary contributions. Mrs. John A. Hartwell is the president of the Symphony Club and among the other officers and members are Miss Callender, honorary president; Mrs. George M. Tuttle, Mrs. Reue B. Kimball, Mrs. Howard Brookway, Mrs. Frederick Rhoadsander Brown, Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., Mrs. Robert L. Young, Mrs. Nathan Clark, Mrs. George Clark, Jr., Mrs. James Otis Post, Mrs. James Murphy, Mrs. George P. Robbins, Miss Mary Hoyt Wiborg, Miss Louise Marshall, Miss Alice Ives Jones, Miss Florence Howes, Miss Katherine Dodd, Miss Gertrude Field and Miss Helen Morgan Hamilton. Tickets at $5, $3 and $2 each and boxes at $50 may be obtained of Mrs. Hartwell, 27 East Sixty-third street.

Mrs. James Speyer has lent her house at 1355 Fifth avenue for a recital to be given by Fritz Kreisler on the afternoon of March 22 for the benefit of St. Mary's Free Hospital for Crippled Children. This will be the first time that Mrs. Speyer has allowed the use of her home for such a purpose. The recital will be held in the music room. Tickets at $5 each may be secured from Mrs. Speyer or any of the members of the committee, among whom are Misses William Alexander, Charles W. Barkness, George T. Bliss, John Alexander, David Heller, J. Nelson Boardman, William Warner Hoppin, Jr., Richard Irving, George P. Cammann, David Crawford Clark, Charles H. Marshall, Lewis G. Morris, David Crawford Clark, Geraldine C. Coyne, Lewis G. Morris, Henry W. Munroe, George B. Post, J. Hopkins Smith, Frank K. Strauss, Forest Wickes, M. Orme Wilson, J. Horace Harding, Robert L. Powell, Jr., and E. Grand D'Hauteville, Miss Mabel Gerry and Miss Tracy Plunkett.

Society is manifesting interest in the forthcoming International Flower Show to be held at the Grand Central Palace during the week of April 5 to 12. Plans are being arranged to turn over each day's receipts of the tea garden toward war relief. Among the organizations to be benefited are the Yvonne War Relief Fund, which will be represented by Mrs. William Prince and Miss Anne Morgan on the opening day, and the American Branch for French Wounded, Mrs. Elizabeth Nevin being chairman of this committee. The successive days will be devoted to the war funds of the American Red Cross and the similar organizations of other nations.

Numerous features are being arranged for the various afternoons and evenings in the tea garden. In addition to dancing in the afternoon and evening several well known artists will be present to make up a programme of music, song and recitation. Gen. Leonard Wood will deliver a lecture on the work of the Red Cross in the tea garden one morning during the week of the exhibition.

MISS ELEANOR ARNETT NASH PHOTO BY DAVIS & SANFORD

There has been a very encouraging sale of boxes and seats for the performances to-morrow afternoon and evening in the Ritz-Carlton ballroom of "L'Alcazar," a Florentine pantomime, and "The Flame of Kapur," which will be repeated by consent of the members of the Junior League of New York. The pantomime, whose plot is laid in Florence during the fifteenth century, will be performed by members of the sister organization of the same name, composed of Philadelphia debutantes, and about seventy will come over for the purpose. The Philadelphians will be entertained at dinner to-morrow evening before the performance and they will remain over night with friends here.

The afternoon performance will begin punctually at 2 and the night performance at 8. Among those who have taken boxes and tickets are Mrs. Nicholas Murray Butler, Mrs. W. Seward Webb, Roswell Eldridge, Mrs. R. Fulton Cutting, Miss Anne Burr Jennings, Miss Callender, Mrs. E. Henry Harriman, Mrs. Rudolph H. Kissel, Mrs. James May Duane, Mrs. Walter Bliss, Mrs. C. Leonard Blair, Mrs. Gardner Gayley, Mrs. James Warren Lane, Mrs. W. Emile Roosevelt, Mrs. Henry P. Davison, Mrs. Charles B. Alexander, Mrs. John Lowell of Boston, Mrs. Herbert L. Satterlee, Mrs. H. Winthrop Gray, Mrs. Pierpont Morgan, Mrs. John T. Pratt, Mrs. Charles L. Tiffany, Mrs. James Speyer, Mrs. P. McNeill Bacon, Mrs. J. Herman Aldrich, Mrs. David H. Greer, Miss Mary Devoe, Miss Opycke, Mrs. Louis Klopsch, Mrs. John H. Iselin, Mrs. J. Dineley Prince and Mrs. Lindley Hoffman Chapin.

The proceeds of the entertainment, which has been organized by the St. Johnland Auxiliary of Women, will be devoted to the equipment, clothing and special funds of that institution. In addition to the sale of boxes and tickets several large donations have been sent for the fund. A few tickets remain on sale with Mrs. Henry Mott at 47 West Twenty-ninth street, and they may be obtained to-morrow afternoon and evening at the Ritz-Carlton. After the night performance there will be a dance and among the men in the floor committee will be Johnston Livingston Redmond, J. Lenox Banks, Jr., Oliver C. Wagstaff, John Scott Browning, Jr., W. Bruce Brown, A. Merle D'Aubigne, Remond T. Townsend, Thomas A. E. Harris, George Gray Zabriskie, Ronald M. Ferry, Edward Shippen, E. Coster Wilmerding, Charles McAlpin Kyle and Barclay Farr. A group of debutantes will sell programmes and supper will be served in the main restaurant in a carte or at a fixed price.

One of the largest of the Lenten sewing classes, that which works for the Fresh Air Association of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, will hold its first meeting this season on the morning of March 14 at the home of Mrs. Frederick Roosevelt, 8 East

Fifty-second street. The attendance at these meetings is always good and there will be music or recitations at each. Among the subscribers for this season are Misses Jonathan Thorne, Edward J. Haney, Platt Hunt, Edward D. Adams, Henry M. Telford, James H. Aldrich, Charles B. Alexander, Clarence M. Hyde, Columbus O'Donnell, Iselin, Richard Irving, Joseph S. Applebach, George Gordon King, J. Mulholland, Henry W. Vaughan, Fortney Parker, Rudolph H. Kissel, Frederic E. Lewis, George De Forest Lord, Alexander von Gontard, George H. Bond, J. Hill Browning, J. Edgar Bull, Isaac McCoinie, J. Kearny Warren, George Livingston Nichols, Connel C. Overton, Frederick Iverson, Charlotte Cary, E. Kingsbury Curtis, Charles Dana, H. Ludlow Fowler, Philip A. S. Franklin

David H. Greer, Wheeler H. Peckham, Frank Hunter Potter, president; Mrs. Frank S. Witherben, James Roosevelt E. Asmar, Sands and Francis Lyndal Statton, Miss Julia M. Allister, Miss Caroline White, Miss Margaret Remson and Miss Catherine S. Barton. The officers of the class are Mrs. Frank Hunter Potter, president; Mrs. Irvin, vice-president; Mrs. John H. Iselin, secretary; and Miss M. Allister, treasurer. Mrs. Augustus H. Field, 66 East Eighty-third street, is receiving subscriptions for the course at $5 each. The other meetings will be held at the homes of Mrs. John H. Iselin, Mrs. Stephen C. Clark and Mrs. Frederic E. Lewis on Tuesdays in Lent.

Mrs. William Curtis Demorest, who is interested in the Music School Settlement for colored children, will give this afternoon at her home, 68 East Sixty-sixth street, a tea with music for some of her friends who are directly interested in the work of the settlement, and among the musicians will be Miss Azalia Hackley, Mrs. Fanny B. Knight, Miss Ethel Richardson, Miss Pauline Lee and Harry T. Burlingame.

MISS DOROTHY BROWNING

Mrs. Sidney Brooks, who accompanied her husband from London on his mission to this country from England, has been staying at the Plaza, where she recently entertained at dinner Mr. and Mrs. Norman Whitehouse, Miss Mabel Chase, Mr. and Mrs. Ellihu Root and other prominent persons.

The last of the dinner dances organized by Miss Annabella Crispant will be given in Sherry's large ballroom on Tuesday and there will be some Mardi Gras features. Among the patronesses of these dinners are Mrs. J. Prentice Kellogg, Mrs. James Parish Lee, Mrs. Donn Barber, Mrs. Harry H. Harvey, Mrs. Albert Deesse, Mrs. G. Howard Davison, Mrs. Joseph Howard Hunt, Mrs. Alfred Wagstaff, Jr., Mrs. Robert E. Tod, Mrs. Willard S. Brown, Mrs. Edward L. Morris, Mrs. Frederick Foster Carey and Mrs. George Batchelder.

Mrs. Wilber Bloodgood will give a luncheon to-morrow at her home, 49 East Thirty-fourth street, and a small dance will be given to-morrow night by Mrs. Frederick Eber at her home, 45 East Forty-ninth street.

Miss Barbara Thaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Hunt Thaw, will be among the early spring brides. Her wedding to Lieut. Scott B. Macfarlane, U. S. N., will be celebrated on April 23 in the Church of the Heavenly Rest. The engagement was announced last October.

Lieut. Macfarlane is attached to the Oklahoma, now on temporary duty at the torpedo station at Newport, R. I.

The engagement was announced recently of Miss Dorothy Browning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ross Browning, of Llewellyn Park, N. J., to Wilson DeLamun of Haverstraw, N. Y. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund S. Nash of Ramapo, N. Y., announced recently the engagement of their daughter, Miss Eleanor Arnett Nash, to Culver McWilliam of this city. Miss Nash is a member of a prominent Southern family, from which Nashville, Tenn., received its name. No date has been mentioned for the wedding, but it will take place soon and will be celebrated quietly.

Mrs. Samuel Sloan Auchincloss has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Marie G. Duryee, to Vicomte Pal de Saint Phalle, son of the Comte and Comtesse Pierre de Saint Phalle of Nievre, France. Miss Duryee was introduced to society a few years ago and is a member of a family that has been prominent in this city and Short Hills, N. J. She is a sister of Miss Agnes G. Duryee and a granddaughter of the late Charles Guidet.

Vicomte de Saint Phalle returned recently from France, where he had seen active service at the front. He is a member of the New York Stock Exchange and is in business in this city. The wedding will take place in May.

Another engagement recently announced was that of Miss Theodora Pope, daughter of Mrs. Mrs. Alfred A. Pope of this city and Stamford, Conn., and John Wallace Riddle of this city, at one time Ambassador to Russia. Miss Pope is the only daughter of the late Alfred A. Pope, who was one of the best known manufacturers in this country. She is an architect and is a member of the Colony Club.

Mr. Riddle was Ambassador to Russia during President Roosevelt's Administration. He was graduated from Harvard in 1887 and spent much time abroad in the diplomatic service. He is a member of the Union Club in this city, the Cercle des Colon in Paris, the Metropolitan in Washington and other clubs. No date has been set for the wedding.

The engagement was announced recently of Miss Margery Mott, daughter of Mrs. Cara V. Westcott Mott of Baltimore, and Frederick Matthews Gray, a son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Gray of Baltimore, formerly of New York.

It has been decided to repeat the spring costume dance which was organized last year by mothers of debutantes, and it will be held at Sherry's on April 25. It is expected that all who attend the ball will wear fancy costumes of some kind. This will not be obligatory with the men, but it is hoped that those who do not care to go to the trouble of getting fancy dresses will wear hunting coats or small clothes, and it is also suggested that they wear orders of some kind.

Those who are interested in arranging the dance are Mrs. F. McNeil Bacon, Mrs. Frederic Foster Carey, Mrs. Charles Merrill Chapin, Mrs. R. Fulton Cutting, Mrs. Carl A. De Gersdorff, Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, Mrs. W. Percen Hamilton, Mrs. Russell H. Hoadley, Jr., Mrs. Thomas H. Howard, Mrs. Alvin W. Keech and Mrs. James W. Marlowe.

Several bride parties will be given during the Lenten season. Mrs. George D. Shady will give one on March 15, Mrs. Isaac McConhde one on March 16 and Mrs. George D. Yeomans one for Mrs. Winfield Scott on March 27. Miss Betty Colomare will give a bride party on March 14 at the home of her mother, Mrs. Henry Bischoff.

GENERAL NOTES OF SOCIETY. ON April 6 at Sherry's Miss Grace Marie McClelland, daughter of Mrs. Lewis L. McClelland of 574 West End avenue, will be married to Charles R. Parmole, Jr., of New Brighton, S. I. The bride's sister, Mrs. S. J. Titus of Pittsburgh, will be her only attendant and Mr. Parmole will have his brother, Henry B. Parmole, for his best man.

Easter Saturday, April 29, has been chosen by Miss Margaret E. Jenkins for her marriage to John T. Snyder of Bethlem, Pa. Miss Jenkins is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew C. Jenkins of 246 West End avenue, and a granddaughter of Mrs. E. B. Iles. The wedding will take place in the Church of the Messiah, Park avenue and Thirty-fourth street, the Rev. Dr. Brundage of Brooklyn performing the ceremony, and afterward there will be a reception at Sherry's.

One of the engagements announced during the week was that of Miss Ethel Patman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Patman of 23 West Eighty-first street, to Henry Morgan of Turkey, who recently returned from Constantinople with his father. Young Mr. Morgan was appointed by the State Department as a special representative to assist his father at Constantinople. No date has been set for the wedding.

On Tuesday in St. Peter's Lutheran Church, 14th street near Willis avenue, the Bronx, Miss Anna Rebecca Dorothy Widling will be married to William H. Adams. As the bride's family is in mourning there will be no reception at the ceremony. Her sister, Miss Georgina Widling, will be her maid of honor, and another sister, Miss Martha Widling, Miss Miss Dunlea, Miss Charlotte Keller, Miss Edith Sanders and Miss Bertha Handel will be the bridesmaids. Mr. Adams has chosen Brian C. Hughes, Jr., for his best man, and the bride's brother, George Widling, for best man of this city, and Felipe Valdes of Philadelphia for his usher. The honeymoon will be spent in the South and upon their return Mr. Adams and his bride will reside at 618 West 142d street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Curtis of 242 West End avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Katherine S. Curtis, to Charles Prescott Herpel, Jr., of 75 Irving place. The wedding will be celebrated in the spring.

Another engagement just announced is that of Miss Grace Lytton Winterburn, daughter of Mrs. Florence Hall Winterburn, to Frank Henius of the city. Miss Winterburn's mother is a descendant of Bulwer-Lytton, the novelist, and will take place in the spring at Mount Vernon.

Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. George Kanenbley of 254 West 121st street of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Emily Marguerite Kanenbley, to Charles George Keller of this city.

The Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Schulman of 55 East Ninety-second street announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Schulman, to Edwin E. Masbach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Masbach of 30 West Seventy-third street. Dr. Schulman is rabbi of Temple Beth-El.

Miss Lillie E. Fraser, daughter of the late Alfred Fraser, was married on Tuesday to Walter C. Booth at the Hotel Gotham. The ceremony was performed in the ballroom at 4 o'clock by the Rev. William Lawrence Sullivan of All Souls' Episcopal Church, in the presence of relatives and intimate friends only and was followed by a reception. Mrs. Witherben Black was the matron of honor and Thomas H. Booth of Boston was his brother's best man. The bride was given away by her brother, Alexander V. Fraser.

On Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Aldridge, 25 North avenue, Beacon, N. Y., their second daughter, Miss Mabel Aldridge, was married to John Nathaniel Nichol. The bride, who belongs to one of the oldest families in Dutchess county, wore white and made with a court train and trimmed with rose point lace which covered the bodice.

Her younger sister, Miss Mary H. Aldridge, was her maid of honor and was dressed in pink satin trimmed with silver lace and draped with pink and blue corded pink roses. The flower girl, Miss Alice Aldridge, a cousin of the bride, wore a white lace frock and pink and carried a basket of pink and white sweet peas. John A. Schaefer was the best man and serving as ushers were Charles Robinson and Dr. George Beason.

The ceremony took place in the drawing room and was performed by the Rev. Mr. Criswell, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Carver. It was followed by a reception.

Miss Louise Block Silverman, second daughter of the Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Silverman, was married on Thursday evening at the home of her parents, 45 East Seventy-ninth street, to Bernard E. Camp, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Camp of Norfolk, Va. The bride's father, who is rabbi of Temple Emanuel, 121st avenue and Forty-third street, performed the ceremony, assisted by the

THE RETROSPECTIVE EXHIBITION OF THE ART WORKS OF LOUIS C. TIFFANY WILL BE CONTINUED UNTIL SATURDAY, MARCH 18. AT THE TIFFANY STUDIOS MADISON AVENUE & 45TH STREET NEW YORK

New Styles in Hair and Hairpieces. The change in fashion which has introduced the fuller styles of hairdress offers opportunity for widely varied individual expression in the hair. THE TRIPLET SWITCH is most necessary if you would follow the present modes, for it is really three little switches, so you can wear one, two, or all three parts according to where you are going and how stylishly you wish to dress your hair. Or if your own hair is thin, short or discolored, the AERLON will completely cover it with a luxuriant coiffure of wavy natural hair, which can be dressed in any desired style exactly like your own hair. Illustrated booklet "Fashionable Hairdress" sent on request. Hair Dressing, Marcel Waving, Shampooing, Facial Massaging and Manicuring—expert attendants and Special Operators. A practicing physician maintains an office in our establishment for the treatment of hair and scalp diseases. The EVERLASTING WAVE, as imparted to your own hair at this establishment, puts a permanent curl in your hair which lasts well over four weeks. Separate Department and Catalogue for Men's Wigs and Toupees. Hair Dressing A. C. Simonson 506 Fifth Ave. New York. Hair Goods

The Misses Michelle and Maud Bouvier, who are to act as pages to the Queen at the Mardi Gras ball to be held at the Ritz-Carlton on Tuesday night.