

UITS
E
GN
AL
ED.

The coast artillery men after their rapid mobilization encamped on Governors Island. These tents, sleeping two men to a tent, are the type now being used in Mexico. Two soldiers carry one tent on the march. Copyright, American Press Association.

OR THIS?

Ah! in the sweet hereafter Columbia still shall show
The sons of these who swept the seas how she bade them rise and go—
How, when the stirring summons smote on her children's ear,
South and North at the call stood forth, and the whole land answered "Here!"
For the soul of the soldier's story and the heart of the sailor's song
Are all of those who meet their foes as right should meet with wrong,
Who fight their guns till the foe man runs, and then, on the decks they tread,
Brave faces raise and give the praise to the grace of their country's God.

Guy Wetmore Carryl.

Harvard University "rookies" getting their first lesson in the school of the soldier. Most of the big universities have student bodies in active training. Photo by Underwood & Underwood.

Men at Van Cortlandt Park Infantry get a fare. International Film Service.

The President and Mrs. Wilson welcoming the young women of the National Service School in camp at Chevy Chase, Md. Photo by Underwood & Underwood.

Two hundred young women of the National Service School in camp at Chevy Chase. Awaiting the arrival of the President. Photo by Underwood & Underwood.

Photo by Edwin Levick.

It will answer Secretary Daniels's call for mobilization by the navy, and was built with this end in view.

Motorcycles used as despatch bearers in the manoeuvres of the Twelfth Infantry, New York National Guard, at Van Cortlandt Park. Copyright American Press Association.

Women are becoming enthusiasts in the details of preparedness. Many are learning how to handle a rifle on the range at Winthrop, Md. Copyright by G. V. Burk.