ST. AUGUSTINE ATTRACTS Course Selected for East Coast Championship Is Favorite With the Experts.

Special to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD, OMBUDSMAN, Feb. 22.—The migration days for that element of the professional class who did not drift along at the beginning of the season to regular jobs, and the direction of flight is toward Dixie. The first convocation of the clan for competitive commingling took place in Augusta, Ga., when a number of crack players sat in for the thirty-six hole open contest at the Augusta Country Club.

The Florida open championship to be played at Belleair, March 13-15, will constitute one of the local affairs that will coast gathering place is very popular with the pros, and it is anticipated that practically all of the cracks of the country will be there.

Herbert Strong, who has recently severed active connection with the Engineers course, is on the job at St. Augustine and he and H. Lightfoot, the golfing secretary of the club, have brought the course to an exceptional point of excellence.

When the professional invasion of British links is made next spring, Mike Brady will be missed from the overseas ranks. Mike made this statement at Palm Beach, Fla., last week, that he will be moving on to Detroit to assume his duties with his new club, Oakland Hills, around April 1, and that under the circumstances he thinks it would be rather hard for him to pull up stakes a few weeks later and be gone for several weeks before he could have the time to become comfortably settled into his new quarters.

Professionals Set Records. The boys are hitting "em far and straight all around this section of the land, to judge by new records being reported from day to day. Just a day or so ago, Charlie Lormes, Inverness professional, who has been playing the new Coffee Pot Golf Club at St. Petersburg, hung up a new mark for the St. Petersburg Country Club course.

While the rest of the bunch are moving about after a sprightly fashion, George Gordon, the Michigan instructor, is taking things a little more serious. He is just recovering from an attack of rheumatism, which has had him in a bad way for some three or four months past.

The New York A. C. track forces will be considerably strengthened this coming summer by the addition of Ivan C. Dresser, formerly of Cornell University, the two mile intercollegiate champion and record holder, and rated as one of the best long distance men in America.

ALL EVEN AT BELLEAIR. BELLEAIR HEIGHTS, Fla., Feb. 22.—Henry J. Topping of Greenwich, paired with Alex Smith of Wyckoff, finished all even to-day in a four hole match against Eliaworth Augustus of Cleveland and Lavie Robertson of Detroit.

CORNELL AFTER DOBIE. Naval Academy Coach Is Made Tempting Offer. PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 22.—It was learned here to-night from a prominent Cornell football man that the Ithaca man made an offer to Gilmore Dobie of the Naval Academy to coach the Big Red team next fall.

A Jolly Group of Fair Experts on Skis at Lake Placid.

This group of enthusiastic skiers of the fair sex was photographed at Lake Placid during the winter sport carnival last week, when records were broken and some wonderful skating witnessed.

OUT OF TOWN ENTRY FOR WOMEN'S TITLE

Will Increase Interest in Indoor Tennis Championship Beginning March 15.

Play for the women's national indoor tennis championship is to open on the courts of the Seventeenth Regiment Tennis Club on Monday, March 15, with every promise of attracting greater interest than at any time since the event was introduced thirty years ago.

HIGH LIGHTS AND SHADOWS IN ALL SPHERES OF SPORT

By DANIEL. Copyright, 1920, by The Sun-Herald Corporation.

ATHER interesting though disquieting stories those reports from Havana concerning John McGraw and his relations with the New York club of the National League. When the leader of the Giants remained in Cuba while Stoneham made the trip to Chicago for the major league conferences we heard a story to the effect that the club chiefs were very much on the outs, and that McGraw had declined to have anything more to do with the team.

Higgins Justified in His Stand on Marsans. Some little criticism has been thrown at Miller Higgins for his refusal to send to Armando Marsans an invitation to report at Jacksonville.

Eight Years Ago Yesterday Kilbane Won His Title. Just eight years ago yesterday Johnny Kilbane won the American featherweight championship from Abe Attell by outpointing him in a twenty round bout at Vernon, Cal.

At least five countries will be seeking possession of the Davis Cup this year. Those certain to challenge, in the opinion of the London Field, are America, France, Belgium and South Africa.

BOSTON CHESS TEAM LOSES TO NEW YORK

Manhattans Take First of Telegraphic Matches by 6-1-2 to 2-1-2.

An easy victory by 6½-2½, which will probably be changed to 7-3, when the unfinished game is adjudicated, was the result of the first of the Manhattan Chess Club's two telegraphic matches with the team representing Boston at the Boston City Club. The New Yorkers lost but one game, at the tenth board; won five and drew three, incidentally obtaining valuable practice for the return match by wire, to be contested with the Capital City Chess Club of Washington to-day from noon to midnight.

Jackie Clarke, who would give Mike O'Dowd a good battle will be seen in action at the Bayonne Sea Angling Association in a bout with Johnny Howard.

COLUMBIA OUTRANKS C. C. N. Y. AT CHESS

Columbia University scored an overwhelming victory over the chess team of City College in the fourth round of the annual interclub championship competition of the Metropolitan Chess League at the rooms of Marshall's Chess Club yesterday afternoon, when the Blue and White emerged winners by the score of 7 games to 1. The victory gave Columbia a record of three matches out of four played.

REFEREE BRENNAN IN TRYING ORDEAL

Official Will Be Penalized if Kilbane-Valger Bout Displeases.

By CHARLES F. MATHISON.

Judging from an announcement apparently emanating from the office of the New Jersey Boxing Commission, it appears that Slim Brennan has received the appointment to the position of third man in the ring during the Kilbane-Valger fracas at the Newark Sportsman Club next Wednesday night under conditions rather trying on the official. It is set forth that if the contest does not to the commissioner's appear to have been waged on his merits, a referee will be penalized by the revocation of his license.

It is not understood that even if the referee were to stop the bout and send the men out of the ring on the ground that one of both were not trying the commissioner would penalize one or both boxers. This action by the commission unquestionably grew out of the performance of the fight at the Jersey ball grounds last summer when he refused to take any offensive against Burns till threatened by the officials with severe discipline.

Valger may be a more formidable opponent for Kilbane than Burns, and the featherweight champion may have much trouble with the challenger for the title, and possibly may be beaten. Nevertheless, the referee and commissioner will be justified in keeping a sharp eye on the shifty Clevelander.

Dempsy Is Different.

A man who recently saw Carpenter in action expresses the opinion that "if the Frenchman hits Dempsy on the chin the same as he did Beckett the world's champion will be rocked to sleep." The proposition that Dempsy could possibly be hit on the chin in the manner that Beckett was hit is most amazing to any one who has seen Beckett in action. Beckett is a boxer, slow moving, slow thinking man, who stood flat on his feet and dropped both hands to block a feint for his body.

An excellent line on the ability of Frankie Mason, who is to box Jimmy Wilde, is furnished in a recent bout with Young Zulu Kid of Brooklyn, who once was stopped by Wilde. Mason and Zulu Kid had a ten round draw at South Bend, Ind. Zulu Kid was a peppy little scrapper at the time he went to London to box Wilde, and to-day he is far removed from his best form. On Mason's showing against the Zulu Kid Wilde should have a rather easy time with the Western bantam.

Jimmy Marsh, manager of Oakley Keyes, who has achieved sixteen consecutive knockouts, denies that the victims all have been third raters. Marsh admits that Keyes is green in the business, and he does not want to rush him against an experienced veteran as yet. Keyes is but 19 years of age and has boxed exactly twenty-one rounds in his sixteen battles.

Jackie Clarke, who would give Mike O'Dowd a good battle will be seen in action at the Bayonne Sea Angling Association in a bout with Johnny Howard.

Al Roberts and Dan O'Dowd will be the contestants in the main bout at the City A. C. of Jersey City this afternoon.

When Frank Moran arrived in England he expressed the opinion that Dempsy would win over Carpenter. Moran said Carpenter's victory over Beckett was not impressive, as Beckett was not a notable performer.

ROD AND GUN NEWS

Table with columns for location, date, and catch details. Includes entries for Sandy Hook, Princeton, Jamaica Bay, Governors Island, and Willets.

The Lament of Pat McElroy. I just wish to announce to my friends who have in the past received from me messes of fish, surplus of my catches, that during the coming season of 1920 I am forced to discontinue this. The fact is I am forced to this decision because of the high cost of bait and the scarcity of fish in the Hudson River.

There's a reason for my action. The police below Riverside has injured my favorite sport. Fishing between Dyckman street and the Hudson River is no longer a safe fall my daily catches of eels and tom cod were away off and I felt as if I was wasting my time and money in the endeavor. Oh, how often would they call at my house to get fish after they had returned empty handed.

Where's Col. Bill? Why are not these columns at this dark and dreary time enlivened by the able pen of Col. Bill Stinson? We look day after day and week after week for some sign that he is still active and writing but no sign as yet. He is mentally out of the Rough or Despond due to the custody of the Association of Surf Angling Clubs and deliberately left out of the custody of the Association of Surf Angling Clubs and deliberately left out of the custody of the Association of Surf Angling Clubs.
