

SEAN BORDEN NEXT GOVERNOR GENERAL

Canadian Senator Expects Him to Succeed the Duke of Devonshire.

NEW SENTIMENT GROWS

Larger Status of Country Said to Demand Change in Relations.

By a Staff Correspondent of THE EVENING NEWS HERALD.

OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 29.—That the Duke of Devonshire will be the Chief Executive in behalf of and in the name of the King in Canada is the more or less expressed opinion passing.

Political development in Canada is in the direction of a personal union with the United Kingdom, such as existed between Hanover and Great Britain under Queen Victoria.

The larger status of Canada demands that the Governor-Generalship shall be filled by a Canadian.

The Unionist caucus, which was to have held this week, is deferred for ten days to give the members and ministers an opportunity to talk it over.

While the country is discussing the possible permanent union of the former Liberals and Conservatives, now comprising the Government, into one coalition party, some of those Liberals are giving a hand to help to a solution.

"The purchase of these long date obligations in addition to taking essential capital out of the country, as settlements are made in New York, still further depreciates the value of the Canadian dollar here, and renders more difficult trade with the United States and the discharge of our obligations."
