

MAINE'S FIRST CHOICE IS WOOD; JOHNSON NEXT

Harding, Coolidge, Hughes and Lowden Second; Knox and Allen Third.

MILLIKEN FOR GENERAL

Democrats Groping Around in Dark—Hale Will Preside at G. O. P. Convention.

MAINE

Maine Republicans want Major-Gen. Leonard Wood for President. He received 109 per cent. of all the "first choice" votes in the poll of the county chairmen by THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD.

The second choice of the Pine Tree State is Senator Hiram W. Johnson. But only thirty per cent. of all the "second choice" went to him. The third choice was distributed rather evenly among Senator Warren G. Harding, Gov. Frank O. Lowden, Charles E. Hughes and Gov. Calvin Coolidge.

One county reported some sentiment for Senator Philander C. Knox of Pennsylvania, while Gov. Henry J. Allen of Kansas was mentioned as third choice by one of the chairmen.

No one issue stands out prominently in the minds of the Maine Republicans. The League of Nations seems to have a slight lead over other matters, but behind it come "Americanism," business reconstruction, an economical administration in Washington, the tariff and the high cost of living, each receiving about the same amount of emphasis in the reports of the chairmen.

Opposes Universal Training.

One leader wrote across his ballot "I do not want universal training for young men," but that did not seem to keep the sentiment of the county being for Wood, as was the case in Kansas.

In Maine, as elsewhere, the Democrats appear to be uncertain and groping around on the question of a candidate. Bryan, Wilson, Palmer and Clark all were mentioned as having some strength among the Democrats.

The twelve delegates to the Chicago convention from Maine will be chosen at a State convention to be held in Bangor on March 25. The entire convention will elect the "Big Four" and will then split up into four Congress district conventions, each of which will choose two district delegates.

There is no Presidential preference primary in Maine. It has been the unwritten law of the Republican organization there that their delegates shall go to national conventions uncommitted and without pledges of any kind.

Reports from special correspondents bear out the evidence of the poll of THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD that the sentiment of the leaders and of the voters generally is strongly in favor of Gen. Wood.

Old Guard Favors General.

No other candidate for the Presidential nomination has made any effort to organize in Maine. For more than six weeks there has been a strong organization working for Wood. It is headed by Harold M. Sewall of Bath, and Halbert Brown of Portland. A general committee covering the entire State and including representatives of both the "Old Guard" and the progressive elements has been formed.

Gov. Carl E. Milliken and former Gov. William T. Cobb are among the prominent leaders of the party who are openly allied with the Wood movement. So far none of the Republican Congressmen has taken any part in the movement.

There is some rivalry among various groups for the honor of going on the Chicago delegation, but the personality of candidates for the Presidential nomination has not entered into the contest and, it is believed, will in no way affect the solidarity of the State's support of Gen. Wood in the convention.

United States Senator Frederick Hale will preside at the Bangor convention. Copyright, 1920, by THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD.

REPUBLICANS MAY PICK KEYNOTER HERE

National Committee Selection Expected April 12.

Within a month it will be necessary to pick the temporary chairman for the Republican National Convention to be held in Chicago. Serious consideration is being given to this problem by the party leaders and it is probable that the selection will be made at the meeting of the national committee here April 12.

These are the names proposed so far for the responsibility and honor of sounding the keynote in the campaign of 1920: Senator Henry Cabot Lodge and Gov. Calvin Coolidge of Massachusetts, Senator Philander C. Knox and Gov. William C. Sproul of Pennsylvania, Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler and Charles E. Hughes of New York and Gov. E. P. Morrow of Kentucky.

WANTED—A BIG JOB FOR A BIG MAN.

He has been a highly successful business executive for 15 years and can prove his general capacity. He is at present a widely known newspaper editor and publisher. Merely as evidence of his rating he has been widely discussed for Governor of his home State. He is young and ambitious; convincing speaker and writer; used to heavy responsibility requiring decision and initiative; experience as bank director, etc. Only reason for removal would be tempting chance to enlarge responsibility and opportunity. ## WOOD PLANS MAY START JERSEY WAR

Friends Talk of Running Candidates for Delegates—Large Against "Big 4."

Bitter warfare is brewing in the ranks of the Republican organization in New Jersey. Following a conference yesterday between Col. Thomas W. Miller, assistant Eastern manager for Gen. Wood; E. C. Stokes, chairman of the New Jersey State committee, and other prominent members of the party it was learned that the Wood people are seriously considering running candidates for delegate at large against three of the "Big Four" picked at a conference of the State committee last week.

Col. Miller refused to discuss the conference in detail, but it is understood he found it impossible to break the state, which has on its Senators Walter E. Edge, Joseph S. Frelinghuysen and Thomas L. Raymond of Newark, who are believed to be unfriendly to Wood.

Chairman Stokes, the fourth member of the quartet, is an avowed Wood supporter. It is regarded as certain that former Governor William N. Rutledge will be placed in nomination against Mr. Raymond.

Both live in Essex county. Mr. Raymond is "wet" and Mr. Rutledge is "dry" and openly for Wood. The question of opposing the two Senators hinges on whether the trouble it would stir up would not hurt more than assist the Wood cause. Senator Edge is believed to be for Lowden, although those opposed to him say he is thinking of landing the Vice-Presidential nomination for himself.

Senator Frelinghuysen's choice is said to be for Harding. If candidates are placed in the field against the two Senators they probably will not hurt more than assist the Wood cause.

Candidates for delegates pledged to Wood will be put up in all the Congress districts also. This will make a fight all along the line, as friends of Senator Hiram W. Johnson are determined to make a desperate fight in Jersey.

Angus McSwain, Eastern manager for Senator Johnson, denounced the "assault" primary in Milwaukee, which was carried by Wood on Monday, as a "travesty."

In the drawings for position on the primary ballot in New York city conducted by the board of elections yesterday the Johnson candidate for district delegates to the National Convention drew first place in the four Manhattan districts and in one of the Brooklyn districts and last place in eight of the Brooklyn districts.

In the Seventeenth Congress District Julian S. Myrick and Mabel Choate, running on a Hoover platform, drew second place. The organization candidates, Herbert Parsons and Albert J. Berwin, secured the preferential place.

SWEET SEEKS CREDIT FOR HOUSING BILLS

Indignant Because Senate Committee Acts Without Him

Special to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD. ALBANY, March 17.—The nine bills prepared by the Housing Committee of the Legislature and designed to curb profiteering and improve living conditions were offered to-day in both houses and immediately given precedence over other measures. The bills were introduced in the Senate by Mr. Lockwood and in the Assembly by Mr. Judson. Special rules were adopted in both houses permitting advancement of the bills to the order of final passage.

Rival claims for credit for this housing programme to-day threatened to hold up the bills, but apparently they are to be passed regardless of the political asset involved. Senator Lockwood, as chairman of the joint committee, made public the information regarding the bills. Mr. Lockwood was called to Speaker Sweet's office to-day to explain why the information had been given out.

"Mr. Sweet was indignant because he had not been given full credit for the preparation of the bills," Mr. Lockwood said. "The Speaker's idea of solving the housing problem was to increase the legal rate of interest on mortgage loans from 6 to 8 per cent. If such a rate were enacted it would be little short of legalized usury."

"The Speaker asked me what I meant by stealing his ideas. I asked him what he meant, and he said he had been drafting the bills for two weeks. I told him the housing committee had been working on the bills for months, that they were not my bills but the committee's."

MADDOO FOR TOWN MEETINGS. Indiana Programme of Community Organization.

Special to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD. WASHINGTON, March 17.—William C. McAdoo, in endorsing the programme of the special conference on community organization called to meet in Washington Saturday, gave tonight his unqualified approval of the movement in a letter to his former Cabinet colleague, Franklin K. Lane, head of the movement. In the opinion of the former Secretary of the Treasury, the movement is distinctly American and deserving of serious consideration at the hands of every thoughtful citizen.

"Such movements give us renewed faith in our institutions," writes Mr. McAdoo. "They revive the spirit of the old 'town meeting.'"

He also favors ratification of the peace treaty with reservations "to safeguard American rights."

2 WOOD DELEGATES CHOSEN IN ST. PAUL

Minneapolis Also Selects Two, But They Go to Convention Uninstructed.

ST. PAUL, March 17.—Two delegates uninstructed and two others pledged to vote for Leonard Wood for the nomination for President at the National Republican Convention in Chicago were named to-day at two district conventions.

F. H. Carpenter and W. J. Williamson were the uninstructed delegates chosen in Minneapolis to represent the Fifth Congressional district. At St. Paul, Wood was endorsed and Herbert Keller and Leavitt Corning were named to go to Chicago to represent the Fourth Congressional district.

County conventions throughout the State to-day for the most part named uninstructed delegates to attend the State convention in St. Paul on Saturday, when four delegates at large will be chosen for the National Convention.

DETROIT, Mich., March 17.—The Minnesota Republican primary was characterized as a "prize" and the "strong arm tactics of the 1920 campaign," by Senator Johnson, in a signed statement issued here this forenoon. He charged that "the Republican State machine is in absolute control" of affairs in Minnesota.

"This machine," the statement says, "has been conducting the Wood campaign."

Although the State's Presidential preference primary law had been repealed, Senator Johnson said, the Republican organization in Minnesota called what it termed a primary, with a preferential vote for President. Fixing of the time of voting between 7:30 and 8:30 P. M., with county chairmen empowered to fix the hours 7 to 9 P. M., he declared, meant in the country, no attention to our demand. "In midwinter, with the present condition of the roads," he added, "it was the disfranchisement of the farmers."

Continuing the statement says: "When recently I was in Minnesota I demanded a half day in which voters might express themselves. Following this the Hoover and Lowden forces made a similar demand. Of course the machine, in absolute control and representing Wood, contemplating a mere fake primary, which might be used to influence other States, paid no attention to our demand. I then advised my friends in Minneapolis and St. Paul to go to these night polls and fight as best they could. This one hour, machine-controlled primary was a travesty on the right of free expression."
