Special Correspondence to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD. LONDON, March 31.—"Some time ago," says the Financial Times, "it was reported that an American syndicate of tobacco manufacturers had offered a large sum to the French Government for the right to administer during a long period of years, the tobacco and match monopolies now controlled by the State. It was announced that the matter was being officially considered. In this form the information was a little previous, for although a tentative offer of the kind is being laborated, and will sooner or later be officially brought to the notice of the French Government, the officials at the Ministry of Finance denied there was any such offer on hand."
