

The Sun AND NEW YORK HERALD

SECTION 5—EIGHT PAGES

NEW YORK, SUNDAY, MAY 9, 1920.

ROTOGRAPHIC SECTION

Not killed by the Bolsheviki after all. Gen. Denikine, often reported slain, recently photographed in front of his hotel in London. By Photopress.

C. A. Sprockels, who has just returned from Europe, where he investigated the sugar situation thoroughly. Photo. International.

New camera study of Lady Geddes, hostess of the British Embassy in Washington. Folk in diplomatic circles are delighted that the "bachelor embassy" is no more. Copyright, Underwood & Underwood

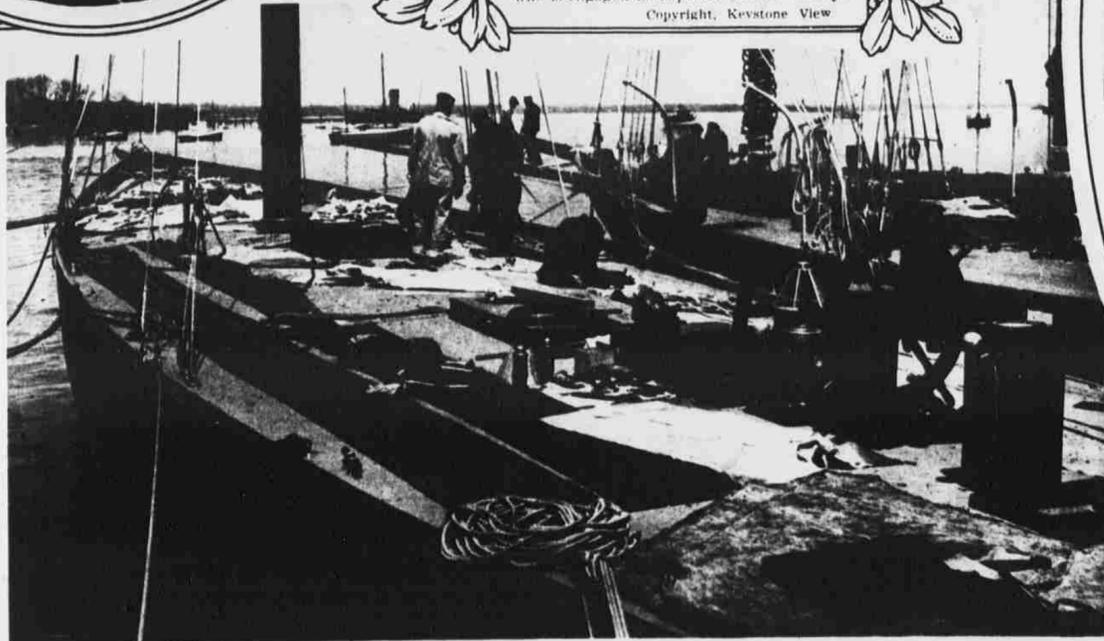

Above — Frederick O. Wallis, ex-Deputy Police Commissioner, appointed to the important post of Commissioner of Immigration at Ellis Island, vice Frederic C. Howe, resigned. Photo. Bachrach

Lady Cynthia Curzon, whose mother was the former Mary Lester of Chicago and who is engaged to Capt. Oswald R. Mosley. Copyright, Keystone View

Capt. Albert H. Turner, who will sail the Lipton cup challenger, Shamrock IV. He is now at City Island outfitting his charge. Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

At right—America's Cup racing yacht the Vanitie in the water again and being fitted out for the trials with the Resolute. She may meet Shamrock IV., the Lipton challenger. Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.