

PRICE FLURRY NOT REAL BAROMETER

Commodities Slashed Now Likely Soon to Rise, Says Macy President.

CUTS ARE 'NOT JUSTIFIED'

W. E. Sisson Tells Economic Club Country Is in No Danger of Panic.

The recent flurry in distributive markets and the reduction in the prices of certain lines of commodities, of which the headlines in the newspapers have made much, are not in my judgment to be taken as correct evidence of a permanent change in the price situation.

TWO DIE IN CHAIR; DEATH WELCOMED

Jankowski and Levandowski, Friendless, Victims of Disease, Help Hasten End.

Leo Jankowski and Walter Levandowski, two dying and friendless men, were executed in Sing Sing Prison last night for the murder of a keeper in the Dannemora State Hospital.

Mr. Straus attributed the recent price cutting to the approach of income tax day, June 15; a tightening of credit, closer scrutiny, due to Federal Reserve Board action, of purposes of requested loan renewals.

Countrywide price cutting, he said, has caused "a new orgy of spending." "The horizontal cuts that have been made," he said, "if they continue, will seriously menace the prosperity of the industry concerned."

Mr. Straus's opinion of the three principal causes of rising prices have been underproduction, extravagant consumption and the method of war finance and taxation.

Such a plan, Mr. Straus said, might conceivably greatly increase the demand for Liberty bonds and would tend to bring them to parity.
