

HARDING HEARS CHEERS OF CROWD

Continued from First Page. Under stress of excitement very, very wide awake. He grasps the hand of a friend, draws him into the conference room and closes the door. The buzz in the reception room is resumed. Through the window is seen like Michigan, smooth as a mirror under the beating sun, while in from the other parts of the hotel comes a ceaseless rumble, at times rising to a roar, of the lobby throng; now cheering, now singing, now trumping everlastingly through the corridors, talking, shouting, whispering confidences, asking things that nobody knows, giving answers everybody knows, possibly being given save as guesses. That's the convention multitude.

Lowden Yields Place to Senator Harding

CHICAGO, June 12.—When, during the critical period of the ninth ballot, Gov. Lowden was for taking the platform before the convention, Senator Harding said to him: "Let nature take its course" and the Illinois Governor agreed. Presently Louisiana is announced as having cast its twelve votes for Harding. A quick summary of the changes, so far as the ballot has progressed, makes it a bit uncertain whether it is "going over" this time or must require another call of the roll.

HARDING'S HOME TOWN REJOICES

Continued from First Page. and because he insisted upon wearing the high hat of the Blaine partisans. The Republican Presidential nominee was born on November 2, 1865, at Blooming Grove, Morrow county, Ohio, just nineteen miles east of Marion. When a boy his family moved to Caledonia, nine miles nearer Marion, where young Harding taught school for two years. He played a cornet in the Caledonia Brass Band and later received a college education at a little Baptist college at Iberia, Ohio.

PENROSE PROMISES HELP TO HARDING

Special to THE SUN and NEW YORK HERALD. PHILADELPHIA, June 12.—"Senator Harding as President will know how to control affairs at home, as well as command the respect of foreign nations," said Senator Boies Penrose late to-night when he sent the following congratulatory telegram to Senator Harding: "I extend my sincere congratulations upon your nomination. You know I was one of the earliest advocates of your fitness for the office, and was prepared at any opportunity to go in and promote your candidacy. With your sterling Americanism and long public and legislative experience you have pre-eminently qualified yourself which appeal to the people. You belong to the type of statesmen who are qualified to act as President and, being convinced that the American people are determined to restore the Republican party to power in November, I have a certainty of your election and confidence in a great administration at your hands. I hope to be able to take my full part in the campaign and shall do everything within my power to help you win."

WOOD GIVES THANKS TO ALL SUPPORTERS

General Is Grateful for Expressions of Confidence. CHICAGO, June 12.—Major-Gen. Leonard Wood delivered a statement to-night thanking the public for the nationwide expression of confidence and support in his campaign and also thanking his associates for their work in his behalf. The statement said: "At the close of this campaign I take this opportunity to thank from the bottom of my heart all the men and women who have helped so loyally in the pre-convention and convention contest. I am sincerely grateful for their help and appreciate the spirit of unselfish loyalty with which it was given. I also appreciate the nationwide expression of confidence and support."

NEW YORK MADE HARDING CERTAIN

Continued from First Page. ing: John G. Dwight, Dryden, and Herbert Parsons, Manhattan. For Butler—Col. William Boyce Thompson of Westchester and Katherine Hammer, the alternate for Dr. Butler. For Lenroot—F. H. La Guardia, President of the Board of Aldermen of New York city. On the ninth ballot Col. Thompson came near casting his vote for Will Hays, chairman of the National Committee, but decided at the last minute against it and voted for Butler. When the convention got together this afternoon for final session it was evident that New York had gone over to Harding. There had been no poll of the delegates until after they reached their seats, but the leaders were in touch with the delegates and they had promised to go for Harding. Of the four delegates-at-large only two voted for Harding—Senators Wadsworth and Calder. Nathan Miller stuck to Hoover to the end. The first one of the district delegates to be called, Robert L. Bacon, an original Wood man, voted for the General. But after that rather inauspicious beginning the Harding vote began to come thick and fast. Harry Lee, the co-delegate of Bacon, started the ball rolling. Then came Brooklyn. The solid delegation went for the Ohioan with the exception of Windels, and he came into line on the last ballot.

JOHNSON'S VERDICT HELD UP TWO DAYS

Defeated Candidate to Think Over His Future Course. Special to THE SUN and NEW YORK HERALD. CHICAGO, June 12.—Senator Hiram Johnson has not yet said "I will support the ticket." All he would say to-night was: "I have no statement to make now. I am going to take two days or so to think things over." He had a long talk to-night with Senator Borah, his ally in the fight against the League of Nations and for the nomination. Last night he was in conference with William R. Hearst, who in his newspapers has been threatening a Johnson bolt if the nomination was defeated the Senator. Johnson did not release his delegates at any time in the course of the balloting. It was said to-night. Last night Senator Johnson and Borah tried to get him to agree, in case the course of the balloting to-day should prove that the Johnson fight for the nomination was hopeless, to throw his strength to Senator Knox. Johnson would not do it. He told them that though there was no one whose personal friendship he thought more of than Knox's, the latter's was too much at Variance and his was too much at Variance.
