

LENRÖOT REGRETS
CHOICE OF HARDING

WISCONSIN Senator Preferred a
Liberal, But Will Heartily
Support Nominee.

KENYON ALSO IS LOYAL

Iowa Leader Wanted Another,
But Will Take the Stump
to Help Election.

SPECIAL WIRE, June 15.—While expressing regret at the nomination of William Randolph Hearst by the Republican Convention, Senator L. L. Lenroot (Wis.) in a statement here to-day declared that "in this situation there is no other choice, it seems to me, and I am heartily to support the Republican ticket."

Frankly regret the choice of the Republican Convention as I believe a man who had been allied with the Liberal wing of the party should have been chosen, Senator Lenroot said. "However, Senator Harding is a most lovable man of the McKinley type, and I make no mistake."

There is dissatisfaction upon the part of Progressives but they must stand behind the Republican ticket and having another four years of Roosevelt rule and all its implications is a position there can be but one choice, it seems to me, and I am heartily to support the Republican ticket."

At St. Louis, June 15.—Senator L. L. Lenroot, who was returned to his home town for a rest, declared to-day that he was disappointed because "this nomination failed to nominate a progressive President," but said he was going to take the stump to help in the Republican victory in November.

His regulars to disapprove with the Union Administration," said Senator Kenyon, "but they will elect Harding. The Progressive, however, may as well get over the idea that the election is a contest between every Republican and every Democrat. It is a contest between the old and the new, and the new is the only hope for the country."

As usual, the country west of the Mississippi is forgotten, but that part of the country also will be forgotten by the Democrats. Neither McAdoo, Marshall or Cox will be named by the Democrats.

The new, disappointing part of the Republican Convention was to see the delegates unable to act until they received word from a sick boss in Philadelphia. There will be a strange parade at San Francisco, when the delegates will wait word from a sick boss at Washington. There never was a chance in this house controlled convention for a man of Mr. Johnson's type.

The convention was strong for Roosevelt, but being dead, if Roosevelt had been alive he would have had a much better chance in the convention. If Johnson had been dead he would have had a much better chance in the convention. The kind of man the people want are the kind of men the masses are determined the people shall not have.

The men who supported Johnson will be found working for the ticket and working in the next Congress as they have in this for legislation in the interests of all the people and will be found fighting against domination of Congress by those seeking special favors and special privileges in legislation."

HEARST PREPARES
TO AID THIRD PARTY

Editorial 'Praises Work of
'The Forty-eight.'

GERMANY DRIFTING,
WITHOUT CABINET

Centrist Leader, as Was Expected, Unable to Form
New Ministry.

An editorial in this morning's issue of the New York American indicates that William Randolph Hearst, who supported Senator Hiram Johnson for the Republican nomination, is prepared to give his support and that of his newspapers to a third party.

The editorial is captioned "Call of the Forty-eight for the Creation of a New Party," and extensively compares the platform adopted by the Republican Convention with that adopted by the Committee of Forty-eight. Mr. Hearst already has declared through the American and the New York Evening Journal that the Republican platform and candidate could not be supported by him and that there was little chance of the Democrats improving upon the work of the Republicans.

In this morning's editorial it is stated: "Progressive citizens in great numbers have utterly lost confidence in both the old parties. They want a new party and a new deal. The Committee of Forty-eight has done well to summon a convention of all earnest Progressives to meet in Chicago on July 10."

LA FOLLETTE LEADS IN VOTE.
Committee of 48 Takes Referendum on Third Party Choice.

CHICAGO, June 15.—Senator Robert M. La Follette is leading in the referendum vote which is being taken among the members of the committee of forty-eight as a suitable candidate for the Presidential nomination, according to statements at the party headquarters last night.

Leaders added they count upon the support of the La Follette Republicans, farmers, labor and the Non-Partisan League membership. They do not expect Senator Johnson or Senator Borah will join the Republican party, they said.

COOLIDGE GETS BIG
WELCOME AT HOME
Amherst Classmates Honor
Choice for Vice-President.

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., June 15.—The citizens of Northampton, the home city of Gov. Calvin Coolidge, turned out in a body to-day to welcome and congratulate the Republican nominee for Vice-President. Amid the din of cannon salutes, the cheers of the throng that had assembled in front of his home and the din of factory whistles, and with airplanes soaring overhead, the Governor stood on the porch beside his wife and two sons. He plainly was pleased and affected by the reception.

The welcome home to the Governor ended the most strenuous day he has had since he became the running mate of Senator Harding. He chatted with Speaker Gillett of the National House of Representatives at Springfield in the morning and then went to Amherst to attend the class day exercises of his alma mater.

Gov. Coolidge left late to-night for Worcester, where he will attend the Holy Cross commencement to-morrow. Arriving here late in the afternoon the Governor was met by a delegation headed by the Mayor. His car was placed in line in a parade which passed through streets decorated with State and national colors to the Governor's home.

On his porch he was welcomed by Judge John C. Hammond, his former law partner. Mayor M. C. Fitzgerald extended the congratulations of the city. Gov. Coolidge in his response said that the esteem shown for him by his friends and neighbors never would be forgotten.

At Amherst College he was greeted enthusiastically and before attending the class day exercises held an informal reception at the Phi Gamma Delta house.

GERMANY DRIFTING,
WITHOUT CABINET

Centrist Leader, as Was Expected, Unable to Form
New Ministry.

CONSERVATIVES MAY TRY

'Bloc' Including National and People's Parties Aided by Others Discussed.

By RAYMOND SWING.

Staff Correspondent of THE SUN and NEW YORK HERALD. Copyright, 1920, by THE SUN and NEW YORK HERALD.

Berlin, June 15.—The inability of Herr Karl Trimborn, the leader of the Centrist party, to form a Ministry was not unexpected. The leaders of the German People's party told the correspondent of THE SUN and NEW YORK HERALD that they did not expect Trimborn would have success in forming a coalition of the former Government groups and the Bavarian People's party, and also doubted whether a Ministry composed of non-political experts would prove acceptable.

A Conservative bloc, which would include the German National party, the German People's party and certain support from other groups, is now talked of. Such a coalition appears impossible without a split, for even if as many as twenty-five Democratic Deputies joined the Conservatives, the Moderate Conservatives, Centrists and Bavarian party the combination would have at best a majority of but thirty-eight.

The two factors of the utmost importance in the minds of politicians in considering the wisdom of venturing upon the establishing a Conservative Ministry would be: First, would it be met by a general strike? and second, would it be tolerated by the Entente?

The Conservative leaders count upon the cooperation of Catholic workers and also on the help of labor in Bavaria. Also, the Cabinet would have the direction of the police and the Reichswehr. The leaders also argue that since their government would be representative of big business, it could be counted on by the Entente to rehabilitate German industry and thus make the payment of reparations possible sooner than under the unskillful management of the Social Democrats.

As to the Foreign Secretary of such a bourgeois Cabinet three names already have been broached. Admiral Hintze, former Minister to Mexico and China and Foreign Secretary under the old regime before and during the Chancellorship of Prince Max of Baden; Herr von Rosenberg, who was head of the Balkan Department under the old regime, and Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, who is one of the German Democrats who might break from his party and join a coalition of the Right groups.

FRANCE TO IGNORE
LEAGUE'S ACTIONS

Continued from First Page.

signed by those who drafted its covenant is absolutely moribund. If the Democrats make it a campaign issue at San Francisco they will run the danger of trading on an institution whose obsequies already have been held.

According to information received here, friends of the league in London are concerned now only in rescuing it from the desperate situation in which it is placed by Lloyd George's recent move in inspiring Poincaré's appeal against the Bolsheviks, in which he now seems to have overreached himself, leaving the league floundering again.

It was emphasized again to-day that the French will have nothing to do with the league as a super-body in world affairs. This was indicated when Leon Bourgeois was despatched to The Hague to collaborate with Elihu Root in framing an international court of justice instead of being sent to London to hear the first appeal made under Article XI. The French appear to be swinging around radically to the idea advanced in the platform adopted in Chicago by the Republican convention, that an international court of justice is more important at the present time than any effort to bolster up the League of Nations.

Just what the council of the league intends to do in regard to Poincaré's

FRANCE TO IGNORE
LEAGUE'S ACTIONS

Continued from First Page.

signed by those who drafted its covenant is absolutely moribund. If the Democrats make it a campaign issue at San Francisco they will run the danger of trading on an institution whose obsequies already have been held.

According to information received here, friends of the league in London are concerned now only in rescuing it from the desperate situation in which it is placed by Lloyd George's recent move in inspiring Poincaré's appeal against the Bolsheviks, in which he now seems to have overreached himself, leaving the league floundering again.

It was emphasized again to-day that the French will have nothing to do with the league as a super-body in world affairs. This was indicated when Leon Bourgeois was despatched to The Hague to collaborate with Elihu Root in framing an international court of justice instead of being sent to London to hear the first appeal made under Article XI. The French appear to be swinging around radically to the idea advanced in the platform adopted in Chicago by the Republican convention, that an international court of justice is more important at the present time than any effort to bolster up the League of Nations.

Just what the council of the league intends to do in regard to Poincaré's

FRANCE TO IGNORE
LEAGUE'S ACTIONS

Continued from First Page.

signed by those who drafted its covenant is absolutely moribund. If the Democrats make it a campaign issue at San Francisco they will run the danger of trading on an institution whose obsequies already have been held.

According to information received here, friends of the league in London are concerned now only in rescuing it from the desperate situation in which it is placed by Lloyd George's recent move in inspiring Poincaré's appeal against the Bolsheviks, in which he now seems to have overreached himself, leaving the league floundering again.

It was emphasized again to-day that the French will have nothing to do with the league as a super-body in world affairs. This was indicated when Leon Bourgeois was despatched to The Hague to collaborate with Elihu Root in framing an international court of justice instead of being sent to London to hear the first appeal made under Article XI. The French appear to be swinging around radically to the idea advanced in the platform adopted in Chicago by the Republican convention, that an international court of justice is more important at the present time than any effort to bolster up the League of Nations.

Just what the council of the league intends to do in regard to Poincaré's

FRANCE TO IGNORE
LEAGUE'S ACTIONS

Continued from First Page.

signed by those who drafted its covenant is absolutely moribund. If the Democrats make it a campaign issue at San Francisco they will run the danger of trading on an institution whose obsequies already have been held.

According to information received here, friends of the league in London are concerned now only in rescuing it from the desperate situation in which it is placed by Lloyd George's recent move in inspiring Poincaré's appeal against the Bolsheviks, in which he now seems to have overreached himself, leaving the league floundering again.

It was emphasized again to-day that the French will have nothing to do with the league as a super-body in world affairs. This was indicated when Leon Bourgeois was despatched to The Hague to collaborate with Elihu Root in framing an international court of justice instead of being sent to London to hear the first appeal made under Article XI. The French appear to be swinging around radically to the idea advanced in the platform adopted in Chicago by the Republican convention, that an international court of justice is more important at the present time than any effort to bolster up the League of Nations.

Just what the council of the league intends to do in regard to Poincaré's

FRANCE TO IGNORE
LEAGUE'S ACTIONS

Continued from First Page.

signed by those who drafted its covenant is absolutely moribund. If the Democrats make it a campaign issue at San Francisco they will run the danger of trading on an institution whose obsequies already have been held.

According to information received here, friends of the league in London are concerned now only in rescuing it from the desperate situation in which it is placed by Lloyd George's recent move in inspiring Poincaré's appeal against the Bolsheviks, in which he now seems to have overreached himself, leaving the league floundering again.

It was emphasized again to-day that the French will have nothing to do with the league as a super-body in world affairs. This was indicated when Leon Bourgeois was despatched to The Hague to collaborate with Elihu Root in framing an international court of justice instead of being sent to London to hear the first appeal made under Article XI. The French appear to be swinging around radically to the idea advanced in the platform adopted in Chicago by the Republican convention, that an international court of justice is more important at the present time than any effort to bolster up the League of Nations.

Just what the council of the league intends to do in regard to Poincaré's firmly to-day that the British were evacuating Batoum in Transcaucasia and that a Soviet government had been formed at Baku on the road to Teheran.

RASMUSSEN TO PASS
YEARS WITH ESKIMOS

COPENHAGEN, June 15.—Knud Rasmussen, the Danish explorer, and Peter Freuchen, his cartographer, are preparing an expedition to visit the northernmost American Eskimos.

Rasmussen declared to-day that the expedition probably would be the longest one he has ever made. He plans to take provisions enough to last five years, but considers it more likely the trip will last seven. Fourteen men will compose the party.

THE MAKER'S PRIDE

WHEN a business has been handed down from father to son for over a hundred years it acquires a pride in its product which outweighs any consideration of immediate financial profit. The name "Crane" has always been a synonym for good paper, whatever the purpose of that paper—whether to insure the endurance of a government bond or to give distinction to a letter.

The water-mark "Crane" is evidence of the maker's pride in each sheet that bears it.

100% selected new rag stock
119 years experience
Bank notes of 21 countries
Paper money of 438,000,000 people
Government bonds of 21 nations

Crane's
BUSINESS PAPERS

"Service" in Advertising

Ever since the days when "Phoebe Snow" of the Road of Anthracite was our first big success, responsible executives of our staff have given real personal service to each of our accounts.

If you entrust us with your advertising, you can expect us to serve you with the same enthusiasm that you yourself give to your business.

A consultation involves no obligation

Colton
WENDELL P. COLTON CO.
General Advertising Agents,
165 BROADWAY NEW YORK

Be Particular

The more finicky you are about your barber service the better you'll like the Terminal Barber Shops.

Terminal service is efficiency plus courtesy plus cleanliness—but not plus high prices.

The only place where the service is as good as at a Terminal Barber Shop is at another Terminal Barber Shop.

It is rumored that the dollar haircut is coming. Not at the TERMINAL BARBER SHOPS—our present margin is satisfactory, and we believe in increased business and increased quality of service rather than in increased prices, which is the reason why our shops are growing busier from day to day. So this added burden will not be imposed upon our patrons.

TERMINAL BARBER SHOPS

"Where the Promise Is Performed"

HOTEL PENNSYLVANIA

SEVENTH AVENUE, 2ND TO 3RD STREETS
HOTEL COMMODORE: THE WALDORF-ASTORIA
TELEPHONE & TELEGRAPH BLDG. LONGACRE BLDG.
125 Broadway (Downtown) 42nd St. & Broadway
36 CHURCH ST. EQUITABLE BLDG. CONCOURSE
30 CHURCH ST. 125 Broadway HUDSON TERMINAL
HAIR DRESSING SALONS: Hotel Pennsylvania, Waldorf-Astoria
*Open Evenings Until Ten

FRANKLIN SIMON MEN'S SHOPS
2 TO 8 WEST 38th STREETMen's Hot Weather
In or Out-of-Town
Clothes

Hand-Tailored, of Course!
Why do You Ask?

PERHAPS you wondered if we were as resolutely opposed to machine-work in silks and mohairs as we are in woollens. More so! The lighter the fabric the more imperative it is that its lines shall be fused through with the redeeming grace and support of genuine workmanship. Woollens have some body to work on, but silks and such require somebody to work on them diligently and intelligently by hand.

Men's Suits of Silk Shantung $55
Men's Suits of Striped Mohair 45
Men's Suits of Palm Beach Cloth 40
Men's Four-piece Suits for Town and Country Wear 80
Men's Gabardine Sports Coats 65
Men's White Gabardine Trousers 10
Men's White Flannel Trousers 16.50

Franklin Simon & Co.

FIFTH AVENUE

The Store is closed at 5 P. M. daily

B. Altman & Co.

Women's Satin Sports Skirts

very smartly fashioned of fancy baronet satin, in the leading shades for Summer Sports wear, as well as all-white and all-black

Specially priced for to-day at $13.50

(Separate Skirts Department, Third Floor)

Madison Avenue - Fifth Avenue
34th and 35th Streets New York

For Sale

A Number of

Bookkeepers' and Typewriters' Desks
White Wood Shelves
Steel Lockers

Apply Mr. T. Rogers, 4th Floor, Annex,
James McCreery & Co., 5 West 34th Street.

We are now showing over sixty styles in

MEN'S FINE SUITS

$50
At

—the selection is there and the quality too

DESPITE an epidemic of clothing sales on every hand, these suits are still the best values in good clothes to be had. They are quality suits, so thoroughly well tailored, so SANE in their styling as to be worth their price any day of the year—and against any competition. A man must see the lines of the models, and feel the quality of the woollens before he can fully realize the marked superiority of these suits at this figure.

Many happy variations in single and double-breasted—everything from new tones of green to the most uncommon blues

BROADWAY Saks & Company At 34th STREET