

Above—Mrs. Alexandra Carlisle Pfeiffer, alternate from the Eighth Massachusetts district, who seconded the nomination of Gov. Coolidge for Vice-President.
Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

Real boys are the two sons of Gov. Coolidge, yet with a pretty taste for music. John plays the violin and Calvin, Jr., does pretty well with the banjo-mandolin.
Photo, International.

Above—This is a good man to know and probably even more so after election. He's George B. Christian, Jr., secretary to Warren G. Harding, Republican Presidential nominee.
Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

In circle—Miss Ailie A. De Lamar, noted heiress, whose chum, Miss Evangeline Brewster Johnson (in panel at right), has become engaged to Douglas Elliott Craik of London.

Snapshot taken at Palm Beach of Miss Evangeline Brewster Johnson, fiancée of Douglas Elliott Craik of London.
Photo, International.

Below—Agatha de Bussy, one of many charming girls in the cast of "Lassie" at the Nora Bayes theatre.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Rogers and their three children. Jimmy, who helps his dad act in moving pictures, is riding the pony.

