

CHURCHILL ACCUSED OF RUSSIAN PLOT

Charged With Secretly Supporting Anti-Bolshevist Forces in Siberia.

Special Cable Dispatch to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD, Copyright, 1915, by THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD.

LONDON, July 3.—Not since the Pigot charges has a political document caused such excitement as the revelation of Winston Spencer Churchill's "secret" support of the anti-revolutionary forces in Russia, published in the Herald, Daily News and Manchester Guardian this morning. Mr. Churchill himself refused to comment, asserting that he will answer from the floor of the House of Commons.

The revelations contain a reputed report of Gen. Golovin, "White" military representative in London in 1913, to Sergius Sazonov, their chief political agent at the time. He says Mr. Churchill used the unfortunate phrase, "I am under Admiral Kolchak's orders" and gave further assurance that he would counter the Archangel front under the pretext of evacuation, thus substituting fresh British volunteers to the number of 10,000 for worn-out British and "disorganized Americans."

He promised other material military and financial aid to the anti-Bolshevist forces which he recently asserted in the House of Commons that it would be impossible to show that he ever had actively aided them.

The document was brought from Moscow by the British labor delegation that recently returned from there and the reporters of the three papers concerned are asserting that it was found among Kolchak's archives and abandoned British papers at Omsk, Siberia, formerly Kolchak's capital.

Although it is considered that Mr. Churchill will be able to give an ample explanation that he was nursing them to afford every aid to reconstitute an anti-Bolshevist Russia, the revelation at this time, when British policy has changed, when the labor politicians are making all sorts of threats against plans for military activities which Churchill is supposed to cherish, it is recognized may imperil Churchill's continuance in office.

Despite his ill luck at Gallipoli and in other adventures that he fathered, Lloyd George has known the value of Churchill's integrity and energy, which are of the highest, and recent events apparently have vindicated many of his policies that it was decided at the time led to failures. While it is impossible to menace the solid coalition majority when he is brought up in the House of Commons it is recognized as the most popular point upon which the opposition could attack the Government.

CARSON RETAINED AS SOVIET LAWYER

Will Fight Sequestration of Property in England.

LONDON, July 3.—Writs have been served on the Soviet trade mission here for the purpose of securing the sequestration of its property for the satisfaction of alleged creditors of the Soviet Government, according to the Herald.

The newspaper adds the action will raise the international question of the right of a revolutionary government to nationalize industry without compensation to stockholders and abjure debts contracted by its predecessor. Sir Edward Carson, the Ulster leader in the House of Commons, has been retained as attorney by the Soviet mission.

SAMUEL AT JERUSALEM.

JAFFA, July 2.—Sir Herbert Samuel, the first British High Commissioner for Palestine, arrived here yesterday and was given a rousing reception. He was welcomed by the Mayor and the heads of the various communities, who presented Sir Herbert with addresses of welcome. A salute of thirty-one guns was fired.

After the official reception Sir Herbert proceeded by special train to Jerusalem, where he was received at headquarters by Gen. Bela, who for some time past has been British Administrator in Palestine.
