DODGERS PROVE BETTER IN FIELD After Rain Lasting an Hour and a Half They Beat Cardinals 7 to 2.

Special to THE SUN and NEW YORK HERALD. ST. LOUIS, July 10.—The Dodgers defeated the Cardinals, 7 to 2, this afternoon in a game that was featured by an intermission of one hour and fifty minutes, caused by a heavy downpour which came in the Cards' half of the fifth. The last four innings were played with small flies around the base paths and the infield ankle deep in mud. Whenever a batted ball struck the mud it was thrown out of the game at the end of the play and a new one substituted. The Dodgers proved to be better mud larks and scored their last four runs in mud and water while the Cards were held scoreless.

Jeff Pfeffer and Marvin Godwin were the opposing slayers when the contest started. Pfeffer lashed the route but Godwin was succeeded by Sherdell in the second.

The Dodgers took an early lead in the opening round, and singles by Olson, Johnston and Griffith, coupled with Godwin's error and an infielder's misplay, tallied in the Cards' half of the same round one run resulted when Smith's triple was followed by Heathcote's single. In the second a pass by Krueger, Pfeffer's sacrifice and Johnston's single brought the Reds another tally. Stock's triple and Hornsby's single in the third scored what proved to be the Cards' final run.

The Cardinals had two out and a man on first with two on the bases when the umpire called time. The game lacked one strike of being a legal contest. Rain fell heavily in the eighth and ninth innings near the bases and soon it turned into mud. Nearly all the 7,000 fans who were on hand at the start remained until play was resumed.

In the ninth the Dodgers bunched six hits and scored their last four runs. Krueger doubled and went to third on Hornsby's single. He scored when Godwin threw Olson's bunt past first. Pfeffer scored on Johnston's single. Sherdell batted for Griffith. He raised a sacrifice fly and Olson scored. Myers's single chased Johnston over the plate.

As the Reds broke even in a double header, the Dodgers increased their lead in the race to a full game. The Dodgers were slated to play two games to-day, but the weather would not permit the double header.

Bornie Neis made two spectacular catches of four flies in right field in the seventh round. The score:

PHILLIES WIN TWICE. Score 8 to 7 and 3 to 1 Victories Over Pittsburgh.

PITTSBURGH, July 10 (National).—Philadelphia won both games of today's double header. The first game was won by a score of 8 to 7, in 11 innings, and the second 3 to 1. Pittsburgh got an early lead in the first game, but Philadelphia tied the score and in the eighth the visitors took the winning run on Williams' hit, an out, a stolen base and a wild throw. Hubbell outpitched Ponder in the second game.

Vardon and Ray Unable to Play in P. G. A. Meet

During Week of Match Play in Professional Golf Championship at Flossmoor British Pair Will Be Busy With Exhibition Games.

Although Harry Vardon and Edward Ray, the British golf professionals now on their way to the United States for a tour, have expressed themselves as anxious to play in the Professional Golfers' Association championship, and even to take their chance with the American "pros" in the qualifying rounds, there is not a chance for them to participate in that event unless there should come a wholesale cancellation of the fixtures arranged for them. On every day but one that the professionals are out in Chicago playing for the title now held by Jim Barnes of St. Louis, who is on his way back home with the British pair, finishing fifth in the British open championship at Deal, Vardon and Ray will be making the divots in the exhibition matches that will carry them over a wide expanse of territory. By an coincidence they will be back in Chicago for a game of the day that the P. G. A. finalists are fighting it out, and it will be interesting to note just which of the two events has the greater drawing power among the enthusiasts of the Windy City.

Canadians, too, who have been hoping that the Britons would grace their open championship with their presence, are going to be sadly disappointed for the week of the Dominion title event, which incidentally is the week had following that selected for the P. G. A. tour, has another busy time of it in exhibitions. In fact it can be said now that the only open tournaments in which the British pair will appear will be the annual play-off after the national open championship at Inverness, Toledo.

There is likely to be a bad jam for the managers of the Britons' tour should either Vardon or Ray be called to the national title as the day on which the pair are due to be taking place in the open at Shaker Heights, Cleveland. After that they go to Buffalo and then to Detroit. The day on which the professionals will be teeing up in the first round of the Professional Golf Association meet, they will be in Toronto for a game on the 28th of the month. They will be heading for Newark, Ohio, where they are down to play on Wednesday, August 18. Then on the following days of the week they will be in Chicago, in the Chicago district, the latter being the event that will run as a counter attraction to the P. G. A. final, although doubtless it has not been so intended.

Matches on Chicago Links. After Skokie, on Sunday, August 22, Vardon and Ray will operate over the Lake Shore links in Chicago and then start out for South Bend, Ind., where they are scheduled to appear for the Chicago Golf Club on August 29. They will be at Chicago, this time at Glen View, and doubtless pitted against Jack Hutchinson and Bob Macdonald. From there they head out toward the North, where they will head again for Skokie at the White Bear Yacht Club of St. Paul, where Tom Vardon, brother of the six times British open champion, is located, and then on they go to Winnetka, where they will play at the Minnikahda Club of Minneapolis. They will play a match on the public links of Minneapolis on August 29 and the following day appear at the Minneapolis Golf Club.

The first five days of September call for games in Omaha, St. Joe, Mo.; Kansas City, Wichita and St. Louis, and then they will head again for the East, where matches await them at Englewood, Essex County, Morris County, Woodmere, Century, Quaker Ridge, Somerset Hills, New Canaan, and the famous Links of the West. These will be arranged later, although it is thought that Vardon and Ray should be back in the metropolitan district and ready for action by September 11 or 12. Next in September, 23, will be Philadelphia here for the first sight of the British experts. On that date they are scheduled to appear against Francis Outing and Max R. Markon over the Quakertown Links in Bucks County. Vardon and Ray on September 24 at Merion. Four days later they will appear at Aronimink, while matches are also spoken for at Trenton, Scranton and New York City. The Philadelphia and Trenton officials of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation are to form the opposition.

International Date Changed. With the selection of August 7 for a game at Detroit for the international matches which it is hoped to hold at Inverness should the officials of that city be unable to make good, the British open champion, and Abe Mitchell to make the journey to America, will take place on Sunday, August 8. In this it is hoped to have Jim Barnes, the American champion, and Vardon, the British national titleholder; Jack Hutchinson and M. J. Brady oppose the British quartette consisting of Vardon, Ray, Duncan and Mitchell in four ball play. The regular champion, J. H. W. Mason, will be the British runner-up, and then going on with Mitchell and Duncan in the afternoon. Brady and Hutchinson as a team would of course reverse this position.

There appears to be great rivalry in the Boston district, particularly between Belmont Spring and Brookline, which now have been assigned July 20 and 21 respectively. Belmont intends featuring Francis Outing and Jesse J. Hufford against the British pair, but Brookline, which otherwise would have been in the position of playing second fiddle, has gone a step better and is talking of having Robert A. Gardner of Suffolk Shore, Chicago, 25, South Bend, 24, Glen View, 25, White Bird Yacht Club, St. Paul, Wis., and the Minnikahda Club of Minneapolis, 20, Public Course, Minneapolis, 19, as their runners-up.
