TROTSKY THORN TO ALLIED DIPLOMATS

Gain of Militarist Faction in Russia Turns Entente Minds to Direct Action.

MAY DRAW IRON CORDON

Would Leave Poland to Fate, Waiting for Bolshevism to Burn Itself Out.

Special Cable Dispatch to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD. Copyright, 1920, by THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD.

LONDON, Aug. 3.—Entente diplomacy working on the Russo-Polish situation today "retired to positions previously prepared in the rear." The Bolshevik rebuff of the Polish armistice delegates and the continuation of the Red offensive all along the line are regarded by well informed observers as a triumph for the Leon Trotsky party of conquest in Moscow.

In certain London circles usually well informed it was said today that if the Bolsheviks do not heed this Allied warning against crushing Poland an allied "sanitary cordon" will be drawn on the western and southern frontiers of that country, consigning Poland to the Red fate for which her own temerity in attacking Russia was responsible. There on that "sanitary line" the Allies would, it was declared, sit down and wait for Bolshevism to "burn itself out." This, it was asserted, would mean a two years wait for the Allies, and it was declared in these quarters to be the British policy.

French Want Action.

There is ground for the belief that the French do not favor any such policy and that they are showing decided restlessness. However, it appears that they are unable as yet to suggest an alternative policy that promises better.

The British policy, it was said, was dictated by the receipt here of advices from Russia tending to convince observers that the Soviet Government was by no means so firmly seated in control as events recently have indicated, and, secondly, because of the obvious futility of any other plan that has so far been suggested.

PREMIERS MAY CONFER

Soviets Now Refuse to Allow Any Allied Voice in Peace Parleys With Poles.

By LAURENCE HILLS, Staff Correspondent of THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD. Copyright, 1920, by THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD.

PARIS, Aug. 3.—Another conference between Premier Millerand and Lloyd George in the next few days is regarded here as probable in view of the new to-night from Moscow that the Soviet leaders in their negotiations with the Poles again have rejected the demands framed in Boulogne that the Polish peace conditions be subject to the approval of a general conference.

The Soviet leaders in refusing to open armistice negotiations demanded that the Poles obtain plenary power to negotiate direct for peace, from which negotiations the Allies, apparently, will be excluded. The Bolsheviks thus would be adhering to Gregory Tschitcherine's note, to which the allied note drawn up in Boulogne went as a reply.

French-British Views Clash.

In the Soviet conditions, so far as confirmed by the Polish delegates, the French see a new crisis which will require another exchange of views between the Premier, at which it is regarded here as certain that the French and the British these regarding a policy toward Bolshevism will be in collision.

The news to-night increased the tension in official circles, inasmuch as it is believed the Reds will not stop their drive until Warsaw is reached. Jules J. Jusserand, French Ambassador to the United States, on special mission to Warsaw, and Gen. Weygand, another member of the mission still are in the Polish capital. It was said that they made an optimistic report in the last twenty-four hours, supporting M. Roswadowski's statement that the Poles would not need assistance from foreign troops. Three hundred French officers under Gen. Weygand now are serving actively on the Polish front instead of acting in an advisory capacity merely.

AMERICANS LEAVING WARSAW IN HASTE

Mostly Women and Children — Men Join in Defence.

By the Associated Press.

WARSAW, Aug. 3.—Many Americans and British subjects, including a number of former officers, are reported by the recruiting officers to be enlisting in the Polish volunteers.

The American Relief Association, which has food and clothing valued at $4,000,000, is shipping it to Thorn and other safe points. In a week's time the association will have most of its materials out of Warsaw unless there is a shortage in cars.

According to accounts from the north the village populations and school children have turned out and are helping the soldiers by carrying food to them and aiding in every way possible wherever the soldiers are making a stand.

Word was passed around among Americans here upon advice from Washington that those desiring to remain in Warsaw should appear that Bolsheviks would take the capital, would go so at their own risk.

peace between Russia and Poland is only possible through Soviets of the workers.

The works and mines must be wrested from the hands of the capitalist speculators and money lenders and become the property of the people in the person of the workers' committees," continued the manifesto. "The land and forests must be handed over as the property of the people and be managed by the western and southern frontiers of that country, consigning Poland to the Red fate for which her own temerity in attacking Russia was responsible. There on that "sanitary line" the Allies would, it was declared, sit down and wait for Bolshevism to "burn itself out." RUSSIANS TO CLEAR POLISH CORRIDOR

Plan Is to Sweep Through and Restore Old Boundary.

By the Associated Press.

BERLIN, Aug. 3.—A special despatch to the Zeitung am Mittag from Marienwerder, West Prussia, reports it as the intention of the Bolsheviks to enter the Polish Corridor at its southeastern outlet. The frontier here, it says, is only indifferently protected by Polish guards, while Russian advance cavalry is forging ahead unopposed.

Russian officers are quoted by the despatch as declaring that Soviet Russia proposes to restore the old Russian boundary and drive out the Poles from the Corridor. Messages received here concern in reporting that right discipline prevails in the Bolshevik army, looting being punished by death, while for other offenses hard labor is the penalty.

COUNCIL APPROVES ECONOMIC BLOCKADE

Place of U. S. in the League Is Being Preserved.

By the Associated Press.

SAN SEBASTIAN, Spain, Aug. 3.—The Council of the League of Nations will be recommended to the Assembly of the League at its next meeting that an international blockade commission be appointed to plan for the application of an economic blockade in case of war. The Assembly of the League will next meet at Geneva next November. The international blockade commission probably will be composed of equal numbers of members of the council and the Assembly of the League of Nations, but may be superseded by another organization.

It also was decided by the council to invite the United States Government to make provisional arrangements either for representation at the International Conference on the Freedom of Transit, to be held at Barcelona early in 1921, or to participate indirectly in the meeting. The object will be to plan ways and means of preventing any country from profiting by its geographical situation by hindering the free movement of international traffic.

The United States also will be invited to participate in the organization of the International Health Office, which the council has decided to create. The object is to advise the League of Nations on health matters, to bring the administrative health authorities of different countries into closer relationship, to cooperate with the League of Red Cross Societies, to organize health missions and to supervise the protection of workmen from unsanitary conditions.

"We are keeping for the United States her place in the Council of the League of Nations," said Dr. Gantao da Cunha, Brazilian Ambassador to France. He added, "All the Latin-American Republics have given their complete and reserved attention to the organization, but what they cannot understand is the absence of a leading nation like the United States."

GERMANS WILL NOT FIGHT WITH POLAND

Revolt Would Be Inevitable Result, They Think.

Special Cable Dispatch to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD. Copyright, 1920, by THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD.

PARIS, Aug. 3.—Regarding the proposition put forward by Winston Spencer Churchill, British Secretary of State for War, that German troops instead of allied forces be used to beat back the Bolsheviks the correspondent of THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD is informed by a high German source that the project never met with official German approval, because it would start a revolution in Germany, where there is a larger Bolshevik following than is admitted. It was asserted that the German Reds were ready to oppose any measures to down their Russian comrades. Therefore, it was asserted, Germany must remain neutral, even refusing to allow the shipment of allied men and munitions across the territory if destined to aid the Poles.

The strictness of the German watch over her neutrality to see that it is not violated was shown when several trains of French soldiers returning to Silesia after a month's leave of absence were stopped in Germany and put to the closest scrutiny. They were allowed to continue on their way only when the Germans were sure that they formed no part of allied reinforcements for Poland.

Opinion here is that the negotiations between the Poles and the Bolsheviks support absolutely the French theory, as opposed to the Lloyd George policy, that Soviet diplomacy is not entitled to respect and that diplomatic exchanges with Moscow, such as the British have had, open the way for treachery by the Bolsheviks, instead of paving the way to end Bolshevism.

Premier Millerand is not expected to change the attitude he so recently expressed in the Chamber of Deputies, that "France will aid the Poles up to the limit of her resources." The French thesis continues to be that the Bolsheviks constitute a fanatical horde such as the Old World cauldron produced many times in history—one that must be met with military measures instead of by diplomacy.
