Introducing The Costume Blouse From Paris

B LOUSES of exceptional beauty are among our latest importations. They have found their way into our blouse department, where they are being shown in a fascinating array of charming designs and colors. Paris has given us many creations from which to choose, and they are so varied that it is difficult to select the most attractive.

There are long and waist line effects and combinations of the two. The materials are satin crepe de chine, Georgette and fine batiste. High and semi-high collars strike a new and charming note. Sleeves are long, short and medium—as you wish. Trimmings include embroidery, beading, lace, ribbon and braid in delightfully original designs.

We illustrate three models from our attractive collection.

Blouse of gray crepe de chine with semi-high collar and long loose sleeves. This most unusual blouse has a vest effect designed in red broadcloth braiding and red and black silk embroidery. It is finished at the waist line with a belt of red broadcloth and wristlets hold the loose sleeves in place. Illustration A.

Blouse of white satin with loose panel front and belted back. Semi-high collar and long sleeves. Collar, cuffs and bottom are trimmed with black crepe ribbon and real val lace. The square armhole accentuated by three pin tucks is an unusual feature of this blouse. Illustration C.

Blouse of white satin with high neck and long sleeves. This tailored model ends at the waist in back. It is trimmed with embroidery in dark blue silk. The corded seams and high buttoned neck are distinctive touches. Illustration B.
