Rathbun's Letters.
[To R. Allen, New York.]
Buffalo, March 10, 1835.

Mr. R. Allen—Our S. B. Brown started in last Telegraph with $14,000 to go into current and ad-necessary for you to see the proceeds to protect the 47 and 19. You must look out sharp for the paper endorsed D. E. That must be taken care of let what will become of the rest. You'll call H. Jane's facilities into motion if necessary; and I suppose our old friend L. White will be in about New York or Philadelphia. He's the right sort of a man for our money business. In his last mentioned something about going to Philadelphia. I think it will be a first rate plan to make a permanent engagement there, and if it necessary you can let him have some of your certified paper to use there. Newell has a package of notes for you, some of them certified. You must use them with the utmost caution. You know all about that business. Be as wise as a serpent and as harmless as a dove. In all this business you must do the very best you possibly can.
You know I have not door cares than any one had ever known of. I am troubled with. Whenever you get any funds through the assistance of Mr. White or any other person, you start Newell right home soon as he feels willing to leave the city, for we shall be in hot water here, so many notes falling due. I think some of the notes you left as collateral, when you was in New York before, must be due now.
You must look over them things and see how they are. These are troublesome times; but hope to see better soon. There is no way now but to go straight through from the mark.
What has been done with the Paterson money left with R. S. Williams of N. Y. That must be attended to, and not let it go back to the bank. If possible you must buy it of Williams with some your certified paper, but you must look sharp how you show him or sell him paper, for it will be looked at by R. S.
Brown, I presume. It may be you can buy up some of the uncurrent money that James sold in N. Y. If so, and you can't use it here, or don't want it here, then sell it to Newell; we can find a way of using it here. It may be the best way you can raise current money, to buy the uncurrent for current and pay for the use of the current. All these things must be looked to, and do the best you can. I have nothing of any importance, and no time to write it if I had any news.
Mr. James writes me has taken a shop in No. 8 Liberty street. Have not heard a word from you since the short letter from Batavia, saying you got nothing at all from Orleans co. I hope better success has attended your other application.
Your
B. RATHBUN.

[To R. Allen, New York.]
Buffalo, Friday, 13 March, 1835.

Mr. R. Allen—I received, by last mail, from New York, a letter from M. B. Sherwood, enclosing a proof sheet of the U. S. 2nd and 3rd of the Granville Bank Ohio. They are a very fine looking bill. I don't know how the thing will take with the community, or how we shall succeed in it; I do think rather favorable, and unless the Legislature interfere, I see no reason why we can't make it a very important matter. The charter (if good for anything) is worth more than any one of the charters in this State. However, all this business depends upon the experiment. M. B.
Sherwood writes that Mr. White is about starting for Philadelphia. I am in favor of that movement.— Should he be gone before you arrive at New York, you better make your calculation to see him as soon as he returns, or write him if you can find where to direct a letter, letting him know you have more certified paper that he's got him to use in Philadelphia, if that he's got him to answer, and it may be well for him to go to Philadelphia, and when you get through with the hard struggle at New York, if you have no objection to your going to Philadelphia, if you think you can accomplish any thing in the way of money. You must keep your mind at your engagements continually, and have your wits about you at all times, and in all cases. Don't leave a stone unturned. The letters I get from Mr. Redmond talk fair. I think much of his ability as a financier, and I think he is right in regard to his views of my business, and all the knowledge he has of me has of Mr. White.
That White is a giant. Stuck to him, and have him stick to you, and to my business in the money affairs —as long as he can be of any use, and I'll attend to his affairs here. Keep every thing right side up and in fair colors with James. We may have to make great use of him; therefore want to have a favorable idea of things, and that is to have a right idea. The more he knows of our business, the better he'll be satisfied with it. It's a big business. Yours in haste,
B. RATHBUN.

[To R. Allen, New York.]
Buffalo, 12 March, 1835.

Mr. R. Allen—Nothing new. Have not heard from you since your letter from Avoca. Hard labor.
Hope for better. Hope you'll succeed in some way, for really the 17 and 19 are days long to be remembered. How do you get along with your troubles?
We have enough here; but fear yours are greater than you can get along with. After you get a little over your troubles, you must see Guavier, and have a talk with him, for I see by his letters he has got his back up again and threatens he'll not accept, &c. He must continue for the present, at any rate until I come to New York, and I want you to say one thing to Col. R. Steele. I see in one of his letters he says I have reported such and such persons to the Trust Co., as to the goodness of my paper, &c. Now that won't do him to be referring people there, for if my credit is good there, the course he is taking is the very one to destroy it. No, that must be stopped if he has ever practised it, and you can get along with him in this way: say to him, you know I have an object to accomplish which is of vast importance to me, and by a frequent reference to the Trust Co. of the goodness of my paper it would be wholly and entirely frustrated. Therefore be must be extremely cautious about referring any one there for the goodness of my paper. The object is to stop his going or saying any body there. But if it is necessary you can send people there, in particular cases, but seldom as possible. Say to Col. Steele and J. Guiver, that I am too much under the whip and spur to write either of them to-day; I will write them soon.
My fears that you'll not be able to manage that large amount of 17 and 19, all but crazes me. The 17th must be protected let what will become of the others.
I hope that you will in some way be able to protect the whole; but really my fears are so great that I can't think of anything else. You have no idea how such things worry me. It does seem as though it would completely unman me for every kind of business. Do the best you can, friend Allen, and you shall be rewarded most liberally. In haste, yours as ever,
B. RATHBUN.

[To R. Allen, Buffalo.]
New York, 14th April, 1835.

L. R.—This has been one of the troublesome days in New York. We have got along till tomorrow—I don't know how it will be. In the letter sent today sent some blank powers of attorney, which I shall want you to get executed soon as may be. It's for James to act as att'y in every necessary transaction of the stock placed in the hands of D. Burt, N. Darrow, Johnson, Hodge & Co., and Townsend, Cot & Co. This you will do when you get the other, enclosing said power. This morning's business is a hard one. Yours, &c.,
B. RATHBUN.

[From R. Allen to L. Rathbun.] Enclosed in the above check-to-day, one of $1000, and of $3,000, which if there is no other way, draw on James as long as you can—10, 15, or 30 days' sight. We ought to keep an acc. of notes that are coming due, so that if funds should get here in time, (that is, if you can) you could look out; but I don't know how you can pay any more than we have already. The Busk note I had to let go back. The $1000 note you wrote out as discounted at Marsdon, due 3-11, I could not find today.
Look out for protest.
R. ALLEN.

Mr. E. Gidney—Sir—I have perused with some attention your statement on the subject of the business of the U. S. 2nd and 3rd of the Granville Bank Ohio, and think with the highly respectable persons who have written you favorable opinions, that the numerous views and tenacious opinions upon its various details, have shown you extensive acquaintance with its various details, your attention to the importance of the regular attendance of a Dentist, both in the highest consideration. Your collection of Dentists, worthy of every thing of the sort I have seen; its variety, fitness, and ability, will give you great satisfaction, and leaves no doubt of your skill and ability in the judicious use of them. My best wishes.

VOLUME II. NO. 338. NEW YORK, THURSDAY, APRIL 13, 1837. WHOLE NO. 503.

[To L. Rathbun, Buffalo.]
New York, Monday night, 11th April, 1835.

L. R.—Dr. Sir—I leave early tomorrow morning for Paterson, to look into the affairs of the Paterson bank. James used some checks today, which I suppose Allen advised you of, and if you can't pay them without, you must draw on James, at say 5 or 10 days, (but you must get more time, if possible.) You must look close to the copies of notes, and when due in New York, notify some one at No. 3, Liberty street. Today Allen was taking up some note at bank, and found another over $800; business note given for goods here. Unless he'd been at the bank, it must have been protested, and even as it was he had to pay it at the notary's office. These matters must be attended to, that's certain. I want you to look closely to the copy of the notes left with Joy & Webster, I think they must be due about this time.
You must call to your assistance such help as will be able to examine, and keep such matters straightened in season for after, not protested, its too late.
Let some one deliver the notice letter soon as may be.
Look at Bush's letter, and if all's right then let him have it; but if all's not right, then withhold it if you think proper. In great haste,
B. RATHBUN.

[To Lyman Rathbun, Buffalo.]
New York, Tuesday night, 12th April, 1835.

L. Rathbun—Dear Sir—I have been out to Paterson all day—have't gone half through there yet. So far as I have got into the affairs of the Bank it looks right—I'm in hopes something favorable may be made out of it, but can't do any thing in the way of using the bills with any consistency, until all matters are completed, and the business fully consummated.
Allen & James have had a tremendous hard day.— About $12,000 has laid over unpaid. They have been to all the notaries and requested them to retain their notes until tomorrow, and they'd take up the notes.
It really looks sorrowful. I can't see how we are to get along at all. Must hope for the best and look out for the worst. Have you used the notes got of Palmer? and have you got the notes of Henry Kipp?
If you have all or any on hand, can't others be got like them, and sent here for use? It is absolutely necessary to have some paper here by somebody else.
There has been so much of my paper in market, it's impossible to use a note (to raise money) with my name as signer, if there were a hundred endorsers on it. If any of them notes be sent here they can be used in the way of raising money, for it's impossible to do any thing with my notes, and it's injurious to have too many in market. It's getting too common a talk. Hope you'll be able to take up the notes this month, given for last fall's goods, for if one of them should come back it would kick up quite a hobbery—for some of our best friends in the goods business feel a little alarmed at hearing there's so much of my paper in the market. I have just thought: Can't you get White, Kendall & Co. to note and give them a receipt (on my bond) that I'll give them, and perhaps you can get some others? I suppose you got my idea. If you can get one, you can get more of the same date. Send me all the notes signed by other people. You can look over Darrow's letter before you give it to him. I have requested him to give you all the assistance he can. Perhaps you better put something into his hands as security, and get two or three $2000 notes and send—and if you can get two, you can get more. Some of Tho. Day's notes might be of use. I hardly know what I write, for when I begin to write I think of ten thousand things that ought to be attended to. There's a world of money to pay here, and it's actually getting harder, and there's no telling what the result will be.
We couldn't get along at all if it was not for James.— He's a giant in money matters. We want such a man in Buffalo. You will get those notes fixed (if possible) and send me by the very first mail. I assure you the money market looks equally very bad.
B. RATHBUN.

New York, 15th April, 1835.

L. R.—Every body says the panic of '32 was no comparison to this. Hope you'll be able to keep things right side up there for I assure you it's as much as we can do to keep money matters straight here.— There is none of us can do much but James. He's got the hang of it, and doing all that can be done.— This has been a most terrible hard day, to-morrow being Saturday, I don't know how we shall get along.
I send you some checks, and use them if you can to take up made papers. You probably can get some real endorsements on these checks if necessary.— James is a giant; the best man by all odds we ever had. There can't be found his equal in this or any other State. I shall get all the paper ready for Granville Bank and send by O. Lee.
B. RATHBUN.

[To L. Rathbun, Buffalo.]
New York, Sunday, 7th April, 1835.

L. R.—I was over to Newark yesterday. When I left thought every thing was arranged for taking up what paper was due yesterday, but find on my return that several papers were protested. No one to blame. Every thing was done that could be; but there is no money to be got hold of in any shape. It beats Buffalo. James succeeded in getting up one of the $2000 drafts in some way after Bank hours. I suppose Allen will explain that to you. Tomorrow is the tug of war. If we get through tomorrow right side up, I shall feel encouraged. There is over $30,000 endorsed paper to take up. Allen leaves tomorrow. Have every thing in readiness to start him West. He must not delay one moment. Soon as western banks understand the extent of pressure they will begin to curtail their discounts. Allen's getting rather tired, you must spur him up. It seems to be getting an old story with him. He lacks perseverance.
James is worth an army of him. I say this that not be policy to tell him what I say. I say this that you may push him to the most energetic action at this time; for 60 days to come we have got to exert ourselves to the utmost. This money business must be carried through in some way and I hardly know how. But every nerve must be put in requisition.— Just tell our friends the importance of assisting you if I return, and then I'll get their assistance longer if we can. Tell Sherwood to exert every exertion to get the Bank (Eric) started as soon as possible, for now, during the scarcity of money, bills may be put in good circulation. I am desirous to attend on 1st May at Niagara Falls. There is considerable to be paid on that day to secure some important bargains. The contracts are in the little truck, &c. &c.

DOCT. SWEETS
CELEBRATED STRENGTHENING PILLS.
The most valuable remedy for weakness and pain in the side, back, and stomach, for debility in the back and loins, from the effect of Frictions, and dislocation of the bones, ever offered to the public. Dr. Sweets' Pills, so long distinguished for their efficacy, willing to meet the wishes of his friends, and that the thousands suffering from pain and weakness may avail themselves of a remedy, and diminish the number of physicians, has arranged with Mr. B. Baxter, of New London, Conn., to manufacture his Strengthening Pills, and supply every city and town in the United States, none genuine without the written signature of Dr. Sweets, and the name of the Dispensary, and the name of the Dispensary,

THE FASHIONABLE NEW FASHIONABLE HAT ESTABLISHMENT.
BIRD, late foreman to, and many years with Leary & Co. after the most successful experience in all the branches of the Hatter's business, has removed to the corner of Nassau Street, at his new room, No. 13 Nassau street, corner of Pine, a splendid assortment of hats (every variety of size, from the medium to the large) and of the latest fashions, and of the most superior quality. He intends to sell at 50 cents, and by directing a whole care to that angle style, is confident of producing an article without any superior, and fashion and utility having established by Mr. B. Baxter, of New London, Conn., he deems it an obvious advantage to the public to confine his efforts to one purpose instead of making experiments in variety. Fearing no competition with any establishment in producing this article.
He has made arrangements for the London and Paris fashions and styles, and has a large stock of hats on hand, and will first in the market with the new standard established by Foreign taste. a5 1m BIRD, 13 Nassau corner of Pine.
