

Our Subscribers.

As no doubt of our city subscribers are victims of the absurd custom of changing residences very frequently...

Mails for Europe.

The packet ship Liverpool, Capt. Eldridge, will sail at 11 o'clock this morning for Liverpool.

News from Europe.

The Sarah Sands is now due, with two days' later intelligence from Europe. She is now twenty days at sea.

MR. BENNETT'S LETTERS FROM EUROPE.

PARIS, 24th March, 1847. The Spanish Danseuse Lola Montes, and the King of Bavaria.

Mlle. or Donna Lola Montes, has been not only creating a great sensation in Bavaria, but the newspapers of London and Paris are full of her movements, her letters, and her history.

Well, it seems that although Donna Lola Montes bears a Spanish name, she is neither a Spaniard, nor a Spanish danseuse. She is an Irish woman by birth.

Her father was an Irishman of rather questionable reputation and employment, and her mother a Spanish woman, connected, it is said, with a good family, and also with the theatres.

Her name, instead of Lola Montes, was, in her girlhood, simply Betty Watson. She was rather good looking, and commenced life by marrying, on the left side, a gentleman who was going out to India.

On her return to London, she was not long without some occupation. She travelled to Spain in the capacity of femme de chambre to an old roue, who wanted to get rid of the moral and physical atmosphere of England.

At Boulogne, she embarked for England. During this voyage she attracted, by her accomplishments, her distinguished air, and her easy impudence, the attention of an English earl, who was returning home with his family from a short European tour.

She astonished and interested them with her knowledge of foreign lands and languages—her grace and vivacity of manner—her perfect propriety of demeanor—her misfortunes, and her loss of property and position by the naughty revolutions in Spain.

humbly the public—but the public would not stay humbugged. She left the stage, and sunk down into her original profession—a courtizan of the premier qualite.

After this explosion, Lola wandered about from lover to lover, from town to town—from Paris to Berlin, from Berlin to Dresden, till last summer, when she took a trip to the minor kingdoms and minor theatres of Europe.

The NEW CHARGE TO DENMARK.—The Hon. R. P. Fleniken, recently appointed charge d'affaires to Denmark, is now at the Astor House, and will sail this day in the packet ship Liverpool.

THE BRAZILIAN MINISTER.—Among the distinguished strangers in town, we notice at the Clinton Hotel Mr. Lisboa, the Brazilian minister, en route for Washington.

TRAVEL TO EUROPE.—We learn that every berth in the Cambria, the steamer of the 1st proximo, has been engaged.

THEATRICAL. PARK THEATRE.—Mrs. Mason repeats back to-night. We have before us an analysis of her acting in this character at some length.

There is a pathos in her tone which is very winning, and her tenderness is fraught, from the cause above stated, with a sentiment and a charm which are not to be met elsewhere.

Mr. RICHIE'S estimate was three whigs to twelve democrats. We give no return, unless the Legislature, because there is no return of interest felt out of the State for the result.

Additional returns came in last night. We annex them.—Second District.—The counties of Brunswick, Dinwiddie, Prince George, Nottoway and Greenwick, and the town of Petersburg give, according to the Richmond Enquirer, 114 whigs to 100 democrats.

Mr. ALEXANDER.—This gentleman will remain in the city during the whole of this week, and will perform every evening during that time at the Minerva Rooms, Broadway. He has fitted up the stage in the most gorgeous and magnificent style.

CHRISTY'S MINSTRELS.—The citizens of New Brunswick, N. J., will have the pleasure this evening of listening to Christy's Minstrels. They have just concluded an engagement in this city, which was very successful, and added considerably to the flattering reputation they had previously enjoyed.

THE CAMPANILLO.—These original and extraordinary performers will play their bells every evening this week, except Tuesday, at the Apollo Rooms, No. 410 Broadway. Their performances during the week past were listened to by crowded and delighted audiences.

THE WEATHER.—Yesterday we had another change. The day was remarkably mild, and the streets were thronged with pedestrians. The thermometer stood at 74.

THE COMMON COUNCIL.—The whig members elect of the Common Council assembled in caucus several times during the past week, without doing much however in the way of agreeing upon appointments. It is presumed that the next meeting will see a better number of office seekers.

FOUND DROWN.—Coroner Walters was called yesterday to hold an inquest upon the body of an unknown man, about 40 years old, who was found floating in the dock at the foot of Fine street, on Friday night.

A SAFFREY.—Coroner Walters being called yesterday to hold an inquest in the Old Brewery, Murderer Alley, near No. 59 Cross street, we embraced the opportunity to attend the proceedings.

BATTLE OF MONTEVEY.—We learn that a splendid victory of the storming of Montevideo, painted by two Lieutenants of the army, is to be exhibited at the Gothic Hall this evening.

THE WATER IN THE CONNECTICUT river rises from 15 to 24 hours after rain has ceased falling here. It has rained very much in the Connecticut valley, and the river is now in such a high stage that it is necessary to be on the watch.

THE WATER IN THE MERIMAC river rises from 15 to 24 hours after rain has ceased falling here. It has rained very much in the Connecticut valley, and the river is now in such a high stage that it is necessary to be on the watch.

THE WATER IN THE MERIMAC river rises from 15 to 24 hours after rain has ceased falling here. It has rained very much in the Connecticut valley, and the river is now in such a high stage that it is necessary to be on the watch.

Virginia Election. The following is a list of the Congressional candidates in Virginia, with the majority in each district at the last Presidential election.

Table with columns: District, Name, Party, Majority. Lists candidates for 1st through 13th districts.

We now proceed to give the result of the election held in Virginia on Thursday last. We have taken the greatest pains to have our returns full and correct, and they may be relied upon with confidence.

First District.—The prospects are favorable to the whigs. In 1844 Clay had 231—whig gain 91; also gain in Portsmouth 70, and at Tanner's Creek 23—total gain 184.

Second District.—(Petersburg, &c.)—In Petersburg the majority against Dringhouse (democrat) and in favor of Bolling (whig) is 191—a whig gain of 161; and in Petersburg the majority for the whigs is 101.

Third District.—(Pittsylvania, &c.)—Not heard from. Fourth District.—(Buckingham, &c.)—Reports in favor of the election of Irving (whig). The contest will be a close one.

Fifth District.—(Albemarle, &c.)—Reports favorable to the election of Gough (whig). Sixth District.—(Richmond, &c.)—John M. Botts (whig) elected, majority about 500.

Seventh District.—(Accomac, &c.)—The Norfolk Herald says: "Our information from the election in Hampton county, says that the whigs have a majority of 100 votes, and that the democrats have a majority of 100 votes."

Eighth District.—(Westmoreland, &c.)—Reports favorable to the election of Gough (whig). Ninth District.—(Stafford, &c.)—Reports favorable to the election of Gough (whig).

Tenth District.—(Frederick county, &c.)—Bedinger, elected. Eleventh District.—(Rockingham, &c.)—Reports in favor of the election of Gough (whig).

Twelfth District.—(Montgomery, &c.)—Probably democratic. Thirteenth District.—(Little Tennessee, &c.)—Probably democratic.

Fourteenth District.—(Kanawha, &c.)—Probably democratic. Fifteenth District.—(Wheeling, &c.)—Doubtful.

RECAPITULATION. Whigs. Democrats. Elected... 114... 100. Certain... 114... 100. Probable... 114... 100.

Mr. Ritchie's estimate was three whigs to twelve democrats. We give no return, unless the Legislature, because there is no return of interest felt out of the State for the result.

Additional returns came in last night. We annex them.—Second District.—The counties of Brunswick, Dinwiddie, Prince George, Nottoway and Greenwick, and the town of Petersburg give, according to the Richmond Enquirer, 114 whigs to 100 democrats.

Mr. ALEXANDER.—This gentleman will remain in the city during the whole of this week, and will perform every evening during that time at the Minerva Rooms, Broadway. He has fitted up the stage in the most gorgeous and magnificent style.

CHRISTY'S MINSTRELS.—The citizens of New Brunswick, N. J., will have the pleasure this evening of listening to Christy's Minstrels. They have just concluded an engagement in this city, which was very successful, and added considerably to the flattering reputation they had previously enjoyed.

THE CAMPANILLO.—These original and extraordinary performers will play their bells every evening this week, except Tuesday, at the Apollo Rooms, No. 410 Broadway. Their performances during the week past were listened to by crowded and delighted audiences.

THE WEATHER.—Yesterday we had another change. The day was remarkably mild, and the streets were thronged with pedestrians. The thermometer stood at 74.

Extraordinary Communication to the Senate. From Chancellor Walworth, in which he Declines the Office of Commissioner of the Code.

DEAR SEN.—Permit me through you to express to the Legislature my thanks for the confidence implied in my appointment by them as one of the Commissioners of the Code, by the law of the 21st of March, 1847.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.

It is made the duty of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature under the seventeenth section of the first article of the new constitution, to prepare a code of laws for the State, the whole body of the written and unwritten law of this State, or so much thereof as they shall deem practicable and expedient.