

NEW-Y TELEGRAPH ONE WEEK LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMSHIP CANADA, AT HALIFAX. NO TIDINGS OF THE ATLANTIC.

Highly Interesting from the French Republic. THE CRISIS IN PARIS.

Settlement of the Schleswig-Holstein Question.

THE DRESDEN CONFERENCE.

DECLINE IN THE COTTON MARKET.

Here of the Catholic Movement in England.

Melancholy Shipwreck of an American Ship off Holyhead.

The steamship Canada arrived at Halifax yesterday noon after a passage of thirty days from Liverpool...

The steamship Africa had arrived at Liverpool on Sunday noon, the 19th, after a passage of eleven days...

Corrow has declined from 1/4 to 1/2. The market closed steady on Friday, the 17th ult. Fair Orleans...

The Havre market was very quiet on Thursday, with sales of less than 300 bales up to 2 o'clock...

The Paris market had been quiet, with a fair business at prices generally well supported...

The London money market has been steady during the week, but some apprehension is still felt...

The business in American stocks has been to a moderate extent, and the quotations are unaltered...

The English general news is of trifling interest, and the papers are chiefly filled with speculations...

Louis Napoleon appears to have gained, for the time being, a complete mastery over General Changarnier...

The news from the Duchies, that the Holsteiners have made an unconditional surrender to the King of Denmark...

Although nothing definite is yet known of the proceedings of the Dresden conference, yet little doubt appears to be entertained...

Another weekly resignation of the Spanish Cabinet has taken place, and this time it is said that Narvaez has actually left Madrid.

Accounts from Rome and the Papal States represent a growing apprehension and uneasiness among all classes.

A slight sensation has been created by the recent appointment, without any previous notice, of a new Catholic Bishop for Ireland.

The London Standard's views with great confidence that Lord John Russell firmly adheres to the principles laid down in his letter to the Bishop of Durham.

London is said to be rapidly filling up with every conceivable species of adventurers for the forthcoming season.

It is stated on the authority of Earl Montagu, that the British government have resolved to make Holyhead the port of arrival and departure for the transatlantic mail steamers.

The preliminary dismissal of General Changarnier has caused great dissatisfaction among the leaders of the liberty of order, who profess to see in that act the foreshadowing of Louis Napoleon's desire to obtain absolute power.

The Hon. B. W. Crowninghill, of Salem, Secretary of the Navy under President Madison, fell in a store in this city, this forenoon.

William Lee, eighty years of age, and for over forty years a custom house officer, died suddenly at Salem, on Saturday.

posing no barriers to the vilest abuse, through the journals of the General and his friends; and it is also alleged that the revolutionary crisis of the army are allowed to pass without reprimand.

The question of the Dotation bill has not been brought forward in the Assembly. A formidable opposition is being organized against its passage.

The French coast has been visited with a fearful gale. Sixty merchant vessels put into the port of Cherbourg for safety.

The Austrian project of a Zollverein was the chief subject of discussion at last dates. It meets with no favor from the government of Prussia, but the Saxons and Bavarian governments are said to favor the proposition.

The Prussian government has resolved upon the imposition of a heavy income tax, which is limited to yield two millions of dollars, and to be applied to the payment of the interest on the public debt.

The export market at Calcutta was brisk on the 7th December. The prospect of the harvest was cheering.

Having no commercial circuit, our market report is condensed from Willmer & Smith.

Cotton.—In the common run of American, it is one farthing cheaper. This change has been accompanied with the depression and eagerness to sell, which usually attend these downward movements.

The Havre market was very quiet on Thursday, with sales of less than 300 bales up to 2 o'clock.

The Paris market had been quiet, with a fair business at prices generally well supported.

The London money market has been steady during the week, but some apprehension is still felt.

The business in American stocks has been to a moderate extent, and the quotations are unaltered.

The English general news is of trifling interest, and the papers are chiefly filled with speculations.

Louis Napoleon appears to have gained, for the time being, a complete mastery over General Changarnier.

The news from the Duchies, that the Holsteiners have made an unconditional surrender to the King of Denmark.

Although nothing definite is yet known of the proceedings of the Dresden conference, yet little doubt appears to be entertained.

Another weekly resignation of the Spanish Cabinet has taken place, and this time it is said that Narvaez has actually left Madrid.

Accounts from Rome and the Papal States represent a growing apprehension and uneasiness among all classes.

A slight sensation has been created by the recent appointment, without any previous notice, of a new Catholic Bishop for Ireland.

The London Standard's views with great confidence that Lord John Russell firmly adheres to the principles laid down in his letter to the Bishop of Durham.

London is said to be rapidly filling up with every conceivable species of adventurers for the forthcoming season.

It is stated on the authority of Earl Montagu, that the British government have resolved to make Holyhead the port of arrival and departure for the transatlantic mail steamers.

The preliminary dismissal of General Changarnier has caused great dissatisfaction among the leaders of the liberty of order, who profess to see in that act the foreshadowing of Louis Napoleon's desire to obtain absolute power.

The Hon. B. W. Crowninghill, of Salem, Secretary of the Navy under President Madison, fell in a store in this city, this forenoon.

William Lee, eighty years of age, and for over forty years a custom house officer, died suddenly at Salem, on Saturday.

THIRTY-FIRST CONGRESS. SECOND SESSION.

BY MORSE'S MAGNETIC TELEGRAPH. SENATE. BY MORSE'S MAGNETIC TELEGRAPH, OFFICE, CORNER OF BEAVER AND MANHATTAN STREETS, WASHINGTON, Feb. 3, 1851.

The Senate met, and proceeded to the funeral of Mr. Kaufman. After the funeral, the Senate reassembled, and immediately adjourned.

House of Representatives. BY RAIN'S ELECTRO-CHEMICAL TELEGRAPH. WASHINGTON, February 3, 1851.

The funeral of Mr. Kaufman took place to-day. The House opened with prayer by the Rev. Mr. Gurley.

The committee of arrangements, and the pall bearers and officers of both houses were seated, and the members craped on the left arm.

Mr. Butler, chaplain of the Senate, read a portion of the service of the Episcopal church.

Mr. Howard, Mr. M. E. McLean, Mr. McLean, Mr. A. S. Johnson, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor.

Mr. Howard, Mr. M. E. McLean, Mr. McLean, Mr. A. S. Johnson, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor.

Mr. Howard, Mr. M. E. McLean, Mr. McLean, Mr. A. S. Johnson, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor.

Mr. Howard, Mr. M. E. McLean, Mr. McLean, Mr. A. S. Johnson, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor.

Mr. Howard, Mr. M. E. McLean, Mr. McLean, Mr. A. S. Johnson, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor.

Mr. Howard, Mr. M. E. McLean, Mr. McLean, Mr. A. S. Johnson, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor.

Mr. Howard, Mr. M. E. McLean, Mr. McLean, Mr. A. S. Johnson, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor.

Mr. Howard, Mr. M. E. McLean, Mr. McLean, Mr. A. S. Johnson, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor.

Mr. Howard, Mr. M. E. McLean, Mr. McLean, Mr. A. S. Johnson, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor.

Mr. Howard, Mr. M. E. McLean, Mr. McLean, Mr. A. S. Johnson, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor.

Mr. Howard, Mr. M. E. McLean, Mr. McLean, Mr. A. S. Johnson, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor.

Mr. Howard, Mr. M. E. McLean, Mr. McLean, Mr. A. S. Johnson, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor.

Mr. Howard, Mr. M. E. McLean, Mr. McLean, Mr. A. S. Johnson, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor.

Mr. Howard, Mr. M. E. McLean, Mr. McLean, Mr. A. S. Johnson, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor.

Mr. Howard, Mr. M. E. McLean, Mr. McLean, Mr. A. S. Johnson, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor.

Mr. Howard, Mr. M. E. McLean, Mr. McLean, Mr. A. S. Johnson, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor.

Mr. Howard, Mr. M. E. McLean, Mr. McLean, Mr. A. S. Johnson, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor.

Mr. Howard, Mr. M. E. McLean, Mr. McLean, Mr. A. S. Johnson, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor.

Mr. Howard, Mr. M. E. McLean, Mr. McLean, Mr. A. S. Johnson, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor, Mr. J. P. Taylor.

Important from Albany.

GRAT EXCITEMENT--DEMOCRATIC COURSE FOR U. S. SENATOR--JOHN A. DIX SELECTED, ETC.

ALBANY, FEBRUARY 3--11 P. M. Great excitement prevails at the various headquarters of the members of the Senate and Assembly, regarding the election of a United States Senator.

The democratic members of the two Houses met in secret caucus, at seven o'clock this evening, and were engaged until this moment in discussing a resolution offered by Senator Fox, to go into nomination for a United States Senator.

The caucus afterwards resolved their resolution not to make a nomination, and went into a ballot for a candidate, when the Hon. John A. Dix was nominated by a large vote.

The silver grays have also held a secret caucus, and resolved to adhere to their principles.

General Lockwood, of Westchester, an out and out "silver gray," and crowds of other loyal men, arrived this evening, in the cars from New York.

The members of the third house (Lobby men) will hold a caucus at a late hour to-night. They will probably repudiate the name of Fish.

The trial of young Bramhall, concerned in the robbery of the Post Office, is slowly progressing in the United States Court, and excites considerable interest.

On the arrival of the Housatonic train, to-night, a brutal outrage was committed on Mr. Matthew P. Biem, by a cabman named John Hart, who seized the baggage of Mr. Biem, and not being allowed to take it, averaged himself by giving Mr. Biem several powerful blows with the butt of his whip.

Messrs. De Gray and Strong, the delegation from Brooklyn, have arrived. Their purpose is to urge the passage of the bill respecting the erection of houses in that city as to prevent accosts to freemen.

Election in Ohio for United States Senator. The Cleveland Plaindealer has a despatch dated 3d Columbus, on the 31st ult., which gives the following result of the balloting on that day, in the Ohio Legislature, for a United States Senator:--

First Ballot. Griswold, whig, 49; Payne, democrat, 40; Giddings, free soil, 11; Blank, 4.

Second Ballot. Griswold, whig, 49; Payne, democrat, 40; Giddings, free soil, 12; Taylor, 4; Allen, 4.

Third Ballot. Griswold, whig, 49; Payne, democrat, 40; Giddings, free soil, 12; Taylor, 4; Allen, 4.

Fourth Ballot. Griswold, whig, 49; Payne, democrat, 40; Giddings, free soil, 12; Taylor, 4; Allen, 4.

Fifth Ballot. Griswold, whig, 49; Payne, democrat, 40; Giddings, free soil, 12; Taylor, 4; Allen, 4.

Sixth Ballot. Griswold, whig, 49; Payne, democrat, 40; Giddings, free soil, 12; Taylor, 4; Allen, 4.

Seventh Ballot. Griswold, whig, 49; Payne, democrat, 40; Giddings, free soil, 12; Taylor, 4; Allen, 4.

Eighth Ballot. Griswold, whig, 49; Payne, democrat, 40; Giddings, free soil, 12; Taylor, 4; Allen, 4.

Ninth Ballot. Griswold, whig, 49; Payne, democrat, 40; Giddings, free soil, 12; Taylor, 4; Allen, 4.

Tenth Ballot. Griswold, whig, 49; Payne, democrat, 40; Giddings, free soil, 12; Taylor, 4; Allen, 4.

Eleventh Ballot. Griswold, whig, 49; Payne, democrat, 40; Giddings, free soil, 12; Taylor, 4; Allen, 4.

Twelfth Ballot. Griswold, whig, 49; Payne, democrat, 40; Giddings, free soil, 12; Taylor, 4; Allen, 4.

Thirteenth Ballot. Griswold, whig, 49; Payne, democrat, 40; Giddings, free soil, 12; Taylor, 4; Allen, 4.

Fourteenth Ballot. Griswold, whig, 49; Payne, democrat, 40; Giddings, free soil, 12; Taylor, 4; Allen, 4.

Senate for Arson.

ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 3, 1851. Christopher Franciscus, formerly an engineer on the New York and Erie railroad, was this day sentenced to fifteen years and four months hard labor in the Auburn State Prison.

Franciscus was arrested about a year ago for setting fire to a barn which consumed Haight's Mansion House, and was convicted some months ago, but was retained in jail as evidence in regard to an individual who was supposed to be an accessory.

Sailing of the St. Lawrence. WASHINGTON, Feb. 3, 1851. Orders have been issued for the positive sailing of the St. Lawrence, for Southampton, for the purpose of conveying articles intended for the World's Fair, on the 8th of this month.

Markets. NEW YORK, Feb. 3, 1851. Owing to light crops in North Carolina, the market has been poorly supplied with corn, this season, and it has, consequently, borne a good price; a slight decline has, however, taken place during the last day or two.

The supply of cotton has been good, and prices are 1 1/2c, according to quality. White beans are dull at $1.30. Sales of tax at $1.57 a $1.60.

Superior Court. Before Chief Justice Oakley. THE LATE FUGITIVE SLAVE CASE--CURIOUS PROCEEDINGS.

Feb. 3--Henry Long vs. Charles M. Hall. An order was obtained by the defendant on the 27th ult., that Henry Long be secured for costs, on the ground that he was a non-resident of this State, or other cases why he should not sue in person.

On the 29th ult. Mr. Charles E. Whitehead, solicitor for Long, appeared to show cause against the order, and to move for its revocation. Mr. Butler, who will be remembered, was one of the witnesses for Long on his trial.

Superior Court--New York vs. Charles M. Hall. The said Long has for more than two years last past, that he has during said time, resided permanently in the city and county of New York, and has not been out of the city and county of New York for more than two years last past.

On the 29th ult. Mr. Charles E. Whitehead, solicitor for Long, appeared to show cause against the order, and to move for its revocation. Mr. Butler, who will be remembered, was one of the witnesses for Long on his trial.

On the 29th ult. Mr. Charles E. Whitehead, solicitor for Long, appeared to show cause against the order, and to move for its revocation. Mr. Butler, who will be remembered, was one of the witnesses for Long on his trial.

On the 29th ult. Mr. Charles E. Whitehead, solicitor for Long, appeared to show cause against the order, and to move for its revocation. Mr. Butler, who will be remembered, was one of the witnesses for Long on his trial.

On the 29th ult. Mr. Charles E. Whitehead, solicitor for Long, appeared to show cause against the order, and to move for its revocation. Mr. Butler, who will be remembered, was one of the witnesses for Long on his trial.

On the 29th ult. Mr. Charles E. Whitehead, solicitor for Long, appeared to show cause against the order, and to move for its revocation. Mr. Butler, who will be remembered, was one of the witnesses for Long on his trial.

On the 29th ult. Mr. Charles E. Whitehead, solicitor for Long, appeared to show cause against the order, and to move for its revocation. Mr. Butler, who will be remembered, was one of the witnesses for Long on his trial.

On the 29th ult. Mr. Charles E. Whitehead, solicitor for Long, appeared to show cause against the order, and to move for its revocation. Mr. Butler, who will be remembered, was one of the witnesses for Long on his trial.

On the 29th ult. Mr. Charles E. Whitehead, solicitor for Long, appeared to show cause against the order, and to move for its revocation. Mr. Butler, who will be remembered, was one of the witnesses for Long on his trial.

On the 29th ult. Mr. Charles E. Whitehead, solicitor for Long, appeared to show cause against the order, and to move for its revocation. Mr. Butler, who will be remembered, was one of the witnesses for Long on his trial.

On the 29th ult. Mr. Charles E. Whitehead, solicitor for Long, appeared to show cause against the order, and to move for its revocation. Mr. Butler, who will be remembered, was one of the witnesses for Long on his trial.

On the 29th ult. Mr. Charles E. Whitehead, solicitor for Long, appeared to show cause against the order, and to move for its revocation. Mr. Butler, who will be remembered, was one of the witnesses for Long on his trial.

On the 29th ult. Mr. Charles E. Whitehead, solicitor for Long, appeared to show cause against the order, and to move for its revocation. Mr. Butler, who will be remembered, was one of the witnesses for Long on his trial.

On the 29th ult. Mr. Charles E. Whitehead, solicitor for Long, appeared to show cause against the order, and to move for its revocation. Mr. Butler, who will be remembered, was one of the witnesses for Long on his trial.

On the 29th ult. Mr. Charles E. Whitehead, solicitor for Long, appeared to show cause against the order, and to move for its revocation. Mr. Butler, who will be remembered, was one of the witnesses for Long on his trial.

On the 29th ult. Mr. Charles E. Whitehead, solicitor for Long, appeared to show cause against the order, and to move for its revocation. Mr. Butler, who will be remembered, was one of the witnesses for Long on his trial.

On the 29th ult. Mr. Charles E. Whitehead, solicitor for Long, appeared to show cause against the order, and to move for its revocation. Mr. Butler, who will be remembered, was one of the witnesses for Long on his trial.

Theatricals.

Bowery Theatre. Still the attendance at this famous establishment continues to increase, owing principally to the excellent pieces produced, and the manner in which the respective characters are represented by the stock company.

Mr. Tilton and his troupe, who are again presented this evening, Mr. Stevens, of great dramatic celebrity, will retain the character of Pickens; Mr. Tilton will retain the character of General Newhall; Miss C. Wemyss, as Florence; and Mrs. Jordan, as Rosalinda. This piece will be succeeded by the comedy of "All the World's a Stage." Miss Elbert will next sing one of her much admired ballads, and the entertainment will conclude with the operatic drama of "Massanello, or the Fisherman of Naples," by Massanello, Mr. Stevens, as Borelino; and Miss S. Wemyss, as Fenella. This programme will assuredly attract a large audience.

Madison Theatre. The untiring efforts of the manager of this establishment are, we are happy to perceive, crowned at last with success. Every night this last season has been a triumph for the theatre, and the magnificent tableaux at the end of each act are truly superb.

The new comedy of "The Millionaire," which was produced last evening, has been a great success, and will be presented with the force of a Platonic address. The theatre is now comfortably warmed throughout, and the winter, therefore, need not be apprehensive of cold.

Niblo's Theatre. The opening of this establishment for the present season was commenced last evening, the 29th ult. The troupe, consisting of Terzina, and Clementina, the celebrated French comedienne, being the great attractive feature of the occasion. In the grand ballet of "Catarina," these young ladies displayed their graceful abilities, and were received with enthusiastic applause throughout the whole evening.

Burton's Theatre. This famous Thespian temple will ever hold its own in the city, and the best talent can make, is used in order to keep up the acquired character which Burton has as a theatrical manager. This evening a bill of great attraction is offered for the first time, and the season's amusements will commence with the comedy of the "Hypocrite," with a farce called "Jordan, Bland, Blake, Mr. Hughes and Mrs. Giddings."

National Theatre. Two artists of great celebrity are at present engaged at this theatre, and will appear this evening in the comedy of "The Millionaire," which is spoken in very flattering terms as to his dramatic ability; the other is Miss Hathaway, who has been playing during the past week with the greatest success. The character of the Millionaire is an excellent tragedy of "Othello." Mr. J. G. Hanley as the noble Moor, Miss Mestayer as Desdemona, and Miss Neapolitan, who will be followed by the new burlesque of "Fitzroy's." The orchestra will next play an Irish melody, which has been a great success, and will conclude with the new comic ballet of "The House of Sharn," with an excellent cast.

Bowman's Lyceum. The worthy manager is himself once more, and was cordially greeted last night, on the occasion of his return, by a large and very serious audience. David O'Connell went off better than ever. His jokes were more applauded, and every time he appeared he was greeted with a more successful and successful in arousing popular favor. The "Amphitruon" still continues its triumphant career, and the comedy of "The Millionaire" is a new comedy by the author of the "Squire Family," a new farce by the author of "Pillory," which will be followed by the new comedy of "The House of Sharn," with an excellent cast.

Lyceum. The worthy manager is himself once more, and was cordially greeted last night, on the occasion of his return, by a large and very serious audience. David O'Connell went off better than ever. His jokes were more applauded, and every time he appeared he was greeted with a more successful and successful in arousing popular favor. The "Amphitruon" still continues its triumphant career, and the comedy of "The Millionaire" is a new comedy by the author of the "Squire Family," a new farce by the author of "Pillory," which will be followed by the new comedy of "The House of Sharn," with an excellent cast.

Lyceum. The worthy manager is himself once more, and was cordially greeted last night, on the occasion of his return, by a large and very serious audience. David O'Connell went off better than ever. His jokes were more applauded, and every time he appeared he was greeted with a more successful and successful in arousing popular favor. The "Amphitruon" still continues its triumphant career, and the comedy of "The Millionaire" is a new comedy by the author of the "Squire Family," a new farce by the author of "Pillory," which will be followed by the new comedy of "The House of Sharn," with an excellent cast.

Lyceum. The worthy manager is himself once more, and was cordially greeted last night, on the occasion of his return, by a large and very serious audience. David O'Connell went off better than ever. His jokes were more applauded, and every time he appeared he was greeted with a more successful and successful in arousing popular favor. The "Amphitruon" still continues its triumphant career, and the comedy of "The Millionaire" is a new comedy by the author of the "Squire Family," a new farce by the author of "Pillory," which will be followed by the new comedy of "The House of Sharn," with an excellent cast.

Lyceum. The worthy manager is himself once more, and was cordially greeted last night, on the occasion of his return, by a large and very serious audience. David O'Connell went off better than ever. His jokes were more applauded, and every time he appeared he was greeted with a more successful and successful in arousing popular favor. The "Amphitruon" still continues its triumphant career, and the comedy of "The Millionaire" is a new comedy by the author of the "Squire Family," a new farce by the author of "Pillory," which will be followed by the new comedy of "The House of Sharn," with an excellent cast.

Lyceum. The worthy manager is himself once more, and was cordially greeted last night, on the occasion of his return, by a large and very serious audience. David O'Connell went off better than ever. His jokes were more applauded, and every time he appeared he was greeted with a more successful and successful in arousing popular favor. The "Amphitruon" still continues its triumphant career, and the comedy of "The Millionaire" is a new comedy by the author of the "Squire Family," a new farce by the author of "Pillory," which will be followed by the new comedy of "The House of Sharn," with an excellent cast.

Lyceum. The worthy manager is himself once more, and was cordially greeted last night, on the occasion of his return, by a large and very serious audience. David O'Connell went off better than ever. His jokes were more applauded, and every time he appeared he was greeted with a more successful and successful in arousing popular favor. The "Amphitruon" still continues its triumphant career, and the comedy of "The Millionaire" is a new comedy by the author of the "Squire Family," a new farce by the author of "Pillory," which will be followed by the new comedy of "The House of Sharn," with an excellent cast.

Lyceum. The worthy manager is himself once more, and was cordially greeted last night, on the occasion of his return, by a large and very serious audience. David O'Connell went off better than ever. His jokes were more applauded, and every time he appeared he was greeted with a more successful and successful in arousing popular favor. The "Amphitruon" still continues its triumphant career, and the comedy of "The Millionaire" is a new comedy by the author of the "Squire Family," a new farce by the author of "Pillory," which will be followed by the new comedy of "The House of Sharn," with an excellent cast.

Lyceum. The worthy manager is himself once more, and was cordially greeted last night, on the occasion of his return, by a large and very serious audience. David O'Connell went off better than ever. His jokes were more applauded, and every time he appeared he was greeted with a more successful and successful in arousing popular favor. The "Amphitruon" still continues its triumphant career, and the comedy of "The Millionaire" is a new comedy by the author of the "Squire Family," a new farce by the author of "Pillory," which will be followed by the new comedy of "The House of Sharn," with an excellent cast.

Lyceum. The worthy manager is himself once more, and was cordially greeted last night, on the occasion of his return, by a large and very serious audience. David O'Connell went off better than ever. His jokes were more applauded, and every time he appeared he was greeted with a more successful and successful in arousing popular favor. The "Amphitruon" still continues its triumphant career, and the comedy of "The Millionaire" is a new comedy by the author of the "Squire Family," a new farce by the author of "Pillory," which will be followed by the new comedy of "The House of Sharn," with an excellent cast.

Lyceum. The worthy manager is himself once more, and was cordially greeted last night, on the occasion of his return, by a large and very serious audience. David O'Connell went off better than ever. His jokes were more applauded, and every time he appeared he was greeted with a more successful and successful in arousing popular favor. The "Amphitruon" still continues its triumphant career, and the comedy of "The Millionaire" is a new comedy by the author of the "Squire Family," a new farce by the author of "Pillory," which will be followed by the new comedy of "The House of Sharn," with an excellent cast.

Lyceum. The worthy manager is himself once more, and was cordially greeted last night, on the occasion of his return, by a large and very serious audience. David O'Connell went off better than ever. His jokes were more applauded, and every time he appeared he was greeted with a more successful and successful in arousing popular favor. The "Amphitruon" still continues its triumphant career, and the comedy of "The Millionaire" is a new comedy by the author of the "Squire Family," a new farce by the author of "Pillory," which will be followed by the new comedy of "The House of Sharn," with an excellent cast.

Lyceum. The worthy manager is himself once more, and was cordially greeted last night, on the occasion of his return, by a large and very serious audience. David O'Connell went off better than ever. His jokes were more applauded, and every time he appeared he was greeted with a