

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

GEN. PIERCE AND THE NEBRASKA QUESTION.

Another Explanatory Letter from Col. Clemens.

Secretary Marcy Becoming Disgusted with His Position.

Highly Interesting from Mexico.

Santa Anna Marching Against the Acapulco Revolutionists.

Curious Scenes in the New York Assembly.

PAT FEES RELINQUISHED BY THE CORPORATION COUNSEL.

The Latest from Washington City.

THE PRESIDENT'S POSITION ON THE NEBRASKA QUESTION—ANOTHER LETTER FROM COL. CLEMENS.

WASHINGTON, March 26, 1854.

The Union this morning publishes the letter of Mr. Jerome to the President which we alluded to yesterday. It reiterates the truth of the statement in Mr. Clemens' letter to Mr. Davis, that the President did say the Nebraska bill "was a proposition in favor of freedom," and that "although we might abhor the whole of Mexico, not another slave State would come into the Union" if the bill passed. Mr. Clemens politely says General Pierce "may" have in that connection expressed his surprise that the "true" men of the North should object to the bill, and not merely "the men of the North." The word "true" in connection with the assertion that the bill would effectually exclude the spread of slavery, may be interpreted the free-soilers of the North. General James of Rhode Island, was the Senator present when the interview took place which Colonel Clemens alluded to, and it was to convert him and make him friendly to the bill that the President used the "Northern" argument, the development of which has created so much confusion.

THE BLACK WARRIOR AFFAIR—SECRETARY MARCY.

It is said that Mr. Marcy has declared if there is any attempt to back out from the demands made upon Spain on the part of the President he will at once resign. Rumor has it that Mr. Marcy is exceedingly anxious to withdraw from the bankrupt concern, and will gladly avail himself of the first opportunity to leave the State Department. The demands upon Spain are, first, an immediate apology for the affair of the Black Warrior; and, secondly, the investment of diplomatic power in the Captain-General to treat directly with this government upon all differences in connection with Cuba. It is not probable Spain will agree to these conditions; and then look out for a beautiful backing down on the part of the present "Young Hickory" administration.

Late and Interesting from Mexico.

SANTA ANNA IN THE FIELD AGAINST THE ACAPULCO REVOLUTIONISTS.

The steamer Texas brings dates from Vera Cruz of the 22d instant, and from the city of Mexico of the 19th. Santa Anna left the capital on the 12th, to take the field in person against the insurgent, General Alvarez. The latter is said to be surrounded in his mountainous retreat, destitute of money and provisions, and nearly abandoned by his army.

Interesting from Albany, N. Y.

CALL OF THE HOUSE—CLOSED DOORS—SENATOR REWARD TURNED OFF THE LOBBY—MEMBERS ABSENT WITHOUT NOTICE—DEFICIENCY IN THE QUORUM—MEMBERS BROUGHT IN—APOLOGIES, REQUESTS AND FORGIVENESSES, ETC.

ALBANY, March 25, 1854.

This morning the House of Assembly proceeded in its regular order of business, and spent an hour in disposing of petitions, reports and resolutions. Before concluding the latter order, the Hon. Abram Lott, from Danville, Livingston county, a whig, of high standing, and great influence, rose and remarked that the turmoil was great in the House it was quite evident the business could not be proceeded with in such order as he desired, and he therefore moved a call of the House. Being a privileged motion, all other matters pending were promptly arrested, and the Speaker put the question, and there was a large majority in favor of the call. The Speaker ordered the doors closed, and gave directions to the officers not to permit any member to come in. The Clerk was then directed to call the roll, in order to ascertain how many members were present and who were absent. Mr. Allen, who had been directed to attend, was directed to proceed in search of absent members, and bring them before the bar of the House.

Non-Arrival of the Africa.

DEATH OF HON. PHILLIP GREELY—THE WEATHER.

Accident to Bishop Brownell.

The Southern Mail.

The Southern Steamer.

Markets.

Several voices—Oh! he's a reporter, and has a right to be.

Mr. Kelley was going directly through with this call, and not make a farce of it.

Mr. Kelley was going directly through with this call, and not make a farce of it.

Mr. Kelley was going directly through with this call, and not make a farce of it.

Mr. Kelley was going directly through with this call, and not make a farce of it.

Mr. Kelley was going directly through with this call, and not make a farce of it.

Mr. Kelley was going directly through with this call, and not make a farce of it.

Mr. Kelley was going directly through with this call, and not make a farce of it.

Mr. Kelley was going directly through with this call, and not make a farce of it.

Mr. Kelley was going directly through with this call, and not make a farce of it.

Mr. Kelley was going directly through with this call, and not make a farce of it.

Mr. Kelley was going directly through with this call, and not make a farce of it.

Mr. Kelley was going directly through with this call, and not make a farce of it.

Mr. Kelley was going directly through with this call, and not make a farce of it.

Mr. Kelley was going directly through with this call, and not make a farce of it.

Mr. Lott rose to a point of order. The Sergeant-at-Arms is not equipped with sword and cocked hat.

Confusion and disorder prevailed to considerable extent, and the Speaker allowed more latitude by indulging in talk and conversation than if the doors were open and in view of spectators.

A complaint was made that a member had a cigar in his mouth. The officer brought Mr. Oshadih Stephens, a member from Central Canastota, Steuben county, before the bar, when it appeared that his cigar was not on fire, although he was smoking it, as it seemed to be of no account of the House, as the principle emitted neither flame nor smoke.

The same excuse was offered by Mr. Eli Beers, of Tompkins, who was also called to the bar.

Mr. Sterling here obtained a hearing, and denied that the temperance men had abandoned the business of legislation, as had been stated by the gentleman from Livingston county.

Mr. Joy—I wish to state that I am present, and though the temperance bill has passed, we still had other important matters on hand which he desired to have disposed of before the adjournment.

Mr. Collins moved that a resolution be adopted, declaring that if the call was suspended the call with which absentees are charged would not be withdrawn.

Mr. Collins moved to adjourn. Declared out of order. The Clerk decided that a resolution could be entertained, and the House adjourned.

Mr. Sterling here asked for leave of absence for a minute and a half. Promoted granted.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. Collins moved that the call be suspended. Lost.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

The stock at this port is 67,000 bushels. Rice is held at $4 62 1/2. Whiskey has declined; sales at 25 1/2c. Exchange on New York, 1/2 cent premium.

New Orleans, March 26, 1854.

The cotton market has been very quiet to-day, reaching 6,000 bales; quotations for March 27, 1854.

The sales of cotton to-day were 1,100 bales; quotations range from 7 1/2c. to 8c. The market for printing cloths is without change. Sales for the week, 22,700 pieces.

Washington Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, March 24, 1854.

Low tide in the Lobby—Fashionable Society in Washington.

A Hat at the Nebraska Bill, and Mr. Cutting, &c.

The lobby is at low water mark. Excepting the active members of the third house, engaged in behalf of the Gadsden treaty, and a few private bills before the Senate, the members of the indispensable lobby appear to have emigrated to parts unknown.

The Deficiency Bill, and the Indian Appropriation bill have nothing in them for the lobby. The gangs of Indians, in their blankets and trinkets, that daily parade Pennsylvania avenue, may have some wires to pull upon the Indian bill, and this, we suppose, accounts for their presence here last week, and here again this week.

Mr. Sterling here asked for leave of absence for a minute and a half. Promoted granted.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Mr. J. P. Taylor desired officers to be sent after the absentees as they would easily be found on the railroads.

Department of the Interior. The Indian chiefs from Nebraska, with whom the treaty has just been concluded, called to pay their respects to Mr. Manypenny, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Building in Boston—"Blocks" of Stone—Security of Houses—Change in the Character of the Streets of New Hampshire Election—Nominations of Mr. Eliot and Mr. Howland in the First Congressional District—Public Opinion on the Nebraska Bill—New State Auditor—Moral Meeting at Natick—Failure of a Proposed "Job" at Harvard College—Railroad Paria—A Man of Great Worth and Good Works.

Our Boston Correspondence.

Boston, March 25, 1854.

Building in Boston—"Blocks" of Stone—Security of Houses—Change in the Character of the Streets of New Hampshire Election—Nominations of Mr. Eliot and Mr. Howland in the First Congressional District—Public Opinion on the Nebraska Bill—New State Auditor—Moral Meeting at Natick—Failure of a Proposed "Job" at Harvard College—Railroad Paria—A Man of Great Worth and Good Works.

Our Boston Correspondence.

Boston, March 25, 1854.

Building in Boston—"Blocks" of Stone—Security of Houses—Change in the Character of the Streets of New Hampshire Election—Nominations of Mr. Eliot and Mr. Howland in the First Congressional District—Public Opinion on the Nebraska Bill—New State Auditor—Moral Meeting at Natick—Failure of a Proposed "Job" at Harvard College—Railroad Paria—A Man of Great Worth and Good Works.

Our Boston Correspondence.

Boston, March 25, 1854.

Building in Boston—"Blocks" of Stone—Security of Houses—Change in the Character of the Streets of New Hampshire Election—Nominations of Mr. Eliot and Mr. Howland in the First Congressional District—Public Opinion on the Nebraska Bill—New State Auditor—Moral Meeting at Natick—Failure of a Proposed "Job" at Harvard College—Railroad Paria—A Man of Great Worth and Good Works.

Our Boston Correspondence.

Boston, March 25, 1854.

Building in Boston—"Blocks" of Stone—Security of Houses—Change in the Character of the Streets of New Hampshire Election—Nominations of Mr. Eliot and Mr. Howland in the First Congressional District—Public Opinion on the Nebraska Bill—New State Auditor—Moral Meeting at Natick—Failure of a Proposed "Job" at Harvard College—Railroad Paria—A Man of Great Worth and Good Works.

Our Boston Correspondence.

Boston, March 25, 1854.

Building in Boston—"Blocks" of Stone—Security of Houses—Change in the Character of the Streets of New Hampshire Election—Nominations of Mr. Eliot and Mr. Howland in the First Congressional District—Public Opinion on the Nebraska Bill—New State Auditor—Moral Meeting at Natick—Failure of a Proposed "Job" at Harvard College—Railroad Paria—A Man of Great Worth and Good Works.

Our Boston Correspondence.

Boston, March 25, 1854.

Building in Boston—"Blocks" of Stone—Security of Houses—Change in the Character of the Streets of New Hampshire Election—Nominations of Mr. Eliot and Mr. Howland in the First Congressional District—Public Opinion on the Nebraska Bill—New State Auditor—Moral Meeting at Natick—Failure of a Proposed "Job" at Harvard College—Railroad Paria—A Man of Great Worth and Good Works.

Our Boston Correspondence.

Boston, March 25, 1854.

</