

WEST POINT MILITARY ACADEMY.

Annual Examination—Reception of the Board of Visitors—The Cadets before the Faculty—The annual examination of the Graduating Class of West Point was commenced on Friday, and will continue for two or three weeks to come. The Board of Visitors, who are appointed by the President of the United States as Secretary of War, and who appear at West Point as the faculty of a college, were assembled on the grounds on Friday morning, some of them having reached the post the day previous. This board of Visitors consist of the following gentlemen:—

Dramatic and Musical Matters.

The regular season at the city theatres may now be considered as finished, as the Broadway and Burtens' closed last Saturday night. Wallack's will shut up on Tuesday next, and the short season at the Metropolitan will close with the present week. The season has not generally been so profitable as that which preceded it. During the first three months there were five or six theatres open, and Wallack and Maria took away a great deal of money from the people who patronize public amusements; after which the "hard times" made it hard work for several of the managers to make their nightly expenses. For the next season there will be many changes in the companies, and renewed activity among the managers.

News from Central America.

We have received files of the Official Bulletin of Costa Rica up to the 9th of May. The Constitutional Congress of the Republic assembled on the 1st of May under the Vice-Presidency of Senator Don Miguel Morf. The President sent in his message on the same day. It is very brief. It congratulates the Congress on the peace which happily reigns throughout the Republic, and on the fact that for the past year there has been no external disturbance of the tranquility of the country. It informs it that the question of territorial limits between that republic and those of New Granada and Nicaragua remain in the status quo of past years, and suggests that the political change effected in New Granada might operate in the easy regulation of the matter with it, while the latter might also come to a like agreeable settlement, when it would succeed in reovering its internal tranquillity. The opening and improvement of public roads had received the attention of the government; and although commerce had somewhat gained, that was due to circumstances independent of the peace and activity of the people. The President was concerned that the Commission of Emigration from converting Costa Rica into a depot for immigrants may be expected this morning.

The June Term of the Law Courts.

As the summer vacation approaches, lawyers and litigants are more urgent to have their suits disposed of, and consequently the call of the various calendars is attended to more punctually than at any earlier period of the year. The United States Circuit Court continues its term from last month, and is occupied in hearing the argument of the case of the United States vs. the Bank of the United States, which is a new trial in a recent case. The United States District Court will be opened tomorrow, when the District Attorney will move on the trial of Colonel Kinnear and ex-Governor Folsom, indicted for selling on foot an unlawful expedition to Nicaragua. The Supreme Court, general term, has adjourned to Monday next, the 11th inst., and the Circuit is engaged in a long-winded cause, which seems to have no end. Two branches of the trial term of the Superior Court will be held for the first fortnight of the month, and four for the remainder of the term; after which there will be no jury causes until October. The usual special term and chamber business will be transacted. The decision of Judge Hoffman in the motion for an injunction to restrain the Commissioners of Emigration from converting Costa Rica into a depot for immigrants may be expected this morning.

GRAND KNOW NOTHING DEMONSTRATION.

The Order Venturing out into the Light of Day. APLENDID TESTIMONIAL TO JAS. W. BARKER. How Old is Sam? NIGGER TASTES OF MR. JAMES BROOKS. Speeches of Messrs. Barker, Lyon, Dunbar Hoover, Rhodes, Brooks and Judge Campbell. We were not a little surprised at receiving, a few days ago, an invitation and cards of admission to attend a meeting of some of the prominent members of the Know Nothing party of the city and State of New York. It was the first occasion on which the press was admitted, much less invited, to their assemblages, and we had the honor of receiving the invitation which we had the honor of receiving was couched in these words, neatly printed in gold letters:—

THE CHURCH.

St. Paul's Church, New York, has just received from the Rev. Mr. [Name] a copy of the [Book] [Title] [Author] [Publisher] [Price] [Date] [Address].

THE CHURCH.

St. Paul's Church, New York, has just received from the Rev. Mr. [Name] a copy of the [Book] [Title] [Author] [Publisher] [Price] [Date] [Address].

THE CHURCH.

St. Paul's Church, New York, has just received from the Rev. Mr. [Name] a copy of the [Book] [Title] [Author] [Publisher] [Price] [Date] [Address].

THE CHURCH.

St. Paul's Church, New York, has just received from the Rev. Mr. [Name] a copy of the [Book] [Title] [Author] [Publisher] [Price] [Date] [Address].

THE CHURCH.

St. Paul's Church, New York, has just received from the Rev. Mr. [Name] a copy of the [Book] [Title] [Author] [Publisher] [Price] [Date] [Address].

THE CHURCH.

St. Paul's Church, New York, has just received from the Rev. Mr. [Name] a copy of the [Book] [Title] [Author] [Publisher] [Price] [Date] [Address].