MATTERS IN WASHINGTON.

To-day has been one of the most quiet, idle sorts of days ever experienced in Washington. Every eye is on the quiet for news. All expect something startling, but no one knows anything. Many are waiting anxiously for intelligence from the Potomac front, which it is expected would to-day engage the rebel batteries at Aquia Creek and Mathias Point.

Great credit is due to General Porter for his indefatigable industry and energy in enforcing discipline and preserving order. Under his regulations the city is entirely free from any of the sources of complaint which were a little while ago too numerous.

THE CASE OF MR. FAULKNER.

Mr. Faulkner is not, as has been stated, merely detained as a hostage for the return of Messrs. Harris and Magraw, who went to the rebel camp for the purpose of recovering the remains of the late Colonel Cameron, but for good and satisfactory reasons to the government, apart from any such considerations.

MOVEMENTS OF THE REBEL FORCES.

The rebel forces have nearly all fallen back to Fairfax Court House, thus widening the distance separating the hostile forces. The pickets of both armies, however, occupy nearly the same advanced positions as heretofore.

ATTENTION TO BE PAID TO SPIES AND SUSPECTED PERSONS.

Having taken measures to insure better discipline and subordination among the troops, the attention of the military authorities is now directed towards the security of rebel spies in our midst. A strict surveillance of suspected persons, greater caution in reference to permits, and more stringent measures in regard to the communication of intelligence to the enemy, will complete the sanitary reforms already begun.

THE GENERAL COURT MARTIAL.

The general Court Martial, now in session, is composed as follows:—General George A. McCall, General Rufus King, General N. D. Cough, Colonel R. T. Taylor, Twenty-third New York; Colonel H. Wright, Second Vermont; Colonel D. E. Sickles, First regiment Excelsior Brigade; Colonel S. G. Shreve, First Pennsylvania; Colonel Frank Wheaton, Second Rhode Island; Colonel Charles Foxworth, Fifteenth Massachusetts; Lieutenant Colonel Wm. Dwight, First regiment Vermont Brigade; Lieutenant Colonel R. N. Hyde, Third Vermont; Captain Henry J. Bidle, Assistant Adjutant General of United States Volunteers, is Judge Advocate.

SEIZURE OF MEDICAL AND MILITARY STORES.

A quantity of medical and military stores on route for the rebels in Virginia, were seized by a detachment of the First Pennsylvania reserves, stationed at Manassas Junction. They were captured at Phelps Cross Roads, about five miles from the Junction. They are estimated to be worth five thousand dollars. They were purchased in Baltimore for parties in Richmond, and paid for out of a Richmond draft. The boxes were marked, "Glass—this side up." They were in two waggons—one driven by a negro and the other by a man named Brummell, who was to receive one hundred and fifty dollars for conveying them safely to Pope's creek.

PEACE MEETING IN LOUISVILLE.

A peace meeting, called by prominent rebels for this evening, was held at the Court House. As the crowd entering the hall many were singing the "Star Spangled Banner." James Speed, Unionist, was called to the chair, and James Traber, secessionist, was also nominated by the persons calling the meeting. A division of the House took place, when Speed was declared elected. The secessionists, numbering a hundred, then withdrew, shouting for the Southern confederacy.

RESIGNATION OF COLONEL JAMISON—MORE DISSENTS.

Colonel Howard, of the Third Maine regiment, and present commander of the Eighth Brigade of the Third division, was recommended by the Maine delegation in Congress for the position of Brigadier General. He had the honor of being voted for by the Maine delegation. He has made a statement of all the circumstances, giving dates and names, which will afford a clue to other important investigations.

SATISFACTORY RESULT OF GEN. MEIGS'S VISIT TO NEW YORK.

Meigs good is likely to result from the visit of Quartermaster Gen. Meigs to New York and Philadelphia. Complaints are constantly being received here of the grossest injustice done to bidders by contractors and other parties in the awarding of contracts for clothing, &c. The frequency of these complaints, and the reliable sources from which they come, have induced Gen. Meigs to visit these cities for the purpose of personally inquiring into the alleged abuses on the part of these officials. Gen. Meigs is determined that, as far as he can effect it, all abuses shall be done away with. We trust, if these charges are well founded, an exposure will unquestionably be made. In the matter of supplying army shoes, large numbers already made have been offered at high prices by manufacturers whose usual mar-
