AMUSEMENTS THIS EVENING.

- WINTER GARDEN, Broadway, Success—Fleming O'Donnell—LATEST FROM NEW YORK. WALLACK'S THEATRE, No. 814 Broadway, Magic Man—THE SCORPION.

THE SITUATION.

Our news from the army of the Potomac to-day represents that so far from the rebel pickets advancing upon our lines, the pickets of Generals Blenker, Heintzelman, Sumner, McCull, Smith and Porter are all making advance movements upon the enemy's position. Their reconnoitering movements have resulted in the discovery that the rebel force in the centre of their line has been very much weakened of late.

THE NEWS.

The first regular session of the Thirty-seventh Congress commenced at noon yesterday. The galleries of both houses were crowded with spectators. In the Senate thirty-seven Senators answered for their names at roll call, including Messrs. Powell, of Kentucky; Bayard, of Delaware; and Bright, of Indiana. The usual committees were appointed to wait upon and inform the President and the House of Representatives that the Senate was ready to proceed to business.

other digestive organs; 14 of uncertain seat and general features, 7 of diseases of the urinary organs, 19 from violent causes, and 1 unknown. There were 213 natives of the United States, 6 of England, 3 of France, 27 of Germany, 74 of Ireland, 1 of Scotland, and the balance of various foreign countries.

the position on this subject occupied by General McClellan, that he understands the pulse of our army. A large majority of our Union soldiers are conservatives of the old democratic and whig parties. They have not volunteered to serve in an abolition crusade; they are not prepared to recognize the equality of the negro even as a soldier.

GEORGE OGDYKE IN THE HANDS OF SATAN.—Sorry and sad must be those who desire that the conservative character of New York city should be maintained inviolate, that Mr. Ogdyske has become so completely wrapped up in the folds of abolition. In yesterday's paper, he publishes the card which we give below, to the effect that he was not present, and did not authorize the use of his name as Vice President of the meeting at the Cooper Institute, when the Massachusetts Senator poured forth a rehash of his Satanic sentiments, in favor of the worship of the almighty nigger.

FREMONT AND COMMODORE WILKES IN THE METROPOLIS.—Our readers cannot fail to have noticed the marked difference in the treatment of General Fremont and Commodore Wilkes upon their arrival in New York. The former, as the commander of the Western Department of the military, attempted to adopt a policy counter to that of the administration, and got himself into trouble, and nearly defied the plans of the government by disobeying orders and conducting the campaign after his own anti-slavery fust and feather notions, until he was finally not only superseded, but has rendered a trial and investigation almost certain.
