HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Nov. 2-3, 1862.

General Pleasanton came up with the enemy's cavalry and artillery at Philomont, about seven o'clock yesterday.

The fight, which was conducted wholly by artillery, lasted about five hours, when the enemy retreated to Union, a small town three miles beyond.

The enemy's loss is not known.

General McClellan visited the front during the afternoon.

A heavy fog was observed at day at Snicker's Gap.

In what direction the rebel troops were moving is not known, the distance being too great.

Another portion of our army took possession of Snicker's Gap to-day.

Three brigades of rebel troops were, at last advice, advancing up the west side of the mountain in two columns.
