

NEW YORK HERALD.

JAMES GORDON BENNETT, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

OFFICE N. W. CORNER OF FULTON AND MASSA STS.

VOLUME XXXIX. No. 103

AMUSEMENTS THIS EVENING.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC, Irving Place.—ITALIAN OPERA.

NIBLO'S GARDEN, Broadway.—FOOD'S REVUE.

WALLACK'S THEATRE, Broadway.—THE STRANGER.

WINTER GARDEN, Broadway.—FACIO.

OLYMPIC THEATRE, Broadway.—OUR WIFE—LOLA LINA.

NEW BOWERY THEATRE, Bowery.—GUNDY'S CAT.

BOVEY THEATRE, Bowery.—POOR CUDDY'S CATERPILLAR.

BARNUM'S MUSEUM, Broadway.—TWO GRANTS. TWO DEARER. AFRICA. WHAT IS IT. &c. at the Old Astor. AFRICA. OR SPIRIT OF HEAVEN!—AT 10 1/2 P. M.

RYAN'S MINSTRELS, Mechanics Bldg. 472 Broadway.—BROTHERLY LOVE. DANCE. BARRAGANS. &c.—AT 8 P. M.

WOODS' MINSTREL HALL, 51 Broadway.—ETROPIAN SONGS. DANCE. &c.—GOING TO THE FAIR.

AMERICAN THEATRE, No. 411 Broadway.—BALLETS. FANTASIES. PASTORALS. &c.—FRODOGS OF COCO.

HYPHOTHETICAL, Fourteenth street.—PERFORMING DANCE AND MONKEYS. Afternoon and Evening.

ROSE CHAPEL, THE BROADWAY.—STENOGRAPHY ON THE BASIS OF UNIVERSAL AND TERTIARY SYSTEMS. THEATRE. CURIOUSITIES AND LECTURES.—AT 8 P. M. till 10 P. M.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC, Brooklyn.—W. M. OF IRELAND.—BALLETS AND BROWNS.

BOULEVARD OPERA HOUSE, Brooklyn.—ETROPIAN SONGS. DANCE. BARRAGANS, &c.

WITH SUPPLEMENT.

New York, Wednesday, April 13, 1864.

ADVERTISEMENTS FOR THE COUNTRY.

Advertisements for the Weekly Herald must be handed in before ten o'clock every Wednesday evening.

THE SITUATION.

General Grant had a lengthy interview with the head of the War Department yesterday, with regard to the future operations of the army.

A despatch from Fort Monroe says that the office at Old Point occupied by the correspondents of the Herald was burned on Monday morning.

The rebel guerrillas, probably a portion of Forrest's command, are still busy on the Kentucky side, opposite Cairo.

On Sunday night they burned two houses and stole several horses.

On Monday a squad of them were seen not more than ten miles from Cairo.

We learn by the steamer Western Metropolis, from Key West, that the transport Maple Leaf, with troops for Florida, which she reached on the 31st ult., while on her return trip to Jacksonville, came in contact with a rebel torpedo that still opposes Lincoln's bluff, which exploded and blew out the entire bow of the vessel.

She sank almost immediately, carrying down four of the crew. The passengers, sixty in number, were saved.

Our cavalry occupied Eagle Pass, four hundred miles above Brownsville, Texas, driving out the rebels. They made this an important point from which to run out into Mexico.

Our troops will now permanently occupy it. Corpus Christi has been recaptured by our forces, where they captured eight hundred prisoners.

Numbers of men flying from the rebel conscription were flocking into our lines daily.

We have received the full reports of General Grant, Thomas and Hooker relative to the series of battles around Chattanooga, commencing with the occupation of Lookout Valley and ending with the relief of Knoxville.

These reports are very interesting, describing as they do one of the most brilliant and important campaigns of the war.

EUROPEAN NEWS.

The steamship Virginia, from Queenstown on the 29th of March, reached this port yesterday.

She landed nine hundred and fifty passengers. Her news is two days later.

The steamship City of New York, which sailed from New York on the 19th of March, was wrecked near Cork, Ireland, on the 29th of the same month.

She ran on Beach's Point.

Maximilian was not announced as Emperor of Mexico on the 25th of March, as expected.

A difficulty relative to the arrangement of the succession to the throne of Austria during his absence caused the delay.

It was said that the Mexican loan had been successfully negotiated, but this was again denied, and the matter remains in doubt.

It is said that Maximilian proposed to have a Spanish prince named his heir presumptive in Mexico in case he should die without children.

The allied Germans continued their operations against Duppel and Fredericia, but they met a firm resistance from the Danes at every point.

The Prussians endeavored to take Duppel by storm, but were repulsed along the entire line after a fierce fight, which lasted nearly seven hours.

The bombardment of Fredericia was not more successful. The German hold on Jutland was relaxing.

It was said that a conference of settlement of the Schleswig-Holstein question would meet in London early in April.

Austria was said to be leagued with Russia in her course of repression against the Polish revolutionists.

Garibaldi was to enjoy a series of splendid receptions in England. It was proposed to present him with the freedom of the city of London, the paper to be enclosed in a casket of the value of one hundred guineas.

The Liverpool cotton market was dull on the 29th of March. Consols closed in London at 91 1/2 a 91 1/2.

On March 29 breadstuffs were dull and provisions steady in Liverpool.

CONGRESS.

In the Senate yesterday Mr. Wade introduced the House bill cosubjecting the people of Nebraska to form a State government.

Mr. Foster objected, on the ground that the insular population of the Territory had not clearly expressed a wish to become a State, and the proposed measure was a dictation to them on the part of Congress.

Mr. Wade replied that through their delegate in the House the people of Nebraska had expressed such a wish. The subject was then laid aside.

Mr. Sumner introduced a bill establishing a Bureau of Freedmen, to be placed in the Treasury Department. A bill relating to the pay and subsistence of the army was introduced and referred to the Military Committee.

A bill granting lands to Iowa, in aid of the construction of a railroad from McGregor to the Missouri river, to connect with Minnesota railroads, was presented.

Bill relating to the mode of ascertaining the value of lands taken for the use of the government, and to prevent courts martial from trying capital offenses not arising in the army and navy, was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Memoranda from Henry O'Reilly and Perry McEl. Europe, relative to telegraphic communication with Europe were referred to the Committee on Commerce.

The Naval Appropriation bill was then taken up by the Committee of the Whole, and a number of amendments adopted—some removing the Naval Academy from Newport, R. I., to Annapolis, Md., or before the 1st of September, 1861, being agreed to, after considerable de-base, by a vote of twenty against seventeen. Mr. Powell offered an amendment repeating the obnoxious clause, and animadverted upon the refusal of the Committee of the Whole to consider this subject.

NEW YORK

In the House of Representatives Mr. Stevens, from the Ways and Means Committee, reported a bill to prevent a depreciation of the currency. It provides that every person, bank, association or corporation issuing notes to circulate as money shall pay a duty of one-fourth of one per centum per month on the amount issued.

Most of the session of the Senate was spent in considering the bill regulating the voting of soldiers. An amendment authorizing the soldier to send his vote to a friend or an inspector of election was adopted, and the bill ordered to a third reading. The Supply bill was then discussed till the adjournment.

In the Assembly the bills, increasing the capital stock of the Erie Railroad Company, and extending the term of office of the New York Tax Commissioners and Assessors were passed, as was also the bill punishing drunkenness in New York city. The committee appointed at the meeting of the Trade Union in Tompkins square, to visit the Legislature to defeat the bill before the Senate on the question of strikes, had an interview with Senators Hastings and Folger on Monday.

The result is that, on motion of Mr. Hastings, the bill was referred back to the Committee on the Judiciary for the purpose of giving the committee an opportunity to be heard on that question.

MISCELLANEOUS NEWS.

A gentleman direct from St. John, N. B., has furnished us with the intelligence that the authorities of St. John have received orders from the home government for the re-arrest of the Chesapeake pirates, recently set at liberty. It is supposed that a further investigation is to be made into the whole affair.

We have received the Bulletin Mercantile de Puerto Rico of March 14 and 15, but they contain no news.

It is said that Bishop McKeown, of Albany, has been appointed Catholic Archbishop of New York, and Bishop Spalding, of Louisville, Ky., Archbishop of Baltimore.

Geographical sketches of these prelates are given in the Herald to-day.

The attendance at the Fair yesterday was the largest yet. It was estimated that over thirty thousand people visited it during the day and night.

Over thirty-eight thousand dollars were received from sales, tickets and donations.

Judge Peckham, of the Supreme Court, yesterday denied the motion for an injunction restraining the directors of the Fourth National Bank from removing President Oplike from office, so that the ex-Mayor may now be considered as ousted.

In the case of Haviland against Jacobs, the defendant's counsel moved to set aside an attachment, which was obtained against Jacobs, on the ground that he was concealing his property with the view of defrauding his creditors.

The defendant alleged that he had been robbed on Christmas day of the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars, and was empowered of any property subject to attachment. Mr. Haviland's counsel charged that the story of the robbery was bogus, and urged that the defendant be held in restraint. Judge Peckham denied the motion to discharge, with costs.

The investigation into the Sub-treasury forgeries is still progressing in the United States Commissioner's office before Mr. White. The greater part of yesterday was occupied in arguments on the admissibility of expert evidence as to the handwriting of the accused to the cheques which are declared to be forgeries. There was but little testimony taken during the day. The case stands adjourned.

The District Attorney, Mr. E. D. Smith, has filed a bill by direct action of the Secretary of the Treasury, against the New York and Jersey City ferry boat Hudson, to recover damages for injuries sustained by the cutter Cuyahoga, in consequence of the Hudson running into her while at anchor of Jersey City. The bill claims five thousand dollars for damages and repairs, and two thousand five hundred dollars for loss of the services of the cutter for two months and a half. The process is made returnable May 3.

In the Court of General Sessions yesterday, City Judge A. D. Russell, presiding, Mr. Luther C. Tibbets, the gentleman who a few weeks since created such an excitement at the Corn Exchange, and against whom an indictment for assault and battery with intent to kill has been found, was admitted to bail in the sum of $5,000.

Mr. James A. Neal, of No. 31 West Fifteenth street, became his bondsman for that amount. Daniel Brooks, a quadroon, was then placed on trial for murder. He is charged with having caused the death of William Smith, a barkeeper in Mr. McKinley's saloon, at the corner of Fulton and South streets, by shooting him with a pistol, about six o'clock on the morning of the 24 of February last, from the effects of which he died two days afterwards. A number of witnesses were examined for the prosecution. The evidence elicited was highly interesting, and will be found in our report of the trial given in another part of this paper.

The prisoner's counsel, in opening the case for the defence, stated that the act was committed in self-defence. District Attorney Oakesley Hall appeared for the prosecution, and Messrs. James T. Brady and Charles S. Spencer for the defence. The case will be continued this morning.

The stock market was buoyant yesterday, and the losses sustained the day previous on nearly all the shares were fully recovered. Harison sold down. The gold market was excited, and the premium advanced to 175. Government securities continued in demand, and steadily advanced in price. The money market was easy, and an abundance of capital was offered at seven per cent.

The movement in most articles of merchandise was fair yesterday, considering the unfavorable state of the weather and the uncertainty with regard to gold quotations from hour to hour and the probable changes in the tariff, but there was no general activity. Some few articles were higher under an active speculative demand.

Cotton was firmer. Petroleum was irregular. Crude was lower, but refined was active and firmer, with large sales. On Chicago business was four was marked by an active speculative movement, and prices were 20c. higher. Wheat improved 1/4c. and other cereals were without important change. The speculative movement in pork also continued, and prices were fully 10c. dearer. Other hog products were also active and higher. Prices of beef were also tending upward. Whiskey improved 1/4c. Freight continued inactive and depressed.

Beef cattle were very active and prices were fully 1c. per higher—ranging from 12 1/2 to 13 1/2c. The bulk of the sales were at 12c. and the average price was 12c.—the highest average ever known in this market. Milk cows were active, and 3 1/2c. higher—ranging from 13 to 16c. Veals were steady, though the receipts were enormous. Prices varied from 7c. to 9 1/2c. Sheep and lambs were active and higher, ranging from 45 to 50c. and 50 to 55c. Swine sold at 8 1/2c. to 9c. The total receipts were 4,244 beef cattle, 153 cows, 1,572 veals, 9,575 sheep and lambs and 11,379 swine.

LINCOLN'S TINKERING PROCLAMATION REVEALED.—The adherents of Lincoln are in ecstasies at having found what they would impress upon the public as a parallel to the proclamation of the latter abolishing (in a degree) slavery. The illustrious imitator of Old Abe is no less a personage than the Czar Alexander of Russia, who proclaims the freedom of the serfs in Poland, giving them the houses they dwell in and freeing them from all allegiance to their former masters or landlords. The only stumbling block in the way of this grand scheme is the fact that the peasantry in Poland are actively employed in fighting the Russians, and that the insurrection is more their work than that of the aristocracy. The Czar's proclamation will be about as efficacious as that of Lincoln, which latter was by himself compared to a "bull against a compass."

THE COMING TERRIBLE CAMPAIGN IN VIRGINIA.

Upon General Grant there now concentrates the deepest interest with which the world ever watched the actions of any single soldier. He is the foremost man in the greatest contest of the age. He has the sympathy and support of a free and powerful people, and the countenance and confidence of all the members of both houses of Congress—excepting, perhaps, the eighteen peace men—and the administration, whatever may be its sentiments, dare not oppose him otherwise than covertly. We are now, therefore, at that point which must be reached in all great wars before the war can go forward with irresistible force to the accomplishment of its purpose—we have found our hero. After years wasted in badly directed efforts, Achilles has taken up the lance; after the fall of a hecatomb of generals our Scipio has come; and in the third year of the war we have found something very like a "Little Corcoran." From this point, therefore, if we can but start anew now, the question of the conduct of the war is a very plain one. We are simply to advance a tremendous force, in the best possible way, against the enemy's capital, and the preponderance of power is so greatly in our favor that it would seem as if success must be certain. Yet a single error may be fatal; and thus the responsibility of the leader is a terrible one. He should be happy to die on the field where he falls.

Upon the campaign that we are about to engage in there depends the greatest issue upon which men ever went into battle. We fight for the principles of free government, and for the existence of a nation whose institutions are the hope of the downtrodden people of every land. Our success in this campaign must insure the integrity of the United States by the final overthrow of the rebellion. With Lee beaten and Richmond in our hands, the rebels will be definitely driven out of Virginia, Tennessee and North Carolina, and the Southern confederacy will be crowded into the cotton States, and reduced to such dimensions that no one can consider its final destruction as any more than a question of time. And the success that this decides this great struggle in our favor—that will give a new life to our country, and a new faith in the stability of free governments to the world—will also decide a question that the politicians think quite as important as any of these. It will determine the next Presidency as certainly as if the votes were counted. All the conventions and loyal league clubs and legislative votes, compared to the one great victory that we hope for, will be as contemptible in the eyes of the people as the wire-pullings that move Punch and Judy at a cent show. Grant, if his great labors shall result in this final triumph for our arms, will receive the great reward of the Chief Magistracy beyond all peradventure.

But if we fail in this campaign, that failure will be the greatest disaster in modern history. While it will not establish the existence of the Southern confederacy, it will protract still more this already desperate contest—put the end still further away, and thus tend to ruin us financially, and throw us into a state of political anarchy from which it is hardly possible to conjecture how we may come out. In view of the terrible evils that may flow from such a failure it should be the universal resolve of every man in the country that nothing must be spared to insure the success of this campaign, since success is so desperately necessary.

MAYOR GUNTHER ON THE REFORM TACK.—Mayor Gunther has at last taken an honest step in the way of reform. He has made two similar attempts before—one of which was when he refused a good dinner at Delmonico's given by the Corporation on the 8th of January last, and the other when he moved in the matter of curtailing the tax levy of the city. But he has now taken a step which will be amusing to some, while it will make the greatest possible stir among politicians and weak newspapers. Its character will be ascertained from the following note and circular:—

COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE, New York, April 11, 1864.

SIR—Your attention is herewith called to a copy of a circular which has been addressed to this department by his Honor the Mayor, New York, April 11, 1864.

MATTHEW T. BRENNAN, Comptroller.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, New York, April 9, 1864.

HON. MATTHEW T. BRENNAN, Comptroller of the City of New York.

DEAR SIR—I hereby revoke and withdraw the authorization heretofore given certain newspapers to publish advertisements for the sale of the proceeds of the city and official business of the Corporation of the City of New York, on the ground that the same are in violation of the provisions of an act entitled "An act to enable the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or any of them, to raise money by tax on the property of the city and County of New York," passed April 24, 1863, which provides that "no persons of the sums which shall be raised by tax on the property of the city and County of New York shall be paid for advertising, except the same shall have been incurred for advertisements in the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city; and that I shall not countersign any warrants drawn in payment of any sum incurred for such advertising, except in the case of the City Directory, or in any other publication authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York, or of the executive departments of said city;