

TRANS-MISSISSIPPI

IRBY SMITH'S SURRENDER.

DETAILS OF THE CAPITULATION.

Buckner, Sterling Price and Dick Taylor in New Orleans.

The Conference Between the Union and Rebel Generals in That City.

The Terms Same as Those Granted to Lee, Johnston and Taylor.

The Rebel Generals Ask Permission to March Twenty Thousand of Their Men into Mexico and Assist Juarez in Expelling Maximilian.

Telegraphic Communication Resumed.

ARRIVAL OF GENERAL SHERIDAN.

Surrender of the Rebel General Hood.

Our New Orleans Correspondence.

The American War is Over.

On Thursday morning last General Canby, Steele and Dick Taylor arrived in this city from Mobile, on the United States steamer Heroine.

About the same hour the Ida May arrived from the mouth of the Red river, with Generals Herron, Buckner, Price and Brent on board.

Twenty four hours later Lieutenant General Buckner and Major General Price, with their staffs, arrived at the mouth of the river on the steamer General Hodges.

General Kirby Smith has been in the past six weeks at General Buckner's headquarters.

On Tuesday morning last General Herron arrived at the mouth of the Red river, and there met General Brent, on the steamer Champion.

At the same time a conference was held at Marshall, Texas, and the surrender agreed upon.

There were present Lieutenant General Kirby Smith, General Buckner and Price, and all the leading military men in the Trans-Mississippi Department.

The conference commenced at noon and lasted until six o'clock P. M.

The terms agreed upon are similar to those accepted by Lee, Johnston and Taylor.

The rebel generals were very anxious to obtain permission to ship and sell cotton in sufficient quantities to pay off the Trans-Mississippi Department.

I have every reason to believe more than one of the rebel generals wished to be allowed to take a body of rebel troops from the Trans-Mississippi Department.

The terms, as drawn up and agreed upon, were signed by General Price and staff on to Galveston, on the steamer Clifton, while Generals Buckner and Brent accompanied by Major General Herron, on the steamer Heroine.

The officers and men paroled under this agreement will be allowed to return to their homes, with the assurance that they will not be disturbed by the authorities of the United States so long as they remain in force under the conditions of their parole.

The rebel generals ask permission to march twenty thousand of their men into Mexico and assist Juarez in expelling Maximilian.

Telegraphic communication resumed.

Arrival of General Sheridan.

Surrender of the rebel general Hood.

Our New Orleans correspondence.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

ARREST OF GOVERNOR MAGRATH.

PARTICULARS OF HIS APPREHENSION.

His Farewell Address to the South Carolinians.

Wade Hampton Leaves for Parts Unknown.

OCCUPATION OF COLUMBIA.

Mrs. Davis and Family and Mrs. Clay at Charleston.

The steamer Alabama, Captain Benson, from Charleston on the 1st inst., arrived at this port yesterday morning.

The Charleston Courier of May 31 is received.

Ensign C. W. Neill, who left here on the army transport W. F. Frazier, last week, for the purpose of visiting the planters on the Cooper river, and enlightening them as to the orders of General Hatch concerning the making of contracts with the freedmen, returned to this city last evening.

They are eager to obtain a supply of field and farming implements, and are also in want of horses, mules and wagons.

The planters, headed by Ensign Neill and his associates with the utmost civility, and spread before them the best that their houses contained.

Our Charleston Correspondence.

ARRIVAL OF GENERAL SHERIDAN.

Surrender of the rebel general Hood.

Our New Orleans Correspondence.

The American War is Over.

On Thursday morning last General Canby, Steele and Dick Taylor arrived in this city from Mobile, on the United States steamer Heroine.

About the same hour the Ida May arrived from the mouth of the Red river, with Generals Herron, Buckner, Price and Brent on board.

Twenty four hours later Lieutenant General Buckner and Major General Price, with their staffs, arrived at the mouth of the river on the steamer General Hodges.

General Kirby Smith has been in the past six weeks at General Buckner's headquarters.

On Tuesday morning last General Herron arrived at the mouth of the Red river, and there met General Brent, on the steamer Champion.

At the same time a conference was held at Marshall, Texas, and the surrender agreed upon.

There were present Lieutenant General Kirby Smith, General Buckner and Price, and all the leading military men in the Trans-Mississippi Department.

The conference commenced at noon and lasted until six o'clock P. M.

The terms agreed upon are similar to those accepted by Lee, Johnston and Taylor.

The rebel generals were very anxious to obtain permission to ship and sell cotton in sufficient quantities to pay off the Trans-Mississippi Department.

I have every reason to believe more than one of the rebel generals wished to be allowed to take a body of rebel troops from the Trans-Mississippi Department.

The terms, as drawn up and agreed upon, were signed by General Price and staff on to Galveston, on the steamer Clifton, while Generals Buckner and Brent accompanied by Major General Herron, on the steamer Heroine.

The officers and men paroled under this agreement will be allowed to return to their homes, with the assurance that they will not be disturbed by the authorities of the United States so long as they remain in force under the conditions of their parole.

The rebel generals ask permission to march twenty thousand of their men into Mexico and assist Juarez in expelling Maximilian.

WASHINGTON.

Correct Official Statement of the Debt of the Nation.

Immense Reduction of the Naval Force.

Singular Document Picked up at Morehead City.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

OFFICIAL STATEMENT OF THE PUBLIC DEBT.

Immense Reduction of the Naval Force.

Singular Document Picked up at Morehead City.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

OFFICIAL STATEMENT OF THE PUBLIC DEBT.

Immense Reduction of the Naval Force.

Singular Document Picked up at Morehead City.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

OFFICIAL STATEMENT OF THE PUBLIC DEBT.

Immense Reduction of the Naval Force.

Singular Document Picked up at Morehead City.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

OFFICIAL STATEMENT OF THE PUBLIC DEBT.

Immense Reduction of the Naval Force.

Singular Document Picked up at Morehead City.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

OFFICIAL STATEMENT OF THE PUBLIC DEBT.

Immense Reduction of the Naval Force.

Singular Document Picked up at Morehead City.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

OFFICIAL STATEMENT OF THE PUBLIC DEBT.

Immense Reduction of the Naval Force.

Singular Document Picked up at Morehead City.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

OFFICIAL STATEMENT OF THE PUBLIC DEBT.

Immense Reduction of the Naval Force.

RICHMOND.

General Lee Offered a House in London.

A Member of the British Parliament in Want of a Rebel Lion.

The Rebel General Heth Takes the Oath.

The Richmond Rebels Nervous About the Amnesty Proclamation.

OUR RICHMOND CORRESPONDENCE.

A letter has been received in this city from London, written by a member of the English Parliament, and addressed to General R. E. Lee, through a daughter of a member of a distinguished military court in Richmond, directly offering to the rebel chieftain a splendid residence in an exceedingly eligible portion of the city of London, and a sum of money the interest of which would support him and all his family handsomely for life, in case General Lee would leave the United States and take up his residence in England.

The Rebel General Heth Takes the Oath.

The Richmond Rebels Nervous About the Amnesty Proclamation.

OUR RICHMOND CORRESPONDENCE.

A letter has been received in this city from London, written by a member of the English Parliament, and addressed to General R. E. Lee, through a daughter of a member of a distinguished military court in Richmond, directly offering to the rebel chieftain a splendid residence in an exceedingly eligible portion of the city of London, and a sum of money the interest of which would support him and all his family handsomely for life, in case General Lee would leave the United States and take up his residence in England.

The Rebel General Heth Takes the Oath.

The Richmond Rebels Nervous About the Amnesty Proclamation.

OUR RICHMOND CORRESPONDENCE.

A letter has been received in this city from London, written by a member of the English Parliament, and addressed to General R. E. Lee, through a daughter of a member of a distinguished military court in Richmond, directly offering to the rebel chieftain a splendid residence in an exceedingly eligible portion of the city of London, and a sum of money the interest of which would support him and all his family handsomely for life, in case General Lee would leave the United States and take up his residence in England.

The Rebel General Heth Takes the Oath.

The Richmond Rebels Nervous About the Amnesty Proclamation.

OUR RICHMOND CORRESPONDENCE.

A letter has been received in this city from London, written by a member of the English Parliament, and addressed to General R. E. Lee, through a daughter of a member of a distinguished military court in Richmond, directly offering to the rebel chieftain a splendid residence in an exceedingly eligible portion of the city of London, and a sum of money the interest of which would support him and all his family handsomely for life, in case General Lee would leave the United States and take up his residence in England.

The Rebel General Heth Takes the Oath.

The Richmond Rebels Nervous About the Amnesty Proclamation.

OUR RICHMOND CORRESPONDENCE.

A letter has been received in this city from London, written by a member of the English Parliament, and addressed to General R. E. Lee, through a daughter of a member of a distinguished military court in Richmond, directly offering to the rebel chieftain a splendid residence in an exceedingly eligible portion of the city of London, and a sum of money the interest of which would support him and all his family handsomely for life, in case General Lee would leave the United States and take up his residence in England.

The Rebel General Heth Takes the Oath.

The Richmond Rebels Nervous About the Amnesty Proclamation.

OUR RICHMOND CORRESPONDENCE.

A letter has been received in this city from London, written by a member of the English Parliament, and addressed to General R. E. Lee, through a daughter of a member of a distinguished military court in Richmond, directly offering to the rebel chieftain a splendid residence in an exceedingly eligible portion of the city of London, and a sum of money the interest of which would support him and all his family handsomely for life, in case General Lee would leave the United States and take up his residence in England.

The Rebel General Heth Takes the Oath.

The Richmond Rebels Nervous About the Amnesty Proclamation.

OUR RICHMOND CORRESPONDENCE.

A letter has been received in this city from London, written by a member of the English Parliament, and addressed to General R. E. Lee, through a daughter of a member of a distinguished military court in Richmond, directly offering to the rebel chieftain a splendid residence in an exceedingly eligible portion of the city of London, and a sum of money the interest of which would support him and all his family handsomely for life, in case General Lee would leave the United States and take up his residence in England.

WASHINGTON.

Correct Official Statement of the Debt of the Nation.

Immense Reduction of the Naval Force.

Singular Document Picked up at Morehead City.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

OFFICIAL STATEMENT OF THE PUBLIC DEBT.

Immense Reduction of the Naval Force.

Singular Document Picked up at Morehead City.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

OFFICIAL STATEMENT OF THE PUBLIC DEBT.

Immense Reduction of the Naval Force.

Singular Document Picked up at Morehead City.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

OFFICIAL STATEMENT OF THE PUBLIC DEBT.

Immense Reduction of the Naval Force.

Singular Document Picked up at Morehead City.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

OFFICIAL STATEMENT OF THE PUBLIC DEBT.

Immense Reduction of the Naval Force.

Singular Document Picked up at Morehead City.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

OFFICIAL STATEMENT OF THE PUBLIC DEBT.

Immense Reduction of the Naval Force.

Singular Document Picked up at Morehead City.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

OFFICIAL STATEMENT OF THE PUBLIC DEBT.

Immense Reduction of the Naval Force.

Singular Document Picked up at Morehead City.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

OFFICIAL STATEMENT OF THE PUBLIC DEBT.

Immense Reduction of the Naval Force.