

DOCTORS DISAGREEING.

The Allopathists and the Homoeopaths on the Cure for Cholera—Shall We Take Too Much or Too Little Medicine?

HOEOPATHIC TREATMENT OF CHOLERA.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD. It appears to me that if the allopathic branch of our profession were a little better acquainted with the results of the homoeopathic treatment of this formidable disease, one of their number would not have so distinguished himself by asserting "that there was no merit whatever in the treatment."

HOEOPATHY AND CHOLERA—MEMORIAL TO THE BOARD OF HEALTH.

The following memorial was presented to the Board of Health at its meeting on April 27, read and referred to the Sanitary Committee:

To J. S. SCHULTZ, Esq., President of the Metropolitan Board of Health, and the members thereof.

The undersigned, a special committee on cholera, appointed by the Homoeopathic Medical Society of the City of New York, respectfully present:

That the epidemic of cholera, which was first reported in New York on August 25, 1866, is stated to be—

A lengthy debate took place on the subject of inviting the assistance of homoeopathic physicians to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

Assuming the correctness of this report, and doing justice to the "thorough education" and the candor of Dr. Parker, the committee respectfully submit:

That the Board of Health should not ask or receive statements touching the demonstrated value and efficiency of homoeopathic treatment in disease, except from such physicians as are well known in the community to be experts in the mode of treatment, and to have received that kind of "thorough education" which nothing but an extended practical experience can give.

The laws of the State of New York have constituted an organization of experts in each county, to wit: A medical society, one of whose functions it is to care for the medical and sanitary interests of the county, and to represent the practice of medicine in the county.

Under these laws the homoeopathic medical societies of the counties of New York, Westchester, Dutchess, Albany, and the medical interests of the large and most respectable citizens committed to their charge.

In fact, in the case of cholera, the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

mer cases, the cure to be produced, &c.; his main idea being to effect or relieve disease, not caring whether this is done on the principle of "like curing like," or the opposite; or merely striving to produce the happiest effect in the quickest manner. Moreover, he is not limited in his choice of remedies, using any substance "the earth or the waters under the earth," and calling to his aid electricity, galvanism, &c., when they are evidently being taken advantage of, as he knows (if he is intelligent) enough to refrain from dragging, when there is no necessity for the same, relying in such cases on the medicine, which I am happy to think is the principal remedial agent in pure homoeopathic practice. For the above method of treating disease no name is claimed, but that of rational medicine, as it is called, and I think it is. These facts were more thoroughly understood the public mind would not water on matters so patent to every thinking man.

Although the opinions of a few will probably not outweigh those of many such as Dr. Parker, whose practice and scientific education speak for themselves, yet such articles tend to undermine the public confidence in respectable medical gentlemen, the tendency of said articles ought to be counteracted. This, in my imperfect manner, I have attempted to do.

I do not doubt the sincerity or good faith of the writer of the article referred to, but I know that many who claim to practice homoeopathy are entirely unworthy of confidence. I can think of some who have risen to a comparatively high position in the homoeopathic camp, who practice, as they say, both kinds, and who are fully competent to treat their patients in either of the two practices both kinds. Which way will you be treated? (You pay your money and you take your choice.) Is it not a pity that the public mind should be misled by the public on medical matters? I will merely say, in conclusion, if these are the men to rely on in the hour of peril, when quick, decided action is imperative.

WILLIAMS, M. D.

MUSICAL.

Metropolitan Concerts and Soirees.

MR. GEORGE SIMPSON'S CONCERT.

One of the most pleasing and popular bits of the season was offered at this gentleman's benefit at Irving Hall on Friday night. With two or three exceptions the vocal pieces were of the ballad and glee order, and were a decided relief from the exotic Italian bravuras and cavatas that are heard in every concert hall.

Without disparagement to the merits of the great operatic concert bill ought to have more of these hearty, unadorned English and American songs. Mr. Simpson could not have selected a more effective or more appropriate song for his style of tenor voice than the "Three Ages of Love," by Loder. He sang it infinitely better than any of those Italian extravaganzas which are entirely unsuited to his voice.

Mrs. Zella Harrison's fine contralto voice gave one of Templier's ballads with rare expression and feeling. Her selection of the "El Inacio" waltz was rather unfortunate, as it was never written or intoned for her kind of voice. She was not exactly a failure in it, however, as might be expected, but the impression on hearing it was that it was unsuitable for her voice.

"Zion's the Cellar" and two other ballads were sung by Mr. J. R. Thomas in an intimate manner. Simon, a jolly and elderly tenor, sang "The Barber," a song which he sang very well, and was admirably described by Mr. Thomas. Mr. Lambert's rich bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Infelice" and "Are you sleeping, Maggie?" The most intelligible, and therefore most popular trio and quartet that have been given this season, were at this concert—"Winds Gently Whisper," for three male voices, by Whittaker, and the Sailor's Song, a charming quartet by Hutton, Miss Matilda E. Todd, one of Mr. Henry Appy's best pupils, played the two last movements of one of De Berio's violin concertos. We have spoken before of this lady's artistic style and power, but on this occasion her execution and tone were even better than at any previous concert.

There were more warmth and purity of tone and clearness of execution shown in De Berio's concerto than in the first fantasia. "The will attain, if she perseveres thus, a position of eminence among the most excellent vocalists that have appeared in the metropolitan, and perhaps share the honors of European distinction with Mlle. Camille Uza. The new organ, under the skillful touch of Mr. Morgan, poured forth a flood of harmony and filled the hall with its magic tones of the Tenor. The shepherd's song in the "Zion's the Cellar" was a quiet, pleasing, and well-executed piece.

The members of this club assembled in full force yesterday on their new field of operations, at Hoboken, on the St. George cricket ground, and being assisted by a numerous delegation from the Newark club a very enjoyable day's play was had, a good game of one innings on each side marking the occasion. The high wind which prevailed, and the great state of the weather, were some what of a drawback, but the ardent lovers of the game do not regard these things as barriers to enjoyment so long as they result in good playing, and they were not, as is proved, as was the case yesterday. The following is the score of the innings played:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Score. Includes names like D. H. McLean, J. H. McLean, etc.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

On the comparison the committee might rest their case, but they desire to submit to the Board some more reliable facts, and to call attention to the fact that the Board of Health is invited to aid the Board in the case of a visitation from cholera.

Literary Intelligence.

The Kladderadatsch, of Berlin, has caricatured the Schleswig-Holstein difficulty. Schleswig and Holstein are represented as the two legs of a pair of trousers. In the first part, Prussia and Austria have each got one leg on, with the remark, "That does not do." In the second, the trousers are divided, and each has one leg. That does not do either. In the third, Prussia has got the whole garment to itself, and Austria is walking off with a bag of money, and "that will do."

Mr. Ronan, during his late tour in the East, visited Beyrout and Damascus. Abd-el-Kader received him very hospitably at the latter place. A Journal says that Mr. Ronan, who speaks Arabic, was conversing with the Emir of the desert and the present Emir of Algiers. "I speak of you," said Abd-el-Kader, "and of your life of Jesus." "You have then read it?" said Mr. Ronan, with surprise. "The Emir sent for the volume, and opening it, said: 'See not only I have read it, but I have annotated it.' The Life of Jesus, annotated by Abd-el-Kader, is a curious work, and what is still more strange, the Emir thinks of publishing it."

The following new works have just been condemned by the "congregation of the Index, at Rome"—Historical Miscellanies, by Bordes Dumoulin; Science of Mind, by Fluet; The Problem of Life, by Legrand; The Temporal Power of the Pope and the Roman Question Considered from a new Point of View, by Turcoi, and Problems of Christian Charity, by the deputy Maresca.

The next volume of Napoleon's Life of Omar will appear in Paris early in May. "Don't let any living soul see your proofs," is the constant order of the Imperia author.

SIR MORTON PETO'S BOOK ON AMERICA.

The visit which Sir Morton Peto paid to the United States in the autumn of 1895, and the results of it, are the subject of a work on the "Resources and Prospects of America" (London: Strahan), in which he has set forth in a clear and concise manner the resources of the country, and the prospects of its future. The book is most comprehensive and is at once a manual of reference and a treatise on the details of the country's resources, the agriculture, the minerals, the commerce, the railroads and the finances of the American Union. It is a work of great value, and one which every student of the subject should read.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

The author, Sir Morton Peto, is a distinguished English statesman and diplomatist, and his work is a most valuable contribution to the knowledge of the resources and prospects of the United States. The book is well written, and is a most interesting and instructive work.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

Services To-Day.

At the new church of the Advent, in West Forty-sixth street, between Fifth and Sixth avenues, there will be services at half-past ten o'clock in the morning and at four o'clock in the afternoon.

Rev. J. W. Shackelford will preach this evening at the Church of the Redeemer, in Eighty-fifth street, near Second avenue, on the "Law of Social Obligation."

There will be divine service in the Swedish language at the Lutheran church of Gustavus Adolphus, in East Twenty-second street, near Third avenue, this morning. Rev. J. T. O. Duvall officiates.

In St. Ann's Free Church, Eighteenth street, near Fifth avenue, Rev. Eastburn Benjamin will preach at half-past seven o'clock in the evening, and at half-past ten o'clock in the morning. At three o'clock in the afternoon, Rev. Dr. Grindel will preach on "The Resurrection of the Dead." There will also be services in the evening.

The services of the Protestant Episcopal church, together with a sermon, in the German language, will be held regularly on Sunday evening at St. John's church, Varck street, near Canal, at half-past seven o'clock, commencing this evening. The Rev. C. Schramm, D. D., will officiate. Seats free, and all interested are cordially invited.

Rev. John A. McKean, of Philadelphia, will preach this morning and evening at the Baptist church, in Thirty-third street, west of Eighth avenue.

The Sea and Land church, corner of Market and Henry streets, will preach in the morning, and Rev. J. O. Murray, D. D., will preach in the afternoon. In the evening there will be a special service.

At the Memorial church, corner of Hammond street and Waverly place, Rev. Dr. Spencer will preach this morning, at half-past ten, and Rev. Dr. H. Vinton this evening, at half-past seven.

A lecture for the Jews will be delivered in Continental Hall, corner of Thirty-fourth street and Eighth avenue, at half-past seven o'clock, by Rev. Dr. Walton. There will be Episcopal services in the same place this morning.

There will be preaching before a Free Methodist society, in Leonard Hall, No. 59 Madison street, near Fifth avenue, at half-past ten, and at half-past three o'clock.

In the First Free Baptist church, Seventeenth street, the Rev. P. Nutting, the pastor, will hold services at half-past ten and half-past three o'clock.

At the Free Church of the Redeemer, Fourth street, between Third and Fourth avenues, this evening, at half-past seven o'clock.

Rev. Dr. Chubb will preach the eighth anniversary of the Union Church of the Society of the Church of the Puritans, in Union square, this evening, at half-past seven o'clock.

Rev. Dr. Thomas Marden will preach in St. Thomas church, corner of Madison and Thompson streets, this morning, at half-past ten o'clock.

At the Christian Church, in Twenty-eighth street, near Broadway, services will be held, morning and evening, at half-past ten and half-past three o'clock.

There will be services at the Church of the Resurrection, in Thirty-fifth street, this morning and evening, at the usual hours, at which the Rev. E. O. Flagg will officiate.

Bishop Snow will discuss concerning the episcopacy of Christ, at three o'clock this afternoon, in the University Building, Washington square.

Rev. Tresham D. Gregg, D. D., of Dublin, will preach this morning at St. Thomas's church, corner of Seventeenth street and Fifth avenue, South Brooklyn.

There will be services this evening at Clinton Hall, Astor place. Rev. Dr. Strong, Rev. Dr. Freeman, Rev. Dr. Factor, and Rev. Dr. Blyden, will conduct the devotional exercises and deliver addresses.

Rev. Richard Parker will preach at the Mission Hall, in West Twenty-fourth street, near Sixth avenue, this evening, at half-past seven o'clock.

At the Free Church of the Redeemer, Fourth street, between Third and Fourth avenues, this evening, at half-past seven o'clock.

Rev. Dr. Chubb will preach the eighth anniversary of the Union Church of the Society of the Church of the Puritans, in Union square, this evening, at half-past seven o'clock.

Rev. Dr. Thomas Marden will preach in St. Thomas church, corner of Madison and Thompson streets, this morning, at half-past ten o'clock.

At the Christian Church, in