

WASHINGTON

IMPORTANT PROCEEDINGS IN CONGRESS.

ADMISSION OF TENNESSEE.

Passage in the House of the Resolution Restoring the State to Her Full Political Rights in the Union.

THE VOTE—YEAS 125, NAYS 12.

Proposition by Thad Stevens for the Restoration of All the Southern States.

THE RESOLUTION TABLED.

Senatorial Debate on the Diplomatic Appropriation Bill and the Withdrawal of Compensation from Our Minister to Portugal.

Consideration of the Civil Appropriation Bill.

Thad Stevens' Resolution for a Congressional Recession Rejected.

Judge Stansbury Nominated by the President as Attorney General.

Receipts and Expenditures for the Last Fiscal Year.

The Receipts in Excess of Expenditures Nearly One Hundred and Eighty-Million Dollars.

Receipts in Excess of Expenditures

WASHINGTON, July 20, 1866.

Admission of Tennessee.

It was evident from the appearance of the House this morning that a meeting of unusual interest and moment was expected to transpire.

Receipts and Expenditures for the Last Fiscal Year.

The receipts in excess of expenditures for the last fiscal year were nearly one hundred and eighty million dollars.

Stationery Contract.

The stationery contract for the supply of the Department of the Interior, Land, Pension, Engineering, and Patent Offices has been awarded to Messrs Phillips and Solomon of this city.

THIRTY-NINTH CONGRESS.

First Session.

SENATE.

REPLY OF SENATORS.

THE GENERAL LANDS.

THE REVENUE TARIFF BILL.

THE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE.

THE CIVIL APPROPRIATION BILL.

THE REVENUE TARIFF BILL.

THE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE.

THE CIVIL APPROPRIATION BILL.

THE REVENUE TARIFF BILL.

A wide but satisfactory range. The Emperor is reported to have been in a conversational mood, but unfortunately much of the conversation is considered contraband by the Department.

Receipts and Expenditures of the Government.

The following is an official statement of the receipts and expenditures of the United States from July 1, 1866, to March 31, 1866, according to warrants:

Receipts and Expenditures of the Government.

Civil, foreign intercourse and miscellaneous.

Total receipts, exclusive of loans.

Total expenditures.

The following are the estimated statement of receipts and expenditures from April 1 to June 30, 1866, exclusive of such as are connected with the public debt.

For customs.

Civil, foreign intercourse and miscellaneous.

Total estimated receipts.

Total estimated expenditures.

The extra pay to Army Officers.

The Memphis Swindle.

New Building for the State Department.

Illness of Members of Congress.

Nominations.

Confirmation.

Stationery Contract.

THIRTY-NINTH CONGRESS.

First Session.

SENATE.

REPLY OF SENATORS.

THE GENERAL LANDS.

THE REVENUE TARIFF BILL.

THE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE.

THE CIVIL APPROPRIATION BILL.

THE REVENUE TARIFF BILL.

THE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE.

THE CIVIL APPROPRIATION BILL.

THE REVENUE TARIFF BILL.

THE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE.

Mr. Cassin (rep. of Iowa—Mr. Sewall says that he published it at the request of the President.

Mr. Wade (rep. of Ohio, said it seemed to him that the Senate had nothing to do with this letter, and ought not to hear it read.

Mr. Johnson (rep. of Mich.—I suppose the reading of it is very nearly finished, and I have listened with great attention and considerable interest to the sentiments contained in the letter, especially the part of it which is so full of abuse.

Mr. Johnson—I do not know that I shall not be justified in speaking freely of what passed in the Committee of Conference.

Mr. Johnson—I do not know that I shall not be justified in speaking freely of what passed in the Committee of Conference.

Mr. Johnson—I do not know that I shall not be justified in speaking freely of what passed in the Committee of Conference.

Mr. Johnson—I do not know that I shall not be justified in speaking freely of what passed in the Committee of Conference.

Mr. Johnson—I do not know that I shall not be justified in speaking freely of what passed in the Committee of Conference.

Mr. Johnson—I do not know that I shall not be justified in speaking freely of what passed in the Committee of Conference.

Mr. Johnson—I do not know that I shall not be justified in speaking freely of what passed in the Committee of Conference.

Mr. Johnson—I do not know that I shall not be justified in speaking freely of what passed in the Committee of Conference.

Mr. Johnson—I do not know that I shall not be justified in speaking freely of what passed in the Committee of Conference.

Mr. Johnson—I do not know that I shall not be justified in speaking freely of what passed in the Committee of Conference.

Mr. Johnson—I do not know that I shall not be justified in speaking freely of what passed in the Committee of Conference.

Mr. Johnson—I do not know that I shall not be justified in speaking freely of what passed in the Committee of Conference.

Mr. Johnson—I do not know that I shall not be justified in speaking freely of what passed in the Committee of Conference.

Mr. Johnson—I do not know that I shall not be justified in speaking freely of what passed in the Committee of Conference.

Mr. Johnson—I do not know that I shall not be justified in speaking freely of what passed in the Committee of Conference.

Mr. Johnson—I do not know that I shall not be justified in speaking freely of what passed in the Committee of Conference.

Mr. Johnson—I do not know that I shall not be justified in speaking freely of what passed in the Committee of Conference.

Mr. Johnson—I do not know that I shall not be justified in speaking freely of what passed in the Committee of Conference.

Mr. Johnson—I do not know that I shall not be justified in speaking freely of what passed in the Committee of Conference.

Mr. Johnson—I do not know that I shall not be justified in speaking freely of what passed in the Committee of Conference.

Mr. Johnson—I do not know that I shall not be justified in speaking freely of what passed in the Committee of Conference.

Mr. Johnson—I do not know that I shall not be justified in speaking freely of what passed in the Committee of Conference.

Mr. Johnson—I do not know that I shall not be justified in speaking freely of what passed in the Committee of Conference.

Mr. Johnson—I do not know that I shall not be justified in speaking freely of what passed in the Committee of Conference.

Mr. Johnson—I do not know that I shall not be justified in speaking freely of what passed in the Committee of Conference.

Mr. Johnson—I do not know that I shall not be justified in speaking freely of what passed in the Committee of Conference.

Mr. Johnson—I do not know that I shall not be justified in speaking freely of what passed in the Committee of Conference.

Mr. Johnson—I do not know that I shall not be justified in speaking freely of what passed in the Committee of Conference.

Mr. Johnson—I do not know that I shall not be justified in speaking freely of what passed in the Committee of Conference.

Mr. Johnson—This is not in order.

Mr. Johnson—This is not in order.