

DISTILLERY FEUDS.

Two Distilleries Seized Yesterday. A Government Officer Arrived While Making a Visit to the United States Consulate. The Adversity Against Inspector Cochoe Declared to be Made With the Knowledge of the Commissioner.

Further developments in regard to the distillery seizure in Brooklyn have recently been made. It was ascertained that the United States Consulate in Brooklyn was visited by Inspector Cochoe and Deputy Marshal Higgins. They found the establishment in full operation with the government lock hanging in the middle of the vat open, while there was no inspector to be seen around the premises.

On Monday last a distillery, owned by Mr. Richard Holden, situated at Hudson avenue, opposite Park avenue, Brooklyn, was visited by Inspector Cochoe and Deputy Marshal Higgins. They found the establishment in full operation with the government lock hanging in the middle of the vat open, while there was no inspector to be seen around the premises.

The different dates for the month of November were given to the distillers by the Commissioner. It was stated that it was to be used as a means to bring to any extent the resources of the establishment warranted by the amount of the duty on the spirits.

Yesterday morning at half past nine o'clock the examination in the case of the distillers E. W. Angus, Lewis Stone, Adam Schabins and Eli Bohan, charged with distilling and selling spirits without license, was held in the United States Consulate in Brooklyn.

Mr. McDonald, an ex-revenue officer of the government, was present. He is a man of high standing and was well known to the Commissioner. He is a man of high standing and was well known to the Commissioner.
