Before Judge Russell. GRAND JURORS. There was a number of cases disposed of yesterday in this court.

William Wilson pleaded guilty to an attempt at grand larceny, having stolen money and clothing worth $300 from Mahew McGrath, 265 Spring street, on the 27th of April. He was sent to the State Prison for two years and six months.

James G. Miller, charged with stealing $100 in United States bills from Patrick Poir, residing in Fifty-seventh street, on the 7th last, pleaded guilty to the indictment. The court sentenced him to two years imprisonment to the State Prison.

William McGibbon, who was indicted for attempting to steal $50 from the drawer of Henry Butts's store, 200 Tenth avenue, on the 12th of April, pleaded guilty to an attempt at petty larceny. As he had been in prison three months, the Judge modified the sentence to imprisonment in the penitentiary for three months.

Henry K. Nelson was placed in trial charged with stealing a barrel of iron pipes, valued at $25, from a little boy named Bailey, as he was passing through W. 10th street, on the night of the 3d inst. The case was on the testimony of the little boy, who only saw Nelson, but that he saw him, and that he saw him positively identify the prisoner. It was shown by the defense that he was in company with a friend at the time the pipes were stolen, and that he was not in the vicinity of the place where the pipes were stolen.

NEW JERSEY INTELLIGENCE.

MAYOR O'NEILL'S MESSAGE—At the meeting of the Common Council on Monday evening the message from Mayor O'Neill was received and read. It is a lengthy document, and sets forth that for the fiscal year ending April 30 the bonded debt of the city was $1,303,600.63, showing a reduction of $109,512.23 during that period. In dealing with the public debt it is established to find that in the year just closed but seventy-one licenses were issued for the sale of liquor, and that the number of places where liquor is sold reaches four hundred. This shameful violation of both municipal and State laws is a disgrace to the city, and the Mayor has taken steps to remedy the situation.
