REAL ESTATE MATTERS.

There was a fair attendance at the sale yesterday, and the property was sold at a profit to the owner.

The tract of land on Long Island known as "Hempstead Plains" is now being surveyed.

The license amount of wealth centered in and around the city of New York may be appreciated from the following exhibit, as appearing in the report of the Board of Equalization, made September 1, 1892.

Rest of St. 49,007,477 1,122,570 878,456 383 1/2; The City of New York, 1,122,570 878,456 383 1/2.

The building No. 17 Essex street, corner of Hersey place, one of the two owned by Thos. W. Tuttle, has been sold.

The value of the real estate transfers in Sandusky, Ohio, for the week ending January 10 exceeded $100,000.

In view of the present extensive movement in Southern land the following comment and advice from a Virginia paper is of interest.
