

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD

French Electoral Agitation—The Cabinet, the Radicals and the Church.

Napoleon's Negotiations With R. me.

The Ecumenical Council Certain of Work.

British Legislation and English Opinion.

Fatal Accident on the London Metropolitan Railway.

FRANCE. The City Agitation—Sentiment for the Republic.

PARIS, April 29, 1870. The meetings held yesterday to discuss matters relative to the plebiscite were more turbulent than ever.

A meeting held by the opponents of the plebiscite in this city was dissolved by the authorities because an accusation of the Emperor was proposed.

The Cabinet Says Vote "Yes."

M. Olivier publishes another circular, in which he replies to the manifesto just issued by the electoral committee of M. Thiers.

M. Chevandier de Valdomone, Minister of the Interior, has issued a circular to his constituents advising them to vote "yes."

The Radicals Shout "No."

M. Lerebna, who, at a public meeting last night urged the impeachment of the Emperor, was arrested this morning.

The Clergy Adjure "Yes."

The Cardinal Archbishop of Chambéry, and the Bishop of Gap have ordered their clergy to vote in the affirmative.

The Court. PARIS, April 29, 1870. The court, it is said, will go to St. Cloud and there remain during the week in which the plebiscitum is taken.

Foreign Radicalsism. PARIS, April 29, 1870. About 300 refugees, who had been compromised in the late troubles in Spain, arrived in France yesterday.

ENGLAND. Parliamentary Progress. LONDON, April 29, 1870. In the House of Lords to-night the High Court of Justice bill was recommitted.

Lord Romilly urged the difficulty of blending law and equity in the case of injunctions.

Lord Cairns and Westbury said such difficulties applied to procedure, not to principles.

IRELAND AND SPAIN. In the House of Commons to-night Mr. Bruce, Home Secretary, alluded to the attempt made on the life of Mr. Buxton, and said the assassin was still at large.

Mr. Gladstone announced that debate in committee on the Irish Land bill would be resumed on Monday.

Mr. O'Connell, Under Foreign Secretary, in reply to an inquiry from Mr. Bantock, stated that the government declined to urge the Tornado claims on Spain.

The Metropolitan Poor Relief bill was considered in committee and reported to the House.

The bill legalizing marriages with deceased wife's sister passed.

The House after the trans-acton of an unusually large amount of business, adjourned at two A. M.

A Vast Work. LONDON, April 29, 1870. The London Examiner says the fallacy pervading the entire debate in Parliament on colonial affairs, is that local liberty and imperial solidarity are incompatible.

City Railroad Fatality. LONDON, April 29. The death of the new Metropolitan railway, under the arch of the new Battersea Bridge, gave way to-day.

Ammerican News from Japan. LONDON, April 29, 1870. The rumor circulated yesterday, which, however, is generally discredited, that the American Consul at Jeddah had been killed by the natives, has had a depressing effect on the Japanese loans recently introduced here.

A Bid for Exeter Hall. LONDON, April 29. The Pall Mall Gazette of to-day has an article on American affairs, wherein it comments on the amelioration of opinion during the past few years.

Consoling. LONDON, April 29, 1870. The condition of the Archbishop of Canterbury is less alarming than was reported by the Churchman yesterday.

The Turf—Croyden Races Events. LONDON, April 19, 1870. At the Croyden races to-day the Shirley Plate (a handicap, of forty sovereigns, half mile, was won by Mr. C. W. Fitzwilliams & F. Snowden, by Blair Athol, out of Spittle dam, eight years old; Mr. G. Athol, b. c. Election, by Lambton, out of the Queen, five years old, second; Mr. J. Smith's bl. c. Darkie, by Peppermint, out of Bridget, five years old, third.

The metropolitan plate (a handicap) of 100 sovereigns, entrance three sovereigns, one mile and three-quarters, was won by Mr. J. Smith's b. c. Paganini, by King of Kent out of Melody, 5 years old; Mr. Bunting's b. c. Limerick, by Drummer, out of Irish Fox, 4 years, second; Mr. Nightingale's Lady Koro, 3 years, third.

The Claiming Handicap Plate of 40 sovs. was won by Captain Skipworth's b. c. Stellite by Wasnba out of Starlight, 3 years; Mr. J. Smith's bl. c. Dar kie 5 years old, second; the Duke of Newcastle's br. g. by St. Albans, out of Aquamarine, 3 years old, third.

ROME. Napoleon's Note. ROME, April 29, 1870. The Pope still persists in withholding M. Daru's note from the Ecumenical Council, notwithstanding the concurrence of the Great Powers expressed therein.

Pleanty of Council Work. LONDON, April 29, 1870. The Weekly Register, the recognized organ of the Roman Catholics here and well instructed as to the movements of the Vatican, says the Ecumenical Council has work before it for a year.

SPAIN. The Regency Remor. MADRID, April 29, 1870. The journals of this city to-day deny the rumored withdrawal of Marshal Serrano to make way for the establishment of a regency composed of three persons.

The People. MADRID, April 29, 1870. Outbreaks occurred last evening at Alcala, in the province of Soria, and at Santiago, though they were soon repressed.

At the latter place over 100 of the insurgents were arrested and imprisoned.

GREECE. British Diplomacy. VIENNA, April 29, 1870. A report has reached this city from Athens that Mr. Eschine, the British Minister, has been recalled.

SCOTLAND. Fishermen's Return. LONDON, April 29, 1870. Dundee vessels returning from Greenland bring 300 tons of seal oil.

IRELAND. A Steamship in the Ice. DUBLIN, April 29, 1870. The Cork Constitution says vessels have been despatched to the relief of a steamer reported fast in the ice off the coast of Greenland.

DOMINION OF CANADA. Plan of Compromise Offered by the Dominion to the Red River Insurgents. OTTAWA, April 29, 1870. In the House of Commons, yesterday, Hon. Mr. Holt's motion to put before the House the free list was defeated by a large majority.

Sir George E. Cartier announced that the Red River delegates had been consulted by the government.

D. M. A. Smith's report of his mission to Red River was laid before the House. He recommends that a strong military force be sent to that territory as soon as practicable.

The following is reported to be the plan of compromise to be offered by the government:—First—It is proposed to organize a small province on both sides of the Red River, about 150 miles square, which will cover the settlement of the half breed.

Second—The Legislature shall have control of the public lands of the province. Third—A subsidy shall be granted to the Dominion for colonial expenses. Fourth—The balance of the new territory shall be governed from Ottawa.

THE PACIFIC COAST. Opposition to Chinese Railroad Laborers in California—Crops Injured by Drouth—The Fifteenth Amendment Nullified. SAN FRANCISCO, April 29, 1870. The United States steamer Mohican arrived from Victoria to-day. She will soon proceed to South American waters.

A mass meeting of working men was held last night at which it was decided to oppose in the approaching election the proposition to grant subsidies to the Southern Pacific Railroad, unless the company will pledge itself not to employ Chinese laborers.

On Friday night a riot broke out in the city of Los Angeles, in consequence of the Fifteenth Amendment.

Flour quiet at $4 50 a $5 37 1/2. Wheat in light demand; the extremes are $1 30 a $1 60. Legal tenders, 50.

GEORGIA. Legislative Proceedings—The Tax and Appropriation Acts Continued—Payment of the State Debt—Railroad Affairs to be Investigated. ATLANTA, April 29, 1870. In the House to-day the only important act was an effort to seat six members, who claimed to have been elected under the authority of the old organization. A resolution to that effect was adopted.

Notice was given for a reconsideration to-morrow. Resolutions expressive of the sympathy of the Legislature of Georgia with the sufferers by the accident at Richmond were adopted by both Houses.

In the Senate a resolution was adopted continuing the Appropriation Act for two quarters of the year—29th, 29th, 11. A resolution continuing the Tax Act of 1870 was adopted by the same vote.

A resolution authorizing the Governor to provide for the payment of the interest and principal of the public debt, accruing prior to July 1, 1870, in accordance with the code, was adopted—yeas 18, nays 15.

A resolution was adopted appointing a committee of three in the Senate and five in the House to investigate the affairs of the Western and Atlantic Railroad, as required by the Governor.

A resolution was adopted continuing in force the Riot Act of last session.

EXCURSION OF WASHINGTON DIGNITARIES. NORFOLK, Va., April 29, 1870. Hon. Hannibal Hamlin, Attorney General, Hon. Postmaster General Croswell, Senator Canfield, Hon. John A. Bingham and a number of other Senators and Representatives, with their ladies, arrived here this morning on the steamer Lady of the Lake, on an excursion trip from Washington.

The excursionists visited the navy yard and the receiving ship New Hampshire and the monitor Terror. After dining at the Atlantic Hotel, they proceeded to Fortress Monroe, where, if the weather is favorable, they will spend an hour and then return to Washington.

Fortress Monroe, April 29, 1870. The steamer Lady of the Lake, of the Washington and Norfolk line, arrived here this morning with a distinguished party on board, comprising Postmaster General Croswell, Attorney General Hamlin, Senator Bingham, Hon. John A. Bingham and others. They were met at the wharf by General Barry and started on their excursion to the fort. A salute was fired in their honor and after spending an hour in examining the fort, they re-embarked and left for Washington at seven P. M.

VIRGINIA. Decision in the Richmond Mayoralty Case—Mr. Elyson Declared Entitled to the Office. RICHMOND, April 29, 1870. The Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia, at ten o'clock this morning decided that the Elyson case passed by the Legislature was constitutional, and that Henry R. Elyson, and not George Calhoun, is the lawful Mayor of this city, and that all acts of Mr. Elyson, in accordance with the State law, are legal and binding.

Mr. Calhoun, under his formal agreement, will retire from the field and Mr. Elyson remain Mayor of the city. The Court was unanimous in its opinion, which is voluminous, and covers every point raised.

At six o'clock this afternoon all the city property in the possession of Mayor Calhoun was surrendered by him to Mayor Elyson, in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of Appeals.

MARYLAND. Important Decision of the United States Circuit Court—Rights of Colored Passengers in Railway Trains. BALTIMORE, April 29, 1870. The case of Alexander Thompson (colored), of New York, against the Baltimore City Passenger Railway Company, to recover $2,000 for trespass and forcible ejection from the interior of one of their cars to the front platform, on the 30th of October last was commenced in the United States Circuit Court, Judge Giles, yesterday and concluded to-day.

Upon the conclusion of the argument for the defense Judge Giles announced that it was his custom, after hearing argument on the part of the defense, to require no other argument. He would therefore dispense with any effort on the part of the plaintiff's counsel, and proceed to give his opinion upon the issue which had been presented to him.

After quoting authorities the Judge continued:—It is legal to carry a white man, as it is reasonable to assign a different place in the cars to passengers of each color. If the colored man is to be carried in the same car as the white man, it is reasonable to assign a different place in the cars to passengers of each color. If the colored man is to be carried in the same car as the white man, it is reasonable to assign a different place in the cars to passengers of each color.

The Judge said if the defendant had provided cars for the carriage of colored people, or assigned a place in each car for them, he would have been held such regulation reasonable and proper. He said that the defendant's duty as a common carrier of passengers, and the company's duty as a common carrier of passengers, was to provide for the carriage of all passengers, and to treat them as equals.

The Judge said if the defendant had provided cars for the carriage of colored people, or assigned a place in each car for them, he would have been held such regulation reasonable and proper. He said that the defendant's duty as a common carrier of passengers, and the company's duty as a common carrier of passengers, was to provide for the carriage of all passengers, and to treat them as equals.

The Judge said if the defendant had provided cars for the carriage of colored people, or assigned a place in each car for them, he would have been held such regulation reasonable and proper. He said that the defendant's duty as a common carrier of passengers, and the company's duty as a common carrier of passengers, was to provide for the carriage of all passengers, and to treat them as equals.

The Judge said if the defendant had provided cars for the carriage of colored people, or assigned a place in each car for them, he would have been held such regulation reasonable and proper. He said that the defendant's duty as a common carrier of passengers, and the company's duty as a common carrier of passengers, was to provide for the carriage of all passengers, and to treat them as equals.

The Judge said if the defendant had provided cars for the carriage of colored people, or assigned a place in each car for them, he would have been held such regulation reasonable and proper. He said that the defendant's duty as a common carrier of passengers, and the company's duty as a common carrier of passengers, was to provide for the carriage of all passengers, and to treat them as equals.

The Judge said if the defendant had provided cars for the carriage of colored people, or assigned a place in each car for them, he would have been held such regulation reasonable and proper. He said that the defendant's duty as a common carrier of passengers, and the company's duty as a common carrier of passengers, was to provide for the carriage of all passengers, and to treat them as equals.

The Judge said if the defendant had provided cars for the carriage of colored people, or assigned a place in each car for them, he would have been held such regulation reasonable and proper. He said that the defendant's duty as a common carrier of passengers, and the company's duty as a common carrier of passengers, was to provide for the carriage of all passengers, and to treat them as equals.

The Judge said if the defendant had provided cars for the carriage of colored people, or assigned a place in each car for them, he would have been held such regulation reasonable and proper. He said that the defendant's duty as a common carrier of passengers, and the company's duty as a common carrier of passengers, was to provide for the carriage of all passengers, and to treat them as equals.

The Judge said if the defendant had provided cars for the carriage of colored people, or assigned a place in each car for them, he would have been held such regulation reasonable and proper. He said that the defendant's duty as a common carrier of passengers, and the company's duty as a common carrier of passengers, was to provide for the carriage of all passengers, and to treat them as equals.

The Judge said if the defendant had provided cars for the carriage of colored people, or assigned a place in each car for them, he would have been held such regulation reasonable and proper. He said that the defendant's duty as a common carrier of passengers, and the company's duty as a common carrier of passengers, was to provide for the carriage of all passengers, and to treat them as equals.

The Judge said if the defendant had provided cars for the carriage of colored people, or assigned a place in each car for them, he would have been held such regulation reasonable and proper. He said that the defendant's duty as a common carrier of passengers, and the company's duty as a common carrier of passengers, was to provide for the carriage of all passengers, and to treat them as equals.

The Judge said if the defendant had provided cars for the carriage of colored people, or assigned a place in each car for them, he would have been held such regulation reasonable and proper. He said that the defendant's duty as a common carrier of passengers, and the company's duty as a common carrier of passengers, was to provide for the carriage of all passengers, and to treat them as equals.

The Judge said if the defendant had provided cars for the carriage of colored people, or assigned a place in each car for them, he would have been held such regulation reasonable and proper. He said that the defendant's duty as a common carrier of passengers, and the company's duty as a common carrier of passengers, was to provide for the carriage of all passengers, and to treat them as equals.

The Judge said if the defendant had provided cars for the carriage of colored people, or assigned a place in each car for them, he would have been held such regulation reasonable and proper. He said that the defendant's duty as a common carrier of passengers, and the company's duty as a common carrier of passengers, was to provide for the carriage of all passengers, and to treat them as equals.

The Judge said if the defendant had provided cars for the carriage of colored people, or assigned a place in each car for them, he would have been held such regulation reasonable and proper. He said that the defendant's duty as a common carrier of passengers, and the company's duty as a common carrier of passengers, was to provide for the carriage of all passengers, and to treat them as equals.

The Judge said if the defendant had provided cars for the carriage of colored people, or assigned a place in each car for them, he would have been held such regulation reasonable and proper. He said that the defendant's duty as a common carrier of passengers, and the company's duty as a common carrier of passengers, was to provide for the carriage of all passengers, and to treat them as equals.

The Judge said if the defendant had provided cars for the carriage of colored people, or assigned a place in each car for them, he would have been held such regulation reasonable and proper. He said that the defendant's duty as a common carrier of passengers, and the company's duty as a common carrier of passengers, was to provide for the carriage of all passengers, and to treat them as equals.

The Judge said if the defendant had provided cars for the carriage of colored people, or assigned a place in each car for them, he would have been held such regulation reasonable and proper. He said that the defendant's duty as a common carrier of passengers, and the company's duty as a common carrier of passengers, was to provide for the carriage of all passengers, and to treat them as equals.

The Judge said if the defendant had provided cars for the carriage of colored people, or assigned a place in each car for them, he would have been held such regulation reasonable and proper. He said that the defendant's duty as a common carrier of passengers, and the company's duty as a common carrier of passengers, was to provide for the carriage of all passengers, and to treat them as equals.

The Judge said if the defendant had provided cars for the carriage of colored people, or assigned a place in each car for them, he would have been held such regulation reasonable and proper. He said that the defendant's duty as a common carrier of passengers, and the company's duty as a common carrier of passengers, was to provide for the carriage of all passengers, and to treat them as equals.

The Judge said if the defendant had provided cars for the carriage of colored people, or assigned a place in each car for them, he would have been held such regulation reasonable and proper. He said that the defendant's duty as a common carrier of passengers, and the company's duty as a common carrier of passengers, was to provide for the carriage of all passengers, and to treat them as equals.

The Judge said if the defendant had provided cars for the carriage of colored people, or assigned a place in each car for them, he would have been held such regulation reasonable and proper. He said that the defendant's duty as a common carrier of passengers, and the company's duty as a common carrier of passengers, was to provide for the carriage of all passengers, and to treat them as equals.

The Judge said if the defendant had provided cars for the carriage of colored people, or assigned a place in each car for them, he would have been held such regulation reasonable and proper. He said that the defendant's duty as a common carrier of passengers, and the company's duty as a common carrier of passengers, was to provide for the carriage of all passengers, and to treat them as equals.

The Judge said if the defendant had provided cars for the carriage of colored people, or assigned a place in each car for them, he would have been held such regulation reasonable and proper. He said that the defendant's duty as a common carrier of passengers, and the company's duty as a common carrier of passengers, was to provide for the carriage of all passengers, and to treat them as equals.

The Judge said if the defendant had provided cars for the carriage of colored people, or assigned a place in each car for them, he would have been held such regulation reasonable and proper. He said that the defendant's duty as a common carrier of passengers, and the company's duty as a common carrier of passengers, was to provide for the carriage of all passengers, and to treat them as equals.

The Judge said if the defendant had provided cars for the carriage of colored people, or assigned a place in each car for them, he would have been held such regulation reasonable and proper. He said that the defendant's duty as a common carrier of passengers, and the company's duty as a common carrier of passengers, was to provide for the carriage of all passengers, and to treat them as equals.

THE RICHMOND HORROR. Funerals of Twelve of the Victims. RICHMOND, April 29, 1870. Twelve funerals of victims of the disaster took place to-day, including that of E. M. Schaeffer, City Assessor, and brother of Mayor General Schaeffer, which was attended by nearly two thousand people, and those of Julius H. B. Co. Collector of City Taxes, and William A. Charles, Chief of the Fire Department. The last named funeral was attended by an immense crowd. The body was conveyed on an engine, followed by all the other engines of the department decorated with evergreens.

THANKS TO GENERAL CANBY. Governor Walker has written a letter to General Canby thanking him for his kindness in furnishing a surgeon and for other kindness to the wounded by the late disaster.

LIBERAL AID FOR THE SUFFERERS—Action of the Legislature—Proclamation of Governor Walker. RICHMOND, April 29, 1870. A telegram was received by the Secretary of State to-day from Mayor Fox, of Philadelphia, stating that subscriptions were being raised in that city for the sufferers, and that Mr. Childs, of the Public Ledger, had headed it with $1,000. A merchant of Chicago has also advised the relief committee to draw on him for necessary funds.

No further deaths have occurred to-day. FUNERAL OF DR. BROCK. There were five funerals this morning including that of Dr. Brock, of the Examiner, which was attended by a large number of persons. A delegation of the Washington press, including Messrs. Arthur Shepley, of the Republican; McBride, of the Chronicle, and Godwin, of the Star, were also present at Dr. Brock's funeral.

THE LEGISLATURE. Both houses of the Legislature met in the Circuit Court building to-day, the Senate in the chamber and the House on the southern portico of the building. They adopted a resolution to meet at the Exchange Hotel temporarily. The death of Senator Isham was announced, and appropriate eulogies delivered by conservative members. The Registration bill was finally passed.

MAJOR CALVERT, ex-State Treasurer, and W. C. Dunham, of New York, are dying, both victims of the cholera.

THE BUSINESS HOUSES ARE STILL CLOSED. PROCLAMATION OF GOVERNOR WALKER—DAY OF HUMILIATION AND PRAYER RECOMMENDED. Governor Walker to-night issued the following proclamation:—A great calamity has befallen the State, and especially the city of Richmond, in the appalling event of Wednesday last. In that fatal hour of catastrophe, many of our most eminent and valuable citizens were called to their eternal rest in the service of the Commonwealth—were, suddenly, and unexpectantly, stricken from life, and a large number of families were left in a state of bereavement and affliction. The sympathy and sensibility so painfully aroused by this heart-rending catastrophe should find appropriate expression in prayer to Almighty God, by individuals, as well as of States and nations, are all duly advised, that on the 4th day of May next, he observed by all the people of the Commonwealth as a day of humiliation and prayer, and that on that day they assemble in the churches and places of worship, and in such manner and with such solemnities as best comport with the feelings of their hearts for the dead and their sympathies for the suffering, and bereaved, and recently a knowledge of the dependence of all things upon the will of God, who is the Father of the Merciful.

ALBERT G. WALKER, Governor of Virginia. Action of the North Carolina State Officers—The Departments Closed Yesterday. RALEIGH, April 29, 1870. At a meeting of the officers of the various departments to-day at the Capitol, a special Governor Holden presided. It was resolved to close the several public offices for the day and to the Capitol itself. A resolution of sympathy was adopted, to be forwarded to Governor Walker, of Virginia. The flag on the Capitol is displayed at half mast.

A Meeting in Philadelphia Called in Aid of the Sufferers by the Accident—Liberty of Mr. Childs, of the Ledger. PHILADELPHIA, April 29, 1870. Miss Van Lew, Postmistress of Richmond, has written to Mayor Fox appealing to Philadelphia for aid. Mayor Fox has called a meeting for Saturday next. He says, in view of the great nature of the calamity and the wide-spread distress it has manifestly caused to the families of the sufferers and the direct appeal made to the people of Philadelphia the Mayor deems it advisable to solicit the counsel and the co-operation of the citizens on the subject of the response to be made to this appeal.

This appeal has already been responded to by Mr. Childs, of the Public Ledger, in the contribution of $1,000. The Secretary of State, Mr. McDonald, thus replies to a telegraphic notification of this fact:—Thanks for the gratifying information your telegram conveys. Our people are keenly sensitive to such evidence of sympathy and kindly feeling. Mr. Childs' subscription will be well bestowed, many families being deprived by the catastrophe of their only support.

OLD WORLD ITEMS. Turkey is getting into trouble in both Egypt and the Danubian Principalities. "Coming events" &c. The Kievs of Egypt has gone so far in his contumacious refusal to accept the terms of the Porte's ultimatum.

The Emperor of Russia has recently shown himself in public quite frequently, and seems to enjoy improved health and spirits.

The Emperor of Austria has just received sixty-five suitcases of gold and silver of all kinds with the value of $1,000,000.

The Imperial family of Russia are to make the grand tour of Germany, passing time at the bath of Ems, and, before paying two or three royal visits, go to the Riviera.

The French railroads are pushing their grand network to completion with great vigor this year. In Algeria the main line from Algiers to Oran is almost completed.

Second-story of the Evangelical Lutheran Church here are announced as having taken place among Catholic professors in Austria in consequence of the mail.

Nachigal, the German explorer in Africa, has been heard from up to March 4. He then was at Muzik, and a Turkish envoy would accompany him to the interior.

At Geneva (Switzerland) the painters level a weekly contribution of one franc a piece per week, during the continuance of the Creuzer strike in France. Solidarity!

The French society against the use of tobacco has presented a silver medal to the scholars of an academy who have zealously followed the advice of their tutors to abstain from the weed. The juveniles gratefully received their promise not to smoke or chew.

The tour of all the great cities of France suggested by the Prince Imperial alone will, it is now declared by the French Emperor, be shared by the Emperor and Empress, who will make a "Queen Elizabeth" more splendid than the famous one of Queen Elizabeth through England.

An archeological discovery has very recently been made in Paris. In plowing the soil the de la Morge the workmen came upon the ruins of the ancient city of Lutetia, the city of the days of the Gauls. Some stone basins, broken pottery, and other articles marked the spot. This is the most ancient relic of the Gallo-Roman times in the north of France, and is 200 years at least older than the baths of Julia.

ARREST OF GAMBLERS. The officers attached to the Tombs Police Court, assisted by officers from the Sixth precinct, last night made a simultaneous raid upon three gambling saloons, waiting against which were issued by Justice Downing. The premises No. 23 Coenties slip were searched, and Timothy Harrington and Charles Williams were arrested. The premises No. 21 Coenties slip were entered and Richard H. Pier-on arrested. The premises No. 14 South street were entered and Henry J. and Patrick J. McLaughlin arrested. At the time the descent was made six persons were present in the saloons. The prisoners were locked up in the Sixth Ward station house, and will be arraigned to-day before Justice Downing at the Tombs Police Court. A large quantity of gambling tools and implements were seized.

NEW YORK CITY. Local and Police Paragraphs and Minor Items of Metropolitan News.

The following record will show the changes in the temperature for the past twenty-four hours in comparison with the corresponding day of last year, as indicated by the thermometer at Hudson's Pharmacy, Herald Building, Broadway, corner of Ann street:—

Table with 2 columns: Year, Temperature. 1869, 1870, 1871, 1872, 1873, 1874, 1875, 1876, 1877, 1878, 1879, 1880.

The New York Society Library paid for books and periodicals during the year ending March 31, 1870, $2,702.46, and received from all sources during the same period, $5,447.30.

The Excise Board has organized by the election of Colonel Walter W. Price as president. The Board has secured rooms in Police Headquarters, and will begin business on Monday.

Patrick Walsh was yesterday arraigned at the Yorkville Police Court, before Alderman Cunningham, for mayhem, by hitting the ear of John MacFarlan, and was committed to answer at the General Sessions.

A man named Thomas Seery, residing at 609 First avenue, was killed last evening while passing through a lumber yard at the foot of East Thirty-fifth street by a piece of timber which fell upon him.

Professor William H. Thomson lectured on temperance before a large and fashionable audience at the hall of the Young Men's Christian Association last evening. During the course of the lecture the Professor made several remarks on chemistry and natural philosophy.

Officer Vantasell, of the Nineteenth precinct, last evening found the arm and breast of a man in a box placed opposite No. 15 East Seventy-third street. The officer could find no trace as to where the remains belonged. They were removed to the Morgue and a coroner notified to hold an inquest.

The investigation into certain alleged frauds in the Inspectors' Department of the Custom House was continued at the office of Surveyor Cornell yesterday. The proceedings were entirely private. It is understood, however, that evidence has been adduced tending to the removal of ten or twelve inspectors for receiving bribes while in discharge of their duties.

Charles Leiber, a German, of No. 164 East Fourth street, while engaged in slating the roof of the gas-hoist at the foot of West Forty-second street, yesterday morning, lost his balance and fell to the sidewalk. He died on his way to the hospital, and sustained several internal injuries. An ambulance was procured and he was taken to the Bellevue Hospital.

The Army of the Thirty-seventh regiment, including the grand pazaar for the benefit of the "Sheltering Arms" is being held, was crowded to overflowing last evening. On no other occasion had there been so many visitors to the bazaar, and the sales were in proportion to the immense attendance. The officers could find no trace as to where the remains belonged. They were removed to the Morgue and a coroner notified to hold an inquest.

Jennie Clark, a notorious panel thief, was arraigned before Justice Downing, at the Tombs Police Court, yesterday forenoon, on complaint of an uncle. She was charged with stealing a watch and a diamond ring, valued at $100, from the residence of her mother, at 59 Crosby street, and that she was worth $165. Held to answer at the General Sessions.

A dinner was given by Mr. Henry Clews, on Thursday evening, at the Union Club, to the Hon. Roscoe Conkling, United States Senator from this State, and the Hon. N. P. Bangs, member of Congress from Boston. Among the many prominent merchants and financiers present were Messrs. H. Grinnell, Shepard, and Henry F. Wall, Charles L. Frost and Dr. Doremus.

Mr. Frederick Kapp was the recipient yesterday, at Castle Garden, of a series of complimentary resolutions from the employees of the Commissioners of Emigration. Mr. Kapp, who sails for Europe to-day, said he appreciated the honor, and would always feel it in remembrance of the pleasant days he passed while a member of the commission, and without reference to time or distance would never fail to take a deep interest in the important subject of immigration.

The democrats of the Seventeenth Assembly district (the Twenty-third ward) turned out some 2,000 strong last night to give a welcome home to their Assemblyman, Mr. George W. Plunkett. A stand, ornamented with numerous Chinese lanterns, was erected on the corner of Forty-ninth street and Broadway, and a band of music was in attendance. Mr. James A. McMaster, Mayor, presided at the banquet, and delivered a lengthy address explanatory of his course in the Legislature. Other speakers followed, and the meeting adjourned amid cheer.

DEAD. CLARK.—On Friday, April 29, CATHERINE DOWN, wife of Charles E. Clark. The relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend the funeral on Sunday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, from her late residence, 160 East Sixty-sixth street. [For Other Deaths See Eighth Page.]

A Good All Wood Business Suit. 814, at BROOKAW BROTHERS, Fourth avenue, opposite Cooper Union.

A-Herring's Patent CHAMPION SAFES. 211 Broadway, corner Murray street.

A Medical Wonder—Hunt's Life Bals