

Violation of the Revenue Laws—The Late Haul of Counterfeit Bills—A Pair of Soiled Doves in Court—Decisions—A Burglar Sentenced in the Court of General Sessions.

UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER'S COURT.

Violation of Revenue Laws.—Before Commissioner Shields. The United States vs. Julius Steinhilber.—The defendant, after examination into the facts charging him with a violation of the Internal Revenue law in selling lager beer without having first destroyed the revenue stamps, was yesterday held to await the action of the Grand Jury.

The Late Haul of Counterfeit Bills.—The United States vs. David Herring.—The defendant was yesterday held for the action of the Grand Jury, charged with having on his premises and in his possession, with intent to pass the same, $500 two dollar counterfeit bills. The facts elicited on the examination have been already fully reported.

Falsifying Courtroom Money.—The United States vs. Michael Corcoran.—The defendant was charged with having attempted to pass a twenty dollar counterfeit bill on one Matthew Tolly. He was held for examination in $1,000 bail.

SUPREME COURT—CHAMBERS.

A Pair of "Soiled Doves" Drive a Coach and Four Through the Law.—Before Judge Ingraham.

In the Matter of the Habeas Corpus of Victoria Melrose and Mary Brown.—The petitioners were committed by Judge Lodwin for examination on the charge of belonging to that class of the female community of New York who earn their living by "veiling their virtue to the casual comers." The commitment was accompanied by another, signed by Commissioner Ingraham, giving them three months' imprisonment on Blackwell's Island. Mr. Hummel now asked their discharge on the ground that the statute did not take cognizance of the alleged crime, so Judge Ingraham thought, and the pair of damsels left the court, with the intention, it is to be hoped, of "sinning no more."

By Judge Ingraham. Wehphasen vs. Wehphasen.—Motion denied, with leave to renew on further proof.

Cushman vs. Bourland et al.—Motion denied. Draper vs. Roberts et al.—Motion granted. Commissioner v. Brown et al.—Motion granted. Walworth vs. Walworth.—Report confirmed and divorce granted.

SUPERIOR COURT—SPECIAL TERM.

By Judge Barbour. Schurman vs. Schurman.—Motion denied, with ten dollars costs.

Courtesy vs. Bloom.—Motion to vacate injunction granted, with ten dollars costs. Same vs. Same, Spiering vs. Cohen, Morrison vs. Baker, Johnson vs. Hargrave, Martin vs. Pickford, and Epstein vs. Rosenberg.—Reports confirmed.

Charles P. Friend vs. Richard Walters.—Case set. Ed. Wilson, Walter vs. Small, Schroeder vs. McCabe, Thomas vs. Boyles, Schuyler vs. Killgore, Hall vs. Smith, Wendell vs. Beard, Sehancher vs. Weedon, Pike vs. Austin, Conkock vs. Patchogue, Croise and Schneider vs. Cohen.—Orders granted.

COMMON PLEAS—SPECIAL TERM.

By Judge Joseph P. Daly. Carroll vs. Butler.—Motion denied and injunction dissolved.

Rosette Jenker vs. Andrew Jenker.—Report confirmed and divorce granted to plaintiff. Smith vs. Patrick Lynch.—Divorce granted to plaintiff.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS.

Before Gunning S. Bedford, Jr., City Judge. ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

The first prisoner disposed of yesterday was John Anderson, who pleaded guilty last month to a simple assault and battery. Mr. Wm. F. Howe, his counsel, read certificates of previous good character and made an effective appeal for leniency. His Honor sentenced Anderson to the City Prison for thirty days.

LARCENY OF LACE. Charles Martin, who pleaded guilty on Thursday to stealing fourteen pieces of real lace, valued at $700, the property of David Lawson & Brother, 360 Broadway, was brought up for sentence.

Mr. Howe addressed the Court in behalf of the criminal, stating that he was respectfully connected, had two small children, and was undoubtedly led to steal the property by a series of temptations. The City Judge sentenced Martin to the State Prison for two years.

A DISHONEST CLERK SENT TO THE STATE PRISON. George Ray, charged with embezzling forty-five dollars from the City of New York, and who had pleaded guilty to the offense. The complaint had an interview with his Honor and informed him that he was employed by him, had stolen $4,000. The City Judge sentenced Ray to the State Prison for three years.

A BURGULAR ATTEMPT TO SHOOT AN OFFICER—INTERESTING RECALCITRANT PRISONER. Perry Roberts, who was convicted in the City Court of the third degree, was placed at the bar. Judge Bedford said that this prisoner was indicted for burglary in the third degree, and was sentenced to the State Prison for five years. Assistant District Attorney Felt informed the Court that he found he could not prove that the pistol was loaded, and therefore he would not prosecute the indictment for felonious assault.

James Hand, whose discharge was ordered by the Court on Thursday, having been fraudulently convicted of alleged larceny of gold coin, was placed at the bar. Judge Bedford said: "You are discharged with the sympathy of the Court."

Samuel Hart was tried upon a charge of stealing a gold chain from Martin Karol on the 24 of July. The evidence disclosed the fact that the accused, who was very much intoxicated and staggered up against the complainant. There was no guilty intent shown, and the jury rendered a verdict of acquittal. The City Judge advised the youth never to touch a drop of liquor.

James Martin pleaded guilty to forgery in the third degree. It appeared from the complaint that three checks for twenty dollars were drawn by the firm of Ernest and Treat upon the City Bank, which were subsequently altered to $400 and presented by Martin to Henry Arthur, 84 Gold street, in payment for a large bill. The City Judge sentenced Martin to the State Prison for three years and six months.

A HEALTHY STRIBLING OF YOUNG NEW YORK. The Campaign for the City of New York is now in progress. The candidates for Mayor are John A. B. Brown, the City Judge, and John A. B. Brown, the City Judge, and John A. B. Brown, the City Judge.

ALLEGED ROBBERY—THE PRISONER ACQUITTED AND ONE OF THE ALLEGED ROBBERS ARRESTED IN THE CITY.

James Johnson was placed on trial, charged with being implicated in assaulting and robbing Adolph Mayer, on the night of the 20th of May, of a gold watch, which was being worn by Mayer. The complaint failed to identify Johnson the jury rendered a verdict of not guilty. While Mr. Mayer was in court, however, he positively identified a man who stood in the room as the party who first attacked him. The accused gave his name as Max Felix, and was committed by Judge Bedford and sent before Justice Shillineau for examination.

MASONIC PICK-UP. Eastern Star Lodge of Free Masons is numbered 27, and among its sister lodges bears a very high rank. As it should be, her treasury is always open to the widow and orphan, and certainly these unfortunates have been many, and have drawn so largely upon the treasury that it has been completely depleted; for, besides these pensioners, several judges brethren who have died recently have been buried by the lodge. To raise funds, therefore, a check was agreed to be made for the purpose of a man who was in the room as the party who first attacked him. The accused gave his name as Max Felix, and was committed by Judge Bedford and sent before Justice Shillineau for examination.

After the vessel had cast her lines Mr. Seward made a speech on the quarter-deck, where he was received with cheers as the noble steamer plunged down the bay, and handkerchiefs were waved from the wharf. Mr. Seward bowed his acknowledgments, and the vessel was soon lost from view.

THE PARTY. The party consisted of Mr. William H. Seward, Edward A. Seward and wife, the two Miss Russells, and Mr. A. W. Handall (late Postmaster General) and wife.

After the vessel had cast her lines Mr. Seward made a speech on the quarter-deck, where he was received with cheers as the noble steamer plunged down the bay, and handkerchiefs were waved from the wharf. Mr. Seward bowed his acknowledgments, and the vessel was soon lost from view.

THE PARTY. The party consisted of Mr. William H. Seward, Edward A. Seward and wife, the two Miss Russells, and Mr. A. W. Handall (late Postmaster General) and wife.

After the vessel had cast her lines Mr. Seward made a speech on the quarter-deck, where he was received with cheers as the noble steamer plunged down the bay, and handkerchiefs were waved from the wharf. Mr. Seward bowed his acknowledgments, and the vessel was soon lost from view.

THE PARTY. The party consisted of Mr. William H. Seward, Edward A. Seward and wife, the two Miss Russells, and Mr. A. W. Handall (late Postmaster General) and wife.

After the vessel had cast her lines Mr. Seward made a speech on the quarter-deck, where he was received with cheers as the noble steamer plunged down the bay, and handkerchiefs were waved from the wharf. Mr. Seward bowed his acknowledgments, and the vessel was soon lost from view.

THE PARTY. The party consisted of Mr. William H. Seward, Edward A. Seward and wife, the two Miss Russells, and Mr. A. W. Handall (late Postmaster General) and wife.

After the vessel had cast her lines Mr. Seward made a speech on the quarter-deck, where he was received with cheers as the noble steamer plunged down the bay, and handkerchiefs were waved from the wharf. Mr. Seward bowed his acknowledgments, and the vessel was soon lost from view.

THE PARTY. The party consisted of Mr. William H. Seward, Edward A. Seward and wife, the two Miss Russells, and Mr. A. W. Handall (late Postmaster General) and wife.

After the vessel had cast her lines Mr. Seward made a speech on the quarter-deck, where he was received with cheers as the noble steamer plunged down the bay, and handkerchiefs were waved from the wharf. Mr. Seward bowed his acknowledgments, and the vessel was soon lost from view.

THE PARTY. The party consisted of Mr. William H. Seward, Edward A. Seward and wife, the two Miss Russells, and Mr. A. W. Handall (late Postmaster General) and wife.

After the vessel had cast her lines Mr. Seward made a speech on the quarter-deck, where he was received with cheers as the noble steamer plunged down the bay, and handkerchiefs were waved from the wharf. Mr. Seward bowed his acknowledgments, and the vessel was soon lost from view.

THE PARTY. The party consisted of Mr. William H. Seward, Edward A. Seward and wife, the two Miss Russells, and Mr. A. W. Handall (late Postmaster General) and wife.

After the vessel had cast her lines Mr. Seward made a speech on the quarter-deck, where he was received with cheers as the noble steamer plunged down the bay, and handkerchiefs were waved from the wharf. Mr. Seward bowed his acknowledgments, and the vessel was soon lost from view.

THE PARTY. The party consisted of Mr. William H. Seward, Edward A. Seward and wife, the two Miss Russells, and Mr. A. W. Handall (late Postmaster General) and wife.

After the vessel had cast her lines Mr. Seward made a speech on the quarter-deck, where he was received with cheers as the noble steamer plunged down the bay, and handkerchiefs were waved from the wharf. Mr. Seward bowed his acknowledgments, and the vessel was soon lost from view.

THE PARTY. The party consisted of Mr. William H. Seward, Edward A. Seward and wife, the two Miss Russells, and Mr. A. W. Handall (late Postmaster General) and wife.

After the vessel had cast her lines Mr. Seward made a speech on the quarter-deck, where he was received with cheers as the noble steamer plunged down the bay, and handkerchiefs were waved from the wharf. Mr. Seward bowed his acknowledgments, and the vessel was soon lost from view.

THE PARTY. The party consisted of Mr. William H. Seward, Edward A. Seward and wife, the two Miss Russells, and Mr. A. W. Handall (late Postmaster General) and wife.

After the vessel had cast her lines Mr. Seward made a speech on the quarter-deck, where he was received with cheers as the noble steamer plunged down the bay, and handkerchiefs were waved from the wharf. Mr. Seward bowed his acknowledgments, and the vessel was soon lost from view.

THE PARTY. The party consisted of Mr. William H. Seward, Edward A. Seward and wife, the two Miss Russells, and Mr. A. W. Handall (late Postmaster General) and wife.

After the vessel had cast her lines Mr. Seward made a speech on the quarter-deck, where he was received with cheers as the noble steamer plunged down the bay, and handkerchiefs were waved from the wharf. Mr. Seward bowed his acknowledgments, and the vessel was soon lost from view.

A NEW "FIRE KING"

Carriage—Proprietor to Supply the City Through Fire-A Company to be Formed. The Herald has always been foremost in chronicling improvements, inventions and the successful efforts which have been made and are making for the moral and material progress of the people of the United States. And in no other country in the world has there been so many valuable inventions discovered and so many improvements made in so short a space of time as in this country. For many years past the attention of scientific men and ingenious mechanics, with whom fortunately the United States are well supplied, has been attracted to improvements in appliances for extinguishing fires. The world is indebted to Latta, a Cincinnati mechanic, for the present steam fire engine. Everybody knows what a great improvement upon the old fire engine is the new invention, by which carbonic acid gas is ejected into a burning building, immediately extinguishing the fire, promises to surpass, if its ardent supporters are to be believed, all the attempts which have hitherto been made in that direction. Notwithstanding the successful exhibitions in October, 1889, at the Battery, the efforts which were published in all the papers, the efforts at organizing a company in this city have been unavailing.

At that time when the subject was proposed to the city authorities of New York, $100,000 and one-half million dollars were demanded for the enterprise. The enterprise then fell through for want of the requisite amount of capital. But in the city of Brooklyn there has been a company organized, which has the city of Brooklyn for its territory, the right to lay their pipes in the wards fronting the river, from Gowanus creek to the Navy Yard. The company propose to build a reservoir of sufficient capacity to supply the city with four inch pipes, running in every direction through the streets and having in front of every door a main valve, which can be closed by means of a key attached, by which the stream of gas can be directed to any room on fire.

It is to be made such a reservoir, with its necessary pipes for making and conveying 200 miles of pipe through the city, will not cost more, it is said, than $250,000. There can be no doubt that the damages by fire in the United States are at least $50,000,000 yearly. Of this loss a large portion is due to the water which is flooded in a burning building. Goods which have escaped the destructive effects of fire are ruined by water, one element proving almost as injurious as the other.

It is a strange thing that carbonic acid gas, which was discovered by Dr. Joseph Black, a chemist of Edinburgh, composed as it is of two parts of carbonic acid and one part of oxygen, and that, when oxygen is necessary to produce combustion. Repeated experiments have shown that fire cannot burn in an atmosphere containing one-fifth of its usual amount of oxygen.

There is a State tax of this character, but the federal government, it appears, levies no such extraordinary impost, and it is not likely that it will interest in raising the amount of hospital rates.

As far as sailors are concerned they are free to board any vessel in every part of the world, but each country has a different method of manning the matter. Our system is as good as any other, and it is not likely that it will be improved by a native, mixed or foreign crew, it matters not, returns to this port after an absence of six months, and having a crew of say fifty men, find that the vessel has cost them $100,000.

Of course it is essential, and none are more ready to admit it than the sailors themselves, that some little control should be exercised over the effectiveness of these charitable insurances. No doubt, if the sailors were paid a cent towards their support plenty of benevolent people could be found to do it.

OF THE ALBANY ZOUAVES. How They Enjoyed Themselves at Philadelphia, and How They Were Received by the Seventh in This City—A Jolly Time All Around.

Company A, Tenth regiment Albany Cadet Zouaves, will certainly not have a bad report to give to their Albany friends when they get home of the way they were treated while among the virtuous Gothamites. It appears that the company had a splendid time of it at Philadelphia.

In the first place, by some potent means or other, they were known to New Yorkers, the Brocton Hotel, and in providing them with the very best of weather, for they stay in that delectable city the sun shone brightly and not too uncomfortably, while cool breezes were thrown in as a refreshing set off. Then they were taken to the Continental Hotel after a short march, and were not compelled, as the unfortunate Seventh was in July last, to parade all over the town and test the durability of their shoe leather on cobble stones originally intended for Quaker street barricades.

Company D of the Grey Reserves did them all the honors of the city, and they were taken to the Albany Hotel, where all the good things that Mr. Kingsley knows so well how to please his guests were laid out for them. In fact the "boys" say that Mr. Kingsley outdid himself. No sooner was the last champagne bottle opened than a new basket appeared upon the scene, it was a new basket of wafers and now of so, as a consequence, lasted all Thursday night and way into the following morning. The reception of the company was warmly greeted, and was not by any means the least agreeable part of their enjoyable trip. They arrived in the city on the 20th of July, at half-past two o'clock, where they were taken in half-past two o'clock, where they were taken in half-past two o'clock, where they were taken in half-past two o'clock.

OF THE CUBAN LEAGUE OF THE UNITED STATES. The undersigned, Executive Committee of the Cuban League of the United States, respectfully request permission to lay before this Convention the following resolutions, which were adopted by the Cuban League of the United States, in whose behalf the undersigned are acting, is composed of American citizens who believe in the right of an independent Cuba, and who are opposed to the cruel despotism and establish for themselves a government based upon the popular consent; that the people of Cuba in asserting their right to be free and independent have a just claim to the sympathy and moral support of the people of the United States and to impartial neutrality in the exercise of the executive and legislative powers of the United States.

MEMORIAL OF THE CUBAN LEAGUE OF THE NEW YORK REPRESENTATIVE CONVENTION. The Executive Committee held a meeting yesterday and decided to call a general meeting of the League at the Spingler House on the evening of the 15th inst., at eight o'clock.

The following address was submitted to the Republican State Convention by the Executive Committee of the Cuban League of the United States: OFFICE OF THE CUBAN LEAGUE OF THE UNITED STATES, New York, Sept. 2, 1870.

The undersigned, Executive Committee of the Cuban League of the United States, respectfully request permission to lay before this Convention the following resolutions, which were adopted by the Cuban League of the United States, in whose behalf the undersigned are acting, is composed of American citizens who believe in the right of an independent Cuba, and who are opposed to the cruel despotism and establish for themselves a government based upon the popular consent; that the people of Cuba in asserting their right to be free and independent have a just claim to the sympathy and moral support of the people of the United States and to impartial neutrality in the exercise of the executive and legislative powers of the United States.

MEMORIAL OF THE CUBAN LEAGUE OF THE NEW YORK REPRESENTATIVE CONVENTION. The Executive Committee held a meeting yesterday and decided to call a general meeting of the League at the Spingler House on the evening of the 15th inst., at eight o'clock.

The following address was submitted to the Republican State Convention by the Executive Committee of the Cuban League of the United States: OFFICE OF THE CUBAN LEAGUE OF THE UNITED STATES, New York, Sept. 2, 1870.

The undersigned, Executive Committee of the Cuban League of the United States, respectfully request permission to lay before this Convention the following resolutions, which were adopted by the Cuban League of the United States, in whose behalf the undersigned are acting, is composed of American citizens who believe in the right of an independent Cuba, and who are opposed to the cruel despotism and establish for themselves a government based upon the popular consent; that the people of Cuba in asserting their right to be free and independent have a just claim to the sympathy and moral support of the people of the United States and to impartial neutrality in the exercise of the executive and legislative powers of the United States.

MEMORIAL OF THE CUBAN LEAGUE OF THE NEW YORK REPRESENTATIVE CONVENTION. The Executive Committee held a meeting yesterday and decided to call a general meeting of the League at the Spingler House on the evening of the 15th inst., at eight o'clock.

The following address was submitted to the Republican State Convention by the Executive Committee of the Cuban League of the United States: OFFICE OF THE CUBAN LEAGUE OF THE UNITED STATES, New York, Sept. 2, 1870.

THE TREASURY TAKING THE TARS.

Doubling the Hospital Charges Upon Poor Jack—Small Business of Congress—An Impostation that Should be Repealed.

At the last session of Congress an act was passed authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to increase the Seamen's Hospital tax from twenty to forty cents, and accordingly an order was issued, which took effect the 1st of this month, giving effect to the law and addressed to the collectors of customs in the following words:—

The Marine Hospital tax having been increased from twenty cents to forty cents by an act passed at the last session of Congress, you are directed, on the 1st inst., you are hereby instructed to assess and to collect for each and every seaman who has entered at any port of the United States, according to the provisions of that act.

WHAT THE FORGIVING MEANS.

The majority of people are not, perhaps, very well acquainted with the meaning and motive of the foregoing order. It is explained in this wise:—Every American vessel pays in at the Custom House for each seaman on board, no matter of what nationality, a hospital tax of forty cents per month. If the vessel has returned from a foreign port, the voyage tax in addition of a dollar per head of each man. All this money goes to the Custom House in each port where the hospital fund is kept. At stated terms the amount in the hands of each collector is forwarded to the Marine Hospital within the jurisdiction of the port, or to such other institution as furnishes accommodation and attendance to those followers of the sea as happen to be stricken down with sickness or disease. When the owner of a vessel pays his hospital tax at the Custom House the paymaster of the crew deducts from the wages of each man just the amount which has been paid on his account to the government. Under the present tax, after a voyage or an absence from this port of six weeks the sailor would be almost bankrupt. Under the new tax in the sum of two dollars and forty cents. The amount levied for such a wide and varied object as the Seamen's Hospital, which every vessel pays, is not a small one. It is not, however, to be deemed exorbitant, but the late addition of 100 per cent to the former figure makes it a heavy tax. It is not, however, to be deemed exorbitant, but the late addition of 100 per cent to the former figure makes it a heavy tax.

As far as sailors are concerned they are free to board any vessel in every part of the world, but each country has a different method of manning the matter. Our system is as good as any other, and it is not likely that it will be improved by a native, mixed or foreign crew, it matters not, returns to this port after an absence of six months, and having a crew of say fifty men, find that the vessel has cost them $100,000.

Of course it is essential, and none are more ready to admit it than the sailors themselves, that some little control should be exercised over the effectiveness of these charitable insurances. No doubt, if the sailors were paid a cent towards their support plenty of benevolent people could be found to do it.

OF THE NATIONAL GAME! The Wonderful Defeat of the Red Stockings at Cincinnati. The Cincinnati Gazette's Cincinnati. The Chicago club could not have been in better condition for a grand trial of skill with the famous Cincinnati club than they were in yesterday. The Cincinnati club had been expelled from the club, and King King, his partner in the game, had been expelled from the club, and King King, his partner in the game, had been expelled from the club.

OF THE NATIONAL GAME! The Wonderful Defeat of the Red Stockings at Cincinnati. The Cincinnati Gazette's Cincinnati. The Chicago club could not have been in better condition for a grand trial of skill with the famous Cincinnati club than they were in yesterday. The Cincinnati club had been expelled from the club, and King King, his partner in the game, had been expelled from the club.

OF THE NATIONAL GAME! The Wonderful Defeat of the Red Stockings at Cincinnati. The Cincinnati Gazette's Cincinnati. The Chicago club could not have been in better condition for a grand trial of skill with the famous Cincinnati club than they were in yesterday. The Cincinnati club had been expelled from the club, and King King, his partner in the game, had been expelled from the club.

OF THE NATIONAL GAME! The Wonderful Defeat of the Red Stockings at Cincinnati. The Cincinnati Gazette's Cincinnati. The Chicago club could not have been in better condition for a grand trial of skill with the famous Cincinnati club than they were in yesterday. The Cincinnati club had been expelled from the club, and King King, his partner in the game, had been expelled from the club.

OF THE NATIONAL GAME! The Wonderful Defeat of the Red Stockings at Cincinnati. The Cincinnati Gazette's Cincinnati. The Chicago club could not have been in better condition for a grand trial of skill with the famous Cincinnati club than they were in yesterday. The Cincinnati club had been expelled from the club, and King King, his partner in the game, had been expelled from the club.

OF THE NATIONAL GAME! The Wonderful Defeat of the Red Stockings at Cincinnati. The Cincinnati Gazette's Cincinnati. The Chicago club could not have been in better condition for a grand trial of skill with the famous Cincinnati club than they were in yesterday. The Cincinnati club had been expelled from the club, and King King, his partner in the game, had been expelled from the club.

OF THE NATIONAL GAME! The Wonderful Defeat of the Red Stockings at Cincinnati. The Cincinnati Gazette's Cincinnati. The Chicago club could not have been in better condition for a grand trial of skill with the famous Cincinnati club than they were in yesterday. The Cincinnati club had been expelled from the club, and King King, his partner in the game, had been expelled from the club.

OF THE NATIONAL GAME! The Wonderful Defeat of the Red Stockings at Cincinnati. The Cincinnati Gazette's Cincinnati. The Chicago club could not have been in better condition for a grand trial of skill with the famous Cincinnati club than they were in yesterday. The Cincinnati club had been expelled from the club, and King King, his partner in the game, had been expelled from the club.

OF THE NATIONAL GAME! The Wonderful Defeat of the Red Stockings at Cincinnati. The Cincinnati Gazette's Cincinnati. The Chicago club could not have been in better condition for a grand trial of skill with the famous Cincinnati club than they were in yesterday. The Cincinnati club had been expelled from the club, and King King, his partner in the game, had been expelled from the club.

OF THE NATIONAL GAME! The Wonderful Defeat of the Red Stockings at Cincinnati. The Cincinnati Gazette's Cincinnati. The Chicago club could not have been in better condition for a grand trial of skill with the famous Cincinnati club than they were in yesterday. The Cincinnati club had been expelled from the club, and King King, his partner in the game, had been expelled from the club.

OF THE NATIONAL GAME! The Wonderful Defeat of the Red Stockings at Cincinnati. The Cincinnati Gazette's Cincinnati. The Chicago club could not have been in better condition for a grand trial of skill with the famous Cincinnati club than they were in yesterday. The Cincinnati club had been expelled from the club, and King King, his partner in the game, had been expelled from the club.

OF THE NATIONAL GAME! The Wonderful Defeat of the Red Stockings at Cincinnati. The Cincinnati Gazette's Cincinnati. The Chicago club could not have been in better condition for a grand trial of skill with the famous Cincinnati club than they were in yesterday. The Cincinnati club had been expelled from the club, and King King, his partner in the game, had been expelled from the club.

OF THE NATIONAL GAME! The Wonderful Defeat of the Red Stockings at Cincinnati. The Cincinnati Gazette's Cincinnati. The Chicago club could not have been in better condition for a grand trial of skill with the famous Cincinnati club than they were in yesterday. The Cincinnati club had been expelled from the club, and King King, his partner in the game, had been expelled from the club.

OF THE NATIONAL GAME! The Wonderful Defeat of the Red Stockings at Cincinnati. The Cincinnati Gazette's Cincinnati. The Chicago club could not have been in better condition for a grand trial of skill with the famous Cincinnati club than they were in yesterday. The Cincinnati club had been expelled from the club, and King King, his partner in the game, had been expelled from the club.

OF THE NATIONAL GAME! The Wonderful Defeat of the Red Stockings at Cincinnati. The Cincinnati Gazette's Cincinnati. The Chicago club could not have been in better condition for a grand trial of skill with the famous Cincinnati club than they were in yesterday. The Cincinnati club had been expelled from the club, and King King, his partner in the game, had been expelled from the club.

OF THE NATIONAL GAME! The Wonderful Defeat of the Red Stockings at Cincinnati. The Cincinnati Gazette's Cincinnati. The Chicago club could not have been in better condition for a grand trial of skill with the famous Cincinnati club than they were in yesterday. The Cincinnati club had been expelled from the club, and King King, his partner in the game, had been expelled from the club.

OF THE NATIONAL GAME! The Wonderful Defeat of the Red Stockings at Cincinnati. The Cincinnati Gazette's Cincinnati. The Chicago club could not have been in better condition for a grand trial of skill with the famous Cincinnati club than they were in yesterday. The Cincinnati club had been expelled from the club, and King King, his partner in the game, had been expelled from the club.

THE MURDERER BUFTUM AT NEWBURGH—He is Held to Await the Action of the Grand Jury—His Counsel Pleads Insanity for Him.

NEWBURGH, Sept. 9, 1870. The examination of Robert Buftum, the murderer of John L. Seavers, commenced at the Court House in this city on Friday morning, before the Coroner, W. J. Macdonald. The murderer, who has quite recovered from the injuries inflicted on himself in his recent attempt at suicide, was brought into the court room at eleven o'clock and assigned to a seat near his counsel, J. H. Drake. Buftum is a villainous looking, low-browed individual, with glaring black eyes, jet black hair, moustache and chin whiskers. He was dressed in Scotch mixed coat and vest, black pants and white shirt. The expression of his countenance was one of intense solicitude, and he narrowly watched counsel, witnesses and coroner.

For a day or two previous to the examination he was greatly depressed, and had very little to say to anybody. He is watched and attended by two or three men, who relieve each other in the night. This morning the court room was crowded by citizens of Newburgh, who are interested in seeing justice done in this case. The first witness examined was Dr. W. A. M. Culbert, who was the first to enter the house of the murdered man on the evening of the tragedy. He testified in substance as follows:—I am a practicing physician and surgeon in the city of Newburgh; knew John L. Seavers, the murdered man; he called on me for medical aid on the evening of August 1st; I entered the front door, passed through the hall and down stairs into the dining room; Mr. Seavers was sitting at the table, and his hands were so like life that I spoke to him, supposing him to be alive, and asked him where he was injured; he replied he responded I went up to his room, and his head, which had dropped upon his breast, the eyes rolled a little and then all was over; death had been nearly instantaneous, and so sudden was that the murderer had not even time to get up from the position which he occupied before the shot was fired; the knife was still in his right hand, and that he had not time to get up from the position which he occupied before the shot was fired; the knife was still in his right hand, and that he had not time to get up from the position which he occupied before the shot was fired.

As far as sailors are concerned they are free to board any vessel in every part of the world, but each country has a different method of manning the matter. Our system is as good as any other, and it is not likely that it will be improved by a native, mixed or foreign crew, it matters not, returns to this port after an absence of six months, and having a crew of say fifty men, find that the vessel has cost them $100,000.

Of course it is essential, and none are more ready to admit it than the sailors themselves, that some little control should be exercised over the effectiveness of these charitable insurances. No doubt, if the sailors were paid a cent towards their support plenty of benevolent people could be found to do it.

OF THE NATIONAL GAME! The Wonderful Defeat of the Red Stockings at Cincinnati. The Cincinnati Gazette's Cincinnati. The Chicago club could not have been in better condition for a grand trial of skill with the famous Cincinnati club than they were in yesterday. The Cincinnati club had been expelled from the club, and King King, his partner in the game, had been expelled from the club.

OF THE NATIONAL GAME! The Wonderful Defeat of the Red Stockings at Cincinnati. The Cincinnati Gazette's Cincinnati. The Chicago club could not have been in better condition for a grand trial of skill with the famous Cincinnati club than they were in yesterday. The Cincinnati club had been expelled from the club, and King King, his partner in the game, had been expelled from the club.

OF THE NATIONAL GAME! The Wonderful Defeat of the Red Stockings at Cincinnati. The Cincinnati Gazette's Cincinnati. The Chicago club could not have been in better condition for a grand trial of skill with the famous Cincinnati club than they were in yesterday. The Cincinnati club had been expelled from the club, and King King, his partner in the game, had been expelled from the club.

OF THE NATIONAL GAME! The Wonderful Defeat of the Red Stockings at Cincinnati. The Cincinnati Gazette's Cincinnati. The Chicago club could not have been in better condition for a grand trial of skill with the famous Cincinnati club than they were in yesterday. The Cincinnati club had been expelled from the club, and King King, his partner in the game, had been expelled from the club.

OF THE NATIONAL GAME! The Wonderful Defeat of the Red Stockings at Cincinnati. The Cincinnati Gazette's Cincinnati. The Chicago club could not have been in better condition for a grand trial of skill with the famous Cincinnati club than they were in yesterday. The Cincinnati club had been expelled from the club, and King King, his partner in the game, had been expelled from the club.

OF THE NATIONAL GAME! The Wonderful Defeat of the Red Stockings at Cincinnati. The Cincinnati Gazette's Cincinnati. The Chicago club could not have been in better condition for a grand trial of skill with the famous Cincinnati club than they were in yesterday. The Cincinnati club had been expelled from the club, and King King, his partner in the game, had been expelled from the club.

OF THE NATIONAL GAME! The Wonderful Defeat of the Red Stockings at Cincinnati. The Cincinnati Gazette's Cincinnati. The Chicago club could not have been in better condition for a grand trial of skill with the famous Cincinnati club than they were in yesterday. The Cincinnati club had been expelled from the club, and King King, his partner in the game, had been expelled from the club.

OF THE NATIONAL GAME! The Wonderful Defeat of the Red Stockings at Cincinnati. The Cincinnati Gazette's Cincinnati. The Chicago club could not have been in better condition for a grand trial of skill with the famous Cincinnati club than they were in yesterday. The Cincinnati club had been expelled from the club, and King King, his partner in the game, had been expelled from the club.

OF THE NATIONAL GAME! The Wonderful Defeat of the Red Stockings at Cincinnati. The Cincinnati Gazette's Cincinnati. The Chicago club could not have been in better condition for a grand trial of skill with the famous Cincinnati club than they were in yesterday. The Cincinnati club had been expelled from the club, and King King, his partner in the game, had been expelled from the club.

OF THE NATIONAL GAME! The Wonderful Defeat of the Red Stockings at Cincinnati. The Cincinnati Gazette's Cincinnati. The Chicago club could not have been in better condition for a grand trial of skill with the famous Cincinnati club than they were in yesterday. The Cincinnati club had been expelled from the club, and King King, his partner in the game, had been expelled from the club.

OF THE NATIONAL GAME! The Wonderful Defeat of the Red Stockings at Cincinnati. The Cincinnati Gazette's Cincinnati. The Chicago club could not have been in better condition for a grand trial of skill with the famous Cincinnati club than they were in yesterday. The Cincinnati club had been expelled from the club, and King King, his partner in the game, had been expelled from the club.

OF THE NATIONAL GAME! The Wonderful Defeat of the Red Stockings at Cincinnati. The Cincinnati Gazette's Cincinnati. The Chicago club could not have been in better condition for a grand trial of skill with the famous Cincinnati club than they were in yesterday. The Cincinnati club had been