ONLY one day more.

MAYOR HALL deserves a crown of glory for the handsome manner in which he has come to the rescue of the chief officers of the city government against the slanderous attacks of an unscrupulous foe.

THE ALABAMA CLAIMS are still patiently awaiting decisive negotiation. They are probably waiting to be banished in with Bismarck's claims when the French war is over, and then doubtless they will be run through the diplomatic hopper quick enough.

BRENNAN OR LOEW.—There is considerable feeling among sporting circles in this city as to who will poll the heaviest vote—Matthew T. Brennan for Sheriff or Charley Loew for County Clerk.

THE SITUATION IN PARIS.—Now that the armistice has proved a failure it is comforting to know, as we do by despatches from the interior of Paris, that the beleaguered city is overflowing with provisions.

The Election To-morrow.

The grand field day in the State and city opens to-morrow at sunrise. The citizens of the State generally have to elect a Governor, Lieutenant Governor, State Comptroller, two Canal Commissioners and an Inspector of State Prisons.

The important news was received here last night that the peace negotiations which have been in progress between Versailles, Paris and Tours for some days past, and which were even reported to have gone as far as the signing of an armistice for twenty-five days, have been summarily and definitely broken off.

Looking to the success of the Tammany democracy as certain we have but to hope that the people will exhibit their good sense in paying no attention to any irritations arising from the Congressional election law which may be manifested at the polls.

THE FRANKING PRIVILEGE is to be ventilated again at the next session of Congress. The Postmaster General is preparing evidence to show what a waste of transportation and space is chargeable to the privilege members of the government have of sending their letters, soiled linen, books and bulky parcels free of postage.

Rupture of Peace Negotiations—No Armistice.

All the theatres (we suppose) having been engaged for private religious services, announcement was made yesterday morning that republican meetings of a political character would be held at several churches.

It was exceedingly doubtful, after all, whether an armistice would have led to a final peace, or whether the Constituent Assembly could have, within the time, organized a responsible and acceptable government that would have agreed to the German terms.

Mayor Hall and the City Government. Last Saturday evening, at Cooper Institute, Mayor Hall addressed a Brennan Club, and seized the occasion to give a comprehensive review of his course as Chief Magistrate.

On the subject of taxation, city expenditures, the value of the city property and other city resources, the Mayor opened a volume of useful information. In explaining the advance in the rate of taxation, which, he contended, was less than in a number of other large as well as smaller cities, Mayor Hall pointedly remarked:—"Let the man who grumbles at his tax of to-day, and who wants to go back to old taxation, sell his property at the valuation of ten years ago."

Altogether this was a remarkable speech, and came rather unexpectedly upon the large audience assembled, as well as upon the reading public on Sunday morning. It was a happy thought that conceived its utterance, for the public mind was becoming alarmed at the incessant assaults upon the reputation of one of the most important officials in the city government—assaults which were calculated to endanger the financial credit of the city and otherwise impair the harmonious workings of our civic machinery.

WINNIPEG.—A dreadful smallpox epidemic has broken out in the Red River Territory. Missionaries, Indians and natives are falling victims to the scourge. Riel, the ex-President of the Winnipeg republic, is outlawed by the authorities and is forbidden to return to Winnipeg.

WHEN SUCH WELL KNOWN and highly esteemed citizens as Moses Taylor, Marshall O. Roberts, John Jacob Astor and others certify to the fidelity of a public officer it is time for petty slanderers to hide their diminished heads.

UNSOPHISTICATED COUNTRY POLITICIANS.—The Republican State Committee are out in an address warning our rural friends against the corrupt operations of terrible Tammany. For a first class specimen of an adroit politician give us one of your country politicians and grocery store orators.

THE LAST CHANCE.—To-day is the last day for the political wire-workers to complete their plans. Do try and be honest—just this time.

Republican Meetings and Christian Sermons Yesterday.

All the theatres (we suppose) having been engaged for private religious services, announcement was made yesterday morning that republican meetings of a political character would be held at several churches. Accordingly large numbers of radicals attended these ratifications of their State ticket to be voted on and defeated to-morrow.

It must not be imagined that all of the churches were engaged by politicians yesterday. A few of them were found in which the sinner could pray forgiveness and listen to sermons devoted solely to religion. At the Church of the Strangers, for instance, Dr. Deems was not so much absorbed in contemplation of politics as to neglect Christianity.

Brother Boecher's summer tour does not appear to have been productive of those favorable results which we fondly hoped for. The Brooklyn Apollo for the past two Sundays has been discursive rather than discursive. Yesterday he opened the Plymouth church performance by advertising a charitable fair—a very deserving fair, with a truly Christian object.

PROBABLY the mind of every voter is made up in regard to the ticket he intends to vote to-morrow. Now let the politicians make up their minds to do as good a thing—to be honest.

THE TRIUMPHANT VINDICATION of Comptroller Connolly by Mayor Hall on Saturday night should cause the cheeks of his calumniators to tingle with the blush of shame. Their slanders, however, have answered one good purpose. They have enabled Mr. Connolly to prove himself an honest man and well worthy the confidence reposed in him by his fellow citizens.

THE COMMISSIONER OF PATENTS is not to resign. He is one of ex-Secretary Cox's political friends, and as he does not follow the example of his chief in regard to giving up office rather than forego his "reforms," it is fair to presume that he is not so qualmish about supporting the party in the customary way, and also that he is not concerned in the McGarrahan land claim.

THOSE CONSERVATORS of the purity of the ballot box, two companies of United States troops, have taken up quarters in Richmond, Va. The people there are fully accustomed to their presence in election times, and take it more kindly, probably, than New Yorkers, who have seen nothing of the kind since the unusually peaceful election of 1864.

THE ALBANY JOURNAL wants men of "character and standing" in the Legislature as representatives from Albany county. Why don't you send them there? Or is Albany a place so corrupt that it would take a dozen Diogenes to start up one honest man?

Comptroller Connolly's Accounts.

We have already had occasion to express our disapproval of the practice of the party press in circulating slanders against the private character and public conduct of officials and of candidates for office. Among the charges and imputations of this nature that have been industriously and designedly spread abroad by certain journals during the present political canvass, none have been more serious and malicious, and none have been more groundless, than those against the integrity of the New York City Department of Finance.

MAIL COMMUNICATION WITH PARIS.—It may be important for persons in this country who have friends in France to remember the announcement about the mails. In consequence of the risk attending their transmission the French Post Office Department has decided that no registered letters addressed to Paris will be received during the continuance of the siege.

A HEALTHY EXERCISER.—Mayor Hall states that the city property amounts in value to two hundred millions of dollars, and, of course, increasing with every public improvement, like the property of private citizens.

IN THE FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT the canvass for Dwight Townsend is going on briskly. He is likely to receive a highly complimentary testimonial at the hands of the thorough democracy of the "Old First."

IT IS RUMORED in Washington that the Chief Justice is to resign, and that Justice Cartter, of the District of Columbia, is to succeed him. It is probable, if there is any truth in the rumor, that this sudden determination of the Chief Justice is caused by his continued ill health.

LOOK OUT FOR TRICKERY.—There are reports that trickery is to be practised in regard to certain regular nominations on the Tammany ticket. We hope not. Let us have a square up and down election to-morrow and no cheating round any part of the board.

THE ALBANY JOURNAL is pitching into Tom Fields for exercising undue influence over Governor Hoffman. What is the use of making a row about such a matter? Is the Governor to be blamed for sticking to his friends? It is a pity there are so few politicians of the same honorable sort.

Yachting—Fro, "used New Measurement.

A communication published elsewhere calls attention to the supposed inaccuracy of the existing rules of yacht measurement. It is carefully prepared and contains some good, though by no means novel, suggestions. The subject, in fact, has already been exhausted, and it is now somewhat doubtful whether the many interminable questions it involves would bear discussion.

STATE ELECTIONS, To-day and To-morrow. Two States hold their elections to-day—Arkansas and Louisiana—and eighteen to-morrow, Tuesday, November 8, namely:—Alabama, Delaware, Florida, Illinois, Kansas, Kentucky, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, New York, New Jersey, Nevada, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Virginia, Wisconsin. We give elsewhere lists of the candidates for the principal offices.

A BIT OF TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS was deposited in bank on Saturday that Ledwith will get forty-five thousand votes to-morrow. That is hardly up to Oakey Hall's expected fifty thousand majority, but it will be a respectable recognition of the popularity of the Judge.

Garibaldi a Failure.

Recent events have shown that popular judgment in favor of his political and military ability was premature. His reputation has been ephemeral. Unfortunately for himself and his friends he is again at once in a critical and a ridiculous position. He was lately reported to be in the vicinity of Besançon, in command of a force of twenty-five thousand French troops, made up of odds and ends, including many consolidated bands of Franciscans. The National Guards and the Gardes Mobiles refuse to fight under him, and he will find it difficult to harmonize and control the various elements of his command so as to make them really effective.

A CITY JOURNAL is continually growing in the manner in which the affairs of the Department of Public Parks are conducted. But Mayor Hall, in his speech on Saturday night, put a quietus on the assumptions of the grumblers, and by convincing proofs established the fact that a more earnest, upright and public-spirited Board of Commissioners could not have been appointed.

THE FOUNDED HOSPITAL FAIR.—The grand fair in aid of the project for the erection of a permanent asylum for foundlings in this city will be opened to-day in the armory of the Twenty-second Regiment. This fancy bazaar will be under the direction of the Sisters of Charity. Sister Irene, who has assumed the weight of the responsibility of the
