

his native town. That the ex-postmaster should feel a little annoyed by this unvarnished interpretation of really charitable acts is not at all surprising; but now that the turkey problem is settled, so far as Connecticut is concerned, will the ex-postmaster give his notions in regard to "Sublime Porie?"

Our Minister in Paris—His Correspondence Relative to the Late Stirring Events.

Few will deny that Minister Washburne had a most difficult task to perform since July last. No man who has taken the trouble to go over his voluminous correspondence will deny that, in circumstances of peculiar embarrassment, he has done honor to himself, to the people whom he represents and to the cause of humanity generally.

His first trouble was with the Germans. They sought his protection. It was a compliment to the United States. He felt and acknowledged it. France, first of all, refused to allow any German to leave the country, on the ground that he would add a unit of strength to the enemy.

Next France refused to allow any German to leave the country, on the ground that he would add a unit of strength to the enemy. Having communicated with the State Department at Washington, Mr. Washburne protested against this as a violation of all law and as contrary to all precedent.

Next France refused to allow any German to leave the country, on the ground that he would add a unit of strength to the enemy. Having communicated with the State Department at Washington, Mr. Washburne protested against this as a violation of all law and as contrary to all precedent.

Next France refused to allow any German to leave the country, on the ground that he would add a unit of strength to the enemy. Having communicated with the State Department at Washington, Mr. Washburne protested against this as a violation of all law and as contrary to all precedent.

Next France refused to allow any German to leave the country, on the ground that he would add a unit of strength to the enemy. Having communicated with the State Department at Washington, Mr. Washburne protested against this as a violation of all law and as contrary to all precedent.

Next France refused to allow any German to leave the country, on the ground that he would add a unit of strength to the enemy. Having communicated with the State Department at Washington, Mr. Washburne protested against this as a violation of all law and as contrary to all precedent.

Next France refused to allow any German to leave the country, on the ground that he would add a unit of strength to the enemy. Having communicated with the State Department at Washington, Mr. Washburne protested against this as a violation of all law and as contrary to all precedent.

Next France refused to allow any German to leave the country, on the ground that he would add a unit of strength to the enemy. Having communicated with the State Department at Washington, Mr. Washburne protested against this as a violation of all law and as contrary to all precedent.

Just as little to be denied that Minister Washburne's correspondence is not flattering to French vanity. It really does not seem as if the French people had learned much since the time of their first grand but bloody and somewhat fruitless revolution.

Counterfeit Dealers in Counterfeit Money.

One of the richest devices of rogues is that which has just come into vogue among the sharpers of this city—namely, that of duping the country flats by pretending to sell counterfeit bills at a moderate price on the receipt of genuine money, and selling them only sawdust and shavings.

The seizure of one of these gangs in Nassau street has revealed the fact that hundreds of merchants, farmers, laborers and people of all classes throughout the country have been ordering counterfeit money from this firm.

Next France refused to allow any German to leave the country, on the ground that he would add a unit of strength to the enemy. Having communicated with the State Department at Washington, Mr. Washburne protested against this as a violation of all law and as contrary to all precedent.

Next France refused to allow any German to leave the country, on the ground that he would add a unit of strength to the enemy. Having communicated with the State Department at Washington, Mr. Washburne protested against this as a violation of all law and as contrary to all precedent.

Next France refused to allow any German to leave the country, on the ground that he would add a unit of strength to the enemy. Having communicated with the State Department at Washington, Mr. Washburne protested against this as a violation of all law and as contrary to all precedent.

Next France refused to allow any German to leave the country, on the ground that he would add a unit of strength to the enemy. Having communicated with the State Department at Washington, Mr. Washburne protested against this as a violation of all law and as contrary to all precedent.

Next France refused to allow any German to leave the country, on the ground that he would add a unit of strength to the enemy. Having communicated with the State Department at Washington, Mr. Washburne protested against this as a violation of all law and as contrary to all precedent.

Next France refused to allow any German to leave the country, on the ground that he would add a unit of strength to the enemy. Having communicated with the State Department at Washington, Mr. Washburne protested against this as a violation of all law and as contrary to all precedent.

Next France refused to allow any German to leave the country, on the ground that he would add a unit of strength to the enemy. Having communicated with the State Department at Washington, Mr. Washburne protested against this as a violation of all law and as contrary to all precedent.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD

Queen Victoria's Visits to the English Aristocracy.

Queen Victoria is visiting Lady Clarendon at Watford. The explosion at Birmingham was much more serious than at first reported. Another death occurred, and at least thirty of the wounded cannot possibly recover.

ENGLAND.

Queen Victoria's Recreation—The Catastrophe at Birmingham. LONDON, Dec. 10, 1870. Queen Victoria is visiting Lady Clarendon at Watford.

The explosion at Birmingham was much more serious than at first reported. Another death occurred, and at least thirty of the wounded cannot possibly recover.

The Carrying Trade at Sea. LONDON, Dec. 10, 1870. The Pall Mall Gazette in a leader argues against the declaration of Paris of 1855, because it may have the effect of transferring the carrying trade almost entirely to the United States.

Russian Naval Orders. Three Russian vessels are building and nearly completed in Samuda's ship yards on the Thames. It is said that they are mercantile, not naval ships.

ITALY AND SPAIN. Court Audience to the Crown Bearers. TURIN, Dec. 9, 1870. The Spanish deputation was received to-day by the Duchess Aosta and the Prince of Carignano.

CALIFORNIA. San Francisco Gold Note Bank—Arrests for Vagrancy. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 11, 1870. The First National Gold Note Bank commences business here on January 2.

Wholesale Swindling in New Orleans. NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 12, 1870. Clayton, Williams & Co., liquor dealers here, uttered forged checks on Saturday, amounting to $60,000, on various banks, using the names of several prominent firms.

LOUISIANA. Heavy Failures in Cincinnati. CINCINNATI, Dec. 12, 1870. The liabilities of the firm of Thomas J. Biggs & Co., commission merchants, who have applied for the benefit of the bankrupt law, amount to nearly $200,000.

OHIO. A Noted Counterfeiter Sentenced—Insurances in the Late St. Louis Fire. ST. LOUIS, Dec. 12, 1870. Fred. Bindshaus, a notorious counterfeiter and coinager, who was convicted a few days ago in the United States District Court, was sentenced to-day to fifteen years' imprisonment.

MISSOURI. A Husband Murdered by His Wife and Her Royal Paramour. SYRACUSE, Dec. 12, 1870. The coroner's inquest in the case of Mr. Penzer, who was found dead in the canal on Thursday last, commences in this city on Saturday night.

THE ATLANTIC CABLE. The Atlantic Cable Company's repairing steamer Robert Lowe returned here yesterday from her attempt to repair the Atlantic cable. She will take in coals and supplies and sail again to-morrow.

EUROPEAN MARKETS. LONDON MONEY MARKET.—LONDON, Dec. 12.—3 P. M. Consols closed at 92 for money, 92 1/2 for the account. American securities closed quiet and steady.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE. Mayor Alex. Shaw, of Baltimore, President of the Mid-Lothian Coal Company, is at the Grand Central Hotel.

At an early hour yesterday morning John Mitchell, whose residence is not known, entered the residence of James Petrie, 65 West Houston street, by means of false keys, and packed up a large supply of silk dresses and clothing.

At New Brunswick, N. J., on Saturday night a frightful occurrence took place. A sturdy wooden building belonging to the New Jersey Railroad and later to St. Peter's Catholic church, caught fire and was razed to the ground.

At New Brunswick, N. J., on Saturday night a frightful occurrence took place. A sturdy wooden building belonging to the New Jersey Railroad and later to St. Peter's Catholic church, caught fire and was razed to the ground.

At New Brunswick, N. J., on Saturday night a frightful occurrence took place. A sturdy wooden building belonging to the New Jersey Railroad and later to St. Peter's Catholic church, caught fire and was razed to the ground.

At New Brunswick, N. J., on Saturday night a frightful occurrence took place. A sturdy wooden building belonging to the New Jersey Railroad and later to St. Peter's Catholic church, caught fire and was razed to the ground.

At New Brunswick, N. J., on Saturday night a frightful occurrence took place. A sturdy wooden building belonging to the New Jersey Railroad and later to St. Peter's Catholic church, caught fire and was razed to the ground.

At New Brunswick, N. J., on Saturday night a frightful occurrence took place. A sturdy wooden building belonging to the New Jersey Railroad and later to St. Peter's Catholic church, caught fire and was razed to the ground.

At New Brunswick, N. J., on Saturday night a frightful occurrence took place. A sturdy wooden building belonging to the New Jersey Railroad and later to St. Peter's Catholic church, caught fire and was razed to the ground.

At New Brunswick, N. J., on Saturday night a frightful occurrence took place. A sturdy wooden building belonging to the New Jersey Railroad and later to St. Peter's Catholic church, caught fire and was razed to the ground.

At New Brunswick, N. J., on Saturday night a frightful occurrence took place. A sturdy wooden building belonging to the New Jersey Railroad and later to St. Peter's Catholic church, caught fire and was razed to the ground.

At New Brunswick, N. J., on Saturday night a frightful occurrence took place. A sturdy wooden building belonging to the New Jersey Railroad and later to St. Peter's Catholic church, caught fire and was razed to the ground.

At New Brunswick, N. J., on Saturday night a frightful occurrence took place. A sturdy wooden building belonging to the New Jersey Railroad and later to St. Peter's Catholic church, caught fire and was razed to the ground.

At New Brunswick, N. J., on Saturday night a frightful occurrence took place. A sturdy wooden building belonging to the New Jersey Railroad and later to St. Peter's Catholic church, caught fire and was razed to the ground.

At New Brunswick, N. J., on Saturday night a frightful occurrence took place. A sturdy wooden building belonging to the New Jersey Railroad and later to St. Peter's Catholic church, caught fire and was razed to the ground.

At New Brunswick, N. J., on Saturday night a frightful occurrence took place. A sturdy wooden building belonging to the New Jersey Railroad and later to St. Peter's Catholic church, caught fire and was razed to the ground.

BOSTON MUNICIPAL ELECTION.

Success of Gaston, the Democratic and Citizens' Candidate for Mayor.

It is not often that Boston indulges in such a fierce municipal election as that which took place to-day. The contest was in many respects regarded as the most important, as it certainly was the most interesting, of any of like character which has taken place here for a number of years.

It was eminently a struggle between the "wigs" and "coats," the former element being headed by George O. Carpenter, the republican nominee for Mayor, and the latter portion being represented by William Gaston, the democratic and citizens' candidate for Mayor.

The election was a triumph for the democratic and citizens' candidate, William Gaston. He secured the support of the vast majority of the voters, and his victory was a decisive one. The republican candidate, George O. Carpenter, was defeated by a large margin.

The election was a triumph for the democratic and citizens' candidate, William Gaston. He secured the support of the vast majority of the voters, and his victory was a decisive one. The republican candidate, George O. Carpenter, was defeated by a large margin.

The election was a triumph for the democratic and citizens' candidate, William Gaston. He secured the support of the vast majority of the voters, and his victory was a decisive one. The republican candidate, George O. Carpenter, was defeated by a large margin.

The election was a triumph for the democratic and citizens' candidate, William Gaston. He secured the support of the vast majority of the voters, and his victory was a decisive one. The republican candidate, George O. Carpenter, was defeated by a large margin.

The election was a triumph for the democratic and citizens' candidate, William Gaston. He secured the support of the vast majority of the voters, and his victory was a decisive one. The republican candidate, George O. Carpenter, was defeated by a large margin.

The election was a triumph for the democratic and citizens' candidate, William Gaston. He secured the support of the vast majority of the voters, and his victory was a decisive one. The republican candidate, George O. Carpenter, was defeated by a large margin.

The election was a triumph for the democratic and citizens' candidate, William Gaston. He secured the support of the vast majority of the voters, and his victory was a decisive one. The republican candidate, George O. Carpenter, was defeated by a large margin.

The election was a triumph for the democratic and citizens' candidate, William Gaston. He secured the support of the vast majority of the voters, and his victory was a decisive one. The republican candidate, George O. Carpenter, was defeated by a large margin.

The election was a triumph for the democratic and citizens' candidate, William Gaston. He secured the support of the vast majority of the voters, and his victory was a decisive one. The republican candidate, George O. Carpenter, was defeated by a large margin.

The election was a triumph for the democratic and citizens' candidate, William Gaston. He secured the support of the vast majority of the voters, and his victory was a decisive one. The republican candidate, George O. Carpenter, was defeated by a large margin.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE BLACK CROOK.—Wigs.

The Black Crook, a grand and selling, overhauling, and every standard, every nook, corner, and every crevice of the carpenter work that could afford the faintest semblance of the comforts of a home for a human being of any shape or size, filled and packed close with demonstrative humanity.

The Black Crook, a grand and selling, overhauling, and every standard, every nook, corner, and every crevice of the carpenter work that could afford the faintest semblance of the comforts of a home for a human being of any shape or size, filled and packed close with demonstrative humanity.

The Black Crook, a grand and selling, overhauling, and every standard, every nook, corner, and every crevice of the carpenter work that could afford the faintest semblance of the comforts of a home for a human being of any shape or size, filled and packed close with demonstrative humanity.

The Black Crook, a grand and selling, overhauling, and every standard, every nook, corner, and every crevice of the carpenter work that could afford the faintest semblance of the comforts of a home for a human being of any shape or size, filled and packed close with demonstrative humanity.

The Black Crook, a grand and selling, overhauling, and every standard, every nook, corner, and every crevice of the carpenter work that could afford the faintest semblance of the comforts of a home for a human being of any shape or size, filled and packed close with demonstrative humanity.

The Black Crook, a grand and selling, overhauling, and every standard, every nook, corner, and every crevice of the carpenter work that could afford the faintest semblance of the comforts of a home for a human being of any shape or size, filled and packed close with demonstrative humanity.

The Black Crook, a grand and selling, overhauling, and every standard, every nook, corner, and every crevice of the carpenter work that could afford the faintest semblance of the comforts of a home for a human being of any shape or size, filled and packed close with demonstrative humanity.

The Black Crook, a grand and selling, overhauling, and every standard, every nook, corner, and every crevice of the carpenter work that could afford the faintest semblance of the comforts of a home for a human being of any shape or size, filled and packed close with demonstrative humanity.

The Black Crook, a grand and selling, overhauling, and every standard, every nook, corner, and every crevice of the carpenter work that could afford the faintest semblance of the comforts of a home for a human being of any shape or size, filled and packed close with demonstrative humanity.

The Black Crook, a grand and selling, overhauling, and every standard, every nook, corner, and every crevice of the carpenter work that could afford the faintest semblance of the comforts of a home for a human being of any shape or size, filled and packed close with demonstrative humanity.

The Black Crook, a grand and selling, overhauling, and every standard, every nook, corner, and every crevice of the carpenter work that could afford the faintest semblance of the comforts of a home for a human being of any shape or size, filled and packed close with demonstrative humanity.

The Black Crook, a grand and selling, overhauling, and every standard, every nook, corner, and every crevice of the carpenter work that could afford the faintest semblance of the comforts of a home for a human being of any shape or size, filled and packed close with demonstrative humanity.

DISHONEST DIAMOND DIGGERS.

The Latest Embezzlement Case—Two Clerks of Beckmans Street on Their Travels.

Mr. Swetzer is a merchant in Beckman street, and carries on a foreign and domestic hardware trade. Lately he had in his employ two persons of an enquiring and imaginative turn of mind, one of whom was of French descent, though born in Louisiana, and was twenty-eight years of age.

His wife, a beautiful young Frenchwoman, having died a little more than a year ago, when, after not quite a year of a wedded life, she had become a mother. Her death was ascribed by many to the cruel neglect and heartlessness of the husband, who, young and good looking, was sought and won by other associates, and forgot the girl who gave birth to a child who was devoted to her and whose parents cherished him as if he had been a son.

His wife, a beautiful young Frenchwoman, having died a little more than a year ago, when, after not quite a year of a wedded life, she had become a mother. Her death was ascribed by many to the cruel neglect and heartlessness of the husband, who, young and good looking, was sought and won by other associates, and forgot the girl who gave birth to a child who was devoted to her and whose parents cherished him as if he had been a son.

His wife, a beautiful young Frenchwoman, having died a little more than a year ago, when, after not quite a year of a wedded life, she had become a mother. Her death was ascribed by many to the cruel neglect and heartlessness of the husband, who, young and good looking, was sought and won by other associates, and forgot the girl who gave birth to a child who was devoted to her and whose parents cherished him as if he had been a son.

His wife, a beautiful young Frenchwoman, having died a little more than a year ago, when, after not quite a year of a wedded life, she had become a mother. Her death was ascribed by many to the cruel neglect and heartlessness of the husband, who, young and good looking, was sought and won by other associates, and forgot the girl who gave birth to a child who was devoted to her and whose parents cherished him as if he had been a son.

His wife, a beautiful young Frenchwoman, having died a little more than a year ago, when, after not quite a year of a wedded life, she had become a mother. Her death was ascribed by many to the cruel neglect and heartlessness of the husband, who, young and good looking, was sought and won by other associates, and forgot the girl who gave birth to a child who was devoted to her and whose parents cherished him as if he had been a son.

His wife, a beautiful young Frenchwoman, having died a little more than a year ago, when, after not quite a year of a wedded life, she had become a mother. Her death was ascribed by many to the cruel neglect and heartlessness of the husband, who, young and good looking, was sought and won by other associates, and forgot the girl who gave birth to a child who was devoted to her and whose parents cherished him as if he had been a son.

His wife, a beautiful young Frenchwoman, having died a little more than a year ago, when, after not quite a year of a wedded life, she had become a mother. Her death was ascribed by many to the cruel neglect and heartlessness of the husband, who, young and good looking, was sought and won by other associates, and forgot the girl who gave birth to a child who was devoted to her and whose parents cherished him as if he had been a son.

His wife, a beautiful young Frenchwoman, having died a little more than a year ago, when, after not quite a year of a wedded life, she had become a mother. Her death was ascribed by many to the cruel neglect and heartlessness of the husband, who, young and good looking, was sought and won by other associates, and forgot the girl who gave birth to a child who was devoted to her and whose parents cherished him as if he had been a son.

His wife, a beautiful young Frenchwoman, having died a little more than a year ago, when, after not quite a year of a wedded life, she had become a mother. Her death was ascribed by many to the cruel neglect and heartlessness of the husband, who, young and good looking, was sought and won by other associates, and forgot the girl who gave birth to a child who was devoted to her and whose parents cherished him as if he had been a son.

His wife, a beautiful young Frenchwoman, having died a little more than a year ago, when, after not quite a year of a wedded life, she had become a mother. Her death was ascribed by many to the cruel neglect and heartlessness of the husband, who, young and good looking, was sought and won by other associates, and forgot the girl who gave birth to a child who was devoted to her and whose parents cherished him as if he had been a son.

His wife, a beautiful young Frenchwoman, having died a little more than a year ago, when, after not quite a year of a wedded life, she had become a mother. Her death was ascribed by many to the cruel neglect and heartlessness of the husband, who, young and good looking, was sought and won by other associates, and forgot the girl who gave birth to a child who was devoted to her and whose parents cherished him as if he had been a son.